PROXY STATEMENT

TO THE STOCKHOLDERS: The Board of Directors of Deere & Company solicits your proxy, and asks that you vote, sign, date, and promptly mail the enclosed proxy card for use at the annual meeting of stockholders to be held February 27, 2002, and at any adjournment of such meeting. Most stockholders have a choice of voting by using a toll-free telephone number, by voting over the Internet or by completing a proxy card and mailing it in the postage-paid envelope provided. Please refer to your proxy card or the information forwarded by your bank, broker or other holder of record to see which options are available to you. The telephone and Internet voting facilities for stockholders of record will close at 11:59 p.m. eastern standard time on February 26, 2002. If you vote over the Internet, you may incur costs such as telephone and Internet access charges for which you will be responsible. The telephone and Internet voting procedures are designed to authenticate stockholders by use of a control number and to allow you to confirm that your instructions have been properly recorded. If your shares are held through the Company's Savings and Investment Plan or Tax Deferred Savings Plan For Hourly and Incentive Paid Employees, your proxy instruction card must be received by February 22, 2002, or the shares represented by the card will not be voted. Whether you own few or many shares, your proxy is important in helping to achieve good representation at the meeting.

If you wish, at any time before your proxy is voted, you may revoke it by written notice to the Company, or by delivery of a later-dated proxy (including a telephone or Internet vote), or by voting in person at the meeting.

The shares represented by all properly executed proxies will be voted as specified by you. In the absence of direction, properly executed proxies will be voted for the nominees to the Board set forth below and for the Deere & Company Nonemployee Director Stock Ownership Plan.

The holders of a majority of the Company's outstanding shares, present in person or by proxy, are required for a quorum at the meeting. Abstentions and broker non-votes are counted as present for purposes of determining the presence or absence of a quorum for the transaction of business. The Company had 237,659,231 shares of common stock outstanding on December 31, 2001. Each share has one vote on each matter to be voted on at the meeting and one vote for each directorship to be filled on the Board of Directors.

If any nominee for election as a director is unable or declines to accept nomination or election for any reason, the persons designated in your proxy may vote for a substitute.

A plurality of the votes cast at the meeting is required to elect directors. The affirmative vote of a majority of the shares of stock present or represented by proxy and entitled to vote is required for the approval of the stock ownership plan proposal. Abstentions will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors, and will have the same effect as a vote against the stock ownership plan proposal. Under the current rules of the New York Stock Exchange, brokers who hold shares in "street" name and who do not receive instructions from the beneficial owner of those shares will be able to vote in the election of directors and on the stock ownership plan proposal. Broker non-votes will have no effect on the outcome of the election of directors or the stock ownership plan proposal.

The Company's policy is to provide stockholders privacy in voting. All proxy cards and ballots that identify votes of stockholders are held confidential, except: (i) as may be necessary to meet applicable legal requirements; (ii) to allow independent third-parties to solicit, receive, tabulate, and certify the results of the vote; (iii) in cases where stockholders write comments on their proxy cards; and (iv) in contested proxy solicitations in which the opposing party does not also agree to comply with this policy. The tabulator of the votes and at least one of the inspectors of voting are independent of the Company, its officers and directors. The tabulator, the Company's proxy solicitation agent, and the inspectors of voting, including those who are Company employees, are required to comply with the Company's confidentiality guidelines which prohibit disclosure of votes to the Company.

Stockholders of record at the close of business on December 31, 2001, are entitled to vote. This notice of meeting, proxy statement, and proxy card are being mailed to stockholders on or about January 18, 2002.

APPROVAL OF THE NONEMPLOYEE DIRECTOR STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN

Summary of the Proposal

The Board of Directors of the Company (the "Board") has approved the Deere & Company Nonemployee Director Stock Ownership Plan in the form attached hereto as an appendix (for purposes of this section of the proxy statement, the "Plan"), subject to approval of the Plan by the stockholders of the Company. The Plan succeeds the 1993 Deere & Company Nonemployee Director Stock Ownership Plan under which grants can no longer be made after February 27, 2002. The description of the Plan which follows is qualified in its entirety by reference to the text of the Plan as set forth in such appendix. The Plan provides for annual awards to each nonemployee director of shares of Company common stock which will be subject to certain restrictions until the director's retirement, death or disability. The number of shares of common stock reserved for all awards under the Plan is 250,000. No awards may be granted under the Plan after March 7, 2012.

Stockholder approval of the Plan requires the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares present or represented and entitled to vote at the meeting.

THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS RECOMMENDS A VOTE FOR THE DEERE & COMPANY NONEMPLOYEE DIRECTOR STOCK OWNERSHIP PLAN.

Description of the Plan

Establishment. Subject to stockholder approval, the Plan shall become effective as of February 27, 2002.

Purpose. The purpose of the Plan is to further the growth, development and financial success of the Company by strengthening the Company's ability to attract and retain the services of experienced and knowledgeable nonemployee directors. The Plan is designed to enable nonemployee directors to participate in the Company's growth and to link their personal interests to those of Company stockholders.

Operation. Participant eligibility and the amount and timing of awards under the Plan are automatic pursuant to Plan provisions. The Plan provides for annual awards to nonemployee directors of common stock of the Company in an amount equivalent to $60,000 based on the fair market value of the common stock as of the date one week following the annual meeting of stockholders. The stock awarded is subject to risks of forfeiture and other terms and conditions (the "Restrictions"). Prorata awards will be made to nonemployee directors elected by the Board between annual meetings.

While the Restrictions remain in effect, the shares are held by the Company and are non-transferable as well as subject to forfeiture as provided in the Plan. The participants receive dividends and are entitled to vote the restricted stock.

