NOTES TO CONDENSED CONSOLIDATED FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

(Unaudited)

NOTE A Basis of Presentation

Haverty Furniture Companies, Inc. (Havertys, the Company, we, our, or us) is a full service home furnishings retailer. The Company operates all of its stores using the Havertys brand and does not franchise its concept. The accompanying unaudited condensed consolidated financial statements have been prepared in accordance with the instructions to Form 10-Q and therefore do not include all information and footnotes required by generally accepted accounting principles in the United States for complete financial statements. The financial statements include the accounts of the Company and its wholly-owned subsidiaries and one variable interest entity under FIN 46. All significant intercompany accounts and transactions have been eliminated in consolidation. In the opinion of management, all adjustments of a normal recurring nature considered necessary for a fair presentation have been included. Certain prior year amounts have been reclassified to conform to the current presentation.

The preparation of condensed consolidated financial statements in conformity with accounting principles in the United States requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosures of contingent assets and liabilities as of the date of the consolidated financial statements and reported amounts of revenue and expenses during the reporting period. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

For further information, refer to the consolidated financial statements and footnotes thereto included in Havertys Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006.

NOTE B Recent Accounting Standards and Pronouncements

In July 2006, the Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB) issued FASB Interpretation No. 48, Accounting for Uncertainty in Income Taxes (FIN 48). FIN 48 clarifies the accounting for uncertainty in income taxes recognized in an enterprise's financial statements in accordance with Statement of Financial Accounting Standards (SFAS) No. 109, Accounting for Income Taxes. FIN 48 prescribes a recognition threshold and measurement attributes for the financial statement recognition and measurement of a tax position taken or expected to be taken in a tax return. FIN 48 also provides guidance on derecognition, classification, interest and penalties, accounting in interim periods, disclosure and transition.

Our Company and its subsidiaries file income tax returns in the U.S. federal jurisdiction and various state and local jurisdictions. The Company is no longer subject to U.S. federal income tax examinations by tax authorities for years before 2004. The examination of the Company's U.S. federal income tax return for 2003 was completed during 2006 and there were no resulting adjustments required.

With respect to state and local jurisdictions, with limited exceptions, the Company and its subsidiaries are no longer subject to income tax audits for years before 2003. Although the outcome of tax audits is always uncertain, we believe that adequate amounts of tax, interest and penalties have been provided for any adjustments that are expected to result from these years.

Edgar Filing: HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANIES INC - Form 10-Q

We adopted the provisions of FIN 48 effective January 1, 2007. As a result of the adoption of FIN 48, we recorded a $300,000 positive cumulative effect adjustment to the January 1, 2007 balance of retained earnings. As of January 1, 2007, the gross amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $1.4 million. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. Included as a component of the unrecognized tax benefit of $1.4 million, the Company had accrued interest and penalties of approximately $0.4 million. If recognized, these tax benefits would favorably affect the effective tax rate of future periods by approximately $0.9 million.

HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANIES, INC. AND SUBSIDIARIES

(Unaudited)

It is reasonably possible that the amount of the unrecognized benefit with respect to our uncertain tax positions will increase or decrease within the next 12 months. These changes may be the result of settlement of ongoing audits related to certain state taxation issues. At this time, an estimate of the range of the reasonably possible outcomes cannot be made.

NOTE C Account Receivable

Accounts receivable balances resulting from certain credit promotions have scheduled payment amounts which extend beyond one year. A portion of the receivables are classified as long-term based on the specific programs' historical collection rate, which is generally faster than the scheduled rate. The portions of receivables contractually due beyond one year classified as current and long-term are estimates. The timing of actual collections that are contractually due beyond one year may be different from the amounts estimated to be collected within one year. However, based on experience, we do not believe the collection rate will differ significantly. At June 30, 2007 and 2006, the accounts receivable contractually due beyond one year from the respective balance sheet dates totaled approximately $19.5 million and $16.3 million, respectively.

