Item 1.01. Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On June 2, 2005, upon completion of the acquisition of Crosstown Traders, Inc. ("Crosstown"), Charming Shoppes, Inc. (the "Company"), entered into an Amendment and Joinder Agreement (the "Joinder Agreement") by and among Wachovia Bank, National Association, as agent (the "Agent") under the Company's existing Amended and Restated Loan and Security Agreement, dated January 29, 2004 (the "Loan Agreement"), Chestnut Acquisition Sub, Inc., a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Company ("Chestnut"), each borrower under the Loan Agreement, and Crosstown and each of its subsidiaries. In the Joinder Agreement, Crosstown and each of its subsidiaries joined as borrowers under the Loan Agreement, a copy of which was filed as Exhibit 99.2 to the Company's report on Form 8-K dated February 4, 2004.

Under the Joinder Agreement, in consideration for the right to receive loans, advances and other financial accommodations under the Loan Agreement, Crosstown and its subsidiaries granted to the Agent a continuing security interest in and lien upon certain of their currently existing and later acquired or arising assets and agreed to become jointly and severally liable with each other existing borrower under the Loan Agreement for the payment of any obligations of the borrowers under the Loan Agreement. In addition, pursuant to the Joinder Agreement, Chestnut, Crosstown and Figi's Inc, a wholly-owned subsidiary of Crosstown, agreed to be bound by the provisions of the Shared Pledge Agreement, dated August 16, 2001, by and among certain borrowers and guarantors in favor of the Agent and the lenders under the Loan Agreement.

As a result of the Joinder Agreement, the Company is now a guarantor of the payment of any obligations owed to the Agent and the lenders by Crosstown and its subsidiaries.

Item 2.01. Completion of Acquisition or Disposition of Assets.

On June 2, 2005, the Company completed its previously announced acquisition of all of the capital stock of Crosstown Traders, Inc., a direct marketer of woman's apparel, footwear, accessories and specialty gifts, for approximately $218 million in cash and the assumption of Crosstown's indebtedness of approximately $40 million. The Company, through its subsidiary Chestnut Acquisition Sub, Inc., acquired all of the outstanding capital stock of Crosstown held by affiliates of JPMorgan Partners, the private equity arm of J.P. Morgan Chase & Co., and the other stockholders and optionholders of Crosstown.

The Stock Purchase Agreement dated May 19, 2005 (the "Purchase Agreement") by and among Chestnut, the Company, Crosstown, each of the stockholders and optionholders of Crosstown whose names are set forth on the signature pages thereto and J.P. Morgan Partners (BHCA), L.P., as representative for the selling parties, is attached as Exhibit 2.1 to this report on Form 8-K and is incorporated herein by reference. Subject to certain limitations and conditions, the selling parties have agreed to indemnify the Company and Chestnut for losses related to breaches of certain representations, warranties and covenants in the Purchase Agreement and certain other matters specified in the Purchase Agreement. The representations and warranties contained in the Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were solely for the benefit of the parties to the Purchase Agreement, and are subject to limitations agreed to by the contracting parties, including being qualified by disclosures between the parties. These representations and warranties were in certain instances made for the purposes of allocating contractual risk between the parties to the Purchase Agreement instead of establishing these matters as facts, and are in certain instances subject to standards of materiality applicable to the contracting parties that may differ from those applicable to investors. Accordingly, they may not be relied upon by investors as statements of factual information.

The Company financed the acquisition with existing cash, borrowings under the Company's revolving credit facility and proceeds received in connection with the previously announced securitization of Crosstown's apparel-related accounts receivable.
