SECTION 1 - REGISTRANT'S BUSINESS AND OPERATIONS

Item 1.01 Entry into a Material Definitive Agreement.

On February 26, 2014, J.P. Morgan Securities LLC, in its capacity as agent for an affiliate of JPMorgan Chase Bank, National Association, London Branch, in the capacity of forward counterparty as described below, sold to the underwriters (the underwriters) named in the underwriting agreement dated February 26, 2014, 2,800,000 shares of ALLETE, Inc.'s (the Company) common stock (the borrowed shares) in connection with the forward sale agreement described below.

In connection with the offering and sale of the borrowed shares, the Company entered into a confirmation of forward sale transaction, dated February 26, 2014 (the forward sale agreement) with the forward counterparty, pursuant to which the forward counterparty (or its affiliate) borrowed the borrowed shares from third parties. The Company generally has the right to elect physical, cash or net share settlement under the forward sale agreement. Although the Company expects to physically settle the forward sale agreement entirely by delivering an aggregate of 2,800,000 shares of its common stock, it may elect cash or net share settlement, in its discretion, for all or a portion of its obligations under the forward sale agreement. In the event that the Company elects physical settlement of the forward sale agreement, it will deliver shares of its common stock in exchange for cash proceeds at the then-applicable forward sale price. The forward sale price will initially be $48.00875 per share, subject to adjustment as provided in the forward sale agreement. The forward sale agreement provides for settlement on a settlement date or dates to be specified at the Company's discretion within approximately 12 months from February 26, 2014.

The forward counterparty will have the right to accelerate the forward sale agreement and require the Company to physically settle the forward sale agreement on a date specified by the forward counterparty if (1) in the commercially reasonable judgment of the forward counterparty, it or its affiliate is unable to hedge its exposure under the forward sale agreement because (i) of the lack of sufficient shares of the Company common stock being made available for borrowing by lenders or (ii) it is commercially impracticable to borrow shares from lenders at a rate less than a specified amount, (2) the Company declares any dividend or distribution on shares of the Company common stock payable in (a) cash in excess of a specified amount (other than extraordinary dividends), (b) securities of another company or (c) any other type of securities (other than the Company common stock), rights or warrants or other assets for payment at less than the prevailing market price as reasonably determined by the forward counterparty, (3) certain ownership thresholds applicable to the forward counterparty are exceeded, (4) an event is announced that, if consummated, would result in an extraordinary event (as defined in the forward sale agreement) including, among other things, certain mergers and tender offers, as well as certain events involving the nationalization of the Company or the delisting of the Company common stock (each as more fully described in the forward sale agreement), or (5) certain other events of default or termination events occur, including, among other things, any material misrepresentation made by the Company in connection with entering into the forward sale agreement (each as more fully described in the forward sale agreement).

The description of the forward sale agreement set forth above is qualified in its entirety by reference to the forward sale agreement, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 10 to this Current Report on Form 8-K and incorporated by reference herein.