NOTE D Interim LIFO Calculations

An actual valuation of inventory under the LIFO method can be made only at the end of each year based on actual inventory levels and recent costs. Accordingly, interim LIFO calculations must necessarily be based on management's estimates. Since these are affected by factors beyond management's control, interim calculations are subject to the final year-end LIFO inventory valuations.

NOTE E Earnings Per Share

We report our earnings per share using the two-class method as required by the emerging Issues Task Force (EITF) Issue No. 03-6, Participating Securities and the Two-Class Method under FASB Statement No. 128, Earnings Per Share (SFAS 128). EITF 03-6 requires the income per share for each class of common stock to be calculated assuming 100% of our earnings are distributed as dividends to each class of common stock based on their contractual rights.

The Common Stock of the Company has a preferential dividend rate of at least 105% of the dividend paid on the Class A Common Stock. The Class A Common Stock, which has ten votes per share as opposed to one vote per share for the Common Stock (on all matters other than the election of directors), may be converted at any time on a one-for-one basis into Common Stock at the option of the holder of the Class A Common Stock.

The amount of earnings used in calculating diluted earnings per share of Common Stock is equal to net income since the Class A shares are assumed to be converted. Diluted earnings per share of Class A Common Stock includes the effect of dilutive common stock options and awards which reduces the amount of undistributed earnings allocated to the Class A Common Stock.

NOTE H Pension Plans

We have a defined benefit pension plan covering substantially all employees hired on or before December 31, 2005. The pension plan was closed to any employees hired after that date. The benefits are based on years of service and the employee's final average compensation. Effective January 1, 2007, no new benefits are earned under this plan for additional years of service after December 31, 2006.

We also have non-qualified, non-contributory supplemental executive retirement plans (SERP) for employees whose retirement benefits are reduced due to their annual compensation levels. The total amount of annual retirement benefits per the plans that may be paid to an eligible participant in the SERP from all sources (Retirement Plan, Social Security and the SERP) may not exceed $125,000. Under these supplemental plans, which are not funded, we pay benefits directly to covered participants beginning at their retirement.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of OperationsForward-Looking Information

Certain statements we make in this report, and other written or oral statements made by or on behalf of the Company, may constitute forward-looking statements within the meaning of the Securities Act of 1933, and the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended by the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995, 15 U.S.C.A. Sections 77Z-2 and 78U-5 (Supp. 1996). Examples of such statements in this report include descriptions of our plans with respect to new store openings and relocations, our plans to enter new markets and expectations relating to our continuing growth. The forward-looking statements regarding future events and our future results are based on current expectations, estimates, forecasts and projections about the industry and markets in which we operate and the beliefs and assumptions of our management. Readers are cautioned that these forward-looking statements are only predictions and are subject to risks, uncertainties and assumptions that are difficult to predict. Therefore, actual results may differ materially and adversely from those expressed in any forward-looking statement. Such statements speak only as of the date they are made and we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of future events, new information or otherwise. The following are some of the factors that could cause Haverty's actual results to differ materially from the expected results described in our forward-looking statements: the ability to maintain favorable arrangements and relationships with key suppliers (including domestic and international sourcing); any disruptions in the flow of imported merchandise; conditions affecting the availability and affordability of retail and distribution real estate sites; the ability to attract, train and retain highly qualified associates to staff existing and new stores, distribution facilities and corporate positions; general economic and financial market conditions which affect consumer confidence and the spending environment for big ticket items; competition in the retail furniture industry; and changes in laws and regulations, including changes in accounting standards, tax statutes or regulations.

Operating Results and Financial Condition

The following discussion of Haverty's financial condition and results of operations should be read together with our condensed consolidated financial statements and related notes thereto included herein.

