NOTICE OF VARIATION AND EXTENSION

by

in respect of its

OFFER TO PURCHASE

all of the outstanding common shares of

on the basis of an increased price of, at the election of each holder,

(a) Cdn.$60.20 in cash (the Cash Alternative); or

(b) 0.80312 of a common share of Inco Limited and Cdn.$0.05 in cash

(the Share Alternative),

for each common share of Falconbridge Limited (Falconbridge) subject, in each case, to proration as described in Inco Limited s Offer dated October 24, 2005

(the Original Offer), as amended or supplemented.

The consideration payable under the Offer for each Falconbridge Share, assuming full proration, has been increased by Cdn.$1.00 per Falconbridge Share, from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.55676 of an Inco common share (an Inco Share) to Cdn.$18.50 in cash and 0.55676 of an Inco share on a fully prorated basis.

Phelps Dodge has increased the consideration payable under the proposed Arrangement with Inco from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge common share (a Phelps Dodge Share) to Cdn.$20.25 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share.

Falconbridge has declared a special dividend of Cdn.$0.75 per Falconbridge Share payable to its Shareholders of record on July 26, 2006 (the Falconbridge Special Dividend).

The Minimum Tender Condition for the Offer has been reduced from 66²/₃ % to 50.01%.

The Expiry Time of the Offer is now midnight (Vancouver time) on Thursday, July 27, 2006.

The increased Offer provides an implied value of Cdn.$60.20* per Falconbridge Share.

Taking into account the Falconbridge Special Dividend, the total implied consideration received by Falconbridge Shareholders under the Inco Offer would be Cdn.$60.95 a 3.31% premium to the current Xstrata offer.

The increased Offer provides the opportunity to receive an implied look-through value of Cdn.$63.47* per Falconbridge Share, based on the increased consideration announced under the proposed Arrangement between Phelps Dodge and Inco.

Taking into account the Falconbridge Special Dividend, the total consideration received by Shareholders on an Implied Look-through Value basis is Cdn.$64.22 an 8.85% premium to the current Xstrata Offer.

Falconbridge's Board of Directors unanimously recommends that Shareholders accept the increased Offer and tender their Falconbridge Shares to the Offer.

The increased Offer provides both cash now and continued ownership in a world-class metals and mining company.

The increased Offer has received all regulatory approvals. Xstrata has been advised that its offer for Falconbridge remains under extended regulatory review by Industry Canada.

Inco encourages you to carefully review the increased Offer and TENDER your Falconbridge Shares prior to the Expiry Time of midnight (Vancouver time) on Thursday, July 27, 2006.

* These implied values are based on various assumptions that are stated in the fourth and sixth paragraphs of the inside cover page of this Notice of Variation and Extension.

 Shareholders whose Falconbridge Shares are taken up by Xstrata pursuant to its offer prior to the record date will not receive the Falconbridge Special Dividend. In addition, Xstrata's offer, if extended pursuant to its current terms, would be reduced by Cdn.$0.75 as a result of the Falconbridge Special Dividend in respect of Falconbridge Shares acquired by it pursuant to its offer if Xstrata or its nominee is not the registered owner of such shares on the July 26, 2006 dividend record date.

This Notice of Variation and Extension does not constitute an offer or a solicitation to any person in any jurisdiction in which such offer or solicitation is unlawful. The Offer is not being made to, nor will deposits be accepted from or on behalf of, Shareholders in any jurisdiction in which the making or acceptance thereof would not be in compliance with the laws of such jurisdiction. However, the Offeror may, in its sole discretion, take such action as it may deem necessary to extend the Offer to Shareholders in any such jurisdiction.

The Dealer Manager for the Offer is:
RBC Capital Markets

In Canada:

RBC Dominion Securities Inc.

In the United States:

RBC Capital Markets Corporation

Questions and requests for assistance may be directed to RBC Dominion Securities Inc. in Canada or RBC Capital Markets Corporation in the United States (the Dealer Manager), CIBC Mellon Trust Company (the Depository) or MacKenzie Partners, Inc. (the Information Agent). Additional copies of this Notice of Variation and Extension, the First Extension, the Second Extension, the Third Extension, the Fourth Extension, the First Variation, the Second Variation, the Offer and Circular, the Letter of Transmittal and the Notice of Guaranteed Delivery may also be obtained without charge from the Dealer Manager, the Depository or the Information Agent at their respective addresses shown on the last page of this document.

On July 16, 2006, Inco Limited (Inco or the Offeror) further varied its Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, to purchase all of the issued and outstanding common shares of Falconbridge (together with associated rights issued and outstanding under the shareholder rights plan of Falconbridge, the Falconbridge Shares) in order to, among other things, (a) increase the consideration payable under the Offer for each Falconbridge Share by Cdn.$1.00 per Falconbridge Share from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.55676 of an Inco Share to Cdn.$18.50 in cash and 0.55676 of an Inco share, on a fully prorated basis, (b) reduce the Minimum Tender Condition from 66²/₃ % to 50.01%, (c) extend the expiry time of the Offer from midnight (Vancouver time) on July 24, 2006 to midnight (Vancouver time) on Thursday, July 27, 2006, and (d) provide that the consideration under the Offer will not be reduced by the amount of the Falconbridge Special Dividend.

On July 16, 2006, Falconbridge declared the Falconbridge Special Dividend of Cdn.$0.75 in cash per Falconbridge Share to Shareholders of record on July 26, 2006, with a payment date of August 10, 2006. Inco has amended the Offer to provide that the consideration under the Offer will not be reduced by the amount of the Falconbridge Special Dividend (which would otherwise have occurred pursuant to the terms of the Offer). Xstrata's competing offer to acquire the Falconbridge Shares (being Cdn.$59.00 in cash per Falconbridge Share), if extended pursuant to its existing terms, would be reduced by Cdn.$0.75 as a result of the Falconbridge Special Dividend. Accordingly, the Xstrata Offer, as adjusted, would be Cdn.$58.25 in cash. Shareholders of record on July 26, 2006 will be entitled to receive the Falconbridge Special Dividend irrespective of whether they tender their Falconbridge Shares to the increased Offer.

The implied value of the consideration under the Offer per Falconbridge Share is computed assuming full proration of the consideration under the Offer as of a particular date and means the amount that is equal to (i) Cdn.$18.50 in cash plus (ii) 0.55676 multiplied by the closing price of the Inco Shares on that date on the Toronto Stock Exchange (the TSX) or the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE) (converted to Canadian dollars), as the case may be. On July 14, 2006, the last trading day prior to the date of this Notice of Variation and Extension, the closing price of the Inco Shares was Cdn.$74.89 on the TSX and $66.25 on the NYSE and the closing price of the Falconbridge Shares was Cdn.$61.00 on the TSX and $54.03 on the NYSE. As of July 14, 2006, the implied value of the consideration under the Offer was Cdn.$60.20 per Falconbridge Share based on Inco's TSX closing price and Cdn.$60.13 per Falconbridge Share based on Inco's NYSE closing price using an exchange rate of Cdn.$1.1286, being the closing U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on July 14, 2006. This, together with the value of the Falconbridge Special Dividend, represents a premium of 3.31% over the consideration under the Xstrata Offer (being Cdn.$59.00 in cash per Falconbridge Share) based on Inco's TSX closing price as of July 14, 2006 and a premium of 3.19% over the consideration under the Xstrata Offer based on Inco's NYSE closing price as of July 14, 2006.

