Part III. Narrative

State below in reasonable detail the reasons why Form 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR or the transition report portion thereof could not be filed within the prescribed time period. (Attach extra sheets if needed.) The Hain Celestial Group, Inc. (the "Company") has determined that it is unable to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016 (the "Form 10-K") by August 29, 2016, the original due date for such filing. As disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 15, 2016, during its fourth quarter, the Company identified concessions that were granted to certain distributors in the United States. The Company is currently evaluating whether the revenue associated with those concessions was accounted for in the correct period and is also currently evaluating its internal control over financial reporting. The Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors is conducting an independent review of these matters and has retained independent counsel to assist in that review. As a result, the Company cannot, without unreasonable effort or expense, file its Form 10-K by the due date of August 29, 2016. The Company does not expect to file its Form 10-K until the completion of the Audit Committee's review of these matters and the audit process relating to the 2016 fiscal year. While the Company continues to work expeditiously to conclude this review and file its Form 10-K as soon as practicable, the Company does not anticipate filing the Form 10-K within the fifteen-day period provided by Rule 12b-25.

ý Yes " No

If so: attach an explanation of the anticipated change, both narratively and quantitatively, and, if appropriate, state the reasons why a reasonable estimate of the results cannot be made.

As previously disclosed in the Company's Current Report on Form 8-K filed on August 15, 2016, the Company does not expect to achieve its previously announced guidance for fiscal year 2016. The independent review of the Audit Committee and the Company's evaluation of the effectiveness of its internal control over financial reporting are ongoing. Therefore, the Company is unable to provide a reasonable estimate of the results of operations for the fiscal year ended June 30, 2016 until such review and evaluation are complete.

Certain statements contained in this Form 12b-25 constitute "forward-looking statements" within the meaning of the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. Forward-looking statements are predictions based on expectations and projections about future events, and are not statements of historical fact. You can identify forward-looking statements by the use of forward-looking terminology such as "plan", "continue", "expect", "anticipate", "intend", "predict", "project", "estimate", "likely", "believe", "might", "seek", "may", "remain", "potential", "can", "should", "could", "future" and expressions, or the negative of those expressions. These forward-looking statements include the Company's beliefs or expectations relating to the Company's expectations relating to the filing of the Form 10-K and the results of the ongoing review. Such forward-looking statements involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties, and other factors which may cause the actual results to be materially different from any future results expressed or implied by such forward-looking statements. Such factors include a material delay in the Company's financial reporting, including the possibility that the Company will not be able to file its Form 10-K within the fifteen-day extension permitted by the rules of Securities and Exchange Commission, the possibility that one or more material weaknesses in the Company's internal control over financial reporting may be identified in connection with the ongoing review, the possibility that the ongoing review may identify errors, which may be material, in the Company's revenue recognition accounting, whether investors should no longer rely upon previously issued financial statements, and the risk that the Company may need to restate its financial statements. As a result of the foregoing and other factors, no assurance can be given as to the future results, levels of activity and achievements of the Company, and neither the Company nor any person assumes responsibility for the accuracy and completeness of these statements.