In the event of the death, total and permanent disability or retirement of a participant, the Restrictions attached to any award will lapse and the shares covered by such award will be delivered to the participant or the decedent's beneficiary. In the event of any other kind of termination of service, the participant's award is automatically forfeited and the restricted stock returned to the Company.

In the event of a change in control of the Company, the Restrictions will lapse and the shares covered by awards pursuant to the Plan will be delivered to the participant. A change in control is defined in the Plan generally to include: (i) the acquisition by any outside person or persons of securities representing thirty percent or more of the combined voting power of the Company (other than to vote proxies solicited by the management of the Company); (ii) during any period of two consecutive years, the majority of the Board ceasing to be individuals who were on the Board at the beginning of such period or who were approved for election by at least two-thirds of such directors; and (iii) shareholder approval of a plan of complete liquidation of the Company, a sale of substantially all the Company's assets or a merger, consolidation or reorganization of the Company involving a significant change in voting securities.

The lapse of Restrictions and delivery of shares in the event of a change in control may have the incidental effect of increasing the net cost of such change in control by a relatively small amount, and thus could theoretically render more difficult or discourage such a change in control, even if such change in control would be beneficial to stockholders generally.

The total number of shares which may be granted as restricted stock under the Plan is 250,000. Shares awarded and later forfeited may become available for subsequent award grants. It is anticipated that at the time of stockholder approval, nine nonemployee directors will participate in the Plan.

Administration. The Plan is administered by and under the direction of the Board, which is authorized to interpret the Plan. However, in no event shall the Board have the power to determine Plan eligibility, or to determine the amount, the price, or the timing of awards to be made under the Plan (all such determinations are automatic pursuant to the provisions of the Plan). The determinations of the Board are final, binding and conclusive upon all persons.

Federal Income Tax Consequences. The restricted stock is not taxable to the participant at the time of the grant of award, unless the participant elects, under Internal Revenue Code Section 83(b), to be taxed on the value of the stock at the time of award. If this election is made, the Company is entitled to a corresponding deduction and dividends on the stock are taxable to the participant and are no longer deductible by the Company. If such an election is not made, dividends received on the stock are taxable to the participant as compensation during the period of the Restrictions and also are deductible by the Company as compensation during such period. If such an election is not made, the participant is taxed when the Restrictions lapse, on the then current fair market value of the stock and the Company is entitled to a tax deduction at the same time and in the same amount.

Participants may be required to pay in cash to the Company any taxes required to be withheld when the shares become taxable. The participant may elect to satisfy withholding, in whole or in part, by having the Company withhold shares of common stock having a value equal to the amount required to be withheld.

Accounting Treatment. The fair market value of the restricted stock at the time of grant is amortized evenly over the estimated period of the Restrictions. There is no additional expense or income to the Company if the stock increases or decreases in value.

Amendment. The Board may at any time amend or terminate the Plan but may not amend the amount, price or timing of awards more than once every six months, except to conform with changes in other laws. The Board also may not materially increase the maximum number of shares that may be issued under the Plan, may not materially increase total benefits under the Plan, and may not materially change eligibility requirements without such further approval of the stockholders as is required by law. No amendment or termination of the Plan may materially impair the rights of a participant under an award without the participant's consent. The Plan provides for adjustment of awards and the maximum number of shares available for awards in the event of a stock dividend or split; a merger, reorganization, consolidation or recapitalization; or similar events.

Plan Benefits

The number of restricted shares that will be received in the future under the Plan by any participant is not determinable at this time. As described above, under the Plan, each nonemployee director will receive annual awards of restricted stock equivalent to $60,000 based on the the market value of the Company's common stock on the date of grant. The table below shows the restricted shares granted in fiscal 2001 under the predecessor plan to the individuals and groups indicated.

Name and Position	Dollar Value(1)	Number of Restricted Shares

(1) Represents the fair market value based on the mean of the high and low sales prices of Company common stock on the grant date, without giving effect to the diminution in value attributable to the restrictions on the shares.

(2) Employees of the Company are not eligible to participate in the Plan.

OTHER MATTERS

After the deadline for inclusion of stockholder proposals in the Company's proxy statement established by Rule 14a-8 ("Rule 14a-8") under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 ("Exchange Act"), Mr. Melroy Buhr submitted a proposal to form a stockholders overview committee. If properly brought before the meeting, the persons named in the proxy will vote against the proposal.

The Board of Directors is not aware of any other matters that will come before the meeting. However, if any other proper business should come before the meeting, your proxy, if signed and returned, will give to the persons designated in it discretionary authority to vote according to their best judgment.

DIRECTORS CONTINUING IN OFFICE

As used below, "restricted stock" refers to non-transferable stock issued pursuant to the John Deere Equity Incentive Plan or the Nonemployee Director Stock Ownership Plan, which is subject to risk of forfeiture if certain conditions are not met. "Share units" represent director compensation and earnings thereon deferred pursuant to the Nonemployee Director Deferred Compensation Plan and valued as if invested in shares of the Company. ### AUDIT REVIEW COMMITTEE REPORT

To the Board of Directors:

December 4, 2001

The Audit Review Committee consists of the following members of the Board of Directors: Leonard A. Hadley (Chair), T. Kevin Dunnigan, Regina E. Herzlinger, Arthur L. Kelly, and Antonio Madero B. Each of the members is independent as defined under the rules of the New York Stock Exchange (NYSE). The Audit Review Committee is responsible for assisting the Board of Directors in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities pertaining to the accounting, auditing and financial reporting processes of the Company. Management is responsible for establishing and maintaining the Company's internal financial controls and for preparing financial statements in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. Deloitte & Touche LLP, the external auditor for the Company, is responsible for performing an independent audit of those financial statements and for issuing an opinion as to whether the Company's annual financial statements are, in all material respects, presented fairly in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America.

