Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities.

Edgar Filing: STERLING CHEMICALS INC - Form 8-K

The Board of Directors of Sterling Chemicals, Inc. (the "Company") has determined that the Company will exit the acrylonitrile and related derivatives businesses. The Board of Directors committed the Company to the exit from such businesses on September 15, 2005 based on the circumstances as generally described in the press release issued September 16, 2005 filed herewith as Exhibit 99.1 and incorporated herein by reference.

An estimated range of the total amounts expected to be incurred in connection with the exit from these businesses, along with an estimate of the amounts of the major types of cost associated with such exit, is set forth in the attached press release. The Company does not expect the exit from these businesses to result in any future capital expenditures, and the press release provides the Company's estimate of the amount of future reduced capital expenditures associated with such exit.

Item 2.06 Material Impairments.

In connection with the exit from the acrylonitrile and related derivatives businesses (as determined by the Board of Directors as described above), the Company will record an impairment charge. The conclusion that such an impairment charge is required was made by the Company on September 15, 2005 in connection with the Board of Directors determination that the Company will exit these businesses and was based on the same general circumstances that provided a basis for the exit determination (as described in the attached press release). An estimate of the amount of the impairment charge is set forth in the attached press release, and the Company does not expect the impairment charge to result in any future capital expenditures.

Statements in this report that contain "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, include, but are not limited to, statements concerning the amount of expected closure costs, the amounts and times when closure costs are expensed, the amount of resulting impairment charges, the timing of any reductions in force, the number of employees involved and the amount of any resulting charges to operating income, the timing and amount of the cash flow received from the sale of acrylonitrile-related inventories, the payments of or reductions in future capital expenditures due to the exit from the acrylonitrile business and the ability of the Company to use the space and infrastructure that is currently associated with the acrylonitrile and derivate operations. Such statements are inherently subject to a variety of risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from those anticipated or projected. A discussion of the risk factors that could impact these areas and the Company's overall business and financial performance can be found in the Company's filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission, including the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K. Investors and analysts should not place undue reliance on forward-looking statements. Each forward-looking statement speaks only as of the date of this report, and the Company undertakes no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements.
