PROXY STATEMENT

This Proxy Statement is furnished in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Board of Directors of FairMarket, Inc. ("FairMarket") for use at the 2001 Annual Meeting of Stockholders of FairMarket to be held on Wednesday, May 23, 2001 at 10:00 a.m., local time, at the Royal Sonesta Hotel, 5 Cambridge Parkway, Cambridge, Massachusetts, and at any adjournments or postponements thereof.

This Proxy Statement and the accompanying materials are being mailed on or about April 11, 2001 to holders of record of our common stock as of the record date for the meeting, March 29, 2001.

FairMarket's 2000 Annual Report to Shareholders, together with FairMarket's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2000 (which includes FairMarket's consolidated financial statements), is being mailed to stockholders of FairMarket with this Proxy Statement. The Annual Report to Shareholders and the Annual Report on Form 10-K are not, however, part of the proxy solicitation material.

VOTING AND SOLICITATION OF PROXIES

At the Annual Meeting, stockholders will act upon the matters set forth in the accompanying Notice of Annual Meeting, including the election of a Class I director. We are not aware of any other matters to be presented at the meeting other than those described in this Proxy Statement. If any other matters are properly presented at the meeting, proxies will be voted in accordance with the best judgment of the proxy holders.

STOCKHOLDERS ENTITLED TO VOTE; TABULATION OF VOTES. If our records show that you are a stockholder as of the close of business on March 29, 2001 (the record date for the meeting), you are entitled to receive notice of the Annual Meeting and to vote the shares of FairMarket's common stock that you held at that time. Each outstanding share of common stock entitles its holder to cast one vote for each matter to be voted upon.

All votes will be tabulated by the inspector of election appointed for the meeting, who will separately tabulate affirmative and negative votes, abstentions and "broker non-votes." "Broker non-votes" are shares represented at the meeting that are held by brokers or nominees as to which instructions have not been received from the beneficial owners or persons entitled to vote those shares, and the brokers or nominees do not have discretionary voting power to vote those shares.

On March 29, 2001, there were 28,774,161 shares of our common stock outstanding, held by 186 stockholders of record.

ATTENDING THE ANNUAL MEETING. All stockholders of record of shares of FairMarket's common stock at the close of business on the record date, or their designated proxies, may attend the Annual Meeting.

QUORUM. The presence, in person or by proxy, of holders of at least a majority of the total number of outstanding shares of FairMarket's common stock entitled to vote is necessary to constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at the Annual Meeting. As of the record date, there were 28,774,161 shares of common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Annual Meeting. Shares that reflect abstentions and broker non-votes will be counted as present for purposes of determining the presence of a quorum.

VOTING YOUR SHARES. Shares may be voted as described below.

VOTING BY PROXY HOLDERS FOR SHARES REGISTERED DIRECTLY IN THE NAME OF THE STOCKHOLDER. If your shares are registered directly in your own name with our transfer agent, EquiServe Trust Company, then you are considered to be the "holder of record" of those shares. If you hold your shares in your own name as a holder of record, you may instruct the proxy holders named in the enclosed proxy card how to vote your shares by marking, signing, dating and mailing the proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

VOTING BY PROXY HOLDERS FOR SHARES REGISTERED IN THE NAME OF A BROKERAGE FIRM OR BANK. If your shares are held of record by a broker, bank or other nominee (in other words, in "street name"), you will receive instructions from your nominee which you must follow in order to have your shares voted.

VOTING BY MAIL. If you would like to vote by mail, please mark your proxy card, sign and date it, and return it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

VOTING IN PERSON. If you are the stockholder of record and attend the Annual Meeting, you may deliver your completed proxy card in person. "Street name" stockholders who wish to vote at the meeting will need to obtain a proxy form from their broker, bank or other nominee that holds their shares of record.

VOTING BY PHONE. If you are the stockholder of record and live in the United States or Canada, you may vote your proxy by following the "Vote by Phone" instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, whether you may vote those shares telephonically will depend on your broker or other nominee's voting arrangements, and you should contact your broker or other nominee for that information if it does not appear on the voting form you receive from your broker or other nominee.

VOTING BY INTERNET. If you are the stockholder of record and have Internet access, you may vote your proxy from any location in the world by following the "Vote by Internet" instructions on the enclosed proxy card. If your shares are held in street name, whether you may vote those shares via the Internet will depend on your broker or other nominee's voting arrangements, and you should contact your broker or other nominee for that information if it does not appear on the voting form you receive from your broker or other nominee.