Edgar Filing: DEERE & CO - Form DEF 14A

While financially literate under the applicable NYSE rules, members of the Audit Review Committee are not full-time employees of the Company and are not professionally engaged in the practice of auditing or accounting and do not represent that they are experts in the fields of accounting or auditing, including in respect of auditor independence. Members of the Audit Review Committee rely, without independent verification, on the information provided to them by management and on the representations made to them by the external auditor. Accordingly, the oversight provided by the Audit Review Committee should not be considered as providing an independent basis for determining that management has established and maintained appropriate internal financial controls, that the financial statements have been prepared in accordance with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States, or that the audit of the Company's financial statements by the external auditor has been carried out in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States.

In this context, we have reviewed and discussed with management the Company's audited financial statements as of and for the year ended October 31, 2001.

We have discussed with Deloitte & Touche LLP, the matters required to be discussed by Statement on Auditing Standards No. 61, Communication with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Auditing Standards Board of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

We have received and reviewed the written disclosures and the letter from Deloitte & Touche LLP required by Independence Standard No. 1, Independence Discussions with Audit Committees, as amended, by the Independence Standards Board, and have discussed with the external auditors their independence.

Based on the reviews and discussions referred to above, and exercising our business judgment, we recommend to the Board of Directors that the financial statements referred to above be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended October 31, 2001 for filing with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

We have also considered whether the provision by Deloitte & Touche LLP of services not related to the audit of the financial statements included in the Company's Form 10-K and the reviews of the interim financial statements included in the Company's Forms 10-Q for such year is compatible with maintaining their independence.

Of these amounts, approximately $4.5 million or approximately 66% relate to the statutory audits of the Company's foreign subsidiaries, due diligence and pre-acquisition services, services related to the Company's registration of securities, tax compliance services, and audits of the Company's employee benefit plans and healthcare subsidiaries required by regulatory authorities.

COMMITTEE ON COMPENSATION REPORT ON EXECUTIVE COMPENSATION

Compensation Philosophy

The Committee on Compensation of the Board (the "Committee") is committed to providing a total compensation program that supports the Company's business strategy and culture, and creates a commonality of interest with the Company's stockholders. The Committee is responsible for overseeing executive compensation and reviews the Company's compensation program on an ongoing basis. No member of the Committee is a former or current officer of the Company or any of its subsidiaries.

The overall philosophy of the Committee regarding executive compensation can be summarized as follows:

- o Provide a target total reward opportunity that is sufficiently competitive to attract and retain high caliber executives. In general, this involves a target total pay structure that is between the median and 75th percentile of pay levels available at a comparable group of large, diversified companies;
- o Link a meaningful portion of the total compensation opportunity to performance-based incentives consistent with the creation of stockholder value and the Company's long-term strategic goals;
- o Provide for meaningful risk as well as reward in order to penalize substandard performance while encouraging superior performance and recognizing the cyclical nature of the Company's core businesses;
- o Provide flexibility to recognize, differentiate and reward individual performance; and
- o Structure the program to be positively regarded by the Company's stockholders, employees, the financial community and the public in general, as well as by the eligible executive management.

The Revenue Reconciliation Act of 1993 placed certain limits on the tax

Edgar Filing: DEERE & CO - Form DEF 14A

deductibility of compensation paid to the chief executive officer and certain other executive officers, unless the compensation is performance-based. The Committee intends that, to the extent practicable, executive compensation be deductible for federal income tax purposes provided doing so would be consistent with the Company's other compensation objectives. At the 2000 annual meeting, stockholders approved the John Deere

11

Omnibus Equity and Incentive Plan (the "Omnibus Plan") and re-approved the performance goals under the John Deere Performance Bonus Plan (the "Bonus Plan") and the John Deere Equity Incentive Plan (the "Equity Incentive Plan"). Each of these plans was designed to meet the Company's compensation objectives and to comply with the requirements for tax deductibility.

The specific practices surrounding each component of the Company's executive compensation program are described in the following paragraphs.

Base Salary

It is the Committee's policy to position the base salaries of the Company's executives at approximately the median level of base salaries provided to comparable positions within a peer group of companies which share some combination of the following characteristics with the Company: comparable sales volumes; similar products and services; a similar commitment to manufacturing as a core activity; and a comparable global presence. Currently, this peer group consists of 26 companies, two of which are also included among the four companies that comprise the S&P Diversified Machinery Group Index used in the performance graph following this report. It is the Committee's view that this larger peer group provides a more appropriate and reliable benchmark for assessing competitive levels of compensation than the limited number of companies within the S&P Diversified Machinery Group Index.

The Committee annually reviews the base salary of each executive officer of the Company, including Mr. Lane, the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO"). In determining salary adjustments for the Company's executives (including Mr. Lane and the other executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table), the Committee takes into consideration various factors, including individual performance; the financial and operational performance of the activities directed by the executive (including profitability under prevailing business conditions, performance against budget, customer satisfaction, and innovation); experience; time in position; potential; responsibility; and the executive's current salary in relation to the executive's salary range and the median salary practices of the peer group. These factors are considered subjectively in the aggregate and none of the factors is accorded a specific weight. In selected cases, other factors may also be considered. Peer group salary data for comparable-level positions are provided annually to the Company by an outside compensation consultant.

Mr. Lane's base salary for fiscal 2001 was below the peer group median as it was his initial full year as Chairman, President and CEO. Mr. Lane was elected CEO in May 2000. Mr. Lane received a base salary of $635,951 for fiscal 2000 and $824,132 for fiscal 2001. For fiscal 2001, the base salaries of the other executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table were essentially equal to the peer group median and generally consistent with the base salary philosophy established by the Committee.

