Inter Parfums, Inc.

Proxy Statement

GENERAL

This proxy statement is furnished by the Board of Directors of Inter Parfums, Inc., a Delaware corporation, with offices located at 551 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10176, in connection with the solicitation of proxies to be used at the annual meeting of stockholders of Inter Parfums, Inc. being held on August 8, 2003 and at any adjournments of the annual meeting. For purposes of this proxy statement, unless the context otherwise indicates, the term the "Company" refers to Inter Parfums, Inc.

This proxy statement will be mailed to stockholders beginning approximately June 30, 2003. If a proxy in the accompanying form is properly executed and returned, the shares represented by the proxy will be voted as instructed on the proxy. Any stockholder giving a proxy may revoke it at any time before it is voted by providing written notice of revocation to the Company's Secretary or by a stockholder voting in person at the annual meeting.

All properly executed proxies received prior to the annual meeting will be voted at the annual meeting in accordance with the instructions marked on the proxy or as otherwise stated in the proxy. Unless instructions to the contrary are indicated, proxies will be voted FOR the election of the eleven (11) directors referred to in this proxy statement.

A copy of the Company's annual report for fiscal year ended December 31, 2002, which contains financial statements audited by the Company's independent certified public accountants, is being mailed to the Company's stockholders along with this proxy statement.

The cost of preparing, assembling and mailing this notice of meeting, proxy statement, proxy and the enclosed annual report will be borne by the Company. In addition to solicitation of the proxies by use of the mails, some of the Company's officers and regular employees, without extra remuneration, may solicit proxies personally or by telephone, telecopier or e-mail. The Company may also request brokerage houses, nominees, custodians and fiduciaries to forward soliciting material to the beneficial owners of the Company's common stock. The Company will reimburse these persons for their expenses in forwarding soliciting material.

VOTING SECURITIES AND

PRINCIPAL HOLDERS THEREOF

Edgar Filing: INTER PARFUMS INC - Form DEF 14A

The Board of Directors fixed the close of business on June 26, 2003 as the record date for the determination of stockholders entitled to notice of, and to vote at, the annual meeting. Only holders of the Company's common stock on the record date will be able to vote at the annual meeting.

As of June 2, 2003, 19,002,517 shares of the Company's common stock were outstanding. Each share of the Company's common stock will entitle the holder thereof to one vote. None of the Company's stockholders have cumulative voting rights. Holders of shares of the Company's common stock are entitled to vote on all matters. The Company also has 1,000,000 authorized shares of preferred stock, $.001 par value per share, none of which are outstanding.

The holders of a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of the Company's common stock entitled to vote must be present in person or by proxy to constitute the necessary quorum for any business to be transacted at the annual meeting. Properly executed proxies marked "abstain," as well as proxies held in street name by brokers that are not voted on all proposals to come before the annual meeting ("broker non-votes"), will be considered "present" for purposes of determining whether a quorum has been achieved at the annual meeting.

The eleven (11) nominees to the Company's Board of Directors receiving the greatest number of votes cast at the annual meeting in person or by proxy shall be elected. Consequently, any shares of the Company's common stock present in person or by proxy at the annual meeting, but not voted for any reason will have no impact in the election of the Company's Board of Directors. Other matters that may submitted to the Company's stockholders for a vote at the annual meeting, if any, will require the favorable vote of a majority of the shares of the Company's common stock present or represented at the annual meeting for approval. If any matter proposed at the annual meeting must receive a specific percentage of favorable votes for approval, abstentions in respect of such proposal are treated as present and entitled to vote under Delaware law and therefore such abstentions have the effect of a vote against such proposal. Broker non-votes in respect of any proposal are not counted for purposes of determining whether such proposal has received the requisite approval.

Members of the Company's management have been informed that affiliates of the Company intend to vote in favor of all of the nominees for directors, and therefore, they are all likely to be elected. Management knows of no business other than the election of directors that will be presented for consideration at the annual meeting. If any other matter is properly presented, it is the intention of the persons named in the enclosed proxy to vote in accordance with their best judgment.