Under the combination agreement (the Combination Agreement) entered into between Inco and Phelps Dodge Corporation (Phelps Dodge) on June 25, 2006, as amended pursuant to a waiver and amendment to the Combination Agreement dated as of July 16, 2006 (the Waiver and Amendment), Phelps Dodge has agreed to increase the per Inco Share consideration under the proposed statutory plan of arrangement with Inco (the Arrangement) from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share to Cdn.$20.25 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share. Shareholders who receive Inco Shares under the Offer and who continue to hold such Inco Shares at the effective time of the Arrangement would receive both the consideration under the Offer and, subsequently, the consideration under the Arrangement if the Arrangement is completed.

The implied look-through value of the total consideration per Falconbridge Share (the Implied Look-through Value), assuming the successful completion of both the Offer and the Arrangement, is computed assuming full proration of the consideration under the Offer and, as of a particular date, means the amount that is equal to the sum of

(i) Cdn.$20.25 multiplied by 0.55676; (ii) Cdn.$18.50; and (iii) the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on that date on the NYSE (converted to Canadian dollars at the closing U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on that date) multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.672 and further multiplied by 0.55676. By way of illustration, the Implied Look-through Value on July 14, 2006 was Cdn.$63.47 per Falconbridge Share, based on the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on the NYSE on July 14, 2006, which was $79.79, or Cdn.$90.05 using an exchange rate of Cdn.$1.1286, being the closing U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on July 14, 2006. This represents a premium of 8.85% over the value of the Xstrata Offer when the value of the Falconbridge Special Dividend is included. The Implied Look-through Value is based on various assumptions, including the successful completion of both the Offer and the Arrangement, the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate as of a given date and the trading price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on a given date which, for the purpose of the illustration, are with reference to July 14, 2006, and is subject to various risks, including changes in the market price of the Phelps Dodge Shares and fluctuations in the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate. See CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION . Also see Section 6 of the Circular, Risk Factors Related to the Offer and the section of the notice of variation and extension dated June 29, 2006 entitled Risk Factors Relating to the Proposed Combination Transaction .

This Notice of Variation and Extension should be read in conjunction with the Original Offer and accompanying Circular dated October 24, 2005 (which together constitute the Offer and Circular), as amended or supplemented by notices of extension dated December 14, 2005 (the First Extension), January 19, 2006 (the Second Extension), February 27, 2006 (the Third Extension) and July 13, 2006 (the Fourth Extension), respectively, the notice of variation dated May 29, 2006 (the First Variation) and the notice of variation and extension dated June 29, 2006 (the Second Variation), respectively, and the replacement Letter of Transmittal and the replacement Notice of Guaranteed Delivery that accompany this Notice of Variation and Extension. Unless the context requires otherwise or unless otherwise defined, defined terms used in this Notice of Variation and Extension have the same meaning as in the Offer and Circular. All references to the term Offer in the Offer and Circular, the replacement Letter of Transmittal, the replacement Notice of Guaranteed Delivery and this Notice of Variation and Extension mean the Original Offer as amended or supplemented by the First Extension, the Second Extension, the Third Extension, the Fourth Extension, the First Variation, the Second Variation and this Notice of Variation and Extension.

The Offer, as varied, has been extended and is now open for acceptance until midnight (Vancouver time) on Thursday, July 27, 2006 (the Expiry Time), unless further extended or withdrawn.

Shareholders who have validly deposited and not withdrawn their Falconbridge Shares need take no further action to accept the Offer. Shareholders who wish to accept the Offer must properly complete and duly execute the replacement Letter of Transmittal (printed on blue paper) that accompanies this Notice of Variation and Extension, or a facsimile thereof, and deposit it, together with certificates representing their Falconbridge Shares and all other documents required by the Letter of Transmittal, in accordance with the instructions in the Letter of Transmittal. Alternatively, Shareholders may follow the procedures for guaranteed delivery set forth in Section 3 of the Offer to Purchase, Manner of Acceptance Procedure for Guaranteed Delivery , using the replacement Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (printed on green paper) that accompanies this Notice of Variation and Extension, or a facsimile thereof. Any Shareholder having Falconbridge Shares registered in the name of a broker, dealer, commercial bank, trust company or other nominee should contact such person or institution if he or she desires to deposit such Falconbridge Shares under the Offer. The Original Offer and the Second Variation were each accompanied by a Letter of Transmittal (printed on blue paper) and a Notice of Guaranteed Delivery (printed on green paper). Shareholders may continue to use these previous Letters of Transmittal or previous Notices of Guaranteed Delivery to accept the Offer, in which case the previous Letters of Transmittal or the previous Notices of Guaranteed Delivery, as the case may be, shall be deemed to be amended to reflect the terms and conditions of the Offer.

See Section 21 of the Circular, Certain Canadian Federal Income Tax Considerations, and Section 23 of the Circular, Certain U.S. Federal Income Tax Considerations.

CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION

This Notice of Variation and Extension contains forward-looking information and statements that are subject to risks and based on a number of assumptions and other factors. See CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION in the Second Variation. In addition, the Offer and Circular, as amended or supplemented, contains forward-looking information and statements that relate to, among other things, the integration of operations of Inco and Falconbridge and the potential to realize certain synergies upon the successful completion of the Offer, and Inco management's ability to successfully manage and operate its business with that of Falconbridge upon its becoming a majority-owned subsidiary of Inco. These forward-looking statements involve risks, uncertainties and other factors which may adversely affect Inco's ability to successfully integrate the operations of Inco and Falconbridge and realize certain synergies upon the successful completion of the Offer, including risks and uncertainties as a result of the reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition from 66²/₃% to 50.01%. See Section 2 of this Notice of Variation and Extension, Reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition Risk Factors Relating to the Reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition, the section of the Second Variation entitled Risk Factors Relating to the Proposed Combination Transaction and Section 6 of the Circular, Risk Factors Related to the Offer.

1. Increase in Offer Price

Inco has varied the Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, by increasing the price offered to Shareholders for each Falconbridge Share to:

- (a) Cdn.$60.20 in cash in respect of each Falconbridge Share held (the Cash Alternative); or
- (b) 0.80312 of an Inco Share and Cdn.$0.05 in cash in respect of each Falconbridge Share held (the Share Alternative), in each case, as elected by the Shareholder in the applicable Letter of Transmittal, and subject to proration as set out in the Original Offer and this Notice of Variation and Extension.

The maximum amount of cash consideration available under the Offer has been increased from Cdn.$6,700,377,653 to Cdn.$7,080,125,473, representing an increase of Cdn.$379,747,820, or Cdn.$1.00 per Falconbridge Share on a prorated basis. The maximum number of Inco Shares issuable under the Offer has been reduced to 213,077,333 Inco Shares from 213,171,558 Inco Shares reflecting a reduction in the number of Falconbridge Shares outstanding on an adjusted fully-diluted basis since June 25, 2006.

The consideration payable under the Offer will be prorated on each Take-Up Date as necessary to ensure that the total aggregate consideration payable under the Offer and in any Subsequent Acquisition Transaction does not exceed these maximum aggregate amounts and will be based on the number of Falconbridge Shares acquired in proportion to the number of Falconbridge Shares outstanding on an adjusted fully-diluted basis.

Assuming all Shareholders tendered to the Cash Alternative or all Shareholders tendered to the Share Alternative, each Shareholder would be entitled to receive Cdn.$18.50 in cash and 0.55676 of an Inco Share for each Falconbridge Share tendered, subject to adjustment for fractional shares.