Short-Term Incentives

Edgar Filing: DEERE & CO - Form DEF 14A

A substantial portion of the Company's executive compensation package is contingent upon the Company attaining preestablished financial goals under the Bonus Plan. Each year in which these goals are achieved, the compensation of all salaried employees (including Mr. Lane and the other executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table) is supplemented by fiscal year-end payments under the Bonus Plan. The amount of these payments (if any) depends upon the Company's pre-bonus and pre-extraordinary item return on average assets for the year, the Company's achievement of cost reduction goals, the position and salary of the employee and any other performance goals established by the employee's division. For fiscal 2001, the Committee and the Special Subcommittee of the Committee (the "Subcommittee") also established for each of the equipment divisions goals based on increasing sales or market share. In addition, the Committee can decrease or eliminate awards to designated senior officers of the Company, and can increase or decrease awards to other salaried employees.

When added to base salary, target awards under the Bonus Plan for the Company's executives are structured to provide median annual cash compensation relative to the peer group companies. The target award is 100% of base salary for the CEO and 65% to 70% of base salary for other senior officers. No bonus payment is available if minimum performance thresholds are not achieved.

For fiscal 2001, the maximum return on assets goal was 10.5%. The Company's return on average consolidated assets for 2001 calculated in accordance with the Bonus Plan was below the minimum performance threshold. The minimum cost reduction goals and the target sales goals were exceeded for some divisions. Based on these results, the pre-established Bonus Plan formula resulted in an annual performance bonus payment for Mr. Lane of $241,893, and the Committee and Subcommittee determined to pay Mr. Lane the amount calculated under the Bonus Plan. This amount represents approximately 29.4% of base salary. The other senior officers also received annual performance bonus payments calculated under the pre-established Bonus Plan formula ranging from 15.5% to 20.2% of base salaries.

For fiscal 2002, in order to increase the focus on cost reduction and move toward common performance bonus metrics among divisions, the Bonus Plan performance goals established by the Committee will consist exclusively of return on average asset and cost reduction goals. In all other respects, the annual performance Bonus Plan for fiscal 2002 is the same as for fiscal 2001.

In addition to the above performance Bonus Plan payments, the CEO is authorized to grant discretionary bonuses to selected employees in recognition of outstanding achievement. Such bonuses may not exceed 20% of annual base salary except in highly unusual circumstances. No such discretionary bonuses were granted for fiscal 2001.

Long-Term Incentives

The Company's long-term incentives for executive officers have been comprised of annual grants of market-priced and premium-priced stock options under the John Deere Stock Option Plan and the Omnibus Plan and biennial grants of equity incentive restricted shares under the Equity Incentive Plan. Grants under these plans are intended to promote the creation of sustained stockholder value, encourage ownership of Company stock, foster teamwork and retain high caliber executives.

Edgar Filing: DEERE & CO - Form DEF 14A

Under the Equity Incentive Plan, approved by stockholders in 1995, from fiscal 1995 to 1999 executives received periodic grants of Company stock subject to vesting and forfeiture provisions based on Company achievement of long-term performance goals established by the Committee. It is the Committee's view that the addition of performance features to the executive stock grants in the Equity Incentive Plan serves to promote greater focus on actions that enhance stockholder value.

Under each plan, grants to executives are based on criteria established by the Committee and Subcommittee, including responsibility level, base salary, current market practice and the market price of the Company's stock at the time of grant. Grant guidelines for market-priced options and equity incentive shares are established for all executive participants (including Mr. Lane) with the objective of providing a target total compensation opportunity, including base salary and the target annual profit sharing bonus, equal to the 65th to 75th percentile of the peer group. Depending on stock price performance and Company performance, actual total compensation for any given year could be at, above or below the target of the peer group. The number of options or restricted shares previously granted to or held by an executive is not a factor in determining individual grants.

The Committee and Subcommittee made the final biennial target award of equity incentive shares to executive officers in December 1998. Vesting of these shares is conditioned on the Company satisfying performance goals based on revenue growth and return on assets over the four fiscal years ending October 31, 2002. Any of the target shares not vested following the four year performance period are automatically forfeited.

Beginning in fiscal 2000, grants of market-priced options which vest over several years have been the primary vehicle for long-term incentive awards to executive officers. Market-priced options are viewed as a method of providing an incentive opportunity throughout the business cycle and are easier to compare with the peer group and employment marketplace. In fiscal 2001, the long-term incentive award to senior executives consisted of market-priced options which vest over three years, have a maximum term of ten years, and are subject to the other terms and conditions of the Omnibus Plan. During fiscal 2001, Mr. Lane was awarded 400,000 market-priced options which become exercisable in three equal annual installments beginning in December 2001. For fiscal 2002, in order to allocate available options over the remaining expected life of the Omnibus Plan, the Committee and Subcommittee have approved a reduced grant of market-priced options. Accordingly, the numbers of options granted will be below the target of the peer group.

Finally, during fiscal 1998, the Committee introduced revised stock ownership guidelines for members of the Company's senior management team to encourage the retention of stock acquired through the Company's various equity incentive plans. These guidelines are based on a multiple of each officer's base salary.

CEO Compensation

Mr. Lane has served as Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer of the Company since August 2000. Mr. Lane's base salary, annual performance bonus and option grants have been targeted to provide total compensation, assuming achievement of targeted levels of Company performance, approximately equal to the 65th percentile of CEO compensation of the peer group companies. For fiscal 2001, Mr. Lane's total compensation fell well below this target due to the small payout under the Bonus Plan and Mr. Lane's base salary being below the peer group median. As explained above, the availability of a fiscal 2001 bonus payment was based exclusively on return on assets, cost reductions, sales goals and payout levels established by the Committee and Subcommittee at the beginning of the year, as determined by actual 2001 results. It is the Committee's view that this relationship between pay and Company performance is appropriate and serves stockholders' interests.

