ONE LIBERTY PROPERTIES ANNOUNCES THAT MARSHALL ROSE SUBMITS RESIGNATION AS A BOARD MEMBER.

Great Neck, New York - June 5, 2007 - One Liberty Properties, Inc. (NYSE:OLP) today announced that Marshall Rose, a director of One Liberty, has submitted his resignation as a director effective as of June 12, 2007, the date of One Liberty's annual meeting of shareholders. Mr. Rose has served on the Board of Directors since 1989.

Fredric H. Gould, Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, stated, "I, along with the directors, officers and employees of One Liberty Properties, are deeply appreciative of the many contributions made by Marshall Rose during his long tenure on our Board of Directors. His valuable advice and counsel will be greatly missed."

In his resignation letter, Mr. Rose stated, "Due to the demands of my personal life, I have made a judgment to retire from all boards on which I have been serving. It has been my pleasure to have served as a member of the Board of Directors of One Liberty Properties since 1989. It has been an interesting and fulfilling 18 years. My best wishes . . . for the continued success of the Company."

One Liberty Properties is a real estate investment trust and invests primarily in improved commercial real estate under long term net lease.

Certain information contained in this press release, including information with respect to factors which may improve our future results of operations together with other statements and information publicly disseminated by One Liberty Properties, Inc. is forward looking within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities and Exchange Act of 1934, as amended. We intend such forward looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provision for forward looking statements contained in the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995 and include this statement for the purpose of complying with these safe harbor provisions.