Net Sales

Our sales are generated by customer purchases of home furnishings in our retail stores and revenue is recognized upon delivery to the customer. The following outlines our sales and comparable store sales increases or decreases for the periods indicated:

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

Total sales decreased $23.9 million or 11.3% and comparable stores sales decreased 12.7% or $26.4 million in the second quarter of 2007. The remaining $2.5 million of the change in sales in the second quarter of 2007 was an increase from new and otherwise non-comparable stores. Stores are non-comparable if open for less than one year or if the selling square footage has been changed significantly during the past 12 full months. Large clearance sales events from warehouse or temporary locations are excluded from comparable store sales, as are periods when stores are closed or being remodeled.

The housing industry has shown significant weakness and the financial markets have undergone recent turmoil associated with the sub-prime mortgage sector. Higher energy costs and geo-political concerns have contributed to consumer's reluctance to increase spending for big-ticket furniture items.

During the second quarter of 2007, we promoted longer term no interest financing and special pricing on select merchandise to help stimulate sales. We also reduced our prices on our clearance merchandise to more quickly reduce their levels. We do not plan to be overly aggressive with our general merchandise pricing, except during traditional sales events as we do not believe such stimulus would be sufficiently accretive to earnings to offset the risk of negatively impacting our everyday low pricing integrity with our customers over the longer term.

The second quarter is historically the weakest of the year for Havertys. We are encouraged by the progress made in June and July in closing the gap versus last year's sales volume and by the expectation of the typically stronger seasonal demand experienced in our third and fourth quarters.

Gross Profit

Cost of goods sold consists primarily of the purchase price of the merchandise together with inbound freight, handling within our distribution centers and transportation costs.

Our gross profit is largely dependent upon merchandising and warehousing capabilities, vendor pricing, transportation costs and the mix of products sold. The continued improvements related to the products imported from Asia have also generated good values for us. Many retailers have used the decreased costs to support their heavy promotional pricing. Our approach has been to offer products with greater value at our established middle to upper-middle price points.

Gross profit for the second quarter of 2007 decreased 64 basis points as a percent of net sales compared to the prior year period and 135 basis points compared to the first quarter of 2007. This decrease is due mostly to the impact of greater sell through of clearance items at the beginning of the second quarter. Management of our merchandise flow includes the reduction of slower moving products and close-out inventory. The sales of these items had been slow during previous periods and we stimulated their sales during the second quarter by reducing their selling prices. We also adjusted our purchases due to slower business conditions resulting in a reduction in inventory of $15.5 million or 13.1% as compared to a year ago and $21.6 million from year-end levels.

Our gross profit is also impacted by the level of sales financed using our in-house long-term no interest credit promotions. During the six months ended June 30, 2007, this impact was $0.7 million more than the comparable year ago period. We also used pricing promotions as part of a ticket building effort as an additional sales stimulus. Comparatively, gross profit for the first six months of 2006 benefited from a favorable adjustment related to inventory valuation of $0.5 million. We expect gross profit margins for the remainder of the year to be similar to or slightly better than those experienced in the first half of 2007.

Substantially all of our occupancy and home delivery costs are included in selling, general and administrative expenses as are a portion of our warehousing expenses. Accordingly, our gross profit may not be comparable to those entities that include these costs in cost of goods sold.

Selling, General and Administrative Expenses

Selling, general and administrative (SG&A) expenses are comprised of five categories: selling; occupancy; delivery and certain warehousing costs; advertising; and administrative. Selling expenses primarily are comprised of compensation of sales associates and sales support staff and fees paid to credit card and third party finance companies. Occupancy costs include rents, depreciation charges, insurance and property taxes, repairs and maintenance expenses and utility costs. Delivery costs include personnel, fuel costs, and depreciation and rental charges for rolling stock. Warehouse costs include demurrage, supplies, depreciation and rental charges for equipment. Advertising expenses are primarily media production and space, direct mail costs and market research expenses. Administrative expenses are comprised of compensation costs for store management, information systems, executive, finance, merchandising, supply chain, advertising, real estate and human resource departments.