(1) Amounts shown include cash and non-cash compensation earned and received by the executive officer as well as amounts earned but deferred at the election of the officer.

(2) Each year in which performance goals are reached, the compensation of salaried employees is supplemented by fiscal year-end cash bonus payments. The amount of the bonus (if any) for the past three fiscal years depended upon the pre-bonus and pre-extraordinary item return on average assets for the year and the position and salary of the employee. The amount of the bonus for fiscal 2001 and 2000 also depended upon achievement of division cost reduction goals and sales or market share goals.

(3) No restricted stock awards were made to the named executive officers during fiscal 2001. The 2000 amount reported in the table for Mr. Lawson represents a grant of 14,624 shares under the John Deere Restricted Stock Plan. These shares will vest on February 27, 2002 and are subject to possible forfeiture in the event of termination or resignation from the Company prior to vesting. The 1999 amounts reported in the table represent grants under the John Deere Equity Incentive Plan and the John Deere Restricted Stock Plan. The vesting of shares under the Equity Incentive Plan is conditioned on satisfying performance goals based on growth of the Company's revenues and return on the Company's assets over the performance periods established by the Committee and Subcommittee. The shares granted under the Restricted Stock Plan vest in four equal annual increments beginning in December 2000 and are subject to possible

forfeiture in the event of termination or resignation from the Company prior to vesting. During fiscal 1999, Mr. Lane was granted under the Restricted Stock Plan 46,111 shares of restricted stock to vest in four equal annual increments beginning in December 2000. Upon Mr. Lane's appointment as Chairman of the Board this retention grant was fully vested. The amounts in the table represent the closing market value of the shares granted on the date of grant, without giving effect to the diminution in value attributable to the restrictions and performance conditions on such stock. Dividends are paid on the restricted shares at the same time and rate as dividends paid to stockholders of unrestricted shares. At October 31, 2001, the total number and market value (based on the closing market price) of shares of restricted stock, including equity incentive shares, held by each of the named executive officers were as follows: Mr. Lane (11,835; $437,777); Mr. Korndorf (47,595; $1,760,539); Mr. Leroy (47,595; $1,760,539); Mr. Lawson (26,459; $978,718); Mr. Orr (46,147; $1,706,978); and Mr. Jones (8,454; $312,713).

(4) The 2001 and 2000 amounts represent market-priced options granted in December 2000 and December 1999, respectively. The 1999 amounts represent the total of market-priced options and premium-priced options granted in December 1998. Additional details on the fiscal 2001 grant are included in the "Option/SAR Grants In Last Fiscal Year" table that follows.

(5) Amounts shown for 2001 consist of: (i) vested Company contributions to the Company 401(k) Savings and Investment Plan during the fiscal year for each of the named executive officers of $5,040; (ii) for Mr. Korndorf, a cash payment of $1,139,010 in connection with his early retirement agreement which is described under "Change In Control Severance Agreements and Other Arrangements" which follows; and (iii) above-market earnings on deferred compensation for Mr. Lane $22,584, Mr. Korndorf $57,963, Mr. Leroy $56,400, Mr. Lawson $65,453, Mr. Orr $10,450, and Mr. Jones $6,458. The Company's contribution to the 401(k) Savings and Investment Plan for all employees during the past fiscal year was $31,546,532.

(6) Mr. Korndorf retired as President, Worldwide Agricultural Equipment Division in August 2001.

The following table shows information concerning individual grants of stock options made during fiscal 2001 to each of the named executive officers of the Company and the potential realizable values of the grants assuming annually compounded stock price appreciation rates of five and ten percent per annum respectively, over the maximum option term. The options are subject to the terms and conditions of the Omnibus Plan which will, in certain circumstances, cause the option term to be shorter than the maximum term. The five and ten percent rates of appreciation are set by the rules of the Securities and Exchange Commission and are not intended to forecast possible future appreciation, if any, of the Company's stock price.

(1) Market-priced options which become exercisable in three equal increments one, two and three years after the date of grant. The options have a maximum term of ten years. Subject to plan restrictions, the exercise price and tax withholding obligations related to exercises of options granted in the period may be paid by delivery of already owned shares or by offset of the underlying shares. No stock appreciation rights (SARs) were granted during the fiscal year.

(2) The options expire if the option holder's employment with the Company terminates during the term of the option for any reason other than for death, disability, or retirement pursuant to disability or retirement plans of the Company. Upon retirement the options are exercisable within five years of retirement or within one year of death, if later.

(3) The total potential realizable value for all stockholders as a group based on 237,331,723 outstanding shares as of October 31, 2001, would be $6,279,227,070 and $15,912,794,246 at the 5% and 10% assumed annual rate of appreciation, respectively. Mr. Lane's total potential realizable value is 0.17% of the potential realizable value of all stockholders at the 5% and 10% assumed annual rates of appreciation. The total potential realizable value of all the named executives to that of all stockholders is 0.3% at the 5% and 10% assumed annual rates of appreciation.

The following table shows information for the named executives concerning exercises of options and SARs during fiscal 2001 and the number and value of unexercised options (and tandem SARs) held at October 31, 2001.

(1) Market-priced options and SARs awarded by the Company are not exercisable until one to three years after grant and have a maximum term of ten years subject to plan provisions. Premium-priced options granted in December 1997 and December 1998 are not exercisable until one year or more after the date of grant depending on if the price of the Company's shares on the New York Stock Exchange equals or exceeds the premium exercise price during each of ten consecutive trading days prior to the fifth anniversary of the grant date. If such price target is achieved, the options expire on the tenth anniversary of the grant date. If the price target is not achieved, the options become exercisable on the fifth anniversary of the grant date and expire three months thereafter.

