Item 2.05 Costs Associated with Exit or Disposal Activities

On Friday, September 24, 2004, the registrant's Board of Directors voted unanimously to discontinue the operations of six of its Bang and Olufsen branded retail stores. The stores were acquired as part of the acquisition of Sound Advice Inc. in August 2001 and operate under a franchisee agreement. The decision to discontinue operations was primarily based upon two major factors. The first is the increasing negative contribution provided by these operations. The second is that the store format of these locations is significantly different from the registrant's standard format at its other locations. The Bang and Olufsen stores operate in a store footprint that is between 800 and 1,500 square feet, which is significantly less than the 10,000 square foot average at the registrant's other locations.

The registrant will abandon all leasehold improvements and related fixed assets associated with these locations. Additionally, the inventory at these locations has been classified into two groups: sealed and open box/demo. Sealed inventory has been or will be sold at original cost and open box/demo inventory has been or will be sold at a significant discount.

The registrant transferred inventory and its rights with respect to two locations on September 28, 2004, and expects to transfer inventory and its rights with respect to two other locations in October 2004. In addition, the registrant's leases at two locations have been or will be terminated. The landlords at these locations have received or will receive financial consideration in exchange for their agreement to terminate the leases. One of these locations was closed on September 26, 2004 and the other location will be closed on December 31, 2004.

The registrant estimates that the major exit costs and impairment charges related to the discontinued operations will be limited to the write off of the remaining net book value of tangible assets, the impairment of open box/demo inventory and lease termination fees. The estimated charge for the remaining net book value of the leasehold improvements and fixed assets is expected to be between $1.4 and $1.5 million. The inventory impairment charge is expected to be between $450,000 and $525,000. The lease termination fees are expected to be approximately $560,000 of which $310,000 was paid in September 2004.

The registrant anticipates the total exit costs and impairment charges related to the discontinued operations to be approximately $2,400,000 to $2,600,000.

The registrant estimates that the range of future cash expenditures relating to these exit costs will be between $250,000 and $300,000, to be paid in the quarter ending December 31, 2004.
