PROXY STATEMENT

for the Special Meeting of Shareholders to be held on February 20, 2007
at 11:00 a.m., Central Time

Park National Corporation (Park) and Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated to be effective as of September 14, 2006 (the merger agreement), which provides for the merger of Vision with and into Park. We cannot complete the merger unless the holders of at least two-thirds of the issued and outstanding shares of Vision common stock approve the merger agreement. The Board of Directors of Vision has called a special meeting of shareholders to vote on the approval of the merger agreement. The time, date and place of the special meeting are as follows: 11:00 a.m., Central Time, on February 20, 2007, at 501 South McKenzie Street, Foley, Alabama.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the shareholders of Vision will be entitled to elect to receive, in exchange for the shares of Vision common stock, $1.00 par value per share, that they own, either (a) cash, (b) Park common shares, or (c) a combination of cash and Park common shares, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional Park common shares in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, Park will cause the requests of the Vision shareholders to be allocated on a pro-rata basis so that 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash at the rate of $25.00 per share of Vision common stock and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares at the exchange rate of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock.

As of January 8, 2007, shares of Vision common stock were outstanding, an additional shares of Vision common stock were subject to outstanding subscriptions under the Vision Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as amended (the Vision ESPP), and shares of Vision common stock were subject to outstanding stock options with a weighted average exercise price of $ per share. Each employee who is a participant in the Vision ESPP and who has not paid the entire balance due for any shares of Vision common stock for which the employee has subscribed may pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement and receive the applicable shares of Vision common stock. If the participating employee fails to pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, the employee's subscription to purchase shares of Vision common stock will be treated as cancelled and Vision will refund (without interest) all amounts the employee has had withheld or has paid with respect to the cancelled subscription. Each outstanding stock option (that is not exercised prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement) granted under one of Vision's equity-based compensation plans will be cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) (a) $25.00 multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option minus (2) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option.

The Park common shares are listed on the American Stock Exchange LLC (AMEX) under the symbol PRK. On January 8, 2007, the last practicable trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, the closing sale price of the Park common shares as reported on AMEX was $ per share. Based on that price, 0.2475 Park common shares would be valued at $.

Questions and Answers About the Merger and the Special Meeting

Q: Why are Park and Vision proposing the merger?

A: Vision believes that the merger is in the best interests of Vision and its shareholders and will provide an opportunity for Vision shareholders to enhance shareholder value. The merger will enable Vision and its subsidiaries to become part of a larger and more diverse organization, which may help Vision and its subsidiaries reach more customers, add additional products for their customers, diversify their risks, enhance their ability to make larger loans and, in general, compete more effectively with larger banking institutions.

Park believes the merger will benefit Park shareholders by enabling Park to diversify and expand into the more robust markets currently served by Vision and its subsidiaries, gain a talented management team that has extensive experience operating in the Alabama and Florida Gulf Coast markets in which Vision and its subsidiaries operate, strengthen the competitive position of the combined organization, generate cost savings and enhance other opportunities for Park.

Q: What will I receive in the merger?

A: Under the terms of the merger agreement, the shareholders of Vision will be entitled to elect to receive, in exchange for the shares of Vision common stock, $1.00 par value per share, that they own, either (a) cash, (b) Park common shares, or (c) a combination of cash and Park common shares, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional Park common shares in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, Park will cause the requests of the Vision shareholders to be allocated on a pro-rata basis so that 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash at the rate of $25.00 per share of Vision common stock and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares at the exchange rate of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Vision common stock beginning on page 43 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Each employee who is a participant in the Vision Employee Stock Purchase Plan, as amended (the Vision ESPP), and who has not paid the entire balance due for any shares of Vision common stock for which the employee has subscribed may pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement and receive the applicable shares of Vision common stock. If the participating employee fails to pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, the employee's subscription to purchase shares of Vision common stock will be treated as cancelled and Vision will refund (without interest) all amounts the employee has had withheld or has paid with respect to the cancelled subscription.

Each outstanding stock option (that is not exercised prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement) granted under one of Vision's equity-based compensation plans will be cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) (a) $25.00 multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option minus (2) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option.

Q: Can I elect the type of consideration that I will receive in the merger?

A: Yes. You will have an opportunity to elect to receive all cash, all Park common shares, or a combination of cash and Park common shares in exchange for your shares of Vision common stock.

Q: Will I receive the form of consideration I elect to receive?

A: Not necessarily. Your election will be subject to the allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement and described in this prospectus/proxy statement to ensure that, subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. If the elections by Vision shareholders do not result in the required ratio of cash and stock consideration, then the form of consideration you receive may be different than what you elect.

Q: When and where will the special meeting take place?

A: The special meeting of shareholders of Vision will be held at 11:00 a.m., Central Time, on February 20, 2007, at Vision Bank's Foley office, 501 South McKenzie Street, Foley, Alabama.

Q: What matters will be considered at the special meeting?

A: Vision shareholders will be asked to vote to approve the merger agreement, to approve the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement, and to vote on any other business which properly comes before the special meeting.

Q: What do I need to do now?

A: After reviewing this prospectus/proxy statement, please sign and date the enclosed proxy card and return it in the enclosed postage-paid envelope as soon as possible. By submitting your proxy card, you authorize the individuals named in the proxy card to represent you and vote your shares of Vision common stock at the special meeting in accordance with your instructions. Your vote is very important. Whether or not you plan to attend the special meeting, please sign, date and return your proxy card in the enclosed postage-paid envelope.

Q: When should I send in my Vision common stock certificates?

A: Please do not send in your Vision common stock certificates with your proxy card. Shortly after you receive this prospectus/proxy statement, Park's exchange agent will mail to you an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal that you should use to (i) elect the form of merger consideration that you wish to receive and (ii) surrender your Vision common stock certificates to the exchange agent. You should not surrender your Vision common stock certificates for exchange until you receive the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal from the exchange agent. The First-Knox National Bank of Mount Vernon, a subsidiary of Park, will serve as the exchange agent for the transaction. For additional information, see "The Merger Agreement - Surrender of certificates" beginning on page 45 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Q: Is my vote needed to approve the merger agreement?

A: The affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Vision special meeting is required to approve the merger agreement. The special meeting may be adjourned, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Vision common stock represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting. Your failure to vote, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting or your abstention will have the same effect as if you voted AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement.

Q: How will my shares of Vision common stock be voted if I return a blank proxy card?

If you sign, date and return your proxy card and do not indicate how you want your shares of Vision common stock to be voted, your shares of Vision common stock will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

and FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

Q: Can I change my vote after I have mailed my signed proxy card?

A: Yes. You may revoke your proxy at any time before a vote is taken at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Vision, at P.O. Box 4649, Gulf Shores, Alabama 36547;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date; or

Attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

Q: If I do not favor the approval of the merger agreement, what are my rights?

A: If you are a Vision shareholder as of the January 8, 2007 record date and you do not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, you will have the right under Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act to demand payment in cash of the fair value for your shares of Vision common stock. The right to make this demand is known as dissenters' rights. To exercise your dissenters' rights, you must (i) deliver to Vision a written notice before the vote is taken at the special meeting on the approval of the merger agreement stating that you intend to seek a cash payment if the merger is consummated and (ii) not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement. If you satisfy these requirements, within ten (10) days after completion of the merger, Vision will send to you a dissenters' notice that indicates the date by which you must submit a written payment demand. Within twenty (20) days after making such payment demand, you must submit the certificates representing your shares of Vision common stock to Vision for notation thereon that such demand has been made. Upon receipt of your payment demand, Vision will offer to pay you the amount which Vision estimates to be the fair value of your shares of Vision common stock, plus accrued interest, and you may agree to accept Vision's offer of payment. Upon receiving payment from Vision, you will cease to have any interest in your shares of Vision common stock. If you are dissatisfied with Vision's offer of payment, you may reject Vision's offer and seek to recover your estimate of the fair value of your shares of Vision common stock by complying strictly with the requirements set forth in Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act. For additional information regarding your dissenters' rights, see Dissenters' Rights on page 21 of this prospectus/proxy statement and the complete text of Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act attached to this prospectus/proxy statement as Annex C.

Q: If my shares of Vision common stock are held in street name by my broker, will my broker vote my shares of Vision common stock for me?

A: No. Your broker may vote your shares of Vision common stock only if you provide instructions on how to vote. Please tell your broker how you would like him or her to vote your shares of Vision common stock. If you do not tell your broker how to vote, your shares of Vision common stock will not be voted by your broker, which will have the same effect as if you had instructed your broker to vote AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement.

If you have instructed your broker to vote your shares of Vision common stock, you must follow directions received from your broker to change your vote.

Q: When do you expect the merger to be completed?

A: We are working to complete the merger as quickly as practicable. We expect to complete the merger on or before March 9, 2007, assuming shareholder approval and all applicable governmental approvals have been received by that date and all conditions precedent to the merger have been satisfied or, to the extent permitted by applicable law, waived.

However, the elections of Anderson shareholders were subject to allocation procedures set forth in the Anderson merger agreement to ensure that the aggregate consideration received by Anderson shareholders in the merger transaction consisted of the number of Park common shares and the amount of cash described above.

The merger (page 42)

The merger agreement provides for the merger of Vision with and into Park, with Park surviving the merger. Following the merger, each of Vision's subsidiaries, including Vision Alabama and Vision Florida, will become subsidiaries of Park. The merger cannot be completed unless at least _____ shares of Vision common stock, which is two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Vision special meeting, vote to approve the merger agreement. The merger agreement is attached to this prospectus/proxy statement as Annex A and is incorporated in this prospectus/proxy statement by reference. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

What you will receive in the merger (page 43)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the shareholders of Vision will be entitled to elect to receive, in exchange for the shares of Vision common stock, $1.00 par value per share, that they own, either (a) cash, (b) Park common shares, or (c) a combination of cash and Park common shares, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional Park common shares in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, Park will cause the requests of the Vision shareholders to be allocated on a pro-rata basis so that 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash at the rate of $25.00 per share of Vision common stock and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares at the exchange rate of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. See The Merger Agreement Conversion of Vision common stock beginning on page 43 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Park will not issue fractional Park common shares, or certificates or scrip representing fractional Park common shares, in the merger. Instead, Park will pay to each holder of shares of Vision common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional Park common share (after taking into account all Vision common stock certificates surrendered by such holder) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of the fractional Park common share multiplied by $101.00.

Election procedures (page 43)

You may elect to receive, in exchange for your shares of Vision common stock, any of the following:

all Park common shares;

all cash; or a combination of cash and Park common shares.

However, your election will be subject to the allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement and described in this prospectus/proxy statement to ensure that, subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. If the elections by Vision shareholders do not result in the required ratio of cash and stock consideration, certain procedures for allocating cash and Park common shares will be followed as set forth in the merger agreement. As a result, you cannot be assured of receiving the form of consideration that you elect with respect to all of your shares of Vision common stock. See "The Merger Agreement Allocation" beginning on page 44.

Prior to the special meeting of Vision shareholders, you will receive an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal with instructions for making your election as to the form of consideration that you wish to receive and for surrendering your Vision common stock certificates to the exchange agent. The First-Knox National Bank of Mount Vernon, a subsidiary of Park, will serve as the exchange agent for the transaction. The procedures and deadline for making your election will be set forth in the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal and are described under the heading "The Merger Agreement Election procedures" beginning on page 43.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each employee who is a participant in the Vision ESPP, and who has not paid the entire balance due for any shares of Vision common stock for which the employee has subscribed, may pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement and receive the applicable shares of Vision common stock. If the participating employee fails to pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, the employee's subscription to purchase shares of Vision common stock will be treated as cancelled and Vision will refund (without interest) all amounts the employee has had withheld or has paid with respect to the cancelled subscription.

Vision stock options (page 46)

Under the terms of the merger agreement, each outstanding stock option (that is not exercised prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement) granted under one of Vision's equity-based compensation plans will be cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) (a) $25.00 multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option minus (2) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option.

Special meeting of shareholders of Vision (page 19)

A special meeting of shareholders of Vision will be held at 11:00 a.m., Central Time, on February 20, 2007, at Vision Bank's Foley office, 501 South McKenzie Street, Foley, Alabama, for the purpose of considering and voting on the following matters:

A proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated to be effective as of September 14, 2006, by and between Park and Vision, which provides for the merger of Vision with and into Park;

A proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger; and

Any other business which properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The Vision Board of Directors is unaware of any other business to be transacted at the special meeting.

If you are a Vision shareholder, you are entitled to vote at the special meeting if you owned shares of Vision common stock as of the close of business on January 8, 2007. As of January 8, 2007, a total of _____ shares of Vision common stock were eligible to be voted at the Vision special meeting.

Required vote (page 20)

The approval of the merger agreement will require the affirmative vote of the holders of at least _____ shares of Vision common stock, which is two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Vision special meeting. The affirmative vote of the holders of a majority of the shares of Vision common stock represented, in person or proxy, at the special meeting is required to adjourn the special meeting to solicit additional proxies. A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock, must be present in person or by proxy at the special meeting before any action, other than the adjournment of the special meeting, can be taken.