On July 14, 2006, the last trading day on the TSX and the NYSE prior to the announcement of the increased Offer, the implied value of the consideration under the Offer, assuming full proration, was Cdn.$60.20 per Falconbridge Share based on Inco's TSX closing price and Cdn.$60.13 per Falconbridge Share based on Inco's NYSE closing price (using an exchange rate of Cdn.$1.1286, being the closing U.S./ Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on July 14, 2006). Together with the value of the Falconbridge Special Dividend, this represents a premium of 3.31% over the consideration under the Xstrata Offer, (being Cdn.$59.00 in cash per Falconbridge Share) based on Inco's TSX closing price as of July 14, 2006 and a premium of 3.19% over the consideration under the Xstrata Offer based on Inco's NYSE closing price as of July 14, 2006.

The details of proration are more fully described in Section 1 of the Original Offer, "The Offer".

Accordingly, the definitions of "Maximum Take-Up Date Cash Consideration" and "Maximum Take-Up Date Share Consideration" in the "Glossary" section of the Offer and Circular (found at page 9 of the Offer and Circular) are deleted in their entirety and replaced by the following definitions, respectively:

Maximum Take-Up Date Cash Consideration means, in respect of a Take-Up Date, the product obtained by multiplying (i) Cdn.$7,080,125,473 by (ii) the quotient resulting when the aggregate number of Falconbridge Shares to be taken up on such Take-Up Date is divided by 382,709,485, being the aggregate number of Falconbridge Shares outstanding as at July 14, 2006 (calculated on an adjusted fully-diluted basis).

Maximum Take-Up Date Share Consideration means, in respect of a Take-Up Date, the number of Inco Shares equal to the product obtained by multiplying (i) 213,077,333 Inco Shares by (ii) the quotient resulting when the aggregate number of Falconbridge Shares to be taken up on such Take-Up Date is divided by 382,709,485, being the aggregate number of Falconbridge Shares outstanding as at July 14, 2006 (calculated on an adjusted fully-diluted basis).

Fractional Inco Shares will not be issued in connection with the Offer. Where a Shareholder is to receive Inco Shares as consideration under the Offer and the aggregate number of Inco Shares to be issued to such Shareholder would result in a fraction of an Inco Share being issuable, the number of Inco Shares to be received by such Shareholder will either be rounded up or down and the amount of cash to be received by such Shareholder will correspondingly be either decreased or increased (on the basis of Cdn.$74.89 per Inco Share) such that the Maximum Take-Up Date Cash Consideration is paid and the Maximum Take-up Date Share Consideration is issued in respect of Falconbridge Shares taken up on such Take-Up Date.

If any holder of Falconbridge Options does not exercise such options prior to the Expiry Time, their Falconbridge Options will remain outstanding in accordance with their terms and conditions, including with respect to term to expiry, vesting schedule and exercise prices, except that, to the extent permitted, an option to acquire Falconbridge Shares will become an option to acquire that number of Inco Shares equal to the number of Falconbridge Shares multiplied by 0.80379 (representing 0.80312 of an Inco Share adjusted to account for the Cdn.$0.05 payable under the Share Alternative) and have an exercise price per Inco Share equal to the exercise price per Falconbridge Share of that option immediately prior to the Expiry Time divided by 0.80379, subject to adjustments to ensure the in-the-money amount in respect of such option does not increase.

Assuming that all of the conditions to the Offer are satisfied or waived, all Shareholders whose Falconbridge Shares are taken up under the Offer, including those Shareholders who have already deposited their Falconbridge Shares to the Offer, will receive the increased price for their Falconbridge Shares. Shareholders who have validly deposited and not withdrawn their Falconbridge Shares need take no further action to accept the Offer.

2. Reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition

Inco has varied the Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, by reducing the percentage in the Minimum Tender Condition from 66²/₃ % to 50.01%. As a result, Inco will have the right to withdraw its Offer and not take up and pay for any Falconbridge Shares deposited under the Offer, unless, among other things, there has been validly deposited under the Offer and not withdrawn at the Expiry Time such number of Falconbridge Shares which constitutes at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares outstanding at the Expiry Time (calculated on a fully-diluted basis). Accordingly, the definition of Minimum Tender Condition in the Glossary section of the Offer and Circular (found at page 9 of the Offer and Circular) is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following definition:

Minimum Tender Condition means the condition that there has been validly deposited under the Offer and not withdrawn at the Expiry Time such number of Falconbridge Shares which, together with any Falconbridge Shares directly or indirectly owned by the Offeror, constitutes at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares outstanding at the Expiry Time (calculated on a fully-diluted basis).

Inco has reduced the Minimum Tender Condition, after careful consideration and consultation with its legal and financial advisors, in order to increase its prospects of acquiring control of Falconbridge in furtherance of the stated purpose of the Offer to enable Inco to acquire all of the Falconbridge Shares. The reduction in the Minimum Tender Condition reflects Inco's full commitment to successfully completing the Offer and will enhance Shareholders opportunity to participate in the Offer. See Section 5 of the Circular, Purpose of the Offer and Inco's Plans for Falconbridge.

As described in the Circular, it is Inco's intention that, if the Minimum Tender Condition is satisfied and Inco takes up and pays for Falconbridge Shares under the Offer, then Inco will enter into one or more transactions, including a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction or a Compulsory Acquisition, to enable Inco to acquire all of the Falconbridge Shares not acquired pursuant to the Offer. See Section 7 of the Circular, Acquisition of Falconbridge Shares Not Deposited. To the extent that Inco is not able to acquire 100% of the Falconbridge Shares in a timely manner or at all, Inco management believes that it would be able to successfully manage and operate its business with Falconbridge as a majority-owned subsidiary of Inco and, in these circumstances, Inco would endeavour to maximize the synergies and overall profitability between the two companies. In this regard, Inco would expect to utilize its experience in operating its non-wholly-owned subsidiaries in Asia, as well as Falconbridge's substantial experience in this regard from the period prior to June 30, 2005, during which Old Falconbridge was a majority-owned subsidiary of Noranda. Inco is committed to maintaining an investment-grade credit rating.

Phelps Dodge has consented to the reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition to 50.01%, pursuant to a waiver and amendment to the Combination Agreement between Inco and Phelps Dodge dated as of July 16, 2006 (the Waiver and Amendment). The Waiver and Amendment also removed Section 8.1(g) of the Combination Agreement, which had provided that the respective obligations of Phelps Dodge and Inco to effect the Arrangement were conditioned on either Inco having completed a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction and having acquired all of the Falconbridge Shares or the Support Agreement having been terminated in accordance with its terms. The Waiver and Amendment added a new condition precedent to the Arrangement in favour of Phelps Dodge that provides that Inco shall have acquired at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares under the Offer and, if Inco shall have acquired at least two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares, Inco shall have completed a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction in order to acquire any remaining Falconbridge Shares, or that the Support Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms without Inco having acquired any Falconbridge Shares under the Offer. See Section 6 of this Notice of Variation and Extension, Amendment to Combination Agreement between Inco and Phelps Dodge .

Management's expectations with respect to Inco's ability to successfully manage and operate its business with Falconbridge as a majority-owned subsidiary of Inco is subject to various risks and assumptions. See CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION above.

Risk Factors Relating to the Reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition

If Inco acquires 66²/₃% or more of the Falconbridge Shares under the Offer, then Inco would have the ability to control the outcome of Shareholder votes relating to fundamental changes of Falconbridge, including with respect to a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction. By reducing the Minimum Tender Condition from 66²/₃% to 50.01%, however, Inco may initially acquire a number of Falconbridge Shares which is equal to or greater than 50.01% but less than 66²/₃% and there can be no assurance that Inco would ultimately be able to acquire 66²/₃% or more of the Falconbridge Shares in 2006 or at any time in the future. In these circumstances, there can be no assurance that Inco would be able to obtain the level of Shareholder approval required to effect a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction, whether through purchasing additional Falconbridge Shares, obtaining the support of other Shareholders or otherwise.

