Additional Q&As as of June 1, 2010

Q: What are the regular Lafayette office hours?

A: The scheduled office hours for the Lafayette office is 8:30 am to 4:30 pm Monday through Friday. Some functions vary their schedules based upon the particular needs of the business.

Q: When do you expect to conduct interviews with Mariner employees?

A: Once the department heads determine the needs for their organizations, the leadership for those departments will begin interviewing. We expect that process to begin the latter part of June and continue for several weeks.

Q: Will contract employees have an opportunity to become employees of Apache Corporation?

A: Many contract employees currently with Mariner Energy will continue to be contract employees with Apache. In the process of developing the structure of the new organization, Apache may interview contract employees (who have direct contracts with Mariner Energy) for openings that remain.

Q: When will you begin the background check and drug screening?

A: Three to four weeks prior to closing of the transaction, all Mariner employees will be sent information regarding the process through our independent third party. The Mariner Human Resources Department will coordinate with Apache regarding the logistics of this process. To limit inconvenience to employees, the possibility of having on-site collection is being investigated.

Q: When will we have more information on the Apache benefit plans?

A: As regulatory approval is received, employee meetings will be held to present an overview of the Apache benefit program.

Q: What is the employer matching contribution for the Canadian Registered Retirement Savings Plan ( RRSP )?

A: In this group plan, the company match is dollar for dollar up to six percent of your annual base salary overtime and bonus earnings. In addition, Apache makes an additional six percent contribution equal to base salary, bonus and overtime earnings.

Q: Will the Mariner employees still receive the annual true up?

A: Participants of the Apache 401(k) Plan, who have not received an employer matching contribution on their total eligible earnings for the Plan Year, will receive a year end true up employer matching contribution.

Q: Should my employment terminate, will I be eligible for the Apache Retiree Medical Plan?

A: Contingent on the close of the transaction, Mariner employees will receive service credit towards eligibility for the Apache Retiree Medical Plan. The minimum eligibility for participation is age 55 and five years of service.

Q: Does the Apache Retiree Medical Plan provide for dependent coverage?

A: Upon eligibility for the Apache Retiree Medical Plan, the employee will have a one time election to cover themselves and any dependents currently enrolled in the Medical Plan. If you elect coverage for yourself when you terminate employment, you can elect coverage for your spouse and children at that time, but only if your family member is covered by the employees' medical plan when you terminate employment. For a child to be covered by the Plan, you (the retiree) must be able to take a personal exemption for the child on your federal income tax return or you would have been able to take a personal exemption for the fact that (1) your ex-spouse got the exemption instead of you, or (2) the child's income exceeds the amount you would have paid (over half the child's support). You cannot elect coverage for any family member (spouse or child) who elects COBRA continuation coverage from the employees' medical plan.

An individual's coverage will end on the day before he or she becomes eligible for Medicare because of age or disability. If your spouse and/or your children are covered under this plan when you become eligible for Medicare, your spouse and/or children can remain covered by paying the subsidized premium, until the earlier of (a) ten years after you became eligible for Medicare; or (b) the end of the month before your spouse's 65th birthday (provided the monthly premium is paid to the company on a prompt basis).

Q: How does COBRA coverage work?

A: An employee is covered under the group plan through the end of the month in which they terminate. Continuation coverage is offered within 14 days of the date of separation. The qualifying beneficiaries have 60 days from the receipt of the notice on continuation rights to elect coverage. Continuation Coverage will be continued under the Apache Medical Plan which is administered by Blue Cross Blue Shield.

When an employee (who is not covered under a change in control agreement or employment agreement) is eligible for and elects COBRA, the employee is responsible for the premium payment and any government subsidy in effect at that time.

Q: When will my Mariner restricted stock vest and how will it be taxed?

A: Contingent upon the completion of the merger transaction between Mariner and Apache, your restricted stock will vest at the time of closing. The value of the vested restricted stock will become taxable income at the time of vesting and will become taxable ordinary income.

The income tax will be withheld at the rate of 25%.
