The following documents filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission (the "Commission") are incorporated herein by reference:

- (a) Our latest annual report on Form 10-K filed pursuant to Section 13(a) or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the "Exchange Act").

Item 4. Description of Securities.

Not applicable.

Item 5. Interests of Named Experts and Counsel.

Not applicable.

Item 6. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

As permitted by the Massachusetts Business Corporation Act ("MBCA"), PTC's Articles of Organization provide that no director shall have personal liability to the corporation or its stockholders for monetary damages for any breach of fiduciary duty as a director except to the extent that such exculpation is not permitted under the MBCA. Accordingly, PTC's Articles of Organization do not eliminate or limit the liability of a director (a) for any breach of the director's duty of loyalty to the corporation or its stockholders, (b) for acts or omissions not in good faith or which involve intentional misconduct or a knowing violation of law, (c) for improper distributions to the stockholders, or (d) for any transaction from which the director derived an improper personal benefit.

As also permitted by the MBCA, PTC's Articles of Organization provide that PTC shall indemnify each person who is, or who is threatened to be made, a party to a legal proceeding because of his or her status as a director or officer of PTC, or who serves at PTC's request as a director or officer of another organization or in any capacity with respect to an employee benefit plan of PTC, against all expenses, judgments and fines, including amounts paid in settlement, incurred by him or her in connection with such proceeding unless in any proceeding it shall have been finally adjudicated, or it has otherwise been determined, that such person did not act in good faith in the reasonable belief that his or her action was in the best interest of PTC or, to the extent that such matter relates to service with respect to an employee benefit plan, in the best interests of the participants or beneficiaries of such employee benefit plan.

Furthermore, the MBCA would not permit such indemnification in the case of a criminal proceeding unless such person had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct in the matter was unlawful. Such indemnification shall include payment by PTC of expenses incurred in defending any such proceeding in advance of the final disposition thereof upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the person indemnified to repay such advance if he or she shall be adjudicated to be not entitled to indemnification, which undertaking may be accepted without reference to the financial ability of such person to make repayment. PTC's Articles contain certain procedural and other provisions that provide additional protection for persons seeking indemnification.

The indemnification provided for in PTC's Articles is not exclusive of any other rights to indemnification to which a director or officer may be entitled, shall continue as to an indemnitee who has ceased to be a director or officer, and inures to the benefit of the estate, heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person. PTC is also specifically authorized to enter into agreements with officers and directors providing indemnification rights and procedures different from those set forth in the Articles.

The MBCA mandates indemnification for reasonable expenses, regardless of whether an individual has met a particular standard of conduct, in connection with proceedings in which a director or officer is wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise. Furthermore, the MBCA provides that a court may direct a corporation to indemnify a director or officer if the court determines that it is fair and reasonable to indemnify such person regardless of whether he or she met the relevant standard of conduct.

PTC maintains an insurance policy on behalf of the directors and officers of PTC and its subsidiaries covering certain liabilities that may arise as a result of the actions of said directors and officers.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed.

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits.

See Exhibit Index immediately following signature pages.

Item 9. Undertakings.

(a) We hereby undertake:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this registration statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this registration statement (or the (ii) most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represents a fundamental change in the information set forth in this registration statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this registration statement or any material change to such information in this registration statement;

provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) do not apply if the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in reports filed with or furnished to the Commission by us pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this registration statement.

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) We hereby undertake that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of our annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that is incorporated by reference in this registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to our directors, officers and controlling persons pursuant to the provisions referred to in Item 6 hereof, or otherwise, we have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by us of expenses incurred or paid by our directors, officers or controlling persons in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, we will, unless in the opinion of our counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by us is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