If the Minimum Tender Condition is satisfied at less than 66²/₃% and Inco takes up and pays for Falconbridge Shares deposited under the Offer, Falconbridge would continue as a separate, public company subsidiary of Inco following the completion of the Offer and prior to the completion of a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction. In these circumstances, certain potential transactions between Inco and Falconbridge would be considered related party transactions under applicable law (specifically, Rule 61-501 and Policy Q-27) which would, unless an exemption is available, require a formal valuation for the transaction and, in addition to any other required securityholder approval, the approval of a majority of the votes cast by minority holders of the affected securities, which would include holders other than Inco and any other person who is a related party of Inco, including an affiliate or an insider of Inco and any person acting jointly or in concert therewith. The ability to effect such transactions would also be subject to future negotiations between the respective Boards of Directors of Inco and Falconbridge, and in such negotiations, any representatives of Inco appointed to the Falconbridge Board of Directors would be precluded from voting on such transactions.

If Inco were unable to complete a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction in a timely manner or at all, then it would be unable to fully integrate the operations of Inco and Falconbridge and, consequently, unless Inco is successful in completing one or more related party transactions with Falconbridge, as described above, Inco would be limited in its ability to avail itself of Falconbridge's cash flows (other than through pro rata distributions to the Falconbridge Shareholders) and in its ability to effect potential transactions with Falconbridge for the purposes of integrating the business and operations of Inco and Falconbridge and, consequently, realizing a significant portion of the synergies otherwise expected to be realized through a combination of Inco and Falconbridge, as originally described in the Circular and updated in Section 1 of the First Variation, Background to the Increased Offer Updated Synergies Estimate . This could materially affect Inco's earnings, cash flows and financial condition and might adversely affect Inco's credit rating, and thereby might adversely impact the probability that the Arrangement would be completed.

If Inco acquires at least 50.01% but less than two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares, Phelps Dodge may (with Inco's consent, which may not be unreasonably withheld) postpone the special meeting of Phelps Dodge's shareholders until Inco has acquired at least two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares. The special meeting is necessary to obtain the approval of Phelps Dodge's shareholders of the amendment to Phelps Dodge's restated certificate of incorporation and the issuance of Phelps Dodge Shares pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement, without which the Arrangement cannot be consummated. If Inco were unable to acquire two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares under the Offer or otherwise in a timely manner, it could adversely impact the chances of the Arrangement being consummated.

See Section 6 of this Notice of Variation and Extension, Amendments to the Combination Agreement between Inco and Phelps Dodge .

Management's expectations with respect to Inco's ability to effect a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction and its expectations with respect to the realization of certain synergies from the combination of Inco and Falconbridge are subject to various risks and assumptions. See CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION above. Also see Section 6 of the Circular, Risk Factors Related to the Offer and the Sections of the Second Variation entitled Risk Factors Relating to the Proposed Combination Transaction and Recent Developments Recent Developments Concerning the Xstrata Offer .

3. Extension of the Expiry Time of the Offer

Inco has extended the Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, by extending the Expiry Time of the Offer from midnight (Vancouver time) on July 24, 2006 to midnight (Vancouver time) on Thursday, July 27, 2006. Accordingly, the definition of Expiry Date in the Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, is deleted in its entirety and replaced by the following definition:

Expiry Date means Thursday, July 27, 2006 or such other date as is set out in a notice of variation of the Offer issued at any time and from time to time accelerating or extending the period during which Falconbridge Shares may be deposited under the Offer.

4. No Adjustment to Offer as a Result of Falconbridge Special Dividend

On July 16, 2006, Falconbridge declared the Falconbridge Special Dividend of Cdn.$0.75 in cash per Falconbridge Share to Shareholders of record as at the close of business (Toronto time) on July 26, 2006, with a payment date of August 10, 2006. Inco has amended the Offer to provide that the consideration under the Offer will not be reduced by the amount of the Falconbridge Special Dividend (which would otherwise have occurred pursuant to the terms of the Offer).

Inco has accordingly amended the Original Offer, as amended or supplemented, by amending the second paragraph of Section 11 of the Offer, Adjustments; Liens by inserting the words, and other than the cash dividend of Cdn.$0.75 per Falconbridge Share declared by Falconbridge on July 16, 2006 to Shareholders of record on July 26, 2006 after 2005 in the parenthetical (other than regular quarterly dividends declared by Falconbridge in accordance with its current dividend policy as established in July 2005) ; and has amended Section 3 of the Offer under the subheading Dividends and Distributions , in the same manner.

Shareholders of record on July 26, 2006 will be entitled to receive the Falconbridge Special Dividend irrespective of whether they tender their Falconbridge Shares to the increased Offer. However, Falconbridge Shareholders whose shares are taken up under the current Xstrata Offer prior to its expiry date of July 21, 2006 or prior to July 26, 2006 pursuant to any extension to the Xstrata Offer, will not receive the Falconbridge Special Dividend. In addition, if extended on its existing terms, the value of the Xstrata Offer would be reduced by Cdn.$0.75 as a result of the Falconbridge Special Dividend if Xstrata or its nominee is not the registered owner of such shares on the July 26, 2006 dividend record date. See Section 10 of this Notice of Variation and Extension, Other Recent Developments Falconbridge Special Dividend and Adjustment to Xstrata Offer .

5. Amendments to the Support Agreement

On July 16, 2006, Inco entered into a sixth amending agreement (the Sixth Amendment) with Falconbridge to amend the Support Agreement originally entered into by Inco and Falconbridge on October 10, 2005, as subsequently amended on January 12, 2006, February 20, 2006, March 21, 2006, May 13, 2006 and June 25, 2006, respectively. This summary of the Sixth Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Support Agreement, as amended. The Sixth Amendment was filed by Inco (i) with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities, available at www.sedar.com and (ii) with the SEC, available at www.sec.gov.

Increase in Offer Price

Under the terms of the Sixth Amendment, Inco agreed to increase the maximum cash consideration offered to holders of Falconbridge Shares pursuant to the Offer to Cdn.$7,080,125,473. As a result, and as more fully described in this Notice of Variation and Extension, Shareholders will be entitled to elect to receive either (a) Cdn.$60.20 in cash for each Falconbridge Share held or (b) 0.80312 of an Inco Share plus Cdn.$0.05 in cash for each Falconbridge Share held, subject, in each case, to proration based upon the maximum amount of cash available and the maximum number of Inco Shares issuable under the Offer.

Reduction of Minimum Tender Condition

Under the terms of the Sixth Amendment, Falconbridge has acknowledged the reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition from 66²/₃ % to 50.01%, with the result that the Offer is subject to the condition that there have been validly deposited under the Offer and not withdrawn at the Expiry Time such number of Falconbridge Shares which, together with any Falconbridge Shares directly or indirectly owned by Inco, constitutes at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares outstanding at the Expiry Time (calculated on a fully-diluted basis).

