In the Proposal Letter, Mr. Tu, among other things, (i) proposes to acquire the stock of the Company held by public stockholders (other than himself and certain members of the management and affiliated entities, who will continue to hold equity) for $6.50 per share, which represents a premium of 58.5% to the Company’s closing price on March 7, 2011; (ii) reported to the Board on the preparatory work he has done to develop the Proposal, including preliminary discussions with potential sources of debt financing; (iii) expressed his intention to finance the Acquisition with a combination of debt and equity, with himself providing the necessary equity from his own holdings of Common Stock; (iv) reiterated that he currently has no arrangements with potential sources of debt or equity financing, and that he does not propose to enter into any exclusivity agreement prior to reaching transaction terms approved by the Board; and (v) upon the Board's approval, he is prepared to proceed with arranging financing and to finalize the terms of the Transaction in definitive transaction documents.

The Proposal Letter provides that no binding obligation on the part of the Company or Mr. Tu shall arise with respect to the proposed Transaction unless and until definitive agreements have been executed.
