Item 1.01 Entry into Material Definitive Agreements

On February 26, 2016, Socket Mobile, Inc. (the “Company”) completed a Business Financing Modification Agreement by and between the Company and Western Alliance Bank, parent of Bridge Bank (the “Bank”), to extend the expiration date of a revolving credit line agreement for the domestic (U.S. based) portion of the line for one year and the international portion of the line for two years, both to February 27, 2018. The domestic portion of the credit line is $2,000,000 and the international portion of the credit line is $500,000. The international portion of the line includes certain accounts receivable guarantees from EXIM Bank. Cash and qualified receivables must be no less than 1.75 times outstanding borrowings under each line. The Agreement contains customary representations, warranties and covenants. The line is secured by all of the Company’s assets, including intellectual property.

The Company initially entered into the revolving credit line agreement with Bridge Bank as reported in a Form 8-K dated March 7, 2014 for an initial two year period ended February 27, 2016. The Company reported in a Form 8-K dated March 23, 2015 the extension of the domestic portion of the line to February 27, 2017. Bridge Bank subsequently became a wholly owned subsidiary of Western Alliance Bank.

The foregoing description of the modification to the revolving credit line with the Bank does not purport to be complete and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the full text of the Business Financing Modification Agreement, a copy of which is attached hereto as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
