Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On October 1, 2008, Discovery granted options to purchase its Series A common stock and cash-settled stock appreciation rights to certain of its named executive officers as follows:

Brad Singer, Chief Financial Officer: In accordance with the terms of Mr. Singer's employment agreement with Discovery, he was granted options to purchase an aggregate of 808,371 shares of Series A common stock at an exercise price of $17.72 per share. Mr. Singer's grant agreements are generally identical to the Company's standard grant agreements, although Mr. Singer's grant of options over 527,198 shares of Series A common stock contains specific provisions that implement terms of Mr. Singer's employment agreement, including, but not limited to: if the Company terminates Mr. Singer's employment other than for Cause (as defined in his employment agreement), Mr. Singer terminates his employment for Good Reason (as defined in his employment agreement) or Mr. Singer's employment with the Company is terminated in certain other circumstances before those options are fully vested, the options will become 100% vested for a period of 150 days following the termination of Mr. Singer's employment. Mr. Singer's employment agreement provides that his initial option grant would be made at an exercise price that was the higher of fair market value for the Discovery Holding Company Series A common stock on July 15, 2008 or fair market value for Discovery Communications, Inc. Series A common stock on the grant date. The options vest in four equal annual installments beginning on July 15, 2009 and expire on October 1, 2015. Mr. Singer's grant agreements are filed as exhibits to this report.

John Hendricks, Chairman of the Board and Founder: In accordance with the terms of Mr. Hendricks' Equity Stake Transition Term Sheet, Mr. Hendricks was granted options to purchase an aggregate of 5,708,289 shares of Series A common stock at an exercise price of $14.53, which was the closing price on the date of grant. The options vest in four equal annual installments beginning on October 1, 2009 and expire on October 1, 2018. Mr. Hendricks' grant agreement is generally identical to the Company's standard grant agreements, although Mr. Hendricks' option agreement includes specific provisions that implement the terms of his Equity Stake Transition Term Sheet as follows: if Mr. Hendricks' employment ends on a termination without Cause (as defined in the Equity Stake Transition Term Sheet), retirement (defined as voluntary termination of employment after reaching age 65), or in certain other circumstances, the exercisability of his options will accelerate and he will be able to exercise the options until the end of their original term, rather than for a more limited period. In addition, as part of this grant and the Equity Stake Transition Term Sheet, Mr. Hendricks has agreed to certain restrictive covenants related to post-employment competition and to releasing claims on termination. The option grant provides for forfeiture of the options or disgorgement of option gains (based on the spread at exercise) if he either fails to provide an effective release or violates the restrictive covenants. Mr. Hendricks' grant agreement is filed as an exhibit to this report.

Mark Hollinger, Chief Operating Officer: In connection with the vesting of a portion of Mr. Hollinger's outstanding DAP units on October 1, 2008, Mr. Hollinger was granted two cash-settled stock appreciation rights. One grant, for 269,749 units, becomes exercisable on March 15, 2009 and expires on March 15, 2010. The other grant, for 269,750 units, will be automatically exercised on March 15, 2010. Both grants have an initial price of $14.53 per unit. Mr. Hollinger's award was made on the same terms as awards to other employees. The form of grant agreement is filed as an exhibit to this report.

Additionally, Discovery amended its Discovery Appreciation Plan to reflect that the units awarded under the Plan should track the value of Discovery's Series A common stock rather than that of its predecessor, Discovery Holding Company, and other similar changes to reflect that the merger had taken place. Discovery also amended the Plan to have Change in Control provisions that were consistent with those in the 2005 Incentive Plan. A copy of the Discovery Appreciation Plan, reflecting those amendments is filed herewith.