As of January 8, 2007, directors and executive officers of Vision and their respective affiliates beneficially owned an aggregate of _____ shares of Vision common stock (excluding shares of Vision common stock underlying unexercised stock options or subject to outstanding subscriptions under the Vision ESPP), amounting to _____ % of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock. As of the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, neither Park nor any of its directors, executive officers or affiliates beneficially owned any shares of Vision common stock.

Recommendation to shareholders (page 19)

The Vision Board of Directors believes that the merger with Park is in your best interests and recommends that you vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

Conditions to the merger (page 47)

The completion of the merger depends upon the satisfaction of a number of conditions set forth in the merger agreement, including the approval of the merger agreement by Vision shareholders and the receipt of all necessary governmental approvals. Park and Vision have filed applications to obtain approval for the merger from the appropriate governmental authorities.

Opinion of financial advisor (page 26)

The Vision Board of Directors has received a fairness opinion from its financial advisor, Burke Capital Group, L.L.C. (BCG), stating that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration set forth in the merger agreement was fair and equitable from a financial point of view to the Vision shareholders.

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated August 15, 2006, Vision paid BCG a fairness opinion fee of $50,000 upon the execution of the definitive merger agreement. In addition, Vision has agreed to pay BCG a financial advisory fee which will fluctuate based upon the ultimate value, determined as of the closing of the merger, of the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Vision common stock and Vision stock options in the merger. As of September 14, 2006, the date of the announcement of the merger, and based on the closing price of Park's common shares of $104.98 on September 13, 2006, the fee payable to BCG at the closing of the merger would be $1,646,085. Vision has also agreed to reimburse BCG for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify BCG and certain related persons against certain liabilities arising out of or in conjunction with BCG's rendering of services under its engagement, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

The full text of the fairness opinion, which outlines the matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by BCG in rendering its opinion, is attached as Annex B to this prospectus/proxy statement. We encourage you to read this fairness opinion in its entirety.

Material federal income tax consequences of the merger (page 38)

We intend that the merger will be treated as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code), and that, accordingly, for federal income tax purposes (i) no gain or loss will be recognized by Park or Vision as a result of the merger, and (ii) Vision shareholders who receive Park common shares in exchange for shares of Vision common stock in the merger will recognize no gain or loss, other than the gain or loss to be recognized as to cash received either (a) as a result of the election and allocation method, or (b) in lieu of fractional Park common shares. The obligation of Park and Vision to consummate the merger is conditioned on the receipt by Park and Vision of an opinion of Park's counsel, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, dated as of the effective date of the merger, substantially to the effect that the merger constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

Vision shareholders who exercise dissenters' rights and receive cash for their shares of Vision common stock generally will recognize gain or loss for federal income tax purposes.

Interests of directors and executive officers of Vision (page 34)

Some of the directors and executive officers of Vision have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Vision. These interests include the following:

Park, together with Vision Alabama and Vision Florida, entered into an employment agreement with J. Daniel Sizemore to become effective at the effective time of the merger. Mr. Sizemore currently serves as Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of Vision and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida. The compensation and benefits that will be provided to Mr. Sizemore under his employment agreement are described under The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 34 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Park, together with Vision Alabama, entered into an employment agreement with William E. Blackmon to become effective at the effective time of the merger. Mr. Blackmon currently serves as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Vision and Vision Alabama. The compensation and benefits that will be provided to Mr. Blackmon under his employment agreement are described under The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 35 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Park, together with Vision Alabama, entered into an employment agreement with Andrew W. Braswell to become effective at the effective time of the merger. Mr. Braswell currently serves as Executive Vice President and Senior Lending Officer of Vision Alabama. The compensation and benefits that will be provided to Mr. Braswell under his employment agreement are described under The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 35 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Park, together with Vision Florida, entered into an employment agreement with Joey W. Ginn to become effective at the effective time of the merger. Mr. Ginn currently serves as President of Vision Florida. The compensation and benefits that will be provided to Mr. Ginn under his employment agreement are described under The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 36 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Park, together with Vision Alabama, entered into an employment agreement with Robert S. McKean to become effective at the effective time of the merger. Mr. McKean currently serves as President of Vision Alabama. The compensation and benefits that will be provided to Mr. McKean under his employment agreement are described under The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 36 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement, members of the Boards of Directors of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida will continue to serve following the merger until their respective successors are duly qualified and elected and will receive compensation for their service on the Board of Directors of Vision Alabama or Vision Florida, as appropriate, commensurate with the compensation paid to directors serving on the Boards of Directors of Park's other subsidiaries.

Park has agreed to purchase directors' and officers' liability insurance for the directors and officers of Vision and its subsidiaries for a period of three years after the merger. Park also has agreed to indemnify the directors, officers and employees of Vision and its subsidiaries for certain actions or omissions in the course of their duties as directors, officers and employees of Vision or one of its subsidiaries occurring prior to the merger, including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement.

Vision Alabama and Vision Florida will each purchase certain real property at which certain of their branches are located from entities owned by one or more directors and/or executive officers of Vision, Vision Alabama and/or Vision Florida. The purchases will occur at the time of the merger, and the purchase price for each property is currently being negotiated by the parties. See "The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger" beginning on page 38 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

The Vision Board of Directors was aware of these interests of the directors and executive officers of Vision and considered them, among other things, in adopting the merger agreement.

Resale of Park common shares (page 41)

Park has registered the Park common shares to be issued in the merger with the Securities and Exchange Commission under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"). No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of the Park common shares issued pursuant to the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Park common shares issued to any Vision shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Vision for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act.

Termination of the merger agreement (page 52)

Park and Vision may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time before the merger is effective, whether before or after approval by Vision's shareholders. In addition, either Park or Vision acting alone may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time before the merger is effective, whether before or after approval by Vision's shareholders, under certain circumstances as described on pages 52 and 53 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

If the merger agreement is terminated upon the occurrence of certain events specified in the merger agreement and described on pages 52 and 53 of this prospectus/proxy statement, Vision is required to pay to Park a termination fee of $6,500,000, and may also be required to pay Park's documented out-of-pocket expenses, up to $250,000, provided that the amount of all such expenses and fees payable by Vision may not exceed $6,500,000 in the aggregate.

Under Alabama law, if you do not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, you may demand that Vision pay to you the fair value for your shares of Vision common stock. The right to make this demand is known as dissenters' rights. Vision shareholders exercising their dissenters' rights must comply strictly with the procedures specified in Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act. Vision shareholders who want to exercise their dissenters' rights must (i) deliver to Vision a written notice before the vote is taken at the special meeting on the approval of the merger agreement stating that he or she intends to seek a cash payment if the merger is consummated, (ii) not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement, (iii) submit a timely written payment demand to Vision after the merger is consummated and (iv) comply with certain other applicable statutory requirements. See Dissenters' Rights beginning on page 21 of this prospectus/proxy statement and the text of Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act attached to this prospectus/proxy statement as Annex C.

Risk Factors

In addition to other information in this prospectus/proxy statement or incorporated in this prospectus/proxy statement by reference, you should carefully consider the risk factors discussed in Item 1A. Risk Factors of Part I of Park's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and in Item 1A. Risk Factors of Part II of Park's Quarterly Report on Form 10-Q for the quarterly period ended September 30, 2006, incorporated by reference into this prospectus/proxy statement, which could materially affect Park's business, financial condition or future results, as well as the following factors:

Fluctuation in the market price of the Park common shares will affect the value of the Park common shares received in the merger.

Under the terms of the merger agreement, the shareholders of Vision will be entitled to elect to receive, in exchange for the shares of Vision common stock that they own, either (a) cash at the rate of $25.00 for each share of Vision common stock owned, (b) Park common shares at the exchange ratio of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock owned, or (c) a combination of cash and Park common shares. The stock exchange ratio (i.e., 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock) will not be adjusted if the market price of the Park common shares decreases prior to the closing of the merger. However, Vision may, but is not obligated to, terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger if the average of the closing sale prices of the Park common shares on AMEX during the 20 trading-day period ending on the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger is less than $81.00 (as adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction). On the other hand, Park may, but is not obligated to, terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger if the average of the closing sale prices of a Park common share on AMEX during the 20 trading-day period ending on the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger is greater than $121.00 (as adjusted pursuant to the terms of the merger agreement for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction).

On January 8, 2007, the last practicable trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, the closing sale price of the Park common shares as reported on AMEX was $. Based on that price, 0.2475 Park common shares would be valued at $.

The market price of the Park common shares may decrease after January , 2007 and prior to the closing of the merger. Furthermore, you will not receive your merger consideration until several days after the closing of the merger, and the market price of the Park common shares may decrease during the post-closing period prior to the date that you actually receive your merger consideration. During this period, you will not be able to sell any of the Park common shares that you may be entitled to receive in the merger to avoid losses resulting from any decline in the market price of the Park common shares.

You may receive a form of consideration different from the form of consideration you elect.

Although you will have an opportunity to elect the form of consideration you wish to receive in the merger, your election will be subject to the allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement and described in this prospectus/proxy statement to ensure that, subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. If you elect to receive all cash and the available cash is oversubscribed, then you may receive a portion of the merger consideration in the form of Park common shares. If you elect to receive all Park common shares and the available Park common shares are oversubscribed, then you may receive a portion of the merger consideration in cash. If you elect to receive a combination of cash and Park common shares and either the available Park common shares or the available cash is oversubscribed, you may not receive the specific combination of cash and Park common shares that you request.

Park has no prior operating experience in the Alabama and Florida markets in which Vision and its subsidiaries operate.

As of January 8, 2007, Park and its subsidiaries operated 138 offices across 29 Ohio counties and one Kentucky county. The merger with Vision will result in the expansion of the banking operations of Park and its subsidiaries into the Alabama and Florida markets currently served by Vision and its subsidiaries. Park and its subsidiaries have no prior operating experience in these markets and, therefore, will rely to a large extent on the existing Boards of Directors and management of Vision and its subsidiaries with respect to the operation of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida after the merger. Park, together with Vision Alabama and/or Vision Florida, as appropriate, entered into employment agreements with the following executive officers of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida: J. Daniel Sizemore, Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of Vision and Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida; William E. Blackmon, Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of Vision and Vision Alabama; Andrew W. Braswell, Executive Vice President and Senior Lending Officer of Vision Alabama; Joey W. Ginn, President of Vision Florida; and Robert S. McKean, President of Vision Alabama; as well as seven other senior officers of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida. Each of these employment agreements, which will become effective at the effective time of the merger, continues the executive officer's or employee's employment relationship with Vision Alabama or Vision Florida, as applicable, after the effective time of the merger for at least a three-year term. See The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 34 of this prospectus/proxy statement. However, there is no guarantee that Park will be able to retain the services of these executive officers and employees of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida, or that Park will be able to successfully manage the operations of the Vision subsidiaries in the Alabama and Florida markets.

Park could experience difficulties in managing its growth and effectively integrating Vision and Anderson.

Park may not be able to achieve fully the strategic objectives and operating efficiencies in the merger. The costs or difficulties relating to the integration of Vision and its subsidiaries with the Park organization may be greater than expected or the cost savings or any revenue synergies of the combined organization may be lower or take longer to realize than expected. Inherent uncertainties exist in integrating the operations of any acquired entity. In addition, the markets and industries in which Park and Vision and their respective subsidiaries operate are highly competitive. Park may lose its customers or the customers of Vision and its subsidiaries as a result of the merger. Park may also lose key personnel, either from itself or from Vision and its subsidiaries, as a result of the merger, although Park has entered into employment agreements with J. Daniel Sizemore and eleven other executive officers and employees of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida as described in the previous risk factor. These factors could contribute to Park not fully achieving the expected benefits from the merger. Similarly, Park's recently completed acquisition of Anderson involves the same risks described above.

The termination fee may discourage other companies from trying to acquire Vision even if the other acquisition could offer higher immediate value to Vision shareholders.

Pursuant to the merger agreement, Vision has agreed to pay Park a termination fee of $6,500,000, if (a) the merger agreement is terminated by Vision because Vision's Board of Directors has authorized the execution of a definitive written agreement concerning a superior proposal, or (b) the merger agreement is terminated by Vision or Park for certain specified reasons and, within 12 months after the termination of the merger agreement, Vision consummates or enters into an agreement relating to a previously-announced acquisition proposal. This termination fee could have the effect of discouraging other companies from trying to acquire Vision, even if the other acquisition could offer higher immediate value to Vision's shareholders.

The fairness opinion obtained by Vision from its financial advisor will not reflect changes in circumstances prior to the merger.

Burke Capital Group, L.L.C., the financial advisor to Vision, delivered a fairness opinion to the Board of Directors of Vision on September 14, 2006. The fairness opinion states that, as of the date of the opinion, the merger consideration set forth in the merger agreement was fair and equitable from a financial point of view to the Vision shareholders. The fairness opinion does not reflect changes that may occur or may have occurred after September 14, 2006, including changes to the operation and prospects of Park or Vision, changes in general market and economic conditions, or other factors. Any such changes, or other factors on which the fairness opinion is based, may alter the relative value of Park and Vision.