(2) Represents the difference between the option exercise price and the closing market price for the Company's stock on October 31, 2001. The in-the-money options at October 31, 2001, pertain to the market-priced option grants in December of 1993, 1994, 1995, and 1998 with exercise prices of $23.56, $21.02, $34.13, and $32.53, respectively and the premium-priced option grant in December of 1994 with exercise prices of $28.39, $31.23, and $34.07. The closing market price for the Company's stock at the end of the 2001 fiscal year was $36.99.

PENSION BENEFITS

Under the Company's pension program, employees in executive salary grades ("executives") are entitled to receive an annual pension determined by adding the amount obtained by multiplying 1.5% times the employee's number of years of non-executive service times average pensionable pay to the amount obtained by multiplying 2.0% times the number of years served as an executive times average pensionable pay, with a maximum annual pension of 66% of average pensionable pay. Average pensionable pay for employees participating in the executive program prior to 1997 is based on one of the following two options, as elected by the executive: (1) the executive's compensation for the five highest years, not necessarily consecutive, during the 10 years immediately prior to the date of retirement where compensation is calculated by adding the executive's salary to the larger of (a) the sum of short-term bonuses, or (b) any payments under the Company's long-term incentive plan, awards under the restricted stock plan, or after 1998 a prorated amount of awards under the equity incentive plan, or after 2000 the target amount of short-term bonuses; or (2) the executive's compensation over his entire career with the Company where compensation is calculated by adding the executive's salary to any short-term bonuses.

In addition, for salaried employees hired prior to 1997, career average compensation under the executive pension program generally will include the average of compensation from the five anniversary years prior to 1997 plus all future compensation until retirement with bonuses paid in 1992 through 1996 phased into the computation over five years. Effective January 1, 1997, for new participants in the executive program, average pensionable pay is based exclusively on the career average compensation formula described above. All amounts used in calculating average pensionable pay are determined before giving effect to any salary or bonus deferral under any plan sponsored by the Company.

Salaried employees not entitled to the executive pension receive annual pension benefits determined by multiplying 1.5% times the employee's number of years of service times average pensionable pay. Average pensionable pay for employees hired prior to 1997 is based on one of the following two options, as elected by the employee: (1) the employee's salary for the five highest years during the 10 years immediately prior to the date of retirement; or (2) the employee's compensation over his entire career with the Company where compensation is calculated by adding the employee's salary to any bonus awarded under the Company's performance bonus plan. In addition, for employees hired prior to 1997, career average compensation generally will include the average of compensation from the five anniversary years prior to 1997 plus all future compensation until retirement with bonuses paid in 1992 through 1996 phased into the computation over five years. Effective January 1, 1997, average pensionable pay for new salaried employees not entitled to the executive pension is based exclusively on career average salary and performance bonuses. For salaried employees participating in the career average earning option, enhanced Company contributions to the employee's 401(k) retirement savings account will be made and, depending on the employee's years of service as of January 1, 1997, the minimum age to retirement with full benefits may be increased.

The estimated annual pensions payable upon retirement at age 65 for each of the following named executive officers of the Company is: Mr. Lane, $1,081,755; Mr. Leroy, $513,242; Mr. Lawson, $456,948; Mr. Orr, $448,281; and Mr. Jones, $259,096. The estimated annual pension payable to Mr. Korndorf at age 55 is $164,596. The estimated annual pensions shown are on a straight-life annuity basis and have been computed assuming (i) that the Company's pension plans are continued without further amendment; (ii) that each of the named officers (except for Mr. Korndorf who retired during 2002) continues as an executive of the Company until retirement at age 65; (iii) that salaries continue at 2001 levels; and (iv) that bonuses are paid at target earnings goals. Pension benefits are not subject to reduction for social security benefits or other offset amounts.

CHANGE IN CONTROL SEVERANCE AGREEMENTS AND OTHER ARRANGEMENTS

The Company has entered into severance agreements with its executive officers, including each of the currently-employed executive officers named in the Summary Compensation Table in this proxy statement, which are intended to provide for continuity of management in the event of a change in control of the Company. The agreements have an initial term of three years and provide that they are to be automatically extended in one year increments, unless, not later than six months prior to expiration, the Company has given prior notice of termination. In such event, each of the agreements will continue to be effective until the end of its then remaining term. However, no notice of termination of the agreement may be given within six months following a "potential change in control" (as defined in the agreements) and if a "change in control" (as defined in the agreements) occurs, the agreements will continue in effect for the longer of: (i) twenty-four months beyond such change in control; or (ii) until all obligations of the Company under the agreements have been satisfied. A change in control is defined generally as any change in control of the Company that is required to be reported in a proxy statement by Regulation 14A under the Exchange Act. Change in control events include, without limitation: (i) any "person", as defined in the Exchange Act (with certain exceptions), acquiring 30 percent or more of the Company's voting securities; (ii) a majority of the Company's directors being replaced during the term of the agreements without the approval of at least two-thirds of existing directors or directors previously approved by such directors; (iii) the consummation of any merger or business combination of the Company unless in any case the voting securities of the Company outstanding prior to such transaction continue to represent at least 60% of the voting securities of the resulting entity; or (iv) the complete liquidation of the Company or the sale or disposal of all or substantially all of the Company's assets. A potential change in control is defined as (i) the entering into of an agreement that would result in a change in control as defined above; or (ii) any person acquiring 15 percent or more of the Company's voting securities and the Board resolving that a potential change in control has occurred.

