 (b) The Company was organized under the laws of the State of Delaware.

2. Securities Act Exemption Applicable.

Upon the terms set forth in an Offer to Exchange dated June 8, 2007 (the Offer to Exchange), the Company is offering to exchange (the Exchange Offer) any and all of its outstanding ~~13%~~ Cumulative Junior Exchangeable Preferred Stock (currently accruing dividends at the rate of 14¹/₄%) (the ~~14%~~ Preferred Stock) and any and all of its ⁹/₄% Series A Convertible Preferred Stock (the ~~9~~4% Preferred Stock, and together with the ~~14%~~ Preferred Stock, the Old Stock) for its newly issued 11% Series A Mandatorily Convertible Senior Subordinated Notes (the New Notes) and, depending on the participation level in the Exchange Offer, either its newly issued 12% Series A-1 Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock (the Series A-1 Convertible Preferred Stock) or its newly issued 12% Series B Mandatorily Convertible Preferred Stock (the 12% Series B Convertible Preferred Stock, and together with the Series A-1 Convertible Preferred Stock, the New Stock), as applicable. INDENTURE SECURITIES

8. Analysis of Indenture Provisions.

The New Notes will be issued under the Indenture to be dated as of the consummation of the Exchange Offer and entered into between the Company and The Bank of New York Trust Company, N.A., as trustee (the Trustee). The following analysis is not a complete description of the Indenture provisions discussed and is qualified in its entirety by reference to the terms of the Indenture, a form of which is attached as Exhibit T3C hereto and incorporated by reference herein. Capitalized terms used below but not defined herein have the meanings assigned to them in the Indenture.

(a) Events of Default; Withholding of Notice.

Each of the following constitutes an Event of Default under the Indenture:

- (1) The Company defaults in the payment of any interest on the New Notes for 30 days;
- (2) The Company defaults in the payment of any principal of or premium, if any, on, the New Notes, whether on the Final Maturity Date or any earlier date of redemption or repurchase or otherwise;
- (3) The Company defaults in the performance, or breach, of any other covenant or warranty contained in the New Notes or the Indenture that continues for 60 days after written notice as provided to the Company by the Trustee or 25% of the holders of the New Notes; provided, however, that if such default pertains to the failure to deliver copies of annual reports and the information, documents and other reports after the Company is required to file them with the SEC, such default must have been continued for 90 days after written notice is provided to the Company by the Trustee or the holders of not less than 25% in principal amount of the outstanding New Notes;
- (4) The Company or any Subsidiary defaults under any Debt that results in acceleration of the maturity of such Debt, or failure to pay any such Debt at maturity, in an aggregate amount of Debt greater than $10,000,000 or its foreign currency equivalent at the time;
- (5) One or more final judgments, orders or decrees of any court or regulatory or administrative agency for the payment of money in excess of $10,000,000, either individually or in the aggregate (exclusive of any portion of any such payment covered by insurance, if and to the extent the insurer has acknowledged in writing its liability therefor), shall be rendered against the Company or any Significant Subsidiary or any of their respective properties and shall not be discharged or fully bonded and either (a) any creditor shall have commenced an enforcement proceeding upon such judgment, order or decree or (b) there shall have been a period of 60 consecutive days during which a stay of enforcement of such judgment or order, by reason of an appeal or otherwise, shall not be in effect;
- (6) Certain events of bankruptcy, insolvency or reorganization with respect to the Company or any Significant Subsidiary, whether through (i) the entry of such events by a court of proper jurisdiction or (ii) the commencement of such events by the Company or any Significant Subsidiary itself.

If an Event of Default, other than an Event of Default described in clause 6 above, occurs and is continuing, either the Trustee or the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding New Notes may declare the principal amount of the New Notes and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, immediately due and payable. However, after such an acceleration, but before a judgment or decree based on the acceleration, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding New Notes may rescind and annul the acceleration, under certain circumstances, including if all Events of Default, other than the non-payment of principal of the New Notes which have become due solely by such declaration of acceleration, have been cured or waived as provided in the Indenture. If an Event of Default described in clause (6) above occurs, the principal amount of the New Notes and accrued and unpaid interest, if any, will automatically become immediately due and payable.

If a Default or an Event of Default occurs and is continuing and if it is known to the Trustee, the Trustee must mail to each holder notice of the uncured Default or Event of Default within 90 days after the occurrence of such Default or Event of Default, unless such Default or Event of Default shall have been cured or waived. However, the Trustee may withhold the notice if and so long as a trust committee of certain responsible officers of the Trustee determines that withholding notice is in the interests of holders, except in the case of a Default or an Event of Default in payment of the principal of, premium, if any, or interest on any New Notes or the Company's failure to convert the New Notes when obligated to convert them.