Some directors and executive officers of Vision have potential conflicts of interest in the merger.

Some of the directors and executive officers of Vision have interests in the merger that are different from, or in addition to, their interests as shareholders of Vision. Park, together with Vision Alabama and/or Vision Florida, entered into employment agreements with J. Daniel Sizemore and four other executive officers of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida to become effective at the effective time of the merger. In addition, Park has agreed to purchase directors and officers liability insurance for the directors and officers of Vision and its subsidiaries for a period of three years after the merger and has agreed to indemnify the directors, officers and employees of Vision and its subsidiaries for certain actions or omissions in the course of their duties as directors, officers and employees of Vision or one of its subsidiaries occurring prior to the merger (including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement). In connection with the merger, Vision Alabama and Vision Florida also will be purchasing certain real property at which certain of their branches are located from entities owned by one or more directors and/or executive offices of Vision, Vision Alabama and/or Vision Florida. These and certain other additional interests of Vision's directors and executive officers may cause these persons to view the proposed merger differently than you view it. See The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 34 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Vision's shareholders will not control Park's future operations.

Following the merger, Vision shareholders in the aggregate will become the owners of less than % of the approximately million Park common shares anticipated to be outstanding following the issuance of up to Park common shares in the Vision merger. As a result, former Vision shareholders will not have a significant impact on the election of directors or on whether future proposals submitted to a vote of Park shareholders are approved or rejected.

Changes in interest rates could have a material adverse effect on Park's financial condition and results of operations.

Park's earnings depend substantially on interest rate spread, which is the difference between (i) the rates earned on loans, investment securities and other interest earning assets and (ii) the interest rates paid on deposits and borrowings. These rates are highly sensitive to many factors beyond Park's control, including general economic conditions and the policies of various governmental and regulatory authorities. While Park and its subsidiaries have taken measures intended to manage the risks of operating in a changing interest rate environment, there can be no assurance that such measures will be effective in avoiding undue interest rate risk.

There is also the risk that the Board of Directors or management of Park or Vision incorrectly analyzes these risks and factors, or that the strategies that Park or Vision develops to address them are unsuccessful.

Forward-looking statements speak only as of the date on which they are made, and, except as may be required by law, Park and Vision undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement to reflect events or circumstances after the date on which the statement is made to reflect unanticipated events. The Special Meeting of ShareholdersPurpose, time and place of the special meeting

This prospectus/proxy statement is being provided to you in connection with the solicitation of proxies by the Vision Board of Directors for use at the special meeting of shareholders to be held on February 20, 2007 at 11:00 a.m., Central Time, at Vision Bank's Foley office, 501 South McKenzie Street, Foley, Alabama, including any adjournments or reschedulings of that special meeting. At the special meeting, the shareholders of Vision will be asked to consider and vote upon the following matters:

A proposal to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated to be effective as of September 14, 2006, by and between Park and Vision, which provides for the merger of Vision with and into Park;

A proposal to approve the adjournment of the special meeting, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, in the event there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the Agreement and Plan of Merger; and

Any other business which properly comes before the special meeting or any adjournment or postponement of the special meeting. The Board of Directors of Vision is unaware of any other business to be transacted at the special meeting.

The Board of Directors of Vision has unanimously adopted the merger agreement and recommends a vote FOR the approval of the merger agreement.

Record date; Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote

The Board of Directors of Vision has fixed the close of business on January 8, 2007 as the record date for determining the Vision shareholders who are entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting of shareholders. Only holders of shares of Vision common stock who are holders at the close of business on the record date will be entitled to notice of and to vote at the special meeting.

As of the close of business on January 8, 2007, there were _____ shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting. The shares of Vision common stock were held of record by approximately _____ shareholders. Each share of Vision common stock entitles the holder to one vote on each matter properly presented at the special meeting.

Votes required; quorum

Under Alabama law and Vision's amended and restated articles of incorporation and by-laws, the approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the Vision special meeting.

As of January 8, 2007, directors and executive officers of Vision and their respective affiliates beneficially owned an aggregate of _____ shares of Vision common stock (excluding shares underlying unexercised stock options or subject to outstanding subscriptions under the Vision ESPP), amounting to _____ % of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock as of the record date. As of the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, neither Park nor any of its directors, executive officers or affiliates beneficially owned any shares of Vision common stock.

A quorum, consisting of the holders of a majority of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock, must be present in person or by proxy at the Vision special meeting before any action can be taken. A properly executed proxy card marked ABSTAIN will not be voted on the approval of the merger agreement but will count toward determining whether a quorum is present. Brokers who hold shares of Vision common stock in street name for the beneficial owners cannot vote these shares of Vision common stock on the approval of the merger agreement without specific instructions from the beneficial owners. Because the approval of the merger agreement requires the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding and entitled to vote at the special meeting, an abstention or, if your shares of Vision common stock are held in street name, your failure to instruct your broker how to vote, will have the same effect as a vote AGAINST the approval of the merger agreement.

Solicitation and revocation of proxies

A proxy card for use at the special meeting accompanies each copy of this prospectus/proxy statement mailed to Vision shareholders. Your proxy is solicited by the Board of Directors of Vision. Whether or not you attend the special meeting, the Vision Board of Directors urges you to return the enclosed proxy card. If you return your properly executed proxy card prior to the special meeting and do not revoke it prior to its use, the shares of Vision common stock represented by that proxy card will be voted at the special meeting or, if appropriate, at any adjournment of the special meeting. The shares of Vision common stock will be voted as specified on the proxy card or, in the absence of specific instructions to the contrary, will be voted FOR the approval of the merger agreement and, if necessary, FOR the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies.

If you have returned a properly executed proxy card, you may revoke it at any time before a vote is taken at the special meeting by:

filing a written notice of revocation with the Secretary of Vision, at P.O. Box 4649, Gulf Shores, Alabama 36547;

executing and returning another proxy card with a later date; or attending the special meeting and giving notice of revocation in person.

Your attendance at the special meeting will not, by itself, revoke your proxy.

If you are a Vision shareholder whose shares of common stock are not registered in your own name, you will need additional documentation from your record holder in order to vote your shares of Vision common stock in person at the special meeting.

We do not expect any matter other than the approval of the merger agreement and, if necessary, the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting to solicit additional proxies, to be brought before the Vision special meeting. If any other matters are properly brought before the special meeting for consideration, shares of Vision common stock represented by properly executed proxy cards will be voted, to the extent permitted by applicable law, in the discretion of the persons named in the proxy card in accordance with their best judgment.

Vision will bear its own cost of solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Vision Board of Directors, except that Vision and Park have agreed to share equally the costs (excluding the fees and disbursements of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with preparing (including copying, printing and distributing) this prospectus/proxy statement. Proxies will be solicited by mail and may be further solicited by additional mailings, personal contact, telephone, facsimile or electronic mail, by directors, officers and regular employees of Vision, none of whom will receive additional compensation for their solicitation activities. Vision does not presently anticipate hiring a proxy solicitation firm to assist with the solicitation of proxies on behalf of the Vision Board of Directors. However, if the Company decides to hire a proxy solicitation firm, Vision estimates that the total fees paid to such firm will not exceed $20,000. Vision will also pay the standard charges and expenses of brokerage houses, voting trustees, banks, associations and other custodians, nominees and fiduciaries, who are record holders of shares of Vision common stock not beneficially owned by them, for forwarding this prospectus/proxy statement and other proxy solicitation materials to, and obtaining proxies from, the beneficial owners of shares of Vision common stock entitled to vote at the special meeting.

Dissenters Rights

The following is a summary of the steps that you must take if you wish to exercise dissenters rights with respect to the merger. This is not a complete statement of the law relating to dissenters rights and is qualified in its entirety by reference to Annex C, which sets forth the full text of Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act. As used in this summary and in Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32, the term dissenting shareholder means the record holder of the dissenting shares. A person having a beneficial interest in shares of Vision common stock which are held of record in the name of another person, such as a broker or nominee, must act promptly to cause the record shareholder to timely and properly follow the steps summarized below to perfect whatever dissenters rights the beneficial shareholder may have. If you are considering dissenting, you should consult your own legal advisor.

Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act provide for rights to obtain payment of the fair value of the shares of Vision common stock of a shareholder of record who (i) has delivered notice in writing to Vision before the vote is taken that he or she intends to seek a cash payment if the merger is consummated and (ii) does not vote in favor of the approval of the merger agreement. Within ten (10) days after completion of the merger, Vision will send to each shareholder who has given such notice to Vision a dissenters notice stating, among other things, a date not less than thirty (30) days nor more than sixty (60) days after the date of the dissenters notice by which the shareholder must submit a written payment demand. Within twenty (20) days after making such payment demand, the shareholder must submit the certificates representing shares of Vision common stock to Vision for notation thereon that such demand has been made.

The written payment demand should be sent to:

William E. Blackmon
Gulf Shores, Alabama 36547-4649
Facsimile: (251) 968-3363

As soon as the merger is completed, or upon the receipt of a payment demand by a shareholder, Vision will offer to pay each dissenting shareholder the amount which Vision estimates to be the fair value of the shares of Vision common stock, plus accrued interest. Each dissenting shareholder may agree to accept such offer of payment and upon receiving payment, such dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in the shares. Fair value means the value of the shares immediately before the consummation of the merger excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the merger unless exclusion would be inequitable. If a dissenting shareholder is dissatisfied with Vision's offer of payment, the shareholder may notify Vision in writing within 30 days after Vision's offer stating his or her own estimate of the fair value of the shares of Vision common stock, plus accrued interest, and demanding payment of such amount, or such dissenting shareholder may simply reject Vision's offer and demand payment of the fair value of his or her shares of Vision common stock plus accrued interest.

If Vision fails to make an offer to a dissenting shareholder within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment, the shareholder may notify Vision of his or her own estimate of the fair value of the shares of Vision common stock and accrued interest and demand payment. If the dissenting shareholder and Vision cannot agree upon the fair value, plus interest, to be paid for shares of Vision common stock that are the subject of the demand, then Vision must commence a proceeding in the Alabama Circuit Court for Baldwin County within 60 days of receiving the payment demand to have the fair value of the shares plus accrued interest determined. If Vision does not commence the proceeding within 60 days after receipt of the payment demand and the shareholder's account still remains unsettled, Vision must pay each dissenting shareholder the amount of money demanded. In any court proceeding, the court will assess costs against Vision except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenting shareholders if the court finds the dissenting shareholders acted arbitrarily, vexatiously or not in good faith in demanding payment.

A dissenting shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all shares registered in such holder's name, but only if the record holder dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and provides written notice to Vision of the name and address of each person on whose behalf the dissenters' rights are asserted. A beneficial shareholder is defined by the Alabama Business Corporation Act as the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder. The rights of a partial dissenter are determined as if the shares of Vision common stock as to which such holder dissents and other shares held by the holder are registered in the names of different shareholders. Thus, if a beneficial shareholder owns shares of Vision common stock through a bank, broker or other nominee, such beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights, but only if the bank, broker or nominee provides Vision with the name and address of each such person wishing to assert dissenters' rights. The beneficial shareholder must submit to Vision the consent of the record shareholder, i.e., the bank, broker or nominee holding for the dissenting beneficial shareholder, not later than the time the dissenting beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights.

A shareholder who dissents and obtains payment under these procedures may not challenge the Vision merger unless the merger is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or Vision.

Failure of a shareholder to comply with any requirements of the provisions relating to dissenters' rights will result in a forfeiture by such shareholder of these dissenters' rights.

References herein to applicable statutes are summaries of portions thereof and do not purport to be complete and are qualified in their entirety by reference to the applicable statutes. Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act are attached hereto as Annex C. You should read Annex C carefully.

The Proposed Merger (Proposal One)

Subject to the terms and conditions set forth in the merger agreement, if the holders of at least two-thirds of the shares of Vision common stock vote to approve the merger agreement, the proposed acquisition of Vision and its subsidiaries by Park will be accomplished through the merger of Vision with and into Park.

At September 30, 2006, on a consolidated basis, Park had total assets of $5.39 billion; total loans, net of unearned income, of $3.39 billion; total deposits of $3.89 billion; and total stockholders' equity of $558.21 million. Park's common shares are listed on AMEX under the symbol PRK.

Recent Developments

Park recently completed the acquisition of Anderson, which was merged with and into The Park National Bank, effective as of December 18, 2006, pursuant to the terms of a Second Amended and Restated Agreement and Plan of Merger, dated to be effective as of August 14, 2006. Anderson was an Ohio state-chartered commercial bank with its main office located in Anderson Township on the east side of Cincinnati, Ohio and a second office located in Amelia, Ohio. Upon the completion of the Anderson merger transaction, the two offices of Anderson became part of the division of The Park National Bank known as The Park National Bank of Southwest Ohio & Northern Kentucky. At September 30, 2006, Anderson had total assets of $70.39 million; total loans, net of unearned income, of $55.24 million; total deposits of $62.36 million; and total shareholders' equity of $7.51 million.

Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares in accordance with the terms of the Anderson merger agreement, the shareholders of Anderson are receiving aggregate consideration consisting of 86,137 common shares of Park and $9,052,093. The Anderson shareholders had the opportunity to elect to receive all cash, all Park common shares or a combination of cash and Park common shares in exchange for their Anderson common shares. However, the elections of Anderson shareholders were subject to allocation procedures set forth in the Anderson merger agreement to ensure that the aggregate consideration received by Anderson shareholders in the merger transaction consisted of the number of Park common shares and the amount of cash described above.

Vision, through various contractual arrangements, fully and unconditionally guaranteed all of the Vision Trust's obligations with respect to the preferred securities. The sole asset of the Vision Trust is $15.5 million of junior subordinated debentures issued by Vision. These junior subordinated debentures also carry the same floating rate as the preferred securities. Both the preferred securities and the junior subordinated debentures mature on December 30, 2035; however, the maturity of both may be shortened to a date not earlier than December 30, 2010. Vision can defer payment of interest on the junior subordinated debentures, and the Vision Trust can defer payment of the cash distributions on the preferred securities, at any time or from time to time for a period not to exceed twenty consecutive quarters.

Background and reasons for the merger

Background of the merger

Vision commenced business with the formation of Vision Alabama in 1999. Since then, management and the Board of Directors of Vision have looked for ways to increase asset and earnings growth and enhance shareholder value. To some extent, management has attempted to achieve these goals through the opening of new branches and acquisition and formation of new banks. In 2003, Vision organized Vision Bank, FSB, a federal savings bank in Panama City, Florida. In 2004, Vision Bank, FSB merged with and into BankTrust of Florida (formerly Wewahitchka State Bank), a Florida state-chartered bank located in Wewahitchka, Florida. Prior to this merger, the name of BankTrust of Florida was changed to Vision Bank. Those transactions gave Vision two commercial bank subsidiaries, Vision Alabama and Vision Florida. Vision Alabama now has seven locations in Gulf Shores, Orange Beach, Point Clear, Foley, Fairhope, Elberta and Daphne, Alabama, and Vision Florida now has eight full-service offices located in Panama City, Panama City Beach, Santa Rosa Beach, Wewahitchka, Port St. Joe, Port St. Joe Beach and Destin, Florida. Thus, from two branches in Baldwin County, Alabama in 1999, Vision's subsidiary banks have grown to seven locations in Baldwin County, Alabama and eight locations in the panhandle of Florida.

The Vision Board of Directors has periodically explored and assessed strategic options available to achieve Vision's ultimate goals of fully utilizing its capital and returning value to shareholders. These strategic discussions have included the possibility of accelerating branch openings, acquisitions of smaller institutions by Vision, business combinations involving Vision and other equally-sized financial institutions, and a possible sale of Vision to a larger regional or national financial institution.

In 2005, Vision retained Burke Capital Group, L.L.C., Atlanta, Georgia (BCG) to assist Vision in evaluating ways in which the value of the Vision banking franchise could be enhanced. Vision decided to engage BCG as Vision's financial advisor based on BCG's extensive experience and other significant qualifications. BCG has detailed knowledge of Vision, is very familiar with the Southeastern U.S. banking market, and has significant knowledge of potential partners for a merger or sale of Vision. Vision and BCG discussed several alternatives, including raising additional capital to support increased growth as well as a possible strategic transaction pursuant to which Vision might be combined with another banking organization as a means of providing Vision shareholders with an opportunity of obtaining an ownership interest in a larger enterprise.

After discussion with the Vision Board of Directors, BCG conducted a market survey of possible partners for a business combination with Vision beginning in June 2005. In early October 2005, the Vision Board of Directors elected to terminate any ongoing negotiations and to continue to remain an independent organization due to the rapid growth and financial performance it was experiencing at that time.

Vision experienced significant improvements in both earnings and asset growth as well as the expansion of the branch network of its bank subsidiaries to proximate high growth locations between the second half of 2005 and the first quarter of 2006. In light of these improvements, Vision authorized BCG to revisit selected parties that had previously been approached to determine if these parties maintained an interest in acquiring Vision. Additionally, BCG continued to survey the market for new financial institutions that might have an interest in a combination with Vision. The Vision Board of Directors wanted to pursue a possible combination with another entity only if a transaction price could be agreed upon that would, in the opinion of the Board of Directors, represent not only a fair price for Vision shareholders in the current market, but also the potential for long-term strategic growth.

As part of this process, BCG contacted several parties and ultimately held management meetings with two parties, one of which was Park. After determining that there was an interest in exploring the possibility of an acquisition by Park, senior management representatives of Vision hosted Park's Chairman of the Board and Chief Executive Officer, C. Daniel DeLawder, in Panama City, Florida and discussed the strategy and operating philosophies of their respective organizations. At that meeting in early July 2006, both Vision and Park agreed to the additional exchange of information to determine the likelihood of a possible combination.

Over the course of the next few weeks, representatives from BCG provided detailed information to Park regarding Vision's financial profile, operating performance and franchise highlights. On July 31, 2006, BCG received an initial indication of interest from Park to acquire Vision.

During August 2006, there were several meetings between members of Park's management team and Vision. Following the submission of the initial indication, representatives of Park visited the senior officers of Vision in both Florida and Alabama to assess Vision's franchise and continue to discuss the two organizations' operating philosophies. Representatives from Vision and BCG subsequently traveled to Ohio to meet with Park executives and to perform due diligence on Park. Concurrent with these meetings, representatives of both companies began negotiating a definitive merger agreement whereby Vision would be acquired by Park.

On September 14, 2006, the Vision Board of Directors met to evaluate and discuss the proposed merger agreement between Vision and Park. The Vision Board of Directors reviewed materials provided by BCG and consulted with its legal counsel regarding the Vision Board's fiduciary duties in considering a business combination transaction or sale of the business under Vision's amended and restated articles of incorporation. The Vision Board of Directors discussed all of the alternatives in detail and the likely impact a sale of Vision would have on Vision's employees, customers, communities, and shareholders. BCG rendered to the Vision Board of Directors its oral opinion (subsequently confirmed in writing) that, as of the date of its opinion and based upon and subject to the considerations described in its opinion and other matters as BCG considered relevant, the proposed merger consideration was fair, from a financial point of view, to holders of shares of Vision common stock. Balch & Bingham, LLP, legal counsel to Vision, discussed with the Vision Board of Directors the legal standards applicable to its decisions and actions with respect to the proposed transaction and reviewed the legal terms of the proposed merger and the related agreements.

Following review and discussion among the members of the Vision Board of Directors, the Vision Board of Directors voted unanimously to adopt the merger agreement with Park at the meeting held on September 14, 2006. Vision and Park and their respective counsel finalized, and Vision and Park executed and delivered the definitive merger agreement on September 14, 2006. The transaction was announced on September 14, 2006 by a joint press release issued by Park and Vision after the close of trading on AMEX.

The Vision Board of Directors' reasons for the merger

The Vision Board of Directors believes that the merger is fair to, and in the best interests of, Vision and its shareholders. The terms of the merger agreement, including the merger consideration, are the result of arm's-length negotiations between representatives of Vision and Park. Accordingly, the Vision Board of Directors unanimously adopted the merger agreement and recommends that the holders of Vision common stock vote FOR approval of the merger agreement.

In reaching its decision to adopt the merger agreement, Vision's Board of Directors consulted with legal counsel, BCG and management, and took into account its previous consideration of a possible transaction in 2005. In addition, the following factors were considered by the Vision Board of Directors in adopting the merger agreement and in recommending the approval of the merger agreement to the Vision shareholders:

- an analysis, with the assistance of BCG, of the financial structure, results of operations and prospects of Vision and Park;
- the composition of the businesses of the two organizations;
- the overall compatibility of the management of the organizations;
- the tax-free nature of the stock portion of the merger consideration;
- the fact that Vision shareholders would have an opportunity to elect between cash and Park common shares;

the outlook for both organizations in the banking and financial services industry;

the factors outlined above under Background of the merger ;

the receipt of the opinion of BCG regarding the fairness of the merger consideration to the shareholders of Vision from a financial point of view; and the possibility of remaining independent in light of current economic conditions, banking prospects in the Alabama and Florida Gulf Coast markets in which Vision and its subsidiaries operate and the competitive disadvantages to smaller institutions as compared to larger institutions operating in the market.

The Board of Directors of Vision did not assign any relative or specific weight to any factor it considered in deciding to adopt the merger agreement.

The merger will enable Vision and its subsidiaries to become part of a larger and more diverse organization. This may help Vision and its subsidiaries to reach more customers, add additional products for their customers, diversify their risks, enhance their ability to make larger loans and, in general, compete more effectively with larger banking institutions. These factors should enhance shareholder value in the combined organization.

The Board of Directors concluded that the form of the consideration to be offered in the merger is beneficial to Vision's shareholders. The combination of cash and Park common shares provides an opportunity for Vision shareholders to choose, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement, the form of consideration most suitable to their personal circumstances. Each holder of shares of Vision common stock has the opportunity (i) to share in the potential growth of Park following the merger by choosing to receive part or all of the consideration for the holder's shares of Vision common stock in Park common shares or (ii) to receive what Vision believes is a fair value by choosing to receive part or all of the consideration in cash.

Park's reasons for the merger

Park believes the merger will benefit Park shareholders by enabling Park to diversify and expand into the more robust markets currently served by Vision and its subsidiaries, gain a talented management team that has extensive experience operating in the Alabama and Florida Gulf Coast markets in which Vision and its subsidiaries operate, strengthen the competitive position of the combined organization, generate cost savings and enhance other opportunities for Park.

Opinion of Vision's financial advisor

Vision retained BCG to act as its financial advisor in connection with a possible business combination. BCG is a nationally recognized investment banking firm whose principal business specialty is financial institutions. In the ordinary course of its investment banking business, BCG is regularly engaged in the valuation of financial institutions and their securities in connection with mergers and acquisitions and other corporate transactions.

BCG acted as financial advisor to Vision in connection with the proposed merger with Park and participated in certain of the negotiations leading to the execution of the merger agreement. In connection with BCG's engagement, Vision asked BCG to evaluate the fairness of the merger consideration to Vision's shareholders from a financial point of view. At the September 14, 2006 meeting of the Vision Board of Directors to evaluate the merger agreement, BCG delivered to the Board of Directors its oral opinion and, subsequently, its written opinion that, based upon and subject to various matters set forth in its opinion, the merger consideration was fair to Vision's shareholders from a financial point of view. At that meeting, the Vision Board of Directors voted to adopt the merger agreement, and Vision subsequently executed the definitive merger agreement on September 14, 2006.

The full text of BCG's written opinion is attached as Annex B to this prospectus/proxy statement. The opinion outlines matters considered and qualifications and limitations on the review undertaken by BCG in rendering its opinion. The description of the opinion set forth below is qualified in its entirety by reference to the opinion. We urge you to read the entire opinion carefully in connection with your consideration of the proposed merger.

BCG's opinion speaks only as of the date of the opinion. The opinion was directed to the Vision Board of Directors and is directed only to the fairness of the merger consideration to Vision shareholders from a financial point of view. It does not address the underlying business decision of Vision to engage in the merger or any other aspect of the merger and is not a recommendation to any Vision shareholder as to how such shareholder should vote at the special meeting with respect to the approval of the merger agreement, or any other matter.

In connection with rendering its September 14, 2006 opinion, BCG reviewed and considered, among other things:

The definitive merger agreement and certain of the schedules thereto;

Certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Vision that BCG deemed relevant;

Projected earnings estimates for Vision for the years ending December 31, 2006 through 2011 prepared by and reviewed with senior management of Vision and the views of senior management regarding Vision's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects;

Internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Vision furnished to BCG by Vision that is not publicly available;

Certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Park that BCG deemed relevant;

The reported prices and trading activity of Park's common shares and Vision's common stock and a comparison of those prices and activity with other publicly-traded companies that BCG deemed relevant;

The pro forma financial impact of the merger on Park's ability to complete a transaction from a regulatory standpoint, based on assumptions determined by senior management of Vision and BCG;

The financial terms of other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;

The current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular; and

Such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as it considered relevant.

Vision's Board of Directors did not limit the investigations made or the procedures followed by BCG in giving its opinion.

In performing its reviews and analyses and in rendering its opinion, BCG assumed and relied upon the accuracy and completeness of all the financial information, analyses and other information that was publicly available or otherwise furnished to, reviewed by or discussed with it and further relied on the assurances of management of Vision and Park that they were not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make such information inaccurate or misleading. BCG was not asked to and did not independently verify the accuracy or completeness of such information and it did not assume responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness of any of such information. BCG did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities, contingent or otherwise, of Vision or Park or any of their respective subsidiaries, or the ability to collect any such assets, nor was BCG furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. BCG is not an expert in the evaluation of allowances for loan losses and it did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Vision or Park, nor did BCG review any individual credit files relating to Vision or Park. With Vision's consent, BCG assumed that the respective allowances for loan losses, on consolidated basis, for both Vision and Park were adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined organization. In addition, BCG did not conduct any physical inspection of the properties or facilities of Vision or Park. BCG is not an accounting firm and it relied on the reports of the independent registered public accounting firms of Vision and Park for the accuracy and completeness of the financial statements furnished to it.

