The Protective Amendment amends the Company’s Restated Certificate of Incorporation to include restrictions on certain transfers of the Company’s common stock, par value $.01 per share (the “Common Stock”) in order to protect the long-term value to the Company of its accumulated net operating losses and other tax benefits. The Protective Amendment’s transfer restrictions generally restrict any direct or indirect transfers of the Company’s Common Stock that increases the direct, indirect or constructive ownership of the Company’s Common Stock by any Person (as defined in the Protective Amendment) from less than 4.99% to 4.99% or more of the Company’s Common Stock, or that increases the percentage of the Company’s Common Stock owned directly, indirectly or constructively by a Person owning or deemed to own 4.99% or more of the Company’s Common Stock. Further, any direct or indirect transfer attempted in violation of the Protective Amendment will be void as of the date of the prohibited transfer as to the purported transferee.

The foregoing description of the Protective Amendment does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the complete text of the Protective Amendment, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 3.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
