PART III NARRATIVE

State below in reasonable detail why Forms 10-K, 20-F, 11-K, 10-Q, 10-D, N-SAR, N-CSR, or the transition report or portion thereof, could not be filed within the prescribed time period.

On December 14, 2005, Hillenbrand Industries, Inc. (the Company) issued a press release announcing that on December 13, 2005, the Audit Committee of the Company's Board of Directors concluded, after consultation with management of the Company and a review of the pertinent facts, that the previously issued financial statements contained in the Company's Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2004 should not be relied upon because of errors in those financial statements related to the accounting for the divestitures of its piped-medical gas and infant care businesses. In addition, the fiscal 2005 and 2004 financial statements contained in the Company's Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q for the periods ended December 31, 2004, March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 should also not be relied upon. The Company has determined that it is necessary to restate its financial statements included in its Annual Reports on Form 10-K for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2004 and its interim financial statements for fiscal 2004 and 2005. The Company will file a Form 8-K further detailing the restatement no later than December 19, 2005. This determination is in addition to the Company's previous determination to restate the financial statements included in its Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004, as disclosed in a Form 8-K filing made on November 22, 2005.

The effects of these restatements on the Company's consolidated financial statements for the fiscal years ended September 30, 2003 and 2004 will be included in a Form 10-K/A for the fiscal year ended September 30, 2004, which the Company expects to file in the near term, but clearly prior to the filing of our fiscal 2005 Annual Report on Form 10-K. The Company also will file a Form 10-Q/A for each of the quarters ended December 31, 2004, March 31, 2005 and June 30, 2005 to reflect the effects of the restatements on the 2004 and 2005 financial statements included in the Quarterly Reports on Form 10-Q previously filed for those periods. No fiscal 2005 income statement information included in the previously filed reports will be restated.

Because the restatements will affect certain of the information to be included in the Company's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2005 and because of the time and effort required of the Company's accounting and financial reporting personnel to complete the review and documentation of the effects of the restatements, the Company will not be able without unreasonable effort and expense to file its Annual Report on Form 10-K on or before the prescribed due date of December 14, 2005. The Company expects to file the Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended September 30, 2005 on or before the fifteenth calendar day following the prescribed due date.