Consent To Falconbridge Special Dividend

On July 16, 2006, the Falconbridge Board of Directors declared the Falconbridge Special Dividend of Cdn.$0.75 per Falconbridge Share, to Shareholders of record as at the close of business (Toronto time) on July 26, 2006 with a payment date of August 10, 2006. Inco has consented to the declaration and payment of the Falconbridge Special Dividend under the Support Agreement and agreed that Falconbridge would be permitted to reduce the exercise price of any option outstanding on July 16, 2006 under its stock option plans that are exercised after July 16, 2006 by the amount of the Falconbridge Special Dividend in respect of each Falconbridge Share for which any such option is exercised.

Recommendation of the Board of Directors of Falconbridge

Falconbridge has confirmed that the Board of Directors of Falconbridge, upon consultation with its financial and legal advisors, has unanimously determined that the increased price under the Offer is fair from a financial point of view to all Shareholders (other than Inco) and that it is in the best interests of Falconbridge for the Offer to be made and for the Board of Directors of Falconbridge to support the transactions contemplated by the Support Agreement, as amended. Accordingly, the Board of Directors of Falconbridge has unanimously approved the making of a recommendation that Shareholders accept the Offer and tender their Falconbridge Shares to the Offer.

6. Amendments to the Combination Agreement between Inco and Phelps Dodge

On July 16, 2006, Inco and Phelps Dodge announced that they had entered into the Waiver and Amendment, pursuant to which, among other things, the consideration payable for each Inco Share under the proposed Arrangement involving Inco and Phelps Dodge is increased by Cdn.$2.75 in cash, from (i) Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share to (ii) Cdn.$20.25 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share. Upon the completion of the Arrangement, Inco would become a wholly-owned subsidiary of Phelps Dodge.

The Arrangement is subject to, among other things, approvals from the shareholders of Phelps Dodge, the shareholders of Inco and the Superior Court of Justice (Ontario), respectively. The Arrangement is not conditional upon the completion of Inco's acquisition of Falconbridge pursuant to the increased Offer. However, under the terms of the Combination Agreement, as amended, if Inco has successfully acquired at least 66²/₃ % of the outstanding Falconbridge Shares and the Arrangement is successfully completed, then Inco, Falconbridge and Phelps Dodge would effectively be combined to create Phelps Dodge Inco Corporation, which is expected to be the world's leading nickel producer, the world's largest publicly-traded copper producer and a leading producer of molybdenum and cobalt, with its shares listed on the NYSE and the TSX. The proposed combination has the support of the Falconbridge Board of Directors, which has entered into a separate cooperation agreement with Phelps Dodge, described in the Second Variation.

This summary of the Waiver and Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the full text of the Combination Agreement, as amended. The Waiver and Amendment was filed by Inco (i) with the Canadian securities regulatory authorities and is available at www.sedar.com and (ii) with the SEC and is available at www.sec.gov.

Increased Consideration

The Waiver and Amendment provides that the consideration payable for each Inco Share under the proposed Arrangement will be increased by Cdn.$2.75 in cash, from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share to Cdn.$20.25 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share. The implied value of the consideration payable to Inco shareholders under the Arrangement has accordingly increased to Cdn.$80.76 per Inco Share, based on the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on the NYSE on July 14, 2006, which was $79.79, or Cdn.$90.05 using an exchange rate of Cdn.$1.1286, being the closing U.S./ Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on July 14, 2006.

Pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement, a newly-formed, wholly-owned subsidiary of Phelps Dodge (Subco) will acquire all of the Inco Shares such that each outstanding Inco Share (other than (x) Inco Shares held by a holder who has validly exercised its dissent rights or by Phelps Dodge or by any subsidiary of Phelps Dodge and (y) restricted Inco Shares) will be exchanged by the holder thereof for Cdn.$20.25 in cash (the Cash Amount) and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share (the Exchange Ratio). Each outstanding restricted Inco Share awarded under Inco's 2001 Key Executive Incentive Plan and 2005 Key Executive Incentive Plan will be exchanged for that number of restricted Phelps Dodge Shares equal to the Exchange Ratio plus the quotient of the Cash Amount divided by the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on the NYSE on the trading day immediately prior to the closing date of the Arrangement expressed in Canadian dollars (such sum, the Stock Award Exchange Ratio). Each outstanding option to acquire Inco Shares, whether or not vested, shall be cancelled in exchange for a fully vested option to acquire that number of Phelps Dodge Shares equal to the number of Inco Shares subject to such Inco option multiplied by the Stock Award Exchange Ratio. The exercise price for each Phelps Dodge Share subject to any such converted option will be an amount equal to the quotient of the exercise price per Inco Share subject to such Inco option divided by the Stock Award Exchange Ratio, subject to certain adjustments as set out in the Combination Agreement, as amended.

Completion of the Arrangement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Combination Agreement, as amended, are proposed to take place following receipt of all shareholder approvals and regulatory clearances, which is generally expected to occur sometime in September 2006.

Amendment to Closing Conditions

The obligations of Inco and Phelps Dodge to effect the Arrangement and complete the transactions contemplated by the Combination Agreement, as amended are subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions. The Waiver and Amendment also removed Section 8.1(g) of the Combination Agreement, which had provided that the respective obligations of Phelps Dodge and Inco to effect the Arrangement were conditioned on either Inco having completed a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction and having acquired all of the Falconbridge Shares or the Support Agreement having been terminated in accordance with its terms. The Waiver and Amendment added a new condition precedent to the Arrangement in favour of Phelps Dodge that provides that Inco shall have acquired at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares under the Offer and, if Inco shall have acquired at least two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares, Inco shall have completed a Subsequent Acquisition Transaction in order to acquire any remaining Falconbridge Shares, or that the Support Agreement shall have been terminated in accordance with its terms without Inco having acquired any Falconbridge Shares under the Offer.

Other Amendments

Pursuant to the Waiver and Amendment, Inco and Phelps Dodge agreed that, in the event that Inco acquires at least 50.01% but less than two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares, Phelps Dodge may, with the prior consent of Inco (which consent Inco may not unreasonably withhold), postpone the special meeting of Phelps Dodge's shareholders, which meeting is to be called to consider the amendment to its restated certificate of incorporation and the issuance of Phelps Dodge Shares pursuant to the terms of the Arrangement, until Inco has acquired at least two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares.

The Waiver and Amendment amended Section 9.3(b)(vi) of the Combination Agreement to provide that Inco will be required to pay Phelps Dodge a termination payment of $925 million in certain circumstances (increased from $425 million) from and after the date that Inco has acquired at least 50.01% of the Falconbridge Shares. The Combination Agreement had previously provided that such increase was payable from and after the date that Inco had acquired at least two-thirds of the Falconbridge Shares.

The Waiver and Amendment also amended Section 5.1 of the Combination Agreement to provide that Inco may make market purchases of up to 5% of the Falconbridge Shares outstanding on the date of the Original Offer in accordance with applicable securities laws and Section 12 of the Original Offer.

Consents of Phelps Dodge

Pursuant to the Waiver and Amendment, Phelps Dodge consented to, among other things, the Cdn.$1.00 increase in the cash consideration offered to Shareholders for each Falconbridge Share under the Offer, assuming full proration, the reduction of the Minimum Tender Condition to 50.01%, and to Inco entering into the Sixth Amendment, including to provide for the Falconbridge Special Dividend.

Implied Look-through Value of the proposed Arrangement involving Inco and Phelps Dodge

On July 14, 2006, the last trading day on the NYSE prior to the announcement of the increased consideration under the proposed Arrangement involving Inco and Phelps Dodge, the Implied Look-through Value of the total consideration per Falconbridge Share, assuming both the successful completion of the Offer and the Arrangement, was Cdn.$63.47 per Falconbridge Share, based on the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on the NYSE, which was $79.79 on July 14, 2006, or Cdn.$90.05 using an exchange rate of Cdn.$1.1286, being the closing U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on July 14, 2006. The Implied Look-through Value on July 14, 2006, including the value of the Falconbridge Special Dividend, represents a premium of 8.85% over the value of the Xstrata Offer (being Cdn.$59.00 in cash per Falconbridge Share).

