Explanatory Note

On November 12, 2010, First Mariner Bancorp (the “Company”) received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market informing the Company that NASDAQ’s rules have been modified to make it easier for the Company to qualify for an additional 180 “grace” period (until August 21, 2011) to regain compliance with NASDAQ’s minimum bid requirement. The rule change reduced, to $1 million, the minimum Market Value of Publicly Held Shares that a listed company must have to be eligible for the additional grace period. Prior to this rule change, to have been eligible for the additional grace period, the Market Value of Publicly Held Shares would have had to be either $15 million or $5 million depending on net income in recent fiscal years. This Amendment No. 1 to the Company’s Form 8-K originally filed on August 27, 2010 reflects the changes to NASDAQ’s rules.

Item 3.01. Notice of Delisting or Failure to Satisfy a Continued Listing Rule or Standard; Transfer of Listing.

As described in the Explanatory Note above, on November 12, 2010, First Mariner Bancorp received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market providing notice that modified the effect of The NASDAQ Stock Market’s August 24, 2010 letter to the Company.

On August 24, 2010, the Company received a letter from The NASDAQ Stock Market notifying the Company that, for 30 consecutive business days, the Company’s common stock had not maintained a minimum bid price of $1.00 per share as required for continued inclusion on The NASDAQ Global Market by Listing Rule 5450(a)(1). This notification has no effect on the listing of the Company’s securities at this time.

NASDAQ has provided the Company 180 calendar days, or until February 22, 2011, to regain compliance with Listing Rule 5450(a)(1). If, at any time before February 22, 2011, the bid price of the Company’s common stock closes at $1.00 or more for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days, NASDAQ will provide written notification that the Company has achieved compliance with Listing Rule 5450(a)(1) and the Company’s shares will continue to trade on The NASDAQ Global Market. If the Company determines that it will not meet the minimum bid requirement by February 22, 2011 but would otherwise meet all NASDAQ Capital Market initial inclusion requirements except bid price, and the Company meets The NASDAQ Capital Market’s $1 million continued listing requirement with respect to the Market Value of Publicly Held Shares (as that term is defined by NASDAQ rules), the Company could apply to be listed on The NASDAQ Capital Market and would have 180 additional days (through August 21, 2011) to regain compliance with the $1.00 minimum bid price requirement, which the Company would regain if the bid price of the Company’s common stock closes at $1.00 per share or higher for a minimum of 10 consecutive business days. If, by February 22, 2011, the Company is not eligible for the 180 additional day period within which to regain compliance, or, if it is eligible for this additional period, but, by August 21, 2011, the Company does not regain compliance with the minimum closing bid price requirement, NASDAQ will provide written notice that the Company’s securities will be delisted from The NASDAQ Capital Market. At such time, the Company would be entitled to appeal the delisting determination to a NASDAQ Listing Qualifications Panel.
