Item 8.01. Other Events.

On April 9, 2007, New York & Company, Inc. and Inter Parfums, Inc. entered into an exclusive agreement under which Inter Parfums will design and manufacture a new line of personal care products which will be sold at the New York & Company retail locations and on their website. Pursuant to the agreement, Inter Parfums will be responsible for product development, formula creation, packaging and manufacturing while New York & Company will be responsible for marketing and selling in its stores. In addition, we were granted the right of first refusal to design and manufacture fragrances and home fragrances for New York & Company if it determines to sell such products.

The agreement has an initial term of five years and six (6) months, and expires on October 8, 2012. However, New York & Company has the right to terminate the agreement after completion of the second (2nd) year of product sales. If New York & Company exercises its early termination right, then it cannot sell the same or similar products for two years after it exercises such right. In addition, the agreement also provides for additional two (2) year optional terms if both parties agree to such extensions.

The joint press release dated April 9, 2007 of New York & Company and Inter Parfums, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1, is incorporated by reference into this report.