The Implied Look-through Value of the total consideration per Falconbridge Share as at a particular date, assuming the successful completion of both the Offer and the Arrangement and assuming full proration of the consideration under the Offer, means the amount that is equal to the sum of: (i) Cdn.$20.25 multiplied by 0.55676 (ii) Cdn.$18.50; and (iii) the closing price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on that date on the NYSE (converted to Canadian dollars at the closing U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate of the Bank of Canada on that date) multiplied by the exchange ratio of 0.672 and further multiplied by 0.55676. The Implied Look-through Value is based on various assumptions, including the successful completion of both the Offer and the Arrangement, the U.S./Canadian dollar exchange rate as of a given date and the trading price of the Phelps Dodge Shares on a given date which, for the purpose of the illustration above, was with reference to July 14, 2006, and is subject to various risks, including changes in the market price of the Phelps Dodge Shares and fluctuations in the U.S./ Canadian dollar exchange rate. See CAUTION REGARDING FORWARD-LOOKING INFORMATION . Also see Section 6 of the Circular, Risk Factors Related to the Offer and the section of the Second Variation entitled Risk Factors Relating to the Proposed Combination Transaction .

7. Source of Funds for Offer to Acquire Falconbridge

Inco intends to finance the cash payable in connection with the Offer through the committed loan facilities previously described in the Offer and Circular, as amended and supplemented, available cash on hand and through the issuance of convertible subordinated notes to Phelps Dodge pursuant to the Note Purchase Agreement previously described in the Offer and Circular, as amended and supplemented.

8. Revised Selected Inco Pro Forma Consolidated Financial Information

The following is an updated version of, and replacement for, the selected pro forma consolidated financial information previously contained in the Offer and Circular, as amended or supplemented, and should be read in conjunction with Inco's unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements, the accompanying notes thereto and the compilation report of PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP thereon, included in this Notice of Variation and Extension. The pro forma consolidated balance sheet has been prepared from the unaudited consolidated balance sheet of the Offeror and Falconbridge as at March 31, 2006 and gives pro forma effect to the successful completion of the Offer (including any Compulsory Acquisition or Subsequent Acquisition Transaction) as if the transactions occurred on March 31, 2006. The pro forma consolidated statements of earnings for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the three month period ended March 31, 2006 have been prepared, respectively, from the audited consolidated statement of earnings of the Offeror and Falconbridge for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the unaudited interim consolidated statement of earnings of the Offeror and Falconbridge for the three month period ended March 31, 2006, and gives pro forma effect to the successful completion of the Offer (including any Compulsory Acquisition or Subsequent Acquisition Transaction) as if the transactions occurred on January 1, 2005.

The selected pro forma consolidated financial information is not intended to be indicative of the operating results or financial condition of the consolidated entities that would actually have occurred, or the results expected in future periods, had the events reflected herein occurred on the dates indicated. Actual amounts recorded upon consummation of the transactions contemplated by the Offer will differ from the pro forma information presented below. The pro forma consolidated financial information does not reflect and does not give effect to (1) any special items such as payments pursuant to change of control provisions or integration costs which may be incurred as a result of the acquisition, or (2) operating efficiencies, cost savings and synergies that are expected to result from the acquisition, and no adjustments have been made to eliminate historical sales between Inco and Falconbridge as the amounts are not considered significant.

In addition to the documents referred to in the section of the Second Variation entitled "Information Concerning Phelps Dodge – Phelps Dodge Documents Incorporated by Reference", any documents of the following type filed by Phelps Dodge with a securities regulatory authority in Canada on SEDAR after the date of this Notice of Variation and Extension and prior to the termination of the Offer shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into, and form an integral part of, the Circular: financial information about Phelps Dodge contained in a press release disseminated by or on behalf of Phelps Dodge relating to an annual or quarterly financial period more recent than Phelps Dodge's annual or interim financial statements (and, for greater certainty, only the financial information in such press release, and no other information shall be deemed to be so incorporated).

Selected unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information was filed by Phelps Dodge with Canadian securities regulatory authorities on SEDAR and incorporated by reference into the Second Variation and accordingly does not reflect the increased consideration under the Offer, the increased consideration under the proposed Arrangement, or the related increase in indebtedness of each of Inco and Phelps Dodge. Inco understands that following the date of this Notice of Variation and Extension, Phelps Dodge intends to file with securities regulatory authorities in Canada on SEDAR updated selected unaudited pro forma consolidated financial information giving effect to the successful completion of the increased Offer (including any Compulsory Acquisition or Subsequent Acquisition Transaction), Phelps Dodge's increased offer for Inco and related increase in indebtedness and the successful completion of the Arrangement and the transactions contemplated by the Combination Agreement, as amended, as if such transaction had occurred on March 31, 2006 for the purposes of the pro forma consolidated balance sheet information and as at January 1, 2005 for the purposes of the pro forma consolidated statements of earnings for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the three month period ended March 31, 2006, which, when so filed, shall be deemed to be incorporated by reference into and form an integral part of, the Offer and Circular.

Source of Funds for Increased Cash Payable under Phelps Dodge's Revised Offer to Acquire Inco

Phelps Dodge has advised Inco that it has increased its previously disclosed financing arrangements in an amount sufficient to fund the increased cash component of its offer to acquire Inco.

10. Other Recent Developments

In addition to the items discussed above under "Amendments to the Support Agreement" and "Amendments to the Combination Agreement between Inco and Phelps Dodge", since the date of the Fourth Extension, the following recent developments have occurred regarding Inco.

Falconbridge Special Dividend

On July 16, 2006, the Falconbridge Board of Directors declared the Falconbridge Special Dividend, being a special dividend in the amount of Cdn.$0.75 payable to Shareholders of record as at the close of business (Toronto time) on July 26, 2006, with a payment date of August 10, 2006.

Section 9 of the Xstrata Offer provides that should Falconbridge make any declaration or payment of any dividends other than Regular Dividends on or after the date of the Xstrata Offer, the purchase price per Falconbridge Share payable by Xstrata pursuant to the Xstrata Offer in cash will be reduced by the amount of any such dividend.

Regular Dividends are defined in the Xstrata Offer as being regular quarterly cash dividends declared by Falconbridge in accordance with its current publicly disclosed dividend policy prior to the date of the first take up of Falconbridge Shares by Xstrata under the Xstrata Offer.

As a result of this provision, the Xstrata Offer would, if extended on its current terms, be reduced by Cdn.$0.75 as of the July 26, 2006 record date in respect of Falconbridge Shares acquired by it pursuant to its offer to the extent that Xstrata or its nominee is not the registered owner of such shares as of that date.

Further, the pro forma results of operations are not necessarily indicative of the results of operations that may be obtained by Inco in the future.

2. SUMMARY OF SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The unaudited pro forma consolidated financial statements have been compiled using the significant accounting policies as set out in the audited consolidated financial statements of Inco for the year ended December 31, 2005 which, based on publicly available information, are assumed to be substantially similar to the significant accounting policies as set out in the audited consolidated financial statements of Falconbridge for the year ended December 31, 2005 and the unaudited consolidated financial statements for the three months ended March 31, 2006. Upon consummation of the transaction, the accounting policies will be formally conformed and it is possible that adjustments may result.