Our SG&A costs decreased $4.9 million compared to the prior year quarter and $8.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007.

Selling expenses decreased as the primary component, sales commissions and related costs are directly linked to sales volume. Commissions for the second quarter were down $2.1 million and $2.7 million for the first six months of 2007 as compared to the 2006 periods. The costs of the promotional credit programs offered through a third-party finance company decreased $0.8 million and $2.0 million compared to the prior year quarter and six months ended June 30, respectively. This reduction was due in part to the types and frequency of promotions offered through the third-party and the lower usage of those programs. Credit program costs are expected to rise in the second half of 2007 relative to both the first half of 2007 and last year's second half due to greater anticipated usage.

Occupancy costs increased $1.0 million in the second quarter as compared to the prior year period and $2.3 million for the six months ended June 30, 2007. The majority of the increase is due to the six new retail locations opened since the 2006 periods.

Delivery expenses were down as expected in the second quarter as compared to the prior year period. In response to the lower sales levels we adjusted our routes in many of our markets, reducing total headcount and related delivery expenses. These decreases were partly offset by the costs generated due to the operations of new stores.

We adjusted our advertising spending in 2007 using methodologies designed to reach our target customer based on historical data points. This decreased our costs by $0.9 million and $3.2 million in the quarter and six months ended June 30, compared to the prior year periods, respectively.

Our administrative costs were down $0.6 million in the second quarter and $2.2 million for the first six months of 2007 as compared to the 2006 periods. This decrease is due in large part to the reduction in the accrued non-equity incentive amounts because of lower comparative pre-tax income. Additionally, there was a significant decrease in expense due to the cessation of pension plan benefits, partly offset by increased 401(k) matching contributions.

Credit Service Charge Revenue and Allowance for Doubtful Accounts

Edgar Filing: HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANIES INC - Form 10-Q

The in-house financing offers most frequently chosen by our customers carry no interest for 13 to 24 months and require equal monthly payments. These programs and the similar 12-month program generate very minor credit revenue, but incur lower bad debts relative to our deferred payment in-house credit programs. In addition, we offer our customers two or three different credit promotions through a third-party credit provider. Sales financed by this provider are not Havertys' receivables and accordingly we do not have any credit risk or service responsibility for these accounts, and there is no credit or collection recourse to Havertys. The most popular program offered through the third-party provider for the second quarter of 2007 were no interest offers requiring 31 to 33 equal monthly payments.

Accounts receivable	$ 81,850	$ 75,624
Allowance for doubtful accounts	1,800	1,840
Allowance as a % of accounts receivable	2.2%	2.4%

Our allowance for doubtful accounts as a percentage of receivables is slightly lower in 2007 due to continued record low delinquency and problem category percentages.

Interest expense (income), net

Interest expense (income), net is primarily comprised of interest expense on the Company's debt and the amortization of the discount income on the Company's receivables which have deferred or no interest payment terms. The following table summarizes the components of interest expense (income), net (in thousands):

	Quarter Ended June 30,		Six Months Ended June 30,
	2007	2006	2007	2006
Interest expense on debt	$ 1,067	$ 1,104	$ 2,106	$ 2,043
Amortization of discount on accounts receivable	(1,108)	(856)	(2,142)	(1,700)
Other, including capitalized interest and interest income	(53)	(152)	(116)	(281)
	$ (94)	$ 96	$ (152)	$ 62

Edgar Filing: HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANIES INC - Form 10-Q

Interest expense on debt was relatively unchanged in 2007 as the increases in average debt were offset by slightly lower average borrowing rates.

Item 2. Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations (Continued)

We make available to customers in-house interest free credit programs, which generally range from 3 to 24 months. In connection with those programs which are greater than 12 months, we are required to discount the payments to be received over the expected life (considering prepayments) of the interest free credit program. On the basis of the credit worthiness of the customers and our low delinquency rates under these programs, we discount the receivables utilizing the prime rate of interest at the date of sale. The discount is recorded as a charge to cost of goods sold and as a contra receivable and is amortized as a credit to interest expense over the life of the receivable.

