Item 8.01 Other Events.

On September 9, 2014, Cesca Therapeutics Inc. (Cesca) filed a complaint against SynGen Inc., PHC Medical Inc, Philip Coelho and others (the Defendants) in the case captioned as Cesca Therapeutics, Inc. v. SynGen, Inc., et al, United States District Court, Eastern District of California, Case No. 2:14-cv-02085-GEB-KJN. In the complaint, Cesca contends that SynGens' product the SynGenX-1000 and the patent application entitled "System for Purifying Certain Cell Populations in Blood or Bone Marrow by Depleting Others" were developed using Cesca confidential information and that Cesca is the equitable owner. The complaint is based on misappropriation of trade secrets, breach of contract and other claims.

Actions like this lawsuit will likely evolve over time, and it is Cesca's policy to not disclose or discuss matters pertaining to pending or active litigation. Rather, Cesca will apprise investors and update the market periodically through disclosure in its quarterly financial reports, as filed. Litigation is an expensive avenue with uncertain results. However, given the nature of the Defendants actions, the Company feels compelled to pursue its claims in this instance.
