For immediate release

The minimum tender condition of the offer for Arcelor securities has been met

18th July 2006 □ Rotterdam □ Mittal Steel Company N.V. (NYSE: MT) announces today that, while the global centralising agent for the Offer is still in the process of verifying and counting the Arcelor securities tendered in the Offer, it has determined that, on a preliminary basis and based on statements made by financial intermediaries, the minimum tender condition of the offer (i.e., 50% of Arcelor outstanding shares on a fully diluted basis as set forth in the Offer prospectus, as supplemented) has been met.

The global centralising agent for the Offer will continue the process of verifying the tender information centralised from all the jurisdictions where the offer has been made (i.e., Belgium, France, Luxembourg, Spain and the U.S.), further counting the tendered Arcelor securities and completing the pro-ration procedure among each of the secondary cash and exchange offers described in the Offer prospectus, as supplemented, in order to calculate the aggregate final results of the offer, broken down by type of offer. The final results of the offer will be published on July 26, 2006.

No Offer

No offer to exchange or purchase any Arcelor shares or convertible bonds has been or will be made in The Netherlands or in any jurisdiction other than Luxembourg, Belgium, Spain, France and the United States. This document does not constitute an offer to exchange or purchase any Arcelor shares or convertible bonds. Such an offer is made only pursuant to the official offer document approved by the appropriate regulators.