BCG's opinion was necessarily based upon market, economic and other conditions as they existed on, and could be evaluated as of, the date of its opinion. BCG assumed, in all respects material to its analysis, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the merger agreement and all related agreements were true and correct, that each party to such agreements will perform all of the covenants required to be performed by such party under such agreements and that the conditions precedent in the merger agreement will not be waived. BCG also assumed that there has been no material change in Vision's and Park's respective assets, financial condition, results of operations, business or prospects since the date of the last financial statements made available to BCG and that Vision and Park will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to BCG's analyses.

In rendering its September 14, 2006 opinion, BCG performed a variety of financial analyses. The following is a summary of the material analyses performed by BCG, but is not a complete description of all the analyses underlying BCG's opinion. The summary includes information presented in tabular format. In order to fully understand the financial analyses, these tables must be read together with the accompanying text. The tables alone do not constitute a complete description of the financial analyses. The preparation of a fairness opinion is a complex process involving subjective judgments as to the most appropriate and relevant methods of financial analysis and the application of those methods to the particular circumstances. The process, therefore, is not necessarily susceptible to a partial analysis or summary description. BCG believes that its analyses must be considered as a whole and that selecting portions of the factors and analyses considered without considering all factors and analyses, or attempting to ascribe relative weights to some or all of such factors and analyses, could create an incomplete view of the evaluation process underlying its opinion. Also, no company included in BCG's comparative analyses described below is identical to Vision or Park and no transaction is identical to the merger. Accordingly, an analysis of comparable companies or transactions involves complex considerations and judgments concerning differences in financial and operating characteristics of the companies and other factors that could affect the public trading values or merger transaction values, as the case may be, of Vision or Park and the companies to which they are being compared.

The earnings projections used and relied upon by BCG in its analyses were based upon internal projections of Vision. BCG assumed for purposes of its analyses that such performance would be achieved. BCG expressed no opinion as to such financial projections or the assumptions on which they were based. The financial projections furnished to BCG by Vision were prepared for internal purposes only and not with a view towards public disclosure. These projections, as well as the other estimates used by BCG in its analyses, were based on numerous variables and assumptions which are inherently uncertain and, accordingly, actual results could vary materially from those set forth in such projections.

In performing its analyses, BCG also made numerous assumptions with respect to industry performance, business and economic conditions and various other matters, many of which cannot be predicted and are beyond the control of Vision, Park and BCG. The analyses performed by BCG are not necessarily indicative of actual values or future results, which may be significantly more or less favorable than suggested by such analyses. Estimates on the values of companies do not purport to be appraisals or necessarily reflect the prices at which companies or their securities may actually be sold. Such estimates are inherently subject to uncertainty and actual values may be materially different. Accordingly, BCG's analyses do not necessarily reflect the value of Vision's common stock or Park's common shares or the prices at which Vision's common stock or Park's common shares may be sold at any time.

Summary of Proposed Merger

BCG reviewed the financial terms of the proposed merger transaction whereby the holders of shares of Vision common stock will be entitled to receive, in exchange for each share of Vision common stock, 0.2475 Park common shares or $25.00 cash, subject to the election and allocation procedures set forth in the merger agreement. Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional Park common shares in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, Park will cause the requests of the Vision shareholders to be allocated on a pro-rata basis so that 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash at the rate of $25.00 per share of Vision common stock and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares at the exchange rate of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock. Each outstanding stock option (that is not exercised prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement) granted under one of Vision's equity-based compensation plans will be cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (1) (a) $25.00 multiplied by (b) the number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option minus (2) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision common stock subject to the unexercised portion of the stock option.

Based upon the terms of the definitive merger agreement and the closing price of Park's common shares of $104.98 on September 13, 2006, BCG calculated a transaction value of $169,608,524 or $25.45 per share of Vision common stock on September 14, 2006, the date of the announcement. Utilizing Vision's publicly available financial information on the date of announcement, which was June 30, 2006 unaudited financial information, BCG calculated the following ratios:

Total Transaction Value	$ 169,608,524

(1) Fully diluted shares calculated using the treasury method.

(2) Deal multiples based on June 30, 2006 unaudited financial results.

The fully diluted share count was based upon Vision's 6,066,624 outstanding shares of common stock and 884,834 outstanding options to purchase shares of common stock at a weighted average strike price of $8.09 as of September 14, 2006. This analysis assumes no options are exercised prior to closing. Any exercise of options prior to closing would change the fully diluted share count and would change the aggregate transaction value.

Analysis of VisionSelected Peer Group Analysis

BCG used publicly available information to compare selected financial information for Vision and a group of selected financial institutions. The group consisted of Vision and 80 Southeastern U.S. banks and bank holding companies, which BCG referred to as the Vision Peer Group. The Vision Peer Group consisted of selected Southeastern U.S. banks and bank holding companies with assets between $350 million and $1 billion.

The analysis calculated the median performance of the Vision Peer Group, based upon the latest publicly available financial data, compared to Vision's June 30, 2006 unaudited financial results. The table below sets forth the comparative data.

*Analysis of Selected Merger Transactions*Deal Value Multiples

In order to address the specific valuation considerations within the Southeastern U.S. market that Vision serves, BCG selected a group of comparable Southeastern U.S. merger and acquisition transactions and compared the pricing multiples to the multiples implied by the merger consideration. Specifically, BCG selected bank merger and acquisition transactions according to the following criteria:

Merger and acquisition transactions announced after January 1, 2004;

Seller located within the Southeastern U.S. AL, AR, FL, GA, NC, SC, TN, VA, & DC;

Seller assets between $350 million and $1 billion; and Seller with ROAA greater than 75 basis points in the latest available financial period prior to announcement.

BCG selected 17 transactions fitting the criteria listed above as being comparable to the proposed merger. The 17 comparable transactions selected included the following:

BCG reviewed the multiples of transaction value at announcement to last twelve months earnings, transaction value to book value, transaction value to tangible book value, and tangible book premium to core deposits and computed high, low, mean, and median multiples and premiums for the transactions. These multiples and premiums were applied to Vision's financial information as of and for the period ended June 30, 2006 and were used to impute a per share transaction price. As illustrated in the following table, BCG derived an imputed range of values per share of Vision's common stock of $22.98 to $30.31 based upon the median multiples of the selected Southeastern U.S. transactions.

	Median Multiple	Implied Value/ Share	Vision Merger Consideration
Transaction Value/LTM Earnings	23.09x	$ 30.31	19.24x
Transaction Value/Book Value	2.94x	$ 22.98	3.27x
Transaction Value/Tangible Book Value	3.18x	$ 22.98	3.53x
Tangible Book Premium/Core Deposits	24.59%	$ 23.40	27.82%

Low Valuation		$ 22.98

The analysis showed that the merger consideration of $25.45 is within the range of values imputed by the mean and median multiples of the comparable Southeastern U.S. transactions.

Transaction Price Premiums Paid

In order to address the specific valuation considerations within the Southeastern U.S. market that Vision serves, BCG selected a group of comparable Southeastern U.S. merger and acquisition transactions and compared the per share acquisition premium over each company's trading price to the premium being paid in the merger. Specifically, BCG selected bank merger and acquisition transactions according to the following criteria:

Merger and acquisition transactions announced after January 1, 2004;

Seller located within the Southeastern U.S. AL, AR, FL, GA, NC, SC, TN, VA, & DC;

Seller assets between $350 million and $1 billion;

Seller with ROAA greater than 75 basis points in the latest available financial period prior to announcement; and Seller was publicly traded.

BCG selected 8 transactions fitting the criteria listed above as being comparable to the proposed merger. The 8 comparable transactions selected included the following:

BCG reviewed the acquisition premiums to the closing stock price one day prior, one week prior, two weeks prior, and one month prior to the announcement of the acquisition and computed high, low, and median premiums based on the selected transactions. These premiums were applied to Vision's trading history and were used to impute a range of transaction prices. As illustrated in the following table, BCG derived an imputed range of values per share of Vision's common stock of $21.11 to $28.32 based upon the average minimum and maximum acquisition premiums of the selected Southeastern U.S. transactions.

Discounted Cash Flow Analysis

Using a discounted cash flow analysis, BCG estimated the present value of the future stream of earnings and dividends that Vision could produce over the next five years based upon an internal earnings and balance sheet forecast for 2006 – 2011. BCG performed discounted cash flow analyses based upon terminal values to both earnings and tangible equity.

In order to derive the terminal value of Vision's earnings stream beyond 2011, BCG assumed terminal value multiples ranging from 13.0x to 17.0x of fiscal year 2011 net income. The dividend streams and terminal values were then discounted to present values using different estimated discount rates (ranging from 12.0% to 16.0%) chosen to reflect different assumptions regarding the required rates of return to holders or prospective buyers of Vision common stock. This discounted cash flow analysis indicated a value range between $17.46 and $23.64 per share of Vision common stock. BCG also applied terminal value multiples ranging from 2.00x to 2.50x fiscal year-end 2011 tangible book value. The dividend streams and terminal values of equity were then discounted to present values using discount rates ranging from 12.0% to 16.0%. The discounted cash flow analysis based terminal values to equity ranged from $17.68 to $26.10.

The value of the consideration offered by Park to Vision in the merger is $25.45 per share of Vision common stock, which is within the range of values imputed from the discounted cash flow analysis.

Contribution Analysis

BCG analyzed the contribution by Vision to various elements of the pro forma entity's balance sheet and income statement, excluding estimated cost savings and operating synergies. The following table compares Vision's pro forma ownership in the combined company, based upon a theoretical 100% stock transaction assuming the current exchange ratio multiplied by the number of fully diluted shares, to Vision's respective contribution to each element of the

Information Regarding BCG

Pursuant to a letter agreement dated August 15, 2006, Vision paid BCG a fairness opinion fee of $50,000 upon the execution of the definitive merger agreement. In addition, Vision has agreed to pay BCG a financial advisory fee which will fluctuate based upon the ultimate value, determined as of the closing of the merger, of the consideration to be received by the holders of shares of Vision common stock and Vision stock options in the merger. As of September 14, 2006, the date of the announcement of the merger, and based on the closing price of Park's common shares of $104.98 on September 13, 2006, the fee payable to BCG at the closing of the merger would be $1,646,085. Vision has also agreed to reimburse BCG for its reasonable out-of-pocket expenses and to indemnify BCG and certain related persons against certain liabilities arising out of or in conjunction with BCG's rendering of services under its engagement, including certain liabilities under the federal securities laws.

Regulatory approvals required

Park and Vision have submitted applications to the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve System, the Alabama Banking Department and the Florida Office of Financial Regulation seeking approval of the merger and the acquisition by Park of Vision Florida and Vision Alabama as a result of the merger. These regulatory applications are currently pending, and we anticipate that the necessary regulatory approvals will be obtained. However, there can be no assurance that all requisite regulatory approvals will be obtained, that the approvals will be received on a timely basis, or that the approvals will not impose conditions or requirements that would so materially reduce the economic or business benefits of the merger that, had such conditions or requirements been known, either Park or Vision would not have entered into the merger agreement. The merger may not be consummated for up to 30 days after approval by the Board of Governors of the Federal Reserve Board, during which time the United States Department of Justice may bring an action challenging the merger on antitrust grounds.

Material federal income tax consequences

General

The obligation of Park and Vision to consummate the merger is conditioned on the receipt by Park and Vision of an opinion of Park's counsel, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP, dated as of the effective date of the merger, to the effect that the merger constitutes a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code. The opinion is based on the Code, the applicable Treasury Department regulations (the Treasury Regulations), judicial authorities, and current administrative rulings and practices as in effect on the date of the opinion, all of which are subject to change, possibly with retroactive effect, and to differing interpretations. Opinions of counsel are not binding upon the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) or the courts, either of which could take a contrary position. No rulings have been, or will be, sought from the IRS in connection with the merger. The opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP will rely on certain assumptions that customarily are made with respect to transactions of this kind, and on certain representations and covenants, including those contained in officers' certificates of Park and Vision, which representations and covenants Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP will assume to be true, correct, and complete. If any such assumption, representation or covenant is inaccurate, the opinion could be adversely affected. In addition, the opinion will assume that any Vision shareholder that has asserted, as of the effective time of the merger, dissenters rights will receive, pursuant to statutory procedures, an amount per share of dissenting Vision common stock that does not exceed $25.00 (which is the cash consideration per share payable pursuant to the merger). The opinion of Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP set forth as an exhibit to the registration statement of which this prospectus/proxy statement is a part, as well as the assumptions, representations, and covenants described above, support the following discussion of the anticipated material federal income tax consequences of the merger to Park, Vision and the Vision shareholders.

