BP AND RELIANCE COMMENCE STRATEGIC ALLIANCE FOR INDIA

On 30th August, 2011 BP announced that Reliance Industries Limited (RIL) and BP had completed BP's acquisition of a 30 per cent stake in 21 oil and gas production sharing contracts (PSCs) that Reliance operates in India, including the producing KG D6 block.

This step commenced the planned alliance which will operate across the gas value chain in India, from exploration and production to distribution and marketing. The two companies will also form a 50:50 joint venture for the sourcing and marketing of gas in India which will also accelerate the creation of infrastructure for receiving, transporting and marketing natural gas.

BP will pay RIL an aggregate consideration of US$7.2 billion subject to completion adjustments for the interests to be acquired in the 21 production sharing contracts. Further performance payments of up to US$1.8 billion could be paid based on exploration success that results in development of commercial discoveries.

With respect to the remaining two blocks in February's announcement, there are ongoing discussions between RIL and the Indian Government with a decision expected at a later date. The value of these two blocks is estimated in the agreement at US$2.2 million.