The following table sets forth information about each person known by the Company to be the beneficial owner of more than five percent (5%) of the Company's outstanding common stock. As of June 2, 2003, we had 19,002,517 shares of common stock outstanding. Unless otherwise noted, each stockholder listed below has sole voting power and sole investment power with respect to the securities shown opposite their names in the table below as of June 2, 2003.

The exercise prices of $381,348 for the Chief Executive Officer and $613,886 for the President, respectively, were paid by each of them tendering to us 46,421 and 74,721 shares of our common stock, previously owned by the Chief Executive Officer and the President, respectively, valued at $8.215 per share, the fair market value on the date of exercise. In addition, the Chief Executive Officer tendered an additional 23,535 shares for payment of withholding taxes resulting from the option exercises.

Employment Agreements

As part of our acquisition in 1991 of the controlling interest in Inter Parfums, S.A., now a subsidiary, we entered into an employment agreement with Philippe Benacin. The agreement provides that Mr. Benacin will be employed as Vice Chairman of the Board and President and Chief Executive Officer of Inter Parfums Holdings and its subsidiary, Inter Parfums. The initial term expired on September 2, 1992, and has subsequently been automatically renewed for additional annual periods. The agreement provides for automatic annual renewal terms, unless either party terminates the agreement upon 120 days notice. Mr. Benacin presently receives an annual salary of 135,000 Euros, which is approximately US$120,000, together with annual lodging expenses of approximately $38,000 and automobile expenses of approximately $15,000, which are subject to increase in the discretion of the Board of Directors. The agreement also provides for indemnification and a covenant not to compete for one year after termination of employment.

Compensation of Directors

All nonemployee directors receive $1,000 for each board meeting at which they participate. Mr. Caccamo's board fees are paid to his law firm.

In March 1997 our Board of Directors adopted our 1997 Nonemployee Stock Option Plan. This plan was approved by our stockholders at the annual meeting of shareholders held in July 1997. The purpose of this plan is to assist us in attracting and retaining key directors who are responsible for continuing the growth and success of our company.

Our 1997 Nonemployee Stock Option Plan provides for the grant of nonqualified stock options to nonemployee directors to purchase an aggregate of 25,000 shares of common stock. Options to purchase 1,000 shares are granted on each February 1st to all nonemployee directors for as long as each is a nonemployee director on such date except for Joseph A. Caccamo, who is granted options to purchase 4,000 shares. Options to purchase 2,000 shares are granted to each nonemployee director upon his initial election or appointment to our board.

In December 2000 our Board of Directors adopted our 2000 Nonemployee Stock Option Plan, as substantially all of the shares reserved under our 1997 Nonemployee Stock Option Plan had been allocated to outstanding options. This plan was approved by our stockholders at the annual meeting of shareholders held in July 2001. The purpose of this plan is to assist us in attracting and retaining key directors who are responsible for continuing the growth and success of our company.

Our 2000 Nonemployee Stock Option Plan provides for the grant of nonqualified stock options to nonemployee directors to purchase an aggregate of 30,000 shares of common stock. Options to purchase 1,000 shares are granted on each February 1st to all nonemployee directors for as long as each is a nonemployee director on such date except for Joseph A. Caccamo, who is granted options to purchase 4,000 shares. Options to purchase 2,000 shares are granted to each nonemployee director upon his initial election or appointment to our board.

On 3 February 2003, options to purchase 1,000 shares were granted to each of Francois Heilbronn, Jean Levy, Robert Bensoussan-Torres, Daniel Piette, Jean Cailliau and Serge Rosinoer and an option to purchase 4,000 shares was granted to Joseph A. Caccamo at the exercise price of $7.22 per share under the 2000 plan. The options held by Mr. Caccamo are held as nominee for his present law firm.

Compensation Committee Interlocks and Insider Participation

The Executive Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors oversees all issues of executive compensation, except for the administration of the Company's stock option plans, which are administered by the Stock Option Committee of the Board of Directors. However, in March 2003, the Board of Directors combined the Executive Compensation Committee with the Stock Option Committee, which is now called the Executive Compensation and Stock Option Committee.

