(b) by replacing the second and the third paragraph with the following new paragraph:

The plaintiffs are seeking to have the shareholder resolution set aside, which could render the Domination Agreement invalid. (c) by replacing the first sentence of the fourth paragraph with:

Additional petitions can be filed until February 26, 2007.

On October 27, 2006, one Unaffiliated Schering Securityholder instituted public register proceedings with the Local Court (Amtsgericht) of Charlottenburg, Berlin, with a view to having the registration of the Domination Agreement in the commercial register removed (Amtslösungsverfahren). This action is based on an alleged abuse of discretion by the competent court with respect to the registration of the Domination Agreement. Schering AG filed a petition in the action before the Local Court of Charlottenburg requesting that the registration of the Domination Agreement not be removed from the commercial register. The Local Court has not yet taken any action.
