September 2, 2005 (Toronto, ON) CryptoLogic Inc., a leading software developer for the global Internet gaming market, announced today that Nigel Simon has been appointed as a Non-Executive Director of the Company's Board of Directors. Simon, a veteran British business executive, has more than 25 years of broad senior management and strategic experience in leading and managing international businesses. He brings particular expertise in strategy, marketing, regulatory issues, sales, banking, corporate governance and mergers and acquisitions. investment banks, advertising agencies and management consulting firms around the globe. Simon held senior management roles for 20 years with Gallaher Group PLC, an approximately £4 billion FTSE 50 and NYSE-listed international tobacco company based in the UK, with sales in 68 countries and manufacturing locations in the UK, Austria, Kazakhstan, Poland, Romania, Russia, Ukraine and Sweden. Some of Simon's most notable achievements at Gallaher included growing the company's international profits by more than 600 per cent over a ten year period, and leading the 2.1 billion European acquisition and integration of an Austrian manufacturer.

Simon also holds extensive experience as a non-executive board member. He served for seven years as a Main Board Director of Gallaher and held positions as Chairman of Germany's largest vending retailer, and as a Board member for Germany's largest convenience store wholesaler.

CryptoLogic has earned a reputation for innovation, trust and performance in the global online gaming industry, Simon said. I'm pleased to join the Board of a company that has made these attributes the foundation of its business. I look forward to contributing my counsel to CryptoLogic as it continues its rapid growth in Europe.

In addition to his business interests, Simon also serves as a trustee for a major UK charity and as a mentor for the Prince's Trust, a charity founded by the Prince of Wales to help less-privileged young adults get their start in business.
