Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On September 27, 2012, Hartford Life, Inc. ("Seller"), an indirect wholly-owned subsidiary of The Hartford Financial Services Group, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into a Purchase and Sale Agreement (the "Purchase Agreement") to sell to Prudential Financial, Inc. ("Buyer") the Company's assets relating to its individual life insurance business (the "Business") for cash consideration of $615 million. The consideration will be allocated between ceding commissions paid to Cedants in connection with Reinsurance Agreements (as defined below) and the purchase price paid to Seller in respect of other assets included in the transaction. The Company is also a party to the Purchase Agreement for certain limited purposes stated therein, including to guarantee the obligations of Seller under the Purchase Agreement for six years from the closing date (or such longer period to resolve any then pending claims).

In connection with the transaction, Buyer and the Cedants have agreed to enter into Reinsurance Agreements on the closing date. Each of (i) Hartford Life Insurance Company, (ii) Hartford Life and Annuity Insurance Company, and (iii) Hartford Life and Accident Insurance Company (collectively, "Cedants") shall cede to the Buyer insurance policies related to the Business. Such Reinsurance Agreements shall not relieve the Cedants of their primary liability to policyholders.

The Purchase Agreement and other transaction documents contain customary representations and warranties made by Seller and certain affiliates and customary covenants regarding the Business, and provide for indemnification, among other things, for breaches of those representations, warranties and covenants.

Closing of the transactions is subject to satisfaction or waiver of customary conditions, including approvals from applicable state departments of insurance.