During Fiscal 2002, the former Executive Compensation Committee took action by the execution of two (2) written consents in lieu of meetings. In addition, it executed one (1) consent in March 2003. In addition, the following persons participated in discussions concerning executive compensation during Fiscal 2002, with generally the Chairman of the Board taking the initiative and recommending executive compensation levels for other than for Mr. Benacin's compensation: Jean Madar, the Chairman of the Board of Directors and Chief Executive Officer; Philippe Benacin, a Director, President, and President of Inter Parfums, S.A., a subsidiary of the Company; Russell Greenberg, an Executive Vice President, Chief Financial Officer and a Director; and Jean Levy, Francois Heilbronn and Daniel Piette, the present members of the Executive Compensation Committee.

Report on Executive Compensation

General

The following sets forth information regarding compensation and benefits provided to the Chief Executive Officer and to each of the four most highly compensated executive officers, other than the chief executive officer, whose annual base salary and bonus compensation was in excess of $100,000. The executive officers of the Company being discussed for Fiscal 2002 are: Jean Madar (the Chief Executive Officer), Philippe Benacin, Russell Greenberg, Bruce Elbilialia and Wayne C. Hamerling.

Executive compensation packages generally include a base salary, annual incentives tied to individual performance and long term incentives tied to the performance of the Company. In addition, the Company provides a comprehensive medical insurance plan. Generally, executive officers have their compensation reviewed annually.

Base Salary

Base salaries for executive officers are initially determined by evaluating the responsibilities of the position held and the experience of the individual, and by reference to the competitive market place for executive talent. Base salaries for executive officers are reviewed on an annual basis, including those subject to contractual adjustments, and adjustments are determined by evaluating the performance of the Company and of each executive officer, as well as whether the nature of the responsibilities of the executive has changed.

For Fiscal 2002, upon recommendation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Executive Compensation Committee determined that the following executives were to receive increases in their base salaries: Mr. Greenberg's base salary was increased by $15,000 from $260,000 to $275,000, and Mr. Hamerling's base salary was increased by $10,000 from $186,120 to $196,120. Neither Mr. Madar nor Mr. Elbilialia had his base salary increased for Fiscal 2002.

Mr. Benacin, the President of Inter Parfums Holding S.A., the Company's direct French subsidiary, and President of Inter Parfums, S.A., the Company's indirect, operating French subsidiary, is also the President of the Company. Mr. Benacin's base compensation is paid to him in Euros by the Company's French operating subsidiary, and his base salary was increased to 135,000 Euros in 2002 from 131,717 Euros in 2001.

After a thorough review, the Chairman of the Board determined that the base salaries paid to such executives were fair in the view of their responsibilities, length of service to the Company, performance and compensation levels to peers, as to which the Executive Compensation Committee concurs.

Bonus Compensation

In March 2003, the Executive Compensation Committee approved the payment of cash bonuses for Fiscal 2002. For Fiscal 2002, and as the result of their efforts in increasing the profitability of the Company, bonuses were awarded as follows: Mr. Madar (the Company's Chief Executive Officer) received a cash bonus of $200,000 based on after tax profit of the Company's United States operations; Mr. Benacin received a cash bonus of $78,850; Mr. Greenberg received a cash bonus of $58,000, and Mr. Hamerling received a cash bonus of $15,000.

Annual Incentives

As stated above, for Fiscal 2002, Mr. Madar (the Company's Chief Executive Officer) received a cash bonus of $200,000, which was based on after tax profit of the Company's United States operations. Also in March 2003, the Executive Compensation Committee established the after tax profit of the Company's United States operations that will be used to calculate Mr. Madar's bonus for 2003.

Messrs. Elbilialia and Hamerling have their annual incentives tied to sales, which is directly related to the efficacy and productivity of their areas of responsibility, FUBU brand and certain export sales for Mr. Elbilialia, and wholesale sales for Mr. Hamerling. The predicates for the determination and payment of selling commissions to Messrs. Elbilialia and Hamerling were determined in accordance with internal sales and budget projections. In Fiscal 2002, Messrs. Elbilialia and Hamerling received $33,472 and $75,950, respectively, in sales commissions.