This description does not address, among other matters, the tax consequences to a Vision shareholder who holds shares of Vision common stock other than as a capital asset for federal income tax purposes. A Vision shareholder who receives only Park common shares in exchange for such shareholder's shares of Vision common stock (not including any cash received in lieu of fractional Park common shares) will not recognize any gain or loss on the receipt of such Park common shares.

Tax Consequences to Vision Shareholders Who Receive Cash (Other than Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares) and Park Common Shares

A Vision shareholder who receives cash (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares) and Park common shares in exchange for shares of Vision common stock will recognize gain, but not loss, in an amount not to exceed the amount of cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of fractional Park common shares). For this purpose, a Vision shareholder generally must calculate gain or loss separately for each identifiable block of shares of Vision common stock exchanged by the shareholder in the merger, and a loss realized on one block of shares of Vision common stock may not be used by the shareholder to offset a gain realized on another block of its shares of Vision common stock. Shareholders should consult their tax advisors regarding the manner in which cash and Park common shares should be allocated among their shares of Vision common stock and the specific federal income tax consequences thereof.

For purposes of determining the character of the gain recognized on account of the cash received by a Vision shareholder, such Vision shareholder will be treated as having received only Park common shares in exchange for such shareholder's shares of Vision common stock, and as having immediately redeemed a portion of such Park common shares for the cash received (excluding cash received in lieu of fractional Park common shares). Unless the redemption is treated as a dividend under the principles of Section 302(d) of the Code (to the extent of such shareholder's ratable share of the undistributed earnings and profits of Vision), the gain will be capital gain if the shares of Vision common stock are held by such shareholder as a capital asset at the time of the merger.

Cash in Lieu of Fractional Shares

A Vision shareholder who receives cash in lieu of a fractional Park common share will recognize gain or loss as if such fractional Park common share were distributed as part of the merger and then redeemed by Park, subject to the provisions and limitations of Section 302 of the Code.

Tax Basis

The aggregate tax basis of the Park common shares received by a Vision shareholder in the merger (including fractional shares, if any, deemed to be issued and redeemed by Park) generally will be equal to the aggregate tax basis of the shares of Vision common stock surrendered in the merger, reduced by the amount of cash received by the shareholder in the merger (other than cash in lieu of fractional shares), and increased by the amount of gain recognized by the shareholder in the merger (including any portion of the gain that is treated as a dividend, but excluding any gain or loss resulting from the deemed issuance and redemption of fractional shares).

Holding Period

The holding period of the Park common shares received by a Vision shareholder will include the holding period of the shares of Vision common stock surrendered in exchange therefor in the merger, provided that the shares of Vision common stock were held as a capital asset at the time of the merger.

Reporting Requirements

A Vision shareholder owning at least one percent (by vote or value) of the total outstanding shares of Vision common stock, immediately before the merger, is required to file a statement with the shareholder's U.S. federal income tax return setting forth the tax basis in the shares of Vision common stock exchanged in the merger, the fair market value of the Park common shares and the amount of any cash received in the merger. In addition, all Vision shareholders will be required to retain permanent records relating to the amount, basis, and fair market value of all property transferred in the merger, and relevant facts regarding any liabilities assumed or extinguished as part of the merger.

Backup Withholding

Under certain circumstances, cash payments made to a Vision shareholder pursuant to the merger may be subject to backup withholding at a rate of 28%. There is no withholding for a shareholder who provides the exchange agent with such shareholder's correct U.S. federal taxpayer identification number and who certifies that no loss of exemption from backup withholding has occurred on IRS Form W-9 or its substitute. Certain categories of Vision shareholders, such as corporations and some foreign individuals, are not subject to backup withholding. In order for a foreign individual to qualify as an exempt recipient, such individual generally must provide the exchange agent with a completed IRS

Form W-8BEN or its substitute. Any amounts withheld from a Vision shareholder under the backup withholding rules are not an additional tax. Rather, any such amounts will be allowed as a credit or refund against such shareholder's U.S. federal income tax liability provided that the shareholder furnishes to the IRS all required information.

The discussion of material Federal income tax consequences of the merger is included in this prospectus/proxy statement for general information only. Each Vision shareholder should consult his, her or its own tax advisor regarding the specific tax consequences to the shareholder of the merger, including the application and effect of state, local, and foreign income and other tax laws.

Accounting treatment

Park will account for the merger using the purchase method of accounting. Under the purchase method, Park will record, at fair value, the acquired assets and assumed liabilities (including deposit liabilities) of Vision. To the extent the total purchase price exceeds the fair value of tangible and identifiable intangible assets acquired over the liabilities assumed, Park will record goodwill.

Stock exchange listing

Park common shares to be issued in connection with the merger will be authorized for listing on AMEX under the symbol PRK.

Resale of Park common shares

No restrictions on the sale or other transfer of the Park common shares issued pursuant to the merger will be imposed solely as a result of the merger, except for restrictions on the transfer of Park common shares issued to any Vision shareholder who may be deemed to be an affiliate of Vision for purposes of Rule 145 under the Securities Act. The term affiliate is defined in Rule 144 under the Securities Act and generally includes executive officers, directors, and shareholders beneficially owning 10% or more of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock.

Vision affiliates may resell the Park common shares they receive in the merger only (a) in compliance with Rule 145 or another applicable exemption from the registration requirements under the Securities Act, or (b) pursuant to an effective registration statement under the Securities Act covering their Park common shares. Rule 145, as currently in effect, restricts the manner in which affiliates may resell shares and also restricts the number of shares that affiliates, and others with whom they might act in concert, may sell within any three-month period. The merger agreement requires Vision to cause persons who could be considered to be affiliates to enter into an agreement with Park stating that these affiliates will not sell, transfer, or otherwise dispose of any Park common shares they acquire in the merger except in compliance with the Securities Act and the rules and regulations under the Securities Act. Sales of Park common shares by affiliates of Park are subject to similar transfer restrictions.

Dividends

Under the merger agreement, Vision is not allowed to make, declare, pay or set aside for payment any dividend or distribution to Vision shareholders without the prior written consent of Park. Following completion of the merger, former Vision shareholders receiving Park common shares as part of the merger consideration will receive dividends, if any, declared by Park in their capacity as Park shareholders.

Employee matters

As of the date of the merger agreement, Park and Vision entered into an employment agreement with each of J. Daniel Sizemore, William E. Blackmon, Andrew W. Braswell, Joey W. Ginn, Robert S. McKean, Diane Anderson, Tommy Files, Robin Fly, James E. Kirkland, William Lloyd, Debbie McBride-Schmidt and Darrell W. Melton. Each of these employment agreements will become effective upon consummation of the merger and will replace and supersede each individual's current employment agreement, change in control agreement and non-competition agreement or change in control agreement with Vision or one of its subsidiaries, as applicable. For a discussion of the employment agreements with the executive officers of Vision, see The Proposed Merger (Proposal One) Interests of Vision directors and executive officers in the merger beginning on page 34 of this prospectus/proxy statement. Copies of the employment agreements are attached as Exhibits C-1 through C-5 to the merger agreement included as Annex A to this prospectus/proxy statement.

All employees of Vision and its subsidiaries as of the date of the merger agreement who are actively employed as of the effective date of the merger, other than the individuals identified above who have entered into employment agreements, will be offered the opportunity to continue as at-will employees of Park or one of Park's subsidiaries. Employees of Vision and its subsidiaries who continue to be employed by Park or one of its subsidiaries following the merger will continue to participate in the Vision employee benefit plans unless and until Park, in its sole discretion, determines that the employees will, subject to applicable eligibility requirements, participate in the employee benefit plans of Park or a subsidiary of Park and that the Vision employee benefit plans are to be frozen, terminated or merged into the employee benefit plans of Park or one of its subsidiaries. To the extent permitted by applicable law, employees of Vision and its subsidiaries who continue to be employed by Park or one of its subsidiaries will receive credit for service at Vision, the appropriate Vision subsidiary and, to the extent credit would have been given by Vision or the appropriate Vision subsidiary, a predecessor of Vision or the appropriate Vision subsidiary, for purposes of entitlement to benefits, including severance and vacation, eligibility, vesting and level of benefits (but not for benefit accrual purposes under any defined benefit plan) in the employee benefit plans of Park. Service with Vision and the appropriate Vision subsidiary will apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations with respect to any Park group health plan. In addition, each Park group health plan will waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable Vision group health plan. Furthermore, employees of Vision and its subsidiaries will be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding group health plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Park group health plan.

The Merger Agreement

The following is a description of the material terms of the merger agreement. A complete copy of the merger agreement is attached as Annex A to this prospectus/proxy statement and is incorporated into this prospectus/proxy statement by reference. We encourage you to read the merger agreement carefully, as it is the legal document that governs the merger.

The merger agreement contains representations and warranties of Vision and Park. The assertions embodied in those representations and warranties are qualified by information in confidential disclosure schedules that the parties delivered in connection with the execution of the merger agreement. In addition, certain representations and warranties were made as of a specific date, may be subject to a contractual standard of materiality different from those generally applicable to shareholders, or may have been used for purposes of allocating risk between the respective parties rather than establishing matters as facts. Accordingly, you should not rely on the representations and warranties as characterizations of the actual state of facts, or for any other purpose, at the time they were made or otherwise.

The merger

Pursuant to the terms and subject to the conditions of the merger agreement, Vision will merge with and into Park, with Park surviving the merger and continuing as an Ohio bank holding company.

Effective time

Unless we otherwise agree in writing, we plan to cause (i) a certificate of merger in respect of the merger to be executed and filed with the Ohio Secretary of State, and (ii) articles of merger in respect of the merger to be executed and filed with the Alabama Secretary of State as soon as practicable after all of the conditions described in the merger agreement have been satisfied or waived. The merger will become effective upon the filing of the certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State and the articles of merger with the Alabama Secretary of State, or at a later time that we agree to in writing and specify in the certificate of merger and articles of merger.

We currently anticipate closing the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement and filing the certificate of merger with the Ohio Secretary of State and the articles of merger with the Alabama Secretary of State on or about March 9, 2007.

Table of ContentsConversion of Vision common stock

At the effective time of the merger, each outstanding share of Vision common stock, other than shares of Vision common stock, if any, held by Vision as treasury stock, shares of Vision common stock, if any, beneficially owned by Park and shares of Vision common stock, if any, as to which the holders have properly exercised dissenters' rights, will be converted into and will represent the right to receive, upon surrender of the certificate representing each share of Vision common stock, the right to receive either (a) $25.00 in cash or (b) 0.2475 Park common shares.

The information presented in the following table reflects the closing sale prices for Park common shares and Vision common stock on September 13, 2006, the last trading day preceding our public announcement of the merger, and on January 8, 2007, the last practicable trading day for which information was available prior to the date of this prospectus/proxy statement. The table also presents the equivalent price per share of Vision, giving effect to the merger as of such dates. The Vision Bancshares, Inc. Equivalent Per Share Price is determined by multiplying the exchange ratio of 0.2475 by the closing sale price of Park common shares on the dates indicated.

	Park National Corporation	Vision Bancshares, Inc.	Vision Bancshares, Inc. Equivalent per Share Price
September 13, 2006	$ 104.98	$ 20.12	$ 25.98
January 8, 2007	$	$	$

Park will not issue fractional Park common shares, or certificates or scrip representing fractional Park common shares, in the merger. Instead, Park will pay to each holder of shares of Vision common stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional Park common share (after taking into account all Vision common stock certificates surrendered by such holder) an amount in cash, without interest, equal to the product of the fractional Park common share multiplied by $101.00.

At the effective time of the merger, the shares of Vision common stock will no longer be outstanding and will automatically be cancelled and cease to exist, and holders of Vision common stock will cease to be, and will have no rights as, shareholders of Vision, other than to receive the merger consideration pursuant to the merger agreement (and dissenters' rights under Section 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act in the case of shares of Vision common stock as to which a holder has properly exercised dissenters' rights). If you receive Park common shares in the merger, you will, upon proper surrender of your Vision common stock certificates, have the rights of a holder of Park common shares. For a comparison of the rights you have as a holder of Vision common stock to the rights you would have as a holder of Park common shares, see Description of Park Common Shares and Comparison of Certain Rights of Park and Vision Shareholders beginning on page 54 of this prospectus/proxy statement.

Election procedures

Subject to the allocation procedures described in the next section, each Vision shareholder will have the right to elect to receive with respect to his or her shares of Vision common stock, either (a) all cash, (b) all Park common shares, or

(c) a mixture of cash and Park common shares.

All Cash Election. A shareholder who makes the all cash election will receive cash, in an amount equal to $25.00 for each share of Vision common stock owned, subject to the allocation procedures described below.

All Stock Election. A shareholder who makes the all stock election will receive Park common shares, at the exchange rate of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock owned, subject to the allocation procedures described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional Park common shares.