REVOKING AND CHANGING A PROXY. You may revoke or change your proxy at any time before it has been exercised by:

- delivering a written revocation to the Secretary of FairMarket at our principal executive offices;
- delivering another signed proxy bearing a later date; or
- attending the Annual Meeting and voting in person.

Any stockholder of record as of the record date who attends the Annual Meeting may vote in person whether or not the stockholder has previously delivered a proxy, but the presence (without further action) of a stockholder at the Annual Meeting will not constitute a revocation of a previously delivered proxy.

SOLICITATION OF PROXIES. The cost of soliciting proxies will be borne by FairMarket. If you choose to vote over the Internet, however, you are responsible for Internet access charges you may incur. FairMarket will reimburse its transfer agent for charges and expenses in connection with the distribution of proxy materials to brokers or other persons holding shares in their names or in the names of their nominees and for charges and expenses in forwarding proxies and proxy materials to the beneficial owners of those shares. FairMarket has retained Morrow & Co., Inc. to assist in the solicitation of proxies for the Annual Meeting, at a cost to FairMarket of approximately $4,500 plus reimbursement of reasonable expenses. Solicitations may also be made by officers and regular employees of FairMarket, without additional compensation, by use of the mails, personal interview, telephone or facsimile.

PROPOSAL TO ELECT A CLASS I DIRECTOR

The number of directors making up FairMarket's Board of Directors is currently fixed at five. Our Board is divided into three classes, consisting of one Class I director, whose term of office expires at the Annual Meeting, two Class II directors, whose terms of office continue until the 2002 annual meeting of stockholders, and two Class III directors, whose terms of office continue until the 2003 annual meeting of stockholders. At each annual meeting of stockholders, a class of directors will be elected for a three-year term to succeed the directors of the same class whose terms are then expiring. At the Annual Meeting, one Class I director will be elected to serve until the 2004 Annual Meeting, or until the director's successor is duly elected and qualified.

Our Board of Directors has nominated Eileen Rudden to serve as the Class I director. Ms. Rudden is currently serving as a Class I director of FairMarket. Our Board of Directors anticipates that its nominee will serve, if elected, as a director. However, if any person nominated by our Board of Directors is unable to accept election, proxies will be voted for the election of such other person or persons as our Board of Directors may recommend.

VOTE REQUIRED. The affirmative vote of a plurality of the shares of common stock present in person or represented by proxy and entitled to vote on the issue at the Annual Meeting is required for the election of a director. Votes may be cast for or withheld from any nominee. Votes cast for a nominee will count as "yes votes." Abstentions and broker non-votes will be excluded entirely from the vote and will have no effect.

RECOMMENDATION. THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS OF FAIRMARKET UNANIMOUSLY RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR ITS NOMINEE, EILEEN RUDDEN. PROXIES SOLICITED BY THE BOARD WILL BE VOTED FOR THIS NOMINEE UNLESS INSTRUCTIONS TO WITHHOLD OR TO THE CONTRARY ARE GIVEN.

COMPENSATION OF DIRECTORS AND EXECUTIVE OFFICERS

DIRECTOR COMPENSATION

During 2000, directors who were employees received no additional compensation for their services as directors. Beginning in 2001, each non-employee director will receive an annual cash retainer of $15,000. Non-employee directors are eligible to participate in FairMarket's 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan at the discretion of the full Board of Directors. In February 2000, pursuant to this plan, the Board granted each of Messrs. Krish and Pallan an option to purchase 75,000 shares of common stock at an exercise price of $8.50 per share which vests in three equal installments over three years. In September 2000, the Board approved an amendment to the option certificates covering such grants to provide for the acceleration in full of such options upon the occurrence of a "sale event," as defined in FairMarket's 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, with such provision to apply to all future option grants to non-employee directors. In August 2000, the Board granted Mr. Pallan an additional option to purchase 25,000 shares at an exercise price of $4.4375 per share which vests in two equal installments over a two-month period, in recognition of special directorial services rendered by Mr. Pallan to FairMarket during the summer of 2000.

(1) Potential Realizable Value is the value of the granted options, based on the assumed annual growth rates of the share price shown during the option term. For example, a 5% growth rate, compounded annually, for Mr. Shipley's 125,000 share option grant, with its $8.50 per share exercise price and 10-year option term, results in a share price of $13.84 per share, and a 10% growth rate, compounded annually, for that grant results in a share price of $22.05 per share. These potential realizable values are listed to comply with the regulations of the SEC, and FairMarket cannot predict whether these values will be achieved. Actual gains, if any, on stock option exercises are dependent on the future performance of FairMarket's common stock.

