BHP BILLITON APPOINTS PRESIDENT METALLURGICAL COAL

BHP Billiton today announced the appointment of Dave Murray to a new position of President Metallurgical Coal, effective immediately.

Announcing the appointment, Carbon Steel Materials Group President, Bob Kirkby, said that the new position would provide a global focus for the coking coal business, with responsibility for all BHP Billiton's metallurgical coal operations and interests including Queensland Coal and Illawarra Coal in Australia and the Maruwai project in Indonesia, as well as marketing, strategy and business development.

Mr Murray will move from his current role as Chief Executive Officer of BHP Billiton Mitsubishi Alliance based in Brisbane, to Melbourne, and will join BHP Billiton's Executive Committee.

The announcement follows the recent appointments of Graeme Hunt to President BHP Billiton Iron Ore, with responsibility for the company's global iron ore operations, and Ian Ashby to President and Chief Operating Officer, Western Australian Iron Ore, reporting to Mr Hunt.