Long Term Incentives

The long term incentives are geared towards linking benefits to corporate performance through the grant of stock options. All options are granted with an exercise price equal to the fair market value of the underlying shares of the Company's common stock on the date of grant, and terminate on or shortly after severance of the relationship between the Company and the executive. Unless the market price of the Company's common stock increases, corporate executives will have no tangible benefit. Thus, they are provided with the extra incentive to increase individual performance with the ultimate goal of increased overall Company performance. Enhanced executive incentives which result in increased corporate performance tend to build company loyalty.

During Fiscal 2002, upon the recommendation of the Company's Chief Executive Officer, the Stock Option Committee granted options to purchase 50,000 to each of Jean Madar and Philippe Benacin, and 18,000 shares of the Company's common stock to each of Messrs. Greenberg, Elbilialia and Hamerling at the fair market value on the date of grant. These grants were commensurate with the option grants made for Fiscal 2001.

The aggregate "potential unrealized value" of such options for each of Messrs. Madar and Benacin ranges from $110,858 to $244,967, and for Messrs. Greenberg, Elbilialia and Hamerling, from $39,909 to $88,188, calculated in accordance with the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission. Such potential rewards are a powerful incentive for increased individual performance, and ultimately increased Company performance. In view of the fact that these executive officers contribute significantly to the Company's operations, the Executive Compensation Committee believes these incentives to be fair to these executive officers and to the Company's stockholders.

Conclusion

The Executive Compensation Committee believes that its present policies to date, with its emphasis on rewarding performance, has served to focus the efforts of the Company's executives to achieve a high rate of growth and profitability for the Company, which management believes will result in a substantial increase in value to the Company's stockholders.

Eisner LLP billed the Company $16,000 for tax preparation and tax consulting services during Fiscal 2002 and $15,000 for Fiscal 2001. KPMG Audit did not bill the Company for any tax services during Fiscal 2002 Fiscal 2001.

All Other Fees

Eisner LLP billed the Company $10,600 in Fiscal 2002 and $20,900 in Fiscal 2001 for various matters relating to a corporate filing in the state of Texas and advise and consultation with respect to stock options and cash dividends. KPMG Audit did not bill the Company for any other services during Fiscal 2002 Fiscal 2001.

Audit Committee Pre Approval Policies and Procedures

The Audit Committee has the sole authority for the appointment, compensation and oversight of the work of the independent accountants employed by the Company which prepare or issue an audit report for the Company. The Audit Committee has determined that it is beneficial to have two (2) independent accounting firms perform the audits for the Company: Eisner LLP, which acts as the principal auditor for the Company and for the United States operations, and KPMG Audit, which conducts the audit of Inter Parfums Holdings, S.A and its subsidiaries. Accordingly, after presentation of audit proposals from both firms and confirmation from Eisner LLP that it was comfortable acting as the Company's principal auditor while relying on the audit conducted by KPMG Audit, the Audit Committee authorized the retention of such firms to conduct such audits, as well as all work necessary, related to or helpful to properly conclude such audits of the Company's financial statements.

During the first quarter of 2003, the Audit Committee authorized our Company to retain Eisner LLP to perform tax consultation and tax preparation services in the ordinary course of business for our Company for fiscal year ending December 31, 2003. In addition it authorized our Company to retain Eisner LLP for tax consultation services, as may be required on a project-by-project basis that would not be considered in the ordinary course of business up to a $5,000 fee limit per project, subject to an aggregate fee limit of $25,000; and that the approval of the Audit Committee would be required for any further tax services.

Also during the first quarter of 2003, the Audit Committee also authorized our Company to retain KPMG Audit to provide tax consultation and tax preparation services in the ordinary course of business for Inter Parfums, S.A., for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2003. In addition, the Audit Committee also authorized our Company to retain KPMG Audit to provide tax consultation and advice with respect to repatriation of earnings of our company's French subsidiaries to us in the United States.

