In response to statements made by the The Procter & Gamble Company (“P&G”) relating to Trian Fund Management, L.P. (“Trian”), Trian issued the following statement to certain media outlets:

Suggesting that Trian directors come with a “shadow management team” is recycled public relations rhetoric. The real issues that must be addressed are P&G’s deteriorating market share and excessive cost and bureaucracy. Today, P&G reported a 2% increase in sales, which represented another quarter of lost market share, along with better margins and earnings. But those increased margins and earnings came as a result of reducing advertising, specifically digital, a tactic we believe will damage the value of the company’s brands if continued in the long term.