(2) All of the options listed in this table were granted under FairMarket's 2000 Stock Option and Incentive Plan, which provides that upon certain "sale events" involving FairMarket, if provision is not made for appropriate substitution or adjustment of outstanding stock options, the options will automatically become fully vested. The vesting of these options is also subject to acceleration under the agreements described under "Severance Agreements" below.

- (3) Option vests over a four-year period and expires 10 years from the date of grant.
- (4) Option was granted at an exercise price equal to 110% of the fair market value of FairMarket's common stock on the date of grant in accordance with the "incentive stock option" (ISO) rules under Section 422 of the Internal Revenue Code.
- (5) Option was granted in connection with FairMarket's October 2000 workforce reduction and the grant by FairMarket to all remaining non-executive employees of a special retention stock option grant. The options granted to the executives indicated above have an exercise price equal to 110% of the fair market value of FairMarket's common stock on the date of grant but are otherwise on the special terms of the retention grant made to non-executive employees, with the options vesting over a one-year period beginning on the six-month anniversary of the date of grant and having a term of five years.
- (6) Mr. Gennaro resigned from FairMarket effective September 29, 2000 and Mr. Supnik resigned from FairMarket effective December 1, 2000. All options held by such persons expired on their resignation dates to the extent the options were not vested, and expired as to any vested portion of the options within the time period specified in the applicable option grant. All such options had expired as of March 21, 2001.

AGGREGATE OPTION EXERCISES IN FISCAL YEAR 2000 AND YEAR-END OPTION VALUES

The following table sets forth the number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by all stock options exercised by the Chief Executive Officer and the Named Executive Officers during 2000 and the number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by all stock options held by them as of December 31, 2000. The value of unexercised in-the-money options is based on the closing price of our common stock as reported by Nasdaq on December 29, 2000, minus the exercise price, multiplied by the number of shares underlying the options.

SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS

Effective February 26, 2001, FairMarket entered into a severance agreement with each of our executive officers. These agreements provide that if the officer's employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" (as defined in the severance agreements) or if the officer terminates their employment with FairMarket for "good reason" (as defined in the severance agreements) during the two-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control" (as defined in the severance agreements), then (a) all outstanding options held by that person (including those listed above under "Options Grants in Fiscal Year 2000" and all other options granted to that person to date) will accelerate in full upon such termination and (b) FairMarket will pay that person a lump-sum cash amount equal to one year of their base salary plus one year's bonus (calculated as the average of the last four quarterly bonuses paid or payable to the executive prior to the date on which such termination occurs, multiplied by four), except that the agreements with Ms. Rudden and Mr. Randall provide for the payment to such persons of an amount equal to two times their annual base salary plus bonus calculated as described above.

The agreements with Ms. Rudden and Messrs. Randall and Worrall also provide that if such person's employment with FairMarket is terminated other than "for cause" or if such person terminates their employment with FairMarket for "good reason," in each case other than during the two-year period following the occurrence of a "change of control," then (a) all outstanding options held by that person (including those listed above under "Options Grants in Fiscal Year 2000" and all other options granted to that person to date) will accelerate by one year, in the cases of Ms. Rudden and Mr. Randall, and two years in the case of Mr. Worrall, and (b) FairMarket will continue to pay that person their base salary for one year, in the cases of Ms. Rudden and Mr. Randall, and six months in the case of Mr. Worrall, following their termination date.

Each of these agreements also prohibits the executive from competing with FairMarket and its affiliates or soliciting any employee of FairMarket or its affiliates for a period of one year following termination of the executive's employment with FairMarket.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS AND THE COMPENSATION COMMITTEE OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

In connection with its initial public offering in March 2000, FairMarket's Board of Directors established a Compensation Committee of the Board, composed of Messrs. Krish and Pallan during 2000. The Compensation Committee is responsible for reviewing and recommending to the Board of Directors the amount and type of consideration to be paid to senior management, administering our stock option and employee stock purchase plans and establishing and reviewing general policies relating to compensation and benefits of employees. Both such members of the Compensation Committee are independent directors. For the year ended December 31, 2000, FairMarket's executive compensation program was administered either by the full Board of Directors or by the Compensation Committee. Ms. Rudden did not participate in deliberations by the Board or the Compensation Committee regarding her individual compensation for 2000.