The amount of amortization has increased as the level of receivables generated under longer term, free interest financing promotions has increased.

Other (income) expense

Other (income) expense includes any gains or losses on the sales of real estate and miscellaneous income or expense items which are non-recurring in nature. We had gains from the sale of certain properties of $0.2 million and $1.2 million in the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively.

Provision for Income Taxes

The tax rate was 38.5% and 38.1% for the six months ended June 30, 2007 and 2006, respectively. The effective tax rate differs from the statutory rate primarily due to state income taxes, net of the Federal tax benefit. The increase in the rate in 2007 is due in part to the change in tax law in Texas.

We adopted the provisions of FIN 48 effective January 1, 2007. As a result of the adoption of FIN 48, we recorded a $300,000 positive cumulative effect adjustment to the January 1, 2007 balance of retained earnings. As of January 1, 2007, the gross amount of unrecognized tax benefits was $1.4 million. The Company recognizes accrued interest and penalties related to unrecognized tax benefits in income tax expense. Included as a component of the unrecognized tax benefit of $1.4 million, the Company had accrued interest and penalties of approximately $0.4 million. If recognized, these tax benefits would favorably affect the effective tax rate of future periods by approximately $0.9 million.

Based on current tax laws, the Company's effective tax rate for 2007 is expected to be 38.5% before considering the effect of any discrete items that may affect our tax rate in future periods. There were no discrete items in the first six months of 2007.

As of June 30, 2007, the Company's current accrued liability for unrecognized tax benefits which includes related interest and penalties was $0.5 million. These amounts are related to various state tax audits which we expect will be concluded within the next twelve months. As of June 30, 2007, the non-current portion of our income tax liability related to unrecognized tax benefits which includes accrued interest and penalties was $0.5 million. At this time, the settlement period for the non-current portion of our income tax liability cannot be determined; however it is currently not expected to be within the next twelve months. The Company will include its income tax liabilities in the Contractual Obligations table in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2007.

Balance Sheet Changes for the Six Months Ended June 30, 2007

Our balance sheet as of June 30, 2007, as compared to our balance sheet as of December 31, 2006, was impacted by the following:

- decrease in inventories of $21.6 million as adjustments in purchasing have been made to reflect lower current and anticipated sales volumes and a weaker selling environment;
- increase in prepaid expenses of $7.5 million, primarily due to payments of estimated income taxes;
- decrease in accounts payable of $7.2 million, primarily due to reductions in inventory purchases; and

decrease in accrued liabilities of $6.7 million, as liabilities for non-equity incentive pay, property taxes and other annual expenses were reset.

Liquidity and Capital Resources

The following discusses the source of our cash flows and commitments for the first six months of 2007 which impact our liquidity and capital resources on both a short-term and long-term basis.

Cash provided by operations was $11.3 million. Our net loss was $0.5 million and depreciation and amortization was $11.3 million. We experienced reductions in inventories of $21.6 million offset in part by decreases in accounts payable and accrued liabilities of $14.8 million.

Cash flows used in investing activities was $4.9 million. These were primarily for capital expenditures of $5.9 million offset in part by $0.9 million in proceeds from the sales of property and equipment.

Cash flows used in financing activities were $9.7 million as we made debt repayments of $6.6 million and paid $3.0 million in dividends.

Financings

We have revolving lines of credit available for general corporate purposes and as interim financing for capital expenditures. These credit facilities are syndicated with five commercial banks and are comprised of two revolving lines totaling $80.0 million that terminate in August 2010. Borrowings under these facilities are unsecured and accrue interest at LIBOR plus a spread that is based on a fixed-charge coverage ratio. The amount outstanding under these facilities at June 30, 2007 was $12.2 million. We did have letters of credit in the amount of $5.3 million outstanding at June 30, 2007 and these amounts are considered part of the facilities usage. Our unused capacity was $62.5 million at June 30, 2007.