Mixed Election. A shareholder who makes the mixed cash/stock election will receive (i) cash, in an amount equal to $25.00 for each share of Vision common stock owned, for the whole number of shares of Vision common stock the shareholder elects to exchange for cash and (ii) Park common shares, at the exchange ratio of 0.2475 Park common shares for each share of Vision common stock owned, for the whole number of shares of Vision common stock the shareholder elects to exchange for Park common shares, subject to the allocation procedures described below and subject to the payment of cash in lieu of the issuance of fractional Park common shares.

Non-Electing Shares. Vision shareholders who do not make an election as to the form of consideration they wish to receive, and shareholders who do not make a valid election, will be deemed to have made an election for all purposes under the merger agreement for that form of merger consideration (i.e., cash or Park common shares) as to which less than 50% of the total number of shares of Vision common stock has been made.

Election Form. In accordance with the merger agreement, prior to the special meeting of Vision shareholders, an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will be mailed to Vision shareholders. The Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will allow each Vision shareholder to make the all cash election, the all stock election, the mixed cash/stock election, or to indicate that he or she makes no election. Vision shareholders who wish to elect the type of merger consideration they will receive in the merger should carefully review and follow the instructions set forth in the instructions included with the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal. Shares of Vision common stock for which the shareholder has not made a valid election prior to the election deadline will be deemed non-electing shares.

The deadline for submitting an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will be the second trading day prior to the effective time of the merger. An election will be considered to have been validly made by a holder of shares of Vision common stock only if the exchange agent receives, prior to the deadline, an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal properly completed and executed by the holder, accompanied by a certificate or certificates representing the shares of Vision common stock as to which the election is being made, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of Vision, or containing an appropriate guaranty of delivery from a member of a national securities exchange, a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States. The Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will specify that delivery of Vision common stock certificates will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the certificates to the exchange agent.

The Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will be mailed to each Vision shareholder who is a holder of record as of the close of business on the January 8, 2007 record date of the Vision special meeting. An Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will also be made available to any person who becomes a holder of shares of Vision common stock subsequent to January 8, 2007, and up to and until 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the business day prior to the election deadline.

Any holder of shares of Vision common stock may, at any time prior to the election deadline, revoke the holder's election and either (i) submit a new Election Form/Letter of Transmittal in accordance with the procedures described above or (ii) withdraw the certificate or certificates representing the holder's shares of Vision common stock deposited with the exchange agent by providing written notice that is received by the exchange agent by 5:00 p.m., Eastern Time, on the business day prior to the election deadline. All elections will be deemed to be revoked if the merger agreement is terminated in accordance with its terms.

Vision ISO Common Stock. Any holder of shares of Vision common stock who has acquired his or her shares of Vision common stock after the date of the merger agreement pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option, as defined in Section 422 of the Code (Vision ISO common stock), will automatically be deemed to have made the stock election for all purposes if such holder submits the certificates for such shares of Vision ISO common stock as a separate stock election for such shares.

Because the federal income tax consequences of receiving all Park common shares, all cash, or a mixture of Park common shares and cash will differ, Vision shareholders are urged to read carefully the information set forth under the heading The Merger Material federal income tax consequences and to consult their own tax advisors for a full understanding of the merger's tax consequences to them.

Allocation

Subject to adjustment for cash paid in lieu of fractional shares, the merger agreement requires the aggregate consideration received by Vision shareholders in the merger to be allocated such that 50% of the shares of Vision common stock outstanding at the effective time of the merger will be exchanged for cash and the other 50% of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock will be exchanged for Park common shares. For purposes of this allocation, shareholders of Vision who exercise dissenters' rights will be treated as having elected to receive cash consideration for their shares of Vision common stock. If the elections by Vision shareholders do not result in the required ratio of cash and stock consideration, the allocation procedures described below will be used to allocate the available cash and Park common shares among the Vision shareholders to preserve the required ratio of cash and stock consideration.

Reduction of Shares of Vision Common Stock Deposited for Cash. In the event that holders of shares of Vision common stock representing more than 50% of the total number of shares of Vision common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time of the merger make the cash election and exercise dissenters' rights with respect to shares of Vision common stock, a number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the cash election will be converted to shares of Vision common stock subject to the stock election so that the total number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the cash election and with respect to which dissenters' rights have been exercised is equal to 50% of the total number of shares of Vision common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time of the merger. Except with respect to holders of shares of Vision common stock who exercise dissenters' rights, each holder of Vision common stock that has made the cash election will be subject to this conversion with respect to a number of such holder's shares of Vision common stock subject to the cash election equal to the product of: (A) the total number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the conversion from the cash election to the stock election (excluding shares of Vision common stock as to which the holders have exercised dissenters' rights), multiplied by (B) the ratio of (1) the number of such holder's shares of Vision common stock subject to the cash election, divided by (2) the total number of shares of Vision common stock as to which the holders have made the cash election (excluding shares of Vision common stock as to which the holders have exercised dissenters' rights).

Reduction of Shares of Vision Common Stock Deposited for Park Common Shares. In the event that holders of shares of Vision common stock representing more than 50% of the total number of shares of Vision common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time of the merger make the stock election, a number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the stock election will be converted to shares of Vision common stock subject to the cash election so that the total number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the stock election (including shares of Vision ISO common stock as to which the holders have made a separate stock election) is equal to 50% of the total number of shares of Vision common stock issued and outstanding as of the effective time of the merger. Except with respect to holders of Vision ISO common stock who make a separate stock election with respect to such shares, each holder of shares of Vision common stock that has made the stock election will be subject to this conversion with respect to a number of such holder's shares of Vision common stock subject to the stock election equal to the product of: (A) the total number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the conversion from the stock election to the cash election (excluding shares of Vision ISO common stock as to which the holders have made a separate stock election), multiplied by (B) the ratio of (1) the number of such holder's shares of Vision common stock subject to the stock election, divided by (2) the total number of shares of Vision common stock as to which the holders have made the stock election (excluding shares of Vision ISO common stock as to which the holders have made a separate stock election).

Promptly after the effective time of the merger, the exchange agent will mail to each holder of record of a certificate which represented shares of Vision common stock prior to the merger, but which was not deposited with the exchange agent prior to the merger (or which was deposited with the exchange agent and subsequently withdrawn), a Letter of Transmittal and instructions for surrendering Vision common stock certificates in exchange for the merger consideration. The Letter of Transmittal will specify that delivery of the Vision common stock certificates will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the certificates to the exchange agent.

Upon the surrender of a Vision common stock certificate for cancellation to the exchange agent, together with a duly executed Letter of Transmittal, the holder of such Vision common stock certificate will receive within five business days either (a) a new certificate representing the number of whole Park common shares that the holder has the right to receive under the merger agreement, and/or (b) a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid to the holder as part of the merger consideration, any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Park common share to which the holder is entitled under the merger agreement and any cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions to which the holder may be entitled with respect to his or her Park common shares. The surrendered Vision common stock certificate(s) will be cancelled.

If you own shares of Vision common stock, the transfer of which has not been registered in the transfer records of Vision, you may nevertheless exchange these shares of Vision common stock for Park common shares if you provide the exchange agent with the certificate representing your shares of Vision common stock, along with all documents required by Park to evidence and effect the transfer and to evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid.

Until surrendered, each Vision common stock certificate will be deemed at any time after the effective time of the merger to represent only the right to receive, upon surrender of such certificate, a Park common share certificate and/or a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid to the holder as part of the merger consideration, any cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Park common shares to which the holder is entitled under the merger agreement and any cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions to which the holder may be entitled with respect to his or her Park common shares.

You will not be entitled to payment of any dividends or other distributions with respect to Park common shares until you have followed the procedures described above for surrendering your Vision common stock certificate(s). After properly surrendering your Vision common stock certificate(s) in exchange for Park common shares, you will be entitled to receive any dividends or other distributions with respect to such Park common shares with a record date occurring on or after the effective time of the merger. You will not be entitled to the payment of any interest on such dividends or distributions.

If any Vision common stock certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, the exchange agent will deliver the consideration properly payable under the merger agreement with respect to the shares of Vision common stock represented by the certificate upon receipt of an appropriate affidavit by the person claiming that the certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Park, the posting by such person of a bond in an amount reasonably determined by Park as indemnity against any claim that may be made against Park with respect to the certificate.

Vision stock options

Under the merger agreement, each Vision stock option that is outstanding and not exercised in full in a manner permitted under the terms of the applicable Vision stock plan on or prior to the election deadline set forth in the merger agreement will be surrendered, cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (i) the product of $25.00 multiplied by the number of shares of Vision common stock subject to the portion of such Vision stock option which has not been exercised on or before the election deadline, minus (ii) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision common stock subject to the portion of such Vision stock option which has not been exercised on or before the election deadline. The merger agreement requires Vision to take, prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, all actions necessary to cause any provision under plans, programs or arrangements providing for the issuance or grant of any interest in respect of the capital stock of Vision or any of its subsidiaries to terminate as of the election deadline, and Vision is required to ensure that following the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, no employee, consultant or director will have any rights, other than the right to receive the cash payment described above, in respect of shares of Vision common stock or any other equity interest in Vision under the Vision stock plans or any other plans, programs or arrangements providing for the issuance or grant of any other right in respect of the capital stock of Vision or any of its subsidiaries.

Vision ESPP

The merger agreement requires Vision to take, prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement, all actions necessary pursuant to the terms of the Vision ESPP to terminate the Vision ESPP and all outstanding Vision stock subscriptions and other rights thereunder effective as of the election deadline. Any employee who is a participant in the Vision ESPP and who has not paid the entire balance due for any shares of Vision common stock for which such employee has subscribed pursuant to the terms of the Vision ESPP may pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement and receive the applicable shares of Vision common stock. The failure of a participating employee to pay such balance in full on or prior to the election deadline specified in the merger agreement will be treated as a cancellation of the employee's Vision stock subscription(s) and Vision will refund (without interest) all amounts the employee has had withheld or has paid with respect to the cancelled Vision stock subscription(s).

Conditions to completion of the merger

The respective obligations of Park and Vision to complete the merger are subject to the satisfaction of the following conditions:

the Vision shareholders must approve the merger agreement by the required vote;

we must have received all required regulatory approvals and all applicable statutory waiting periods must have expired or been terminated, and no regulatory approval or statute, rule or order may contain any conditions, restrictions or requirements that the Park Board of Directors reasonably determines would, either before or after the effective time of the merger, have a material adverse effect on Park after giving effect to the consummation of the merger or prevent Park from realizing the major portion of the economic benefits of the merger which Park anticipates obtaining;

there must not be any temporary restraining order, preliminary or permanent injunction or other order, statute, rule, regulation, judgment, decree, or other legal restraint issued by or imposed by any court or any other governmental authority, prohibiting consummation of the merger or making the merger illegal, or any proceeding commenced by any court or other governmental authority seeking to prohibit consummation of the merger or to make the merger illegal;

the registration statement filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission in connection with the issuance of the Park common shares in the merger must be effective with no stop order or similar restraining order suspending such effectiveness issued or proposed by the Securities and Exchange Commission;

the Park common shares to be issued in the merger must have been approved for listing on AMEX, subject to official notice of issuance; and Park's legal counsel must have delivered a written opinion to the effect that, on the basis of facts, representations and assumptions set forth in such opinion, the merger will be treated for federal income tax purposes as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a)(1)(A) of the Code.

In addition, Vision will not be required to complete the merger unless the following conditions are satisfied:

the representations and warranties of Park contained in the merger agreement must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger (or if any representation or warranty speaks as of a specific date, as of that date), and Vision must have received a certificate, dated as of the closing date, signed on behalf of Park by its chairman of the board or president to such effect;

Park must have performed in all material respects all of its covenants and obligations under the merger agreement which are required to be performed prior to the closing of the merger, and Vision must have received a certificate, dated as of the closing date, signed on behalf of Park by its chairman of the board or president to such effect;

Park must have obtained all material third-party consents required in connection with the merger; and there shall not have occurred any material adverse effect on Park, or any change, condition, event or development that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted in or could reasonably be expected to result in a material adverse effect on Park, between the date of the merger agreement and the closing of the merger.

Park will not be required to complete the merger unless the following conditions are also satisfied:

the representations and warranties of Vision contained in the merger agreement must be true and correct in all material respects as of the date of the merger agreement and as of the closing of the merger (or if any representation or warranty speaks as of a specific date, as of that date), and Park must have received a certificate, dated as of the closing date, signed on behalf of Vision by its chief executive officer and chief financial officer to such effect;

Vision must have performed in all material respects all of its covenants and obligations under the merger agreement which are required to be performed prior to the closing of the merger, and Park must have

Park must have received an executed affiliate agreement from each affiliate of Vision.

Park or Vision could waive some of the conditions listed above, unless the waiver is prohibited by law.