The goals of FairMarket's compensation program are to align compensation with business objectives and performance, to enable FairMarket to attract, retain and reward executive officers and other employees who contribute to FairMarket's long-term success and to motivate those officers and employees to enhance long-term stockholder value. The compensation of FairMarket's officers and employees currently consists of an annual base salary and long-term performance incentives in the form of stock options. During 2000, certain executive officers of FairMarket also received quarterly performance incentives in the form of cash bonuses. FairMarket has in the past and continues to emphasize the award of stock options in its executive compensation policy and believes that in the highly competitive, evolving markets in which FairMarket operates, equity-based compensation provides the greatest incentive for outstanding executive performance and encourages the greatest alignment of management and stockholder long-term interests.

BASE SALARY. The initial annual base salary for executive officers hired by FairMarket since FairMarket's initial public offering, one of whom was hired during 2000, has been reviewed and approved by FairMarket's Board of Directors. When reviewing those base salaries, the Board has considered level of responsibility, breadth of knowledge and prior experience as well as publicly available compensation information and informal survey information obtained by FairMarket's management with respect to other companies in the Internet industry. The relative importance of these factors varies, depending on the particular individual whose salary is being reviewed. The Board has not determined it necessary to specifically analyze compensation levels at companies included in the index under the caption "Performance Graph." The Compensation Committee intends to conduct an annual review of each executive officer's base salary beginning with FairMarket's general annual salary review for 2001, which is currently scheduled to occur in the second quarter of 2001.

BONUSES. During 2000, certain of FairMarket's executive officers were eligible to receive a quarterly cash bonus of up to either a specified percentage of their quarterly base salary or a specified dollar amount. Bonuses for the fourth quarter of 2000 were based on the extent to which business and individual performance objectives, approved by the Compensation Committee for each such person, were achieved. These objectives consisted of operating, strategic and/or financial goals that are considered to be important to FairMarket's fundamental long-term goal of building stockholder value.

STOCK OPTIONS. FairMarket's equity incentive plans are designed to provide its employees with an opportunity to share, along with its stockholders, in FairMarket's long-term performance. Initial grants of stock options are generally made to employees upon commencement of employment, with additional grants being made to certain employees following a significant change in job responsibility, scope or title. Options granted under FairMarket's standard stock option program generally vest over a four-year period and expire 10 years from the date of grant. The exercise price of the options is usually 100% of the fair market value of FairMarket's common stock on the date of grant.

The number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by options granted to new employees other than executive officers is generally determined based on a schedule of option grant ranges for each job level, as approved by the Board of Directors. These ranges take into account publicly available compensation information and informal survey information obtained by FairMarket's management with respect to other companies in the Internet industry. The number of shares of FairMarket's common stock covered by options granted to new executive officers is determined on an individual basis taking into account the same factors as are considered in establishing the officers' initial base salary, as described above. Follow-on option grants to employees are based upon a number of factors, including performance of the individual, job level, potential, and past option grants. In October 2000, in connection with FairMarket's workforce reduction and the grant by FairMarket to all remaining employees of a special retention stock option grant, the Compensation Committee granted Messrs. Ackley, Semple, Shipley and Worrall additional options to purchase an aggregate of 95,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock in order to increase the total number of options granted to date to each such officer to levels more competitive within FairMarket's industry and to provide such officers with additional incentive both to remain with FairMarket and to drive FairMarket's business. These options were granted at 110% of the fair market value of FairMarket's common stock on the date of grant and otherwise on the special terms of the retention grant made to all employees, with the options vesting over a one-year period beginning on the six-month anniversary of the date of grant and having a term of five years.

COMPENSATION OF THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE OFFICER. Effective September 11, 2000, the Board of Directors elected Eileen Rudden as President and Chief Executive Officer of FairMarket, replacing Mr. Randall who now serves as Chairman of FairMarket. In considering and approving Ms. Rudden's compensation, the Board of Directors reviewed information regarding the compensation paid to the chief executive officers of comparable public companies in FairMarket's industry. Ms. Rudden's initial annual base salary was set at $200,000 and her quarterly cash bonus target amount was set at $25,000, with the actual amount of each quarterly bonus to be based on the attainment of quarterly performance measures approved by the Board or Compensation Committee. In connection with her election as President and Chief Executive Officer, the Board also granted Ms. Rudden an option to purchase 900,000 shares of FairMarket's common stock, which amount was determined after FairMarket reviewed a study by independent compensation consultants which showed that such an award as a percentage of FairMarket's common stock outstanding was approximately at the 50th percentile of percentage ownership reported for non-founder chief executive officers of public Internet companies. The Compensation Committee also approved the payment to Ms. Rudden of her full $25,000 cash bonus for the quarter ended December 31, 2000 in recognition of the achievement by Ms. Rudden of certain internal operational goals during that period, including, for example, expansion of FairMarket's marketing initiatives and the launch of FairMarket's professional services group.

