To the fullest extent permitted by Tennessee law, the Corporation may indemnify or purchase and maintain insurance to indemnify any of its directors, officers, employees or agents and any persons who may serve at the request of the Corporation as directors, officers, employees, trustees or agents of any other corporation, firm, association, national banking association, state-chartered bank, trust company, business trust, organization or any other type of entity whether or not the Corporation shall have any ownership interest in such entity. Such indemnification(s) may be provided for in the Bylaws, or by resolution of the Board of Directors or by appropriate contract with the person involved.

Article V, INDEMNIFICATION, of the Registrant's Amended and Restated Bylaws provides as follows:

The Corporation does hereby indemnify its directors and officers to the fullest extent permitted by the laws of the State of Tennessee and by ARTICLE TWELFTH of its Charter. The Corporation may indemnify any other person to the extent permitted by the Charter and by applicable law.

Indemnification of corporate directors and officers is governed by Sections 48-18-501 through 48-18-509 of the Tennessee Business Corporation Act (the "Act"). Under the Act, a person may be indemnified by a corporation against judgments, fines, amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses (including attorneys' fees) actually and necessarily incurred by him in connection with any threatened or pending suit or proceeding or any appeal thereof (other than an action by or in the right of the corporation), whether civil or criminal, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director or officer of the corporation or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director or officer, employee or agent of another corporation of any type or kind, domestic or foreign, if such director or officer acted in good faith for a purpose which he reasonably believed to be in the best interest of the corporation and, in criminal actions or proceedings only, in addition, had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful. A Tennessee corporation may indemnify a director or officer thereof in a suit by or in the right of the corporation against amounts paid in settlement and reasonable expenses, including attorneys' fees, actually and necessarily incurred as a result of such suit unless such director or officer did not act in good faith or with the degree of diligence, care and skill which ordinary prudent men exercise under similar circumstances and in like positions.

A person who has been wholly successful, on the merits or otherwise, in the defense of any of the foregoing types of suits or proceedings is entitled to indemnification for the foregoing amounts. A person who has not been wholly successful in any such suit or proceeding may be indemnified only upon the order of a court or a finding that the director or officer met the required statutory standard of conduct by (i) a majority vote of a disinterested quorum of the Board of Directors, (ii) the Board of Directors based upon the written opinion of independent legal counsel to such effect, or (iii) a vote to the shareholders.

Item 7. Exemption from Registration Claimed

Not Applicable.

Item 8. Exhibits

See Exhibit Index, which is incorporated herein by reference.

Item 9. Undertakings

(a) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes:

(1) To file, during any period in which offers or sales are being made, a post-effective amendment to this Registration Statement:

(i) To include any prospectus required by Section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933;

(ii) To reflect in the prospectus any facts or events arising after the effective date of this Registration Statement (or the most recent post-effective amendment thereof) which, individually or in the aggregate, represent a fundamental change in the information set forth in this Registration Statement;

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in this Registration Statement or any material change to such information in this Registration Statement;

Provided, however, that paragraphs (a)(1)(i) and (a)(1)(ii) above do not apply if the registration statement is on Form S-3, Form S-8 or Form F-3, and the information required to be included in a post-effective amendment by those paragraphs is contained in periodic reports filed by the Registrant pursuant to Section 13 or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 that are incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement.

Table of Contents

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities being offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to Section 13(a) or Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to Section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in this Registration Statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.