If, within 6 months preceding or within 24 months following a change in control, the covered executive officer is terminated by the Company for any reason, other than for death, disability or for cause (as defined in the agreements), or if, within 24 months following a change in control, such executive officer terminates his or her employment for good reason (as defined in the agreements), then the executive officer is entitled to a lump sum severance payment equal to three times the sum of (a) the executive's then base salary, and (b) the greater of (i) the mean of the bonuses paid to the executive under the Company's Performance Bonus Plan for the three complete fiscal years immediately prior to the termination; and (ii) the target bonus amount for the fiscal year in which the termination occurs. In addition, the executive would also receive a pro-rated bonus, calculated through the date of termination and his earned but unpaid base salary, and vacation pay. Upon termination the executive will also receive in a single payment an amount equal to the excess of the supplemental retirement benefit he would have been entitled to had he remained employed for an additional three years over the supplemental retirement benefit the executive is entitled to based on his actual age and credited service. The executive will also receive an amount equal to three times the Company's contributions on behalf of the executive under the Company's defined contribution plans for the preceding plan year (or, if greater, for the plan year immediately prior to the change in control). In addition, the executive will receive an amount equal to the number of the executive's then outstanding unexercisable stock options multiplied by the positive difference, if any, between the price per share of the Company's stock on the termination date over the per share option exercise price.

In the event that any payments made in connection with a change in control would be subjected to the excise tax imposed on excess parachute payments by the Internal Revenue Code, the aggregate payments to the executive would be capped at the excise tax threshold, except the Company will "gross-up" the executive officer's compensation for such excise taxes and any federal, state and local income tax applicable to such excise tax, penalties and interest thereon if such gross-up payment would result in the executive receiving an amount which would exceed the capped amount by at least ten percent.

For three years from the date of a covered termination, the Company would continue the executive's coverage under the Company's welfare benefits for health care, life and accidental death and dismemberment, and disability insurance coverage. Such benefits may be discontinued if the executive has substantially similar benefits available from another employer. The agreements also provide that the Company will pay reasonable legal fees and expenses incurred by the executive in enforcing the agreement. The executive agrees not to disclose nor use for his own purposes confidential and proprietary information of the Company, and for a period of two years not to induce Company employees to leave the Company nor to interfere in a similar manner with the business of the Company.

In addition to the above described executive severance agreements, several of the Company's compensation plans have change in control provisions. The Company's Bonus Plan provides that employees as of the date of a change in control will be entitled to the greater of a bonus based on actual performance results to such date or their target bonus. The Equity Incentive Plan and Restricted Stock Plan provide that in the event of a change in control, unless otherwise determined by the Board, the value of restricted shares will be cashed out in an amount determined under the plans. The Omnibus Plan provides that in the event of a change in control, unless otherwise determined by the Board, all vesting requirements terminate, all stock options become exercisable for the remainder of their term, and the value of other awards will be cashed out in an amount determined under the Omnibus Plan. The Supplemental Pension Benefit Plan provides that, in the event of a change in control, participants who cease being Company employees will be eligible for benefits under such plan notwithstanding their age at termination of employment. In the event of certain changes in control, amounts deferred under the Company's Deferred Compensation Plan may become payable immediately or such plan may be modified to reflect the impact of the change in control.

After 29 years of service, Fred F. Korndorf, formerly President of the Worldwide Agricultural Equipment Division, elected to take early retirement. He relinquished his duties as President of the Division on August 1, 2001 and will officially retire effective February 28, 2002. The Company entered into an early retirement agreement with Mr. Korndorf. Under the retirement agreement, Mr. Korndorf will receive a cash payment of $1,139,010, representing approximately thirty months of current base salary and continuation of health, accident, and life insurance benefits at the employee-contributory rate through August 2004. Mr. Korndorf continues to be eligible for bonuses under the Company's Bonus Plan on a prorated basis through February 2002, if a bonus is paid for fiscal 2002, and for March 2002 through August 2004 bonuses to be paid at the greater of seventy percent of final base salary or the actual performance bonus for each year. In lieu of the annual market-priced stock option grant in December 2001, Mr. Korndorf elected to receive a cash payment in January 2002 of $1,729,352. The Board Committee on Compensation waived forfeiture provisions on the remaining 23,055 unvested restricted shares granted to Mr. Korndorf in December 1998. Mr. Korndorf will also receive up to twelve months of career continuation services, continued use up to September 2004 of certain loaned equipment and, unless provided by a subsequent employer, certain relocation expenses through August 2004 and supplemental life insurance coverage in the amount of approximately $715,000 through August 2009. The Company and Mr. Korndorf also agreed to certain confidentiality, non-compete, release and indemnification provisions.

A Nonemployee Director who is elected by the Board to fill a vacancy between annual meetings shall automatically be granted a pro rata portion of the number of Restricted Shares awarded to Nonemployee Directors as of the date of the most recent annual meeting. Such prorated number of shares shall be determined by multiplying the number of Restricted Shares awarded as of the date of the most recent annual meeting by a fraction, the numerator of which is the number of days remaining until the date of the next annual meeting for the election of Directors, and the denominator of which is the number of days between such annual meetings.

6.4 Custody and Transferability

The Shares awarded to a Nonemployee Director may not be sold, pledged, assigned, transferred, gifted, or otherwise alienated or hypothecated until such time as the restrictions with respect to such Shares have lapsed as provided herein. At the time Restricted Shares are awarded to a Nonemployee Director, shares representing the appropriate number of Restricted Shares shall be registered in the name of the Nonemployee Director but shall be held by the Company in custody for the account of such person. As Restrictions lapse on Shares upon death, Disability or retirement as contemplated by Section 6.8, certificates therefor will be delivered to the Participant.

