On February 19, 2004, the Board of Directors increased the number of directors from four to six and effective February 20, 2004, elected David E. Allard and Peter L. Larsen to fill the vacancies created by the increase. Both David E. Allard and Peter L. Larsen are directors who are independent from the Board of Directors and Management of the Registrant.

Mr. Allard, age 45, is Executive Vice President of Internet America, Inc., a publicly-held Dallas, Texas internet service provider, where Mr. Allard, a certified public accountant, is responsible for all operating functions, including finance and administration. Internet America, Inc.'s common stock is traded under the symbol GEEK. Mr. Allard was employed in the accounting industry from 1980 until 1992 when his employment added various operational functions.

Mr. Larsen, age 62, has been involved in the commercial real estate industry since 1972. From 1996 through 2002, he was Senior Vice President of Acquisitions of Tarragon Realty Investors, Inc., and its predecessors, a publicly-held real estate entity, the common stock of which is traded on the NASDAQ National Market. Since 1992, Mr. Larsen has also been a director of four Texas non-profit corporations which own 545 apartment units and are overseeing the development of a multi-million dollar retirement center in Coppel, Texas.

Also, on February 19, 2004, effective February 20, 2004, the Board of Directors formed a new Audit Committee, approved a charter for the Audit Committee and selected David E. Allard and Peter L.