Subject to the Trustee's duties in the case of an Event of Default, the Trustee will not be obligated to exercise any of its rights or powers at the request of the holders, unless the holders have offered to the Trustee reasonable indemnity against the costs, expenses and liabilities which might be incurred by the Trustee in compliance with such request. Subject to the Indenture, applicable law and the Trustee's indemnification, the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the outstanding New Notes will have the right to direct the time, method and place of conducting any proceeding for any remedy available to the Trustee or exercising any trust or power conferred on the Trustee with respect to the New Notes.

No holder will have any right to institute any proceeding under the Indenture, or for any other remedy under the Indenture (except for actions for payment of overdue principal, premium, if any, or interest or for the conversion of the New Notes) unless:

- (1) the holder has previously given the Trustee written notice of a continuing Event of Default;
- (2) the holders of at least 25% in aggregate principal amount of the New Notes then outstanding have made a written request and have offered reasonable indemnity to the Trustee to institute such proceeding as Trustee; and
- (3) the Trustee has failed to institute such proceeding within 60 days after such notice, request and offer of indemnity, and has not received from the holders of a majority in aggregate principal amount of the New Notes then outstanding a direction inconsistent with such request within 60 days after such notice, request and offer of indemnity.

(b) Authentication and Delivery of New Notes; Use of Proceeds.

The New Notes to be issued under the Indenture may be executed by manual or facsimile signature on behalf of the Company by its Chairman of the Board, its Chief Executive Officer, its President, one of its Vice Presidents, its Chief Operating Officer, its Chief Financial Officer, its Chief Accounting Officer, its Controller, its Treasurer, its Assistant Treasurer, its Secretary, or one of its Assistant Secretaries.

If an officer whose signature is on a New Note no longer holds that office at the time the New Note is authenticated, the New Note shall nevertheless be valid.

The New Notes will not be valid until an authorized signatory of the Trustee manually signs the certificate of authentication on the New Notes. The signature will be conclusive evidence that the New Notes have been authenticated under the Indenture.

The Trustee will authenticate and make available for delivery New Notes for original issue, upon receipt of a written order or orders of the Company signed on behalf of the Company by its Chairman of the Board, its Chief Executive Officer, its President, one of its Vice Presidents, its Chief Operating Officer, its Chief Financial Officer, its Chief Accounting Officer, its Controller, its Treasurer, its Assistant Treasurer, its Secretary, or one of its Assistant Secretaries. Such order of the Company must specify the amount of New Notes to be authenticated, that the New Notes will be represented by a Restricted Global Security and the date on which the original issue of New Notes is to be authenticated.

The Trustee shall act as the initial authenticating agent. Thereafter, the Trustee may appoint an authenticating agent reasonably acceptable to the Company. The authenticating agent may authenticate the New Notes whenever the Trustee may do so. An authenticating agent has the same rights as an agent to deal with the Company or an affiliate of the Company.

The New Notes shall be issuable only in registered form without coupons, rounded to the nearest whole dollar amount.

The Company will not receive any proceeds from the issuance of the New Notes because the New Notes are being issued in exchange for the Old Stock.

(c) Release and Substitution of Property Subject to the Lien of the Indenture.

The New Notes are unsecured obligations of the Company. As such, the New Notes are not secured by any lien on any property.

(d) Satisfaction and Discharge of the Indenture.

The Company may discharge its obligations under the Indenture while New Notes remain outstanding if (i) either (a) all delivered and authenticated New Notes (other than those which have been destroyed, lost or stolen or those for whose payment money has been deposited in trust and thereafter repaid to the Company in accordance with the Indenture) have been delivered to the Trustee for cancellation or (b) all outstanding New Notes have become due and payable, whether at the Final Maturity or upon conversion or otherwise, (ii) the Company has deposited with the Trustee in immediately available funds in trust and/or Conversion Shares an amount sufficient to pay and discharge all outstanding New Notes for principal and interest to the date of such deposit or conversion date, as the case may be, (iii) the Company has paid or caused to be paid all other sums payable by the Company under the Indenture and (iv) the Company has delivered to the Trustee an Officer's Certificate and an Opinion of Counsel, each stating that all conditions precedent for discharge of the Indenture have been complied with.

(e) Evidence of Compliance with Conditions and Covenants

The Company is required to deliver to the Trustee, within 120 days after the end of each fiscal year of the Company, an officer's certificate, signed by one of the Chairman of the Board, the Chief Executive Officer, the President, any Vice President, the Chief Operating Officer, the Chief Financial Officer or the Chief Accounting Officer of the Company, stating the signer's knowledge after due inquiry of the Company's compliance with all terms, conditions and covenants on its part contained in the Indenture and stating whether or not the signer knows of any Default or Event of Default. If such signer knows of such a Default or Event of Default, the officer's certificate must describe the Default or Event of Default and the efforts to remedy the same.

The Company must deliver to the Trustee, within 5 business days after it becomes aware of the occurrence thereof, written notice of any Default or Event of Default.

9. Other Obligors.
