The representations, warranties and covenants contained in the Securities Purchase Agreement were made only for purposes of such agreement and as of specific dates, were made solely for the benefit of the parties to the Securities Purchase Agreement and may be intended not as statements of fact, but rather as a way of allocating the risk to one of the parties if those statements prove to be inaccurate. Such stockholders and investors are not third-party beneficiaries under the Securities Purchase Agreement and should not rely on the representations, warranties and covenants or any descriptions thereof as characterizations of the actual state of facts or condition of the Company, CVI or any of their respective subsidiaries or affiliates.

The foregoing summary of the Securities Purchase Agreement, and the transactions contemplated thereby do not purport to be complete and are subject to, and qualified in their entirety by, the full text of the Securities Purchase Agreement, which is filed herewith as Exhibit 10.1 and incorporated herein by reference.
