Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 9, 2005, Callisto Pharmaceuticals, Inc. (the “Company”) entered into Extension and Severance Compensation Agreements (the “Agreements”) with each of Gary S. Jacob, the Company’s Chief Executive Officer and Donald H. Picker, the Company’s Executive Vice President, R&D (collectively, the “Executives”). The Agreements extend the term of the employment agreement for each of the Executives to June 13, 2007.

Each of the Agreements provide that in the event there is a change of control of the Company and the Executive’s employment by the Company shall have been terminated within two years after a change in control by him for good reason or by the Company and such termination did not occur as a result of (i) the Executive’s death, (ii) the Executive’s disability, (iii) the Executive’s retirement or (iv) the Executive’s termination for cause, the Executive shall be entitled to an amount equal to the compensation due to the Executive for the Employment Term under the Executive’s Employment Agreement for the time remaining of such Employment Term. In addition, all of the Executive’s unvested stock options shall immediately and irrevocably vest and the exercise period of such options will be extended to the later of the longest period permitted by the Company’s stock option plans or ten years following termination.