Store Expansion and Capital Expenditures

We have opened new stores and entered new markets during the past twelve months and made continued improvements and relocations of our store base. Our total selling square footage has increased an average of approximately 4.2% annually over the past 10 years.

We will add approximately 2.7% retail square footage during 2007 by opening a net of three new stores. During the first quarter we opened a new store in Austin, Texas and entered the Huntsville, Alabama market in early May. We will open additional stores in the Tampa, Florida and Metro-DC markets in the second half of 2007. Replacement stores in Wilmington, North Carolina and Birmingham, Alabama are expected to open in the fourth quarter of 2007. Our strategy is to pursue opportunities in markets which we can serve using our existing distribution.

Edgar Filing: HAVERTY FURNITURE COMPANIES INC - Form 10-Q

Assuming continuation of the difficult macro environment for residential furniture sales, the opportunities for store locations are likely to rise sharply as weak retailers are unable to withstand a prolonged decline in business.

Many of our new stores under development are leased locations which reduces our capital investment. Our planned expenditures for 2007 are $15.5 million for stores, distribution and information technology. Capital expenditures for stores do not necessarily coincide with the years in which the store opens. Cash balances, funds from operations, proceeds from sales of properties and bank lines of credit are expected to be adequate to finance our planned capital expenditures.

Item 3. Quantitative and Qualitative Disclosures About Market Risk

There have been no material changes with respect to our derivative financial instruments and other financial instruments and their related market risk since the date of the Company's most recent annual report. We held no derivative financial instruments at June 30, 2007.

Item 4. Controls and Procedures

As of the end of the period covered by this report, an evaluation was performed under the supervision and with the participation of our management, including the Chief Executive Officer (CEO) and Chief Financial Officer (CFO) of the effectiveness of the design and operation of the Company's disclosure controls and procedures. Based on that evaluation, our management, including the CEO and CFO, concluded that the Company's disclosure controls and procedures were effective to provide reasonable assurance that information required to be disclosed in the Company's reports under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is recorded, processed, summarized, and reported within the time periods specified in the Securities and Exchange Commission's rules and forms and that such information is accumulated and communicated to our management, including the CEO and CFO, as appropriate, to allow timely decisions regarding disclosure.

PART II. OTHER INFORMATIONItem 1.A Risk Factors

In addition to the other information set forth in this report, you should carefully consider the factors discussed in Part I, Item 1A. Risk Factors in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2006, which could materially affect our business, financial condition or future results. The risks described in this report and in our Annual Report on Form 10-K are not the only risks facing our Company. Additional risks and uncertainties not currently known to us or that we currently deem to be immaterial also may materially adversely affect our business, financial condition or future results.

Item 2. Unregistered Sales of Equity Securities and Use of Proceeds

The following table presents information with respect to our repurchase of Havertys common stock during the second quarter of 2007:

		(a)	(b)	(c)	(d)
		Total Number of Shares Purchased	Average Price Paid Per Share	Total Number of Shares Purchased as Part of Publicly Announced Plans or Programs	Maximum Number that May Yet be Purchased Under the Plans or Programs
April 1	April 20, 2007				1,853,846
May 1	May 31, 2007	22,578	$12.16		1,853,846
June 1	June 30, 2007	30,000	$11.77	30,000	1,823,846

- (1) The Board of Directors has authorized management, at its discretion, to purchase and retire our common stock and Class A common stock under the Stock Repurchase Program. This program was initially approved by the Board of Directors on November 3, 1986 with subsequent authorizations made as to the number of shares to be purchased.
- (2) Those shares reported as repurchased that are not part of the Stock Repurchase Program are attributable to shares considered surrendered by employees in payment of tax obligations related to the vesting of restricted shares from our 2004 Long-Term Incentive Plan.