DEDUCTIBILITY OF EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION. Compensation payments in excess of $1 million to the chief executive officer or the other four most highly compensated executive officers are subject to a limitation on deductibility for FairMarket under Section 162(m) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended. Certain performance-based compensation is not subject to the limitation on deductibility. The Compensation Committee does not expect cash compensation in 2001 to its chief executive officer or any other executive officer to be in excess of $1 million. FairMarket intends to maintain qualification of its applicable stock option plans for the performance-based exception to the $1 million limitation on deductibility of compensation payments.

CERTAIN TRANSACTIONS WITH RELATED PARTIES

MICROSOFT AGREEMENT. FairMarket is party to an Auction Services Agreement with Microsoft which has a five-year initial term with an automatic renewal term of five years. Under the agreement, we have agreed to provide auction services to MSN.com and certain other web sites owned or operated by Microsoft, in return for monthly hosting fees and a share of transaction fees charged on the Microsoft sites. The total amount paid to FairMarket for 2000 under this agreement, net of the payment to Microsoft of a portion of the transaction fees paid on listings placed on other FairMarket-powered sites and sold on the Microsoft sites, was approximately $750,000. For 2000, we also paid Microsoft $70,000 for certain engineering and software consulting services performed for us by Microsoft during that year.

EXCITE AGREEMENTS. During 2000, FairMarket was a party to an Auction Services Agreement with Excite, Inc. (now known as At Home Corporation) which had a five-year initial term. Under this agreement, we provided auction services to Excite.com in return for a share of transaction fees charged by the Excite site. The agreement required Excite to supply online banner and other advertising services to us in return for $2.5 million per quarter for the first two years of the agreement. During 2000, we purchased $10 million in banner advertising under this provision.

In December 2000, FairMarket and At Home entered into an agreement terminating the Auction Services Agreement. Under the termination agreement, FairMarket purchased an incremental $500,000 in banner advertising from At Home during December 2000 and also licensed a permission-based email marketing database from an affiliate of At Home for $3.5 million, which was paid during December 2000. At that time, FairMarket and At Home also entered into a new Outlet Center agreement which has an 18-month initial term with an automatic renewal term of one year. Under this agreement, we have agreed to provide our "Outlet Center" service offering to At Home in return for an implementation fee, paid in December 2000, and a share of banner advertising, merchandising and transaction revenue.

Effective May 1, 2000, we entered into a Broadband Auction Services Agreement with At Home which has an initial term ending in April 2001 with automatic renewal terms of one year each. Under this agreement, we have agreed to provide a broadband auction site for At Home in return for an implementation fee, a monthly service fee and a share of transaction fees. At Home paid FairMarket a total of approximately $70,000 for 2000 under this agreement.

COMPLIANCE WITH SECTION 16(A) OF THE SECURITIES EXCHANGE ACT OF 1934

Section 16(a) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, requires FairMarket's executive officers and directors and persons who beneficially own more than 10% of FairMarket's common stock to file reports of ownership and changes in ownership with the SEC and to furnish copies to FairMarket.

Based upon a review of the reports furnished to FairMarket and representations made to FairMarket by its officers and directors and certain 10% beneficial owners, FairMarket believes that, during 2000, its officers and directors and 10% beneficial owners complied with all applicable reporting requirements, except that Mr. Supnik filed a Form 4 with respect to one transaction late, and except that Jeffrey B. Meyer, Vice President of Engineering, inadvertently omitted his ownership of certain shares from his initial Form 3, which Form 3 was subsequently amended to include such shares.

AUDIT FEES. The total fees billed by PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP for professional services for the audit of FairMarket's annual consolidated financial statements for the year ended December 31, 2000 and the review of the consolidated financial statements included in FairMarket's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed during the year ended December 31, 2000 were $156,880.