3. Pro Forma Adjustments and Assumptions

The pro forma consolidated financial statements include the following pro forma assumptions and adjustments:

- (a) The acquisition is accounted for using the purchase method of accounting, whereby Falconbridge's assets and liabilities are revalued to their fair value and its shareholders' equity is eliminated. Inco's assets and liabilities are not revalued. With the exception of Nikkelverk (see Note 6), the pro forma adjustments reflect Inco's acquisition of 100 per cent of Falconbridge's net assets at their fair values as at March 31, 2006 and the accounting for Falconbridge as a wholly-owned subsidiary of Inco. Falconbridge's interests in joint ventures in which it has joint control are reflected using the proportionate consolidation method.

The determination of the purchase price, based on management's preliminary estimate, is as follows:

Purchase Price

Consideration in Inco common shares	$ 14,016
Consideration in Inco options issued	78
Cash	6,280
Transaction costs	200
Total	$ 20,574

The purchase price was calculated using a price of $66.45 for each Inco common share issued, which represents the volume weighted average trading price of the Inco common shares on the Toronto Stock Exchange over the two day trading period extending from July 13 to July 14, 2006, being the two trading days before the date of announcement of Inco's increased Offer. The purchase price does not adjust for any payments which may be required in respect of shareholders exercising dissent rights in respect of any subsequent acquisition transaction undertaken by Inco. The cash portion of the purchase price will be financed primarily through $5.5 billion of committed senior loan facilities and the remainder from the convertible subordinated notes (see Notes 3(g) and 6) and Inco's cash balances.

The allocation of the purchase price, based on management's preliminary estimate, is as follows:

Allocation of Purchase Price

	Book Value	Fair Value Increment	Purchase Price Allocation
Assets
Cash and cash equivalents	$ 802	$	$ 802
Accounts receivable	1,269		1,269
Inventories	1,788	889	2,677
Unallocated purchase price		7,507	7,507
Property, plant and equipment and other non-current assets	8,819	11,223	20,042
Total assets	$ 12,678	$ 19,619	$ 32,297
Liabilities
Long-term debt due within one year	$ 853	$	$ 853
Other current liabilities	1,668	125	1,793
Long-term debt	2,910	129	3,039
Deferred income and mining taxes	1,264	3,246	4,510
Other long-term liabilities	651	495	1,146
Minority interest	382		382
Total liabilities	$ 7,728	$ 3,995	$ 11,723
Total net assets purchased	$ 4,950	$ 15,624	$ 20,574

The book value of Falconbridge, as shown above:

reflects Falconbridge's stated book values as at March 31, 2006;

reflects an adjustment to cash to reflect the assumed exercise of vested Falconbridge stock options;

reflects the reclassification of the equity portion of Falconbridge's outstanding preferred shares to minority interest; and assumes that the net assets of Nikkelverk are sold upon Inco's acquisition of Falconbridge (see Note 6).

Reflects the special dividend of Cdn.$0.75 per common share payable to Falconbridge shareholders of record on July 26, 2006, which Falconbridge declared on July 16, 2006.

This allocation is based upon preliminary estimates and certain assumptions with respect to the fair value increment associated with the assets to be acquired and the liabilities to be assumed. The actual fair values of the assets and liabilities will be determined as of the date of acquisition and may differ materially from the amounts disclosed above in the assumed pro forma purchase price allocation due to the changes in fair values of the assets and liabilities between March 31, 2006 and the date of the transaction and as further analysis is completed. The actual allocation of the purchase price may result in different adjustments in the consolidated statement of earnings.

To the extent that the unallocated purchase price is not allocated to the assets acquired and liabilities assumed in the final purchase price allocation, the balance will represent goodwill. This goodwill reflects the substantial synergies available to Inco as a result of the acquisition.

- (b) The adjustment to cost of sales and other expenses reflects the elimination of deferred gains on derivative contracts on the pro forma consolidated statements of earnings. The deferred gains arise from derivative contracts that qualified for hedge accounting and were realized as a reduction of the cost of operations over the original delivery schedule of contracts. The gains would not have been realized in the year ended December 31, 2005 and the three months ended March 31, 2006 since the purchased derivative contracts would have been fair valued as of January 1, 2005.
- (c) The adjustment to cost of sales and other expenses reflects the elimination of amortized past service costs and amortized net actuarial losses relating to post retirement benefits which were expensed in the year ended December 31, 2005 and the three months ended March 31, 2006.
- (d) The adjustment represents the amortization of the preliminary fair value increment allocated to operating capital assets. The pro forma amortization excludes the total amount of the purchase price allocation not subject to amortization of approximately $8.5 billion representing the unallocated purchase price and amounts allocated to non-operating assets. On finalization of the purchase price allocation, if this amount is allocated to operating assets, pro forma amortization would change by approximately $370 million, before taxes, for the year ended December 31, 2005 and by $92 million for three months ended March 31, 2006. Pro forma amortization and the above-noted sensitivity have been based on a remaining weighted average estimated economic life of 23 years, and a reduction of one year in the weighted average estimated economic life would alter pro forma amortization by $18 million, before taxes, for the year ended December 31, 2005 and by $5 million for three months ended March 31, 2006.

- (e) The adjustment to selling, general and administrative expenses reflects the expense relating to the unvested stock options to be issued pursuant to the acquisition of Falconbridge.
- (f) The adjustment to cost of sales and other expenses reflects the amortization of the allocation of the purchase price to equity accounted investments.
- (g) The adjustment to interest expense primarily assumes the issuance of $6.1 billion of debt in connection with the acquisition of Falconbridge and the amortization of the fair market value increment related to the Falconbridge debt. The debt issuance is currently assumed to be comprised of (1) $5.5 billion from Inco's credit facilities and (2) $0.6 billion from the issuance of convertible subordinated notes due April 1, 2012 (Notes), which may be issued, at Inco's option, to Phelps Dodge Corporation. The Notes are convertible into Inco common shares at a conversion rate equal to 95 per cent of the average closing price of the Inco common shares on the NYSE over the five trading days preceding the date of conversion provided, however, that the Notes may not be converted (i) prior to the six-month anniversary of the issuance of the Notes or (ii) if the holder of the Notes and its affiliates would own, together with any persons acting jointly or in concert with the holder and its affiliates, after such conversion, an aggregate of more than 20% of the then outstanding Inco common shares. The payment of interest on the Notes may be deferred by Inco until stated maturity. At stated maturity, the Notes will be payable in cash, common shares of Inco or a combination thereof.
- (h) The adjustment reflects the elimination of the Falconbridge minority interest in earnings assuming that Falconbridge and Noranda Inc. were amalgamated at January 1, 2005.
- (i) The adjustment reflects the tax effect on the above adjustments.
- (j) The adjustment reflects the reclassification of preferred share dividends to minority interest.
- (k) In addition to the above, various adjustments were made to (1) adjust the balance sheet to remove the carrying value of Nikkelverk; (2) adjust earnings to take into account the new agreements entered into in association with such sale (see Note 6 below); and (3) reflect the sale proceeds of cash of $400 million and LionOre common shares initially valued at approximately $250 million in the balance sheet. The sale of Nikkelverk was a necessary condition in order to obtain regulatory clearance of the acquisition of Falconbridge pursuant to the Offer by both the US Department of Justice and the European Commission. The unaudited pro forma financial data to effect these adjustments were prepared by Falconbridge and are as follows:

- (1) On March 16, 2006, Falconbridge announced its intention to redeem $500 million of its junior preference shares (Series 1, 2 and 3). The junior preference shares were redeemed on April 26, 2006 from holders of record on March 22, 2006. On May 18, 2006, Falconbridge announced that it intends to redeem the remaining balance of its outstanding junior preference shares (Series 1, 2 and 3) for a total of approximately $253 million. The junior preference shares were redeemed on June 28, 2006 and internal cash resources were used to fund the redemptions. The adjustment reflects these redemptions on the balance sheet.