6.5 Other Restrictions

The Company may impose such other restrictions on any Shares granted pursuant to the Plan as it may deem advisable including, without limitation, restrictions intended to achieve compliance with the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, with the requirements of any stock exchange upon which such Shares or Shares of the same class are then listed, and with any blue sky or securities laws applicable to such Shares. Shares delivered upon death, Disability or retirement as contemplated by Section 6.8 may bear such legends, if any, as the Board shall specify.

6.6 Voting Rights

Participants granted Restricted Stock hereunder shall have full voting rights on such Shares.

6.7 Dividend Rights

Participants granted Restricted Stock hereunder shall have full dividend rights, with such dividends being paid to Participants. If all or part of a dividend is paid in Shares, the Shares shall be held by the Company subject to the same restrictions as the Restricted Stock that is the basis for the dividend.

6.8 Termination of Service From Board

The restrictions provided for in Sections 6.4 and 6.5 shall remain in effect until, and shall lapse only upon, the termination of a Nonemployee Director's service as a Director by reason of death, Disability, or retirement from the board, and the Shares shall thereafter be delivered to the Nonemployee Director or the decedent's beneficiary as designated pursuant to Section 9.3.

A-4

In the event the Nonemployee Director's service as a Director is terminated for any other reason, including, without limitation, any involuntary termination on account of (a) fraud or intentional misrepresentation, or (b) embezzlement, misappropriation, or conversion of assets or opportunities of the Company, all Restricted Shares awarded to such Nonemployee Director prior to the date of termination shall be immediately forfeited and returned to the Company.

6.9 Tax Withholding

The Company shall have the right under this Plan to collect cash from Nonemployee Directors in an amount necessary to satisfy any Federal, state or local withholding tax requirements. Any Nonemployee Director may elect to satisfy withholding, in whole or in part, by having the Company withhold shares of common stock having a value equal to the amount required to be withheld.

Article 7. Change in Control

7.1 Change in Control

Notwithstanding the provisions of Article 6 herein, in the event of a Change in Control, any and all restrictions on Restricted Shares shall lapse as of the date of the Change in Control, and the Company shall deliver new certificates for such Restricted Shares which do not contain the legend of restrictions required by Section 6.5.

Article 8. Amendment, Modification, and Termination

8.1 Amendment, Modification and Termination

Subject to the terms set forth in this Section 8.1 and Section 8.2, the Board may terminate, amend, or modify the Plan at any time and from time to time; provided, however, that the provisions set forth in the Plan regarding the amount, the price or the timing of Awards to Nonemployee Directors may not be amended more than once every six (6) months, other than to comport with changes in laws and regulations.

Without such approval of the shareholders of the Company as may be required by the Code, by the rules of Section 16 of the Exchange Act, by any national securities exchange or system on which the Shares are then listed or reported, or by a regulatory body having jurisdiction with respect hereto, no such termination, amendment or modification may:

- (a) Materially increase the total number of Shares which may be available for grants of Awards under the Plan, except as provided in Section 4.3

herein; or

- (b) Materially modify the requirements with respect to eligibility to participate in the Plan; or
- (c) Materially increase the total benefits accruing to Nonemployee Directors under the Plan.

8.2 Awards Previously Granted

Unless required by law, no termination, amendment or modification of the Plan shall materially affect, in an adverse manner, any Award previously granted under the Plan, without the consent of the Nonemployee Director holding the Award.

Article 9. Miscellaneous

9.1 Gender and Number

Except where otherwise indicated by the context, any masculine term used herein also shall include the feminine; the plural shall include the singular, and the singular shall include the plural.

9.2 Severability

In the event any provision of the Plan shall be held illegal or invalid for any reason, the illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining parts of the Plan, and the Plan shall be construed and enforced as if the illegal or invalid provision had not been included.

9.3 Beneficiary Designation

Each Nonemployee Director under the Plan may from time to time name any beneficiary or beneficiaries (who may be named contingently or successively) to whom any benefit under the Plan is to be paid in the event of his or her death. Each designation will revoke all prior designations by the same Nonemployee Director, and will be effective only when filed by the Nonemployee Director in writing with the Company during his or her lifetime. In the absence of any such designation, benefits remaining unpaid at the Nonemployee Director's death shall be paid to the Nonemployee Director's estate.

9.4 No Right of Nomination

Nothing in the Plan shall be deemed to create any obligation on the part of the Board to nominate any Nonemployee Director for reelection by the Company's shareholders.

9.5 Shares Available

The Shares made available pursuant to Awards under the Plan may be either authorized but unissued Shares, or Shares which have been or may be reacquired by the Company, as determined from time to time by the Board.

9.6 Additional Compensation

Shares granted under the Plan shall be in addition to any annual retainer, attendance fees, or other compensation payable to each Nonemployee Director as a result of his or her service on the Board.

9.7 Successors

All obligations of the Company under the Plan, with respect to Awards granted hereunder, shall be binding on any successor to the Company, whether the existence of such successor is the result of a direct or indirect purchase, merger, consolidation, or otherwise, of all or substantially all of the business and/or assets of the Company.

9.8 Requirements of Law

The granting of Awards under the Plan shall be subject to all applicable laws, rules, and regulations, and to such approvals by any governmental agencies or national securities exchanges as may be required.

9.9 Governing Law

To the extent not preempted by Federal law, the Plan, and all agreements hereunder, shall be construed in accordance with and governed by the laws of the State of Delaware.

9.10 Securities Law Compliance

With respect to any Nonemployee Directors subject to Section 16 of the Exchange Act, transactions under the Plan are intended to comply with all applicable conditions of Rule 16b-3 or its successors under the Exchange Act. To the extent any provision of the Plan or action by the Board fails to so comply, it shall be deemed null and void to the extent permitted by law and deemed advisable by the Board.
