If a majority in number representing three-fourths (3/4) in value of the creditors or class of creditors, and/or of the shareholders or class of shareholders of this Corporation, as the case may be, agrees to any compromise or arrangement and to any reorganization of this Corporation as a consequence of such compromise or arrangement, the compromise or arrangement and the reorganization, if sanctioned by the court to which the application has been made, shall be binding on all the creditors or class of creditors, and/or on all the shareholders or class of shareholders, of this Corporation, as the case may be, and also on this Corporation.

SEVENTH. (1) To the fullest extent that the Oklahoma General Corporation Act as it existed on December 16, 1987 (the original date of filing with the Oklahoma Secretary of State of the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation originally containing this Article SEVENTH) (the "Effective Date"), permits the limitation or elimination of the liability of directors, no director of this Corporation shall be liable to this Corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for breach of fiduciary duty as a director. No amendment to or repeal of this Article SEVENTH shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of this Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to the time of such amendment or repeal.

(2) If the Oklahoma General Corporation Act is amended after the Effective Date to further limit or eliminate liability of this Corporation's directors for breach of fiduciary duty, then a director of this Corporation shall not be liable for any such breach to the fullest extent permitted by the Oklahoma General Corporation Act as so amended. If the Oklahoma General Corporation Act is amended after the Effective Date to increase or expand liability of this Corporation's directors for breach of fiduciary duty, no such amendment shall apply to or have any effect on the liability or alleged liability of any director of this Corporation for or with respect to any acts or omissions of such director occurring prior to the time of such amendment or otherwise adversely affect any right or protection of a director of this Corporation existing at the time of such amendment.

EIGHTH. Repealed.

NINTH. Notwithstanding anything contained in the Certificate of Incorporation or the bylaws of the Corporation to the contrary:

Section 1. Number, Election and Terms. The Board of Directors of the Corporation shall consist of not less than three nor more than twenty-four members with the exact number to be fixed from time to time by the Board of Directors. Upon the adoption of this Article NINTH, the directors shall be divided into three classes, designated Class A, Class B, and Class C, as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of the Class C directors to expire at the 1988 annual meeting of shareholders, the term of office of the Class B directors to expire at the 1989 annual meeting of shareholders, and the term of office of the Class A directors to expire at the 1990 annual meeting of shareholders. At each meeting of shareholders following such initial classification and election, the number of directors equal to the number of the class whose term expires at the time of such meeting shall be elected to hold office until the third succeeding annual meeting of shareholders. Each director shall hold office until his successor is elected and qualified, or until his earlier resignation or removal.

Section 2. Newly Created Directorships and Vacancies. Newly created directors resulting from any increase in the authorized number of directors and any vacancies in the Board of Directors resulting from death, resignation, retirement, disqualification, removal from office or other cause may be filled only by the affirmative vote of 80% of the directors then in office, although less than a quorum, and directors so chosen shall hold office for a term expiring at the annual meeting of shareholders at which the term of the class to which they have been elected expires and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Section 3. Removal. At a meeting of shareholders or directors, as the case may be, called expressly for that purpose, any director, or the entire Board of Directors, may be removed from office at any time, with or without cause, only by the affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of the Corporation then entitled to be voted in an election of directors or by the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds (2/3) of the directors then in office.

Section 4. Amendment, Repeal, Etc. The affirmative vote of the holders of at least 80% of the outstanding shares of the Corporation then entitled to be voted in an election of directors shall be required to alter, amend or repeal, or to adopt any provision inconsistent with, this Article NINTH.

TENTH. Except upon the affirmative vote of shareholders holding all the issued and outstanding shares of stock of the Corporation, no amendment to this Certificate of Incorporation may be adopted by the Corporation which would impose personal liability for the debts of the Corporation on the shareholders of the Corporation or which would amend, alter or repeal this Article TENTH or would adopt any provision inconsistent with this Article TENTH.

ELEVENTH. The shareholders of the Corporation duly adopted the Amended and Restated Certificate of Incorporation originally containing this Article ELEVENTH (as filed with the Oklahoma Secretary of State on December 16, 1987) for the purpose of definitively providing that all provisions of the Oklahoma General Corporation Act will apply to the Corporation and its shareholders to the fullest extent, and that from and after the filing of such Amended and Restated Certificate with the Oklahoma Secretary of State the provisions of the Oklahoma Business Corporation Act and any and all rights, privileges or immunities thereunder shall be of no further force or effect with regard to the Corporation and its shareholders.

TWELFTH. Subject to the limitations set forth in this Certificate of Incorporation, the Corporation reserves the right to amend, alter, change or repeal any provision contained in this Certificate of Incorporation, in the manner now or hereafter prescribed by statute, and all rights conferred upon shareholders herein are granted subject to this reservation.
