Press release of February 14, 2005

2004 Premium income:

EUR 2,528 million at current exchange rates
(EUR 2,578 million at constant exchange rates)

Premium income in line with Group company forecasts at the beginning of 2004.

Gross written premiums in Life & Accident Reinsurance down 17%.

Gross written premiums in Non-Life Reinsurance down 41%.

Continued geographic rebalancing of business: 54% in Europe, 25% in North America; 9% in Asia Pacific; 12% in the rest of the world.

The quota-share between SCOR and IRP has not been renewed in 2005.

The SCOR group's gross written premiums for the 2004 financial year amounted to EUR 2,528 million at constant exchange rates, down 30.2% compared to 2003.

At current exchange rates, gross written premiums by the SCOR group amounted to EUR 2,528 million, down 31.5% compared to 2003.

This decline in premium income is notably due to the reduction indicated in lines written in the Large Corporate Risks sector, itself a function of rigorous business selection and SCOR's rating in 2004.

The contraction in Life & Accident Reinsurance premium income is mainly due to the fact that there was an exceptional transaction in the first quarter of 2003.

General portfolio distribution:

(Millions of Euros, at current exchange rates)

	Premium Income 2004		Premium Income 2003		Difference
	2004	%	2003	%	Current exchange rates	Constant exchange rates
Non-Life Reinsurance	1 321	52%	2 229	60%	-41%	-40%

TOTAL	2 528	100	3 691	100	-32%	-30%

In Non-Life Reinsurance (Property treaties, Large Corporate Accounts and Credit & Surety), premium income reached EUR 1,321 million, down 41% compared to 2003. This decline is principally due to rigorous business selection and the impact of the rating in 2004.

In Life & Accident Reinsurance (individual and group life, long-term care, finance, accidents, disability and unemployment), premium income reached EUR 1,207 million. This is down 17% compared to 2003. Excluding an exceptional contract written in the first quarter of 2003 for EUR 167 million, premium income for the Life &

Accident Reinsurance business is down only 6.8% compared to premium income recorded for the 2003 financial year.