In addition, if other services are needed to be provided by either Eisner or KPMG Audit on an expedited basis, such that obtaining pre-approval of the Audit Committee is not practicable, then the Audit Committee has delegated to the Chairman of the Audit Committee the authority to grant the required pre-approvals for such services.

None of the non-audit services of either of the Company's auditors had the pre-approval requirement waived in accordance with Rule 2-01(c)(7)(i)(C) of Regulation S-X.

STOCKHOLDERS' PROPOSALS

Proposals of stockholders intended to be presented at the 2004 Annual Meeting of the Company's stockholders must be received in writing, by the President of the Company at its offices by April 10, 2004, in order to be considered for inclusion in the Company's proxy statement relating to that meeting.

If a stockholder intends to make a proposal at the 2004 Annual Meeting, such stockholder must have given timely notice thereof in proper written form to the Secretary of the Company, in compliance with Section 8 of Article II of the Company's By-Laws. To be timely, a stockholder's notice to the Secretary must be delivered to or mailed and received at the principal executive offices of the Company not less than sixty (60) days nor more than ninety (90) days prior to the anniversary date of the immediately preceding annual meeting of stockholders i.e., between May 10, 2004 and June 9, 2004; however, that in the event that the annual meeting is called for a date that is not within thirty (30) days before or after such anniversary date, notice by the stockholder in order to be timely must be so received not later than the close of business on the tenth (10th) day following the day on which such notice of the date of the annual meeting was mailed or such public disclosure of the date of the annual meeting was made, whichever first occurs.

To be in proper written form, a stockholder's notice to the Secretary must set forth as to each matter such stockholder proposes to bring before the annual meeting (a) a brief description of the business desired to be brought before the annual meeting and the reasons for conducting such business at the annual meeting, (b) the name and record address of such stockholder, (c) the class or series and number of shares of capital stock of the Company which are owned-beneficially or of record by such stockholder, (d) a description of all arrangements or understandings between such stockholder and any other person or persons (including their names) in connection with the proposal of such business by such stockholder and any material interest of such stockholder in such business and (e) a representation that such stockholder intends to appear in person or by proxy at the annual meeting to bring such business before the meeting.

- ◆ Review with the independent auditors and the Corporation's financial and accounting personnel, the adequacy and effectiveness of the accounting and financial controls of the Corporation, and elicit any recommendations for the improvement of such internal control procedures or particular areas where new or more detailed controls or procedures are desirable. Further, the committee periodically should review the Corporation's policy statements to determine their adherence to the code of conduct.

The chair of the committee may represent the entire committee for purposes of this review.
- ◆ Review the financial statements contained in the annual report to shareholders with management and the independent auditors to determine that the independent auditors are satisfied with the disclosure and content of the financial statements to be presented to the shareholders. Review with financial management and the independent auditors the results of their timely analysis of significant financial reporting issues and practices, including changes in, or adoptions of, accounting principals and disclosure practices, and discuss any other matters required to be communicated to the committee by the auditors. Also review with financial management and the independent auditors their judgments about the quality, not just acceptability, of accounting principles and the clarity of the financial disclosure practices used or proposed to be used, and particularly, the degree of aggressiveness or conservatism of the organization's accounting principles and underlying estimates, and other significant decisions made in preparing the financial statements.

- ◆ On an annual basis, obtain from the independent auditors a written communication delineating all their relationships and professional services as required by Independence Standards Board Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees. In addition, review with the independent auditors the nature and scope of any disclosed relationships or professional services and take, or recommend that the board of directors take, appropriate action to ensure the continuing independence of the auditors.
- ◆ Review the report of the Audit Committee in the annual report to shareholders and the Annual Report on Form 10-K disclosing whether or not the committee had reviewed and discussed with management and the independent auditors, as well as discussed within the committee (without management or the independent auditors present), the financial statements and the quality of accounting principles and significant judgments affecting the financial statements. In addition, disclose the committee's conclusion on the fairness of presentation of the financial statements in conformity with GAAP based on those discussions.
- ◆ Review the Company's disclosure in the proxy statement for its annual meeting of shareholders that describes that the Committee has satisfied its responsibilities under this Charter for the prior year.
