Dear Mr. Hillery and Other Interested Shareholders:

Thank you and your colleagues for contacting Schering-Plough's investor relations and corporate governance professionals to share your concerns about the Operations Management Team Incentive Plan. We have carefully considered your issues and provide the following assurances regarding the Plan provision that the maximum annual award an individual may receive is $9 million.

As Chair of the Compensation Committee, I am advised by the company's senior management that they would not deem it in the company's best interest to either recommend or receive any award under the Plan which would exceed the following lower limitations:

the maximum annual award for the CEO shall be $6 million, and the maximum annual award for any other participant shall be $3 million.

As Chair of the Compensation Committee, I will recommend that all awards made under the Plan by the Compensation Committee shall be consistent with these lower limits.

Please contact Susan Wolf (908-298-7354) of the company's corporate governance group should you have questions.

Cordially,

/s/Donald L. Miller
Chairman of the Compensation Committee of the Schering-Plough Corporation Board of Directors
