Item 5.02. Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

On December 31, 2009, Lender Processing Services, Inc. (the Company) entered into amended and restated employment agreements with each of Jeffrey S. Carbiener, Francis K. Chan, Daniel T. Scheuble and Eric D. Swenson. Messrs. Carbiener, Chan, Scheuble and Swenson are named executive officers of the Company. Each executive's employment agreement provides for a three-year term expiring on December 31, 2012, and contains a provision for automatic annual extensions following the initial three-year period and continuing thereafter unless either party provides timely notice that the term should not be extended.

The primary purposes of the new agreements are (i) to eliminate the provisions in the agreements which provided for a tax gross-up in the event that the total payments and benefits made under the agreements or under other plans or arrangements between the Company and the executive were subject to the federal excise tax on parachute payments; (ii) to eliminate the requirement that the executive be employed on the annual bonus payment date in order to receive an earned and accrued bonus payment with respect to performance in the preceding year under the Company's annual incentive plan; and (iii) to eliminate an exception to the non-competition provisions of the agreements which allowed the executive to work for certain former affiliates of the Company.

Except as discussed above, the employment agreements are substantially similar to those entered into between the Company and the executives in August 2008, including with respect to compensation and benefits and payments to be made to the executive in the event his employment is terminated by the Company for any reason other than cause, death or disability, or by the executive for good reason.

The foregoing summary of the terms of the employment agreements is qualified in its entirety by reference to Messrs. Carbiener's, Chan's, Scheuble's and Swenson's employment agreements, which are attached hereto as Exhibits 99.1, 99.2, 99.3 and 99.4, respectively.
