Forward-Looking and Cautionary Statements

The August 17, 2009 shareholder letter contains information related to our optimism regarding long-term performance in spite of uncertain economic times. These statements are forward-looking statements within the meaning of Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, and Rule 175 promulgated thereunder, and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended, and Rule 3b-6 promulgated thereunder. These statements involve inherent risks, uncertainties, assumptions, estimates and other important factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from any results, performance or events expressed or implied by such statements. All forward-looking statements are qualified in their entirety by reference to the factors discussed in our Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 and subsequent Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q filed with the SEC, including risk factors regarding (i) credit risk; (ii) concentrations of real estate loans; (iii) commercial loan risk; (iv) economic conditions in Montana, Wyoming and South Dakota; (v) adequacy of the allowance for loan losses; (vi) changes in interest rates; (vii) inability to meet liquidity requirements; (viii) inability of our subsidiaries to pay dividends; (ix) failure to meet debt covenants; (x) changes in or noncompliance with governmental regulations; (xi) capital required to support our bank subsidiaries; and (xii) other risk factors discussed therein, including investment risks affecting holders of our common stock. Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date of which they are made, and we undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which such statement is made or to reflect the occurrence of future events or developments.

The August 17, 2009 shareholder letter is attached as Exhibit 99 to this Current Report on Form 8-K.
