PHILIP LASKAWY ELECTED TO GM BOARD OF DIRECTORS

DETROIT-- General Motors Corp. [NYSE: GM, GMH] Chairman John F. Smith, Jr. today announced the election of Philip A. Laskawy to the General Motors Board of Directors, effective Jan. 1, 2003. The election of Laskawy increases the membership of the GM board to 13, of whom 11 are independent, outside directors. Laskawy will become a member of the GM Board's Audit Committee.

Laskawy, 61, served as chairman and chief executive officer of Big Four accounting firm Ernst & Young from 1994 to 2001, where he directed the global integration of the firm's worldwide operations.

"The election of Phil to the GM board reflects our commitment to reach out to people with exceptional skills," Smith said. "He will provide added depth to our board with his financial and accounting expertise, extensive management background, and current membership on the International Accounting Standards Committee." Smith also noted that Laskawy was a member of the Blue-Ribbon Committee on Improving the Effectiveness of Corporate Audit Committees in 1999.

Laskawy joined Ernst & Young's audit staff in 1961. He was named managing partner for the New York office in 1981, and vice chairman for the New York region in 1985. In 1993, he was named chairman-elect and became chairman and chief executive officer in 1994 and retired in 2001.