4. Items not Adjusted

The pro forma consolidated financial information does not reflect and does not give effect to (1) any special items such as payments pursuant to change of control provisions or integration costs which may be incurred as a result of the acquisition, or (2) operating efficiencies, cost savings and synergies that are expected to result from the acquisition, and no adjustments have been made to eliminate historical sales between Inco and Falconbridge as the amounts are not considered significant.

6. Subsequent Events

On June 26, 2006, Inco and Phelps Dodge Corporation (Phelps Dodge) announced that they had entered into an agreement (the Combination Agreement) under which a newly-formed, wholly-owned subsidiary of Phelps Dodge will acquire all of the outstanding common shares of Inco under a plan of arrangement (the Arrangement) for a combination of cash and common shares of Phelps Dodge. On July 16, 2006, Inco and Phelps Dodge entered into a waiver and amendment to the Combination Agreement pursuant to which, among other things, Phelps Dodge increased the consideration payable under the Arrangement from Cdn.$17.50 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share to Cdn.$20.25 in cash and 0.672 of a Phelps Dodge Share. On that same date, Falconbridge declared a special dividend of Cdn.$0.75 per common share of Falconbridge payable on August 10, 2006 to Falconbridge shareholders of record on July 26, 2006.

Upon the closing of the Phelps Dodge-Inco combination, shareholders of Falconbridge who have been issued Inco common shares in the Inco-Falconbridge transaction will be entitled to receive for those shares the same package of cash and Phelps Dodge shares as will other Inco shareholders. Inco may be required to pay a break-up fee to Phelps Dodge under certain circumstances equal to $425 million, and such amount will be increased to $975 million from the date Inco acquires at least 50.01% of the outstanding common shares of Falconbridge. Inco has also given Phelps Dodge certain other customary rights, including a right to match competing offers. Phelps Dodge has agreed to pay Inco a $500 million break-up fee under certain circumstances. Inco has received additional financing commitments from Morgan Stanley, Goldman, Sachs & Co., Royal Bank of Canada, and Bank of Nova Scotia in support of the increased cash component of its revised agreed offer for Falconbridge. The completion of the transactions contemplated by the Combination Agreement is subject to certain conditions, including, among others, certain approvals of shareholders. Phelps Dodge has entered into a definitive agreement under which, subject to certain conditions, it may be required to purchase up to $3 billion of convertible subordinated notes issued by Inco to help fund Inco's purchase of Falconbridge common shares or to satisfy related dissent rights, as needed. The instrument will be redeemable for cash at any time by Inco and may be converted in whole or in part at any time beginning six months after issuance by Phelps Dodge at a conversion rate equal to 95 per cent of the average closing price on the NYSE over the five trading days preceding the date of conversion plus accrued and unpaid interest on the security at the time of conversion. The instrument will bear an 8 per cent coupon. The payment of interest on the Notes may be deferred by Inco until stated maturity. At stated maturity, the Notes will be payable in cash, common shares of Inco or a combination thereof. The transaction between Phelps Dodge and Inco is not conditioned upon the completion of the Inco and Falconbridge combination. Thus, in the event the Inco-Falconbridge merger is not completed, Inco shareholders will receive the same 0.672 shares of Phelps Dodge and C$20.25 per share in cash that they would have received in the proposed three-way combination.

On June 23, 2006, Inco announced that it and Falconbridge reached a definitive agreement with the U.S. Department of Justice on a remedy whereby the Nikkelverk refinery and related working capital would be sold to LionOre Mining International Ltd. as previously outlined on June 7, 2006. This remedy was also agreed to by the European Commission on July 4, 2006.

On June 7, 2006, Falconbridge and Inco announced that they had reached a definitive agreement (the LionOre Agreement) with LionOre Mining International Ltd. (LionOre) covering the sale to LionOre of certain assets and related operations of Falconbridge for a $650 million acquisition price to be satisfied by the payment of $400 million in cash and by the issuance and delivery of $250 million of common shares of LionOre. The purchase price is subject to certain adjustments tied to changes in the final working capital levels of the operations to be sold to LionOre and certain other adjustments. This sale represents the remedy intended to address competition concerns previously identified by the U.S. Department of Justice and the European Commission with respect to Inco's proposed acquisition of Falconbridge. The assets and related operations being sold to LionOre will include Falconbridge's Nikkelverk refinery in Norway and the Falconbridge marketing and custom feed organizations that market and sell the finished nickel and other products produced at the Nikkelverk refinery and obtain third-party feeds for the Nikkelverk refinery (collectively, Nikkelverk). Inco has also agreed to supply up to 60,000 tonnes of nickel in matte annually, approximately equivalent to the current volume of feed provided by Falconbridge's operations to the Nikkelverk refinery, for up to ten years. The closing of the sale of Nikkelverk to LionOre is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions, including the attainment of all applicable approvals and consents necessary to permit the pending acquisition of Falconbridge by Inco, Inco taking up and paying for Falconbridge shares pursuant to its offer, the conditional approval of the Toronto Stock Exchange of the issuance and listing of the LionOre common shares to be issued as part of the acquisition price consideration and certain other standard terms and conditions to closing. LionOre's obligations pursuant to the LionOre Agreement are also subject to certain conditions, including Inco having acquired more than 50 per cent (on a fully-diluted basis) of the Falconbridge common share pursuant to the Offer or otherwise.

PART II

INFORMATION NOT REQUIRED TO BE DELIVERED TO OFFEREEES OR PURCHASERS

Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

Section 3.12 of Part 3 of By-Law No. 1 of the Registrant provides in part as follows:

Indemnity and Insurance. Subject to the limitations contained in the Canada Business Corporations Act but without limit to the right of the Company to indemnify any person under the Act or otherwise, the Company shall indemnify a Director or Officer, a former Director or Officer, or a person who acts or acted at the Company's request as a director or officer of a body corporate of which the Company is or was a shareholder or creditor, and his heirs and legal representatives, against all costs, charges and expenses, including an amount paid to settle an action or satisfy a judgment, reasonably incurred by him in respect of any civil, criminal or administrative action or proceeding to which he is made a party by reason of being or having been a Director or Officer or a director or officer of such body corporate, if,

(a) he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company, and

(b) in the case of a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was lawful.

The Canada Business Corporations Act provides as of right that, in general, an officer or director, as such, shall be entitled to indemnity if (i) he was not judged by a court or competent authority to have committed any fault or omitted to do anything he ought to have done, (ii) he acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the corporation and (iii) where a criminal or administrative action or proceeding that is enforced by a monetary penalty, he had reasonable grounds for believing that his conduct was lawful. However, under the Act, no officer or director of the Registrant may be indemnified with respect to any security holder's derivative action brought pursuant to such Act unless a court of competent jurisdiction has approved the terms of such indemnification.

The Registrant has an insurance policy that indemnifies directors and officers against certain liabilities incurred by them in their capacities as such, including among other things, certain liabilities under the Securities Act of 1933.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers or persons controlling the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, the Registrant has been informed that in the opinion of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is therefore unenforceable.