Conduct of business pending the merger

From September 14, 2006 until the closing of the merger, unless Park otherwise consents in writing, Vision and its subsidiaries must conduct their respective businesses in the ordinary and usual course consistent with past practice, use reasonable efforts to preserve intact their present business organization and assets, and use reasonable efforts to preserve their respective rights, franchises and existing relations with customers, suppliers, employees and business associates. During the same period, Vision has agreed not to, and to cause its subsidiaries not to, take any of the following actions without the prior written consent of Park:

voluntarily take any action that, at the time taken, is reasonably likely to have a material adverse effect on Vision's ability to perform any of its obligations under the merger agreement, or prevent or materially delay the consummation of the merger;

In addition, from September 14, 2006 until the closing of the merger, Park has agreed not to, and to cause its subsidiaries not to, take any of the following actions without the prior written consent of Vision:

voluntarily take any action that, at the time taken, is reasonably likely to have a material adverse affect on the ability of Park to perform any of its material obligations under the merger agreement;

declare, set aside, make or pay any extraordinary or special dividends on Park common shares or make any other extraordinary or special distributions in respect of any of its capital stock other than dividends from any Park subsidiary to its parent; knowingly take any action that would disqualify the merger as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Internal Revenue Code;

knowingly take any action that is intended or is reasonably likely to result in any representations or warranties in the merger agreement being or becoming untrue in any material respect, any conditions in the merger agreement not being satisfied or a material violation of any provision of the merger agreement except, in each case, as may be required by applicable law, rule or regulation; or agree or commit to do any of the foregoing.

Expenses of the merger

Park and Vision are each required to bear their own expenses incurred in connection with the merger agreement and the transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, except that Park and Vision will each bear one-half of (a) the costs (excluding the fees and disbursements of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with the preparation (including copying, printing and distributing) of this prospectus/proxy statement, the Registration Statement on Form S-4 of which this prospectus/proxy statement is a part and the regulatory applications for approval of the merger, and (b) all filing or registration fees, including, without limitation, fees paid for filing the Registration on Form S-4 with the Securities and Exchange Commission.

Termination of the merger agreement

The parties may mutually agree to terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time before the merger is effective, whether before or after shareholder approval, by the mutual written agreement of Park and Vision following authorization by or on behalf of their respective boards of directors.

In addition, either Park or Vision, acting alone, may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time before the merger is effective, whether before or after shareholder approval, if:

the other party breaches a material representation, warranty, covenant or agreement contained in the merger agreement, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days of giving notice of the breach to the breaching party, provided that the non-breaching party is not itself in material breach of any provision of the merger agreement;

the merger has not been completed on or before May 15, 2007, unless the failure to complete the merger by that date results from the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate the merger agreement;

the approval of any regulatory authority required for consummation of the merger has been denied by final nonappealable action and the terminating party is not in material breach of its covenants in the merger agreement regarding the preparation and filing of the regulatory applications;

the Vision shareholders fail to approve the merger agreement at the special meeting of shareholders; or any of the closing conditions have not been met or waived.

Vision, acting alone, may terminate the merger agreement and abandon the merger at any time prior to the approval of the merger agreement by the Vision shareholders, if the Vision Board of Directors determines by vote of a majority of the members of the entire Vision Board of Directors if (i) Vision is not in breach of any material term of the merger agreement (including the terms regarding other acquisition proposals), (ii) the Vision Board of Directors authorized Vision, subject to complying with the terms of the merger agreement, to enter into a definitive written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement, (iii) Vision notifies Park in writing that Vision intends to enter into such an agreement as soon as practicable following termination of the merger agreement (attaching the most current version of such agreement to its notice) and (iv) at least five business days elapse after Park receives such written notice from Vision and the Vision Board of Directors continues to consider the transaction to be a superior proposal after taking into account in good faith any amendment or modification to the merger agreement proposed by Park during such five business day period.

Vision, acting alone, may also terminate the merger agreement if the average of the closing sale prices of a Park common share on AMEX during the 20 trading-day period ending on the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger is less than $81.00 (appropriately adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Park common shares during the period between September 13, 2006 and the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger).

Park, acting alone, may terminate the merger agreement if the Vision Board of Directors:

fails to recommend that the Vision shareholders approve the merger agreement, withdraws, modifies or qualifies its recommendation in any manner adverse to Park, or takes any other action or makes any other statement in connection with the special meeting of shareholders that is inconsistent with its recommendation;

fails to call the special meeting of shareholders or to prepare and mail to the Vision shareholders this prospectus/proxy statement in accordance with the merger agreement;

takes certain actions permitted by the merger agreement with respect to discussing or negotiating with any person who has made a proposal with respect to a tender or exchange offer, or a merger, consolidation or other business combination, involving Vision, Vision Alabama or Vision Florida, or a proposal or offer to acquire in any manner more than 25% of any class of equity securities in, or more than 25% of the assets or deposits of, Vision, Vision Alabama or Vision Florida which the Vision Board of Directors determines to be, or is reasonably likely to be, a superior proposal; or if the average of the closing sale prices of a Park common share on AMEX during the 20 trading-day period ending on the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger is greater than $121.00 (appropriately adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Park common shares during the period between September 13, 2006 and the tenth trading day prior to the date established for the closing of the merger).

Termination fee

Vision must pay to Park a termination fee in the amount of $6,500,000 if the merger agreement is terminated upon the occurrence of specified events. Vision must pay the termination fee if:

the merger agreement is terminated by Vision because its Board of Directors has authorized the execution of a definitive written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a superior proposal, as defined in the merger agreement; or the merger agreement is terminated either (i) by Park as a result of a willful material breach of any covenant or agreement by Vision which cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days, (ii) by Park because the Vision

Board of Directors has failed to recommend that the Vision shareholders approve the merger agreement, withdrawn, modified or qualified its recommendation in any manner adverse to Park, or taken any other action or made any other statement in connection with the special meeting of shareholders that is inconsistent with its recommendation, or (iii) by Park or Vision because the Vision shareholders have failed to approve the merger agreement and at any time after September 14, 2006 and prior to the termination of the merger agreement, an acquisition proposal with respect to Vision was publicly announced, publicly proposed or commenced and within 12 months after the date of the termination of the merger agreement, Vision enters into an agreement relating to the previously announced acquisition proposal or the previously announced acquisition proposal is consummated.

In addition to the termination fee, if (a) an acquisition proposal has been made known to Vision and made known to the holders of shares of Vision common stock generally or has been made directly to the holders of shares of Vision common stock generally or has been publicly announced, and such acquisition proposal has not been withdrawn, (b) the merger agreement is subsequently terminated by Park because the merger has not been completed on or before May 15, 2007 as a result of knowing action or inaction of Vision and (c) within 6 months following the termination of the merger agreement, Vision enters into an agreement with the person making the acquisition proposal, Vision must pay to Park an amount, not to exceed $250,000 in the aggregate, equal to all documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred by Park, including, without limitation, fees and expenses payable to all legal, accounting, financial, public relations and other professional advisors, arising out of or in connection with or related to the merger or the other transactions contemplated by the merger agreement, and Park will be entitled to pursue recovery of any additional remedies available to it at law or in equity, provided that such additional amounts, together with the documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees, may not exceed $6,500,000 in the aggregate.

Vision agreed to these termination fee and expense reimbursement arrangements in order to induce Park to enter into the merger agreement.

Amendment

The merger agreement may be amended at any time prior to the effective time of the merger by an agreement in writing signed by Park and Vision, provided that the merger agreement may not be amended to the extent it would violate applicable law or require resubmission of the merger agreement or the plan of merger contained therein to the shareholders of Vision.

Description of Park Common Shares and Comparison of Certain Rights of Park and Vision Shareholders

Vision shareholders who receive Park common shares as consideration in the merger will become shareholders of Park upon the effective time of the merger. Park is an Ohio corporation and a bank holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended; while Vision is an Alabama corporation and a bank holding company registered under the Bank Holding Company Act of 1956, as amended. Although the rights of the holders of Park common shares and those of the holders of shares of Vision common stock are similar in many respects, there are some differences. These differences relate to differences between the provisions of Ohio and Alabama law governing corporations, differences between provisions of the articles of incorporation of Park and the amended and restated articles of incorporation of Vision, and differences between provisions of the regulations of Park and the by-laws of Vision.

Set forth below is a description of the Park common shares and the shares of Vision common stock, including a summary of the material differences and similarities between the rights of Park shareholders and the rights of Vision shareholders. This description is not intended to be a complete statement of the differences affecting the rights of Park and Vision shareholders, but rather describes the more significant differences affecting the rights of Park and Vision shareholders and certain important similarities. This description is qualified in its entirety by reference to the relevant provisions of Ohio and Alabama law, the articles of incorporation and regulations of Park, and the amended and restated articles of incorporation and by-laws of Vision.

Authorized shares

Park. Park's authorized capital stock consists of 20,000,000 common shares, without par value. As of January 8, 2007, Park common shares were outstanding, and an additional Park common shares were reserved for issuance upon the exercise of outstanding Park stock options. Vision. Vision's authorized capital stock consists of 10,000,000 shares of common stock, $1.00 par value per share, and 1,000,000 shares of preferred stock, $1.00 par value per share. As of January 8, 2007, shares of Vision common stock were outstanding, an additional shares of Vision common stock were subject to outstanding subscriptions under the Vision ESPP, and shares of Vision common stock were subject to outstanding stock options. Vision's common stock is not listed on any exchange, nor is it included on NASDAQ. However, trades may be reported on the OTC Bulletin Board under the symbol VBAL.OB. Vision is aware that FIG Partners, LLC and Morgan Keegan & Company, Inc. currently make a market in Vision's common stock.

The Vision preferred stock may be issued from time to time as a class without series, or if so determined by the Vision Board of Directors, either in whole or in part in one or more series. The voting rights, and such designations, preferences and relative, participating, optional or other special rights, if any, and the qualifications, limitations or restrictions thereof, if any, including, but not limited to, the dividend rights, conversion rights, redemption rights and liquidation preferences, if any, of any wholly unissued series of preferred stock (or of the entire class of preferred stock if none of such shares has been issued), the number of shares constituting any such series and the terms and conditions of the issue thereof may be fixed by resolution of the Vision Board of Directors. The Vision preferred stock may have a preference over the Vision common stock with respect to the payment of dividends and the distribution of assets in the event of the liquidation or winding-up of Vision and such other preferences as may be fixed by the Vision Board of Directors. As of the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, no shares of Vision preferred stock were outstanding.

Preemptive rights

If shareholders are entitled to preemptive rights, a corporation offering its shares for cash must provide those shareholders with the opportunity to purchase the offered shares in proportion to their current holdings at a fixed price before the corporation may offer the shares for sale to the public.

Park. Under Ohio law as currently enacted, shareholders do not have preemptive rights unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provide otherwise. However, at the time the articles of incorporation of Park were adopted, Ohio law stated that shareholders had preemptive rights unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provided otherwise.

The articles of incorporation of Park provide that the shareholders of Park have preemptive rights unless the Park common shares offered or sold are (1) treasury shares; (2) issued as a share dividend or distribution; (3) offered or sold in connection with any merger or consolidation to which Park is a party or any acquisition of or investment in, another corporation, partnership, proprietorship or other business entity or its assets by Park, whether directly or indirectly, by any means; (4) offered or sold pursuant to the terms of a stock option plan or employee benefit, compensation or incentive plan which has been approved by the holders of three-fourths of the issued and outstanding shares of Park; or (5) released from preemptive rights by the affirmative vote or written consent of holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to preemptive rights. The Park common shares to be issued to Vision shareholders in the merger will not be subject to preemptive rights because such Park common shares will be issued in connection with the merger of Vision with and into Park.

Vision. The amended and restated articles of incorporation of Vision provide that the shareholders of Vision do not have preemptive rights.

Liquidation rights

Park. Each Park common share entitles the holder thereof to share ratably in Park's net assets legally available for distribution to shareholders in the event of Park's liquidation, dissolution or winding up, after payment in full of all amounts required to be paid to creditors or provision for such payment.

Table of Contents

Vision. Holders of shares of Vision common stock are entitled to share ratably in the assets of Vision legally available for distribution to its shareholders in the event of liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vision, unless shares of Vision preferred stock have been issued with preferential liquidation rights and remain outstanding as the time of such liquidation, dissolution or winding up of Vision.

Subscription, conversion and redemption rights; shares non-assessable

Neither the holders of Park common shares nor the holders of shares of Vision common stock have subscription or conversion rights, and there are no mandatory redemption provisions applicable to the Park common shares or the shares of Vision common stock. The Park common shares to be issued in exchange for shares of Vision common stock in the merger, when issued in accordance with the terms of the merger agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable.

Dividends

Park. As an Ohio corporation, Park may, in the discretion of the Park Board of Directors, generally pay dividends to its shareholders out of surplus, however created, but must notify the shareholders if a dividend is paid out of capital surplus. The ability of Park to obtain funds for the payment of dividends and for other cash requirements largely depends on the amount of dividends which may be declared and paid by its subsidiaries. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board expects Park to serve as a source of strength to its subsidiary banks, which may require it to retain capital for further investments in its subsidiary banks, rather than for dividends for its shareholders.

Vision. Holders of Vision common stock may receive dividends when and if declared by the Board of Directors of Vision in accordance with applicable law. The ability of Vision to obtain funds for the payment of dividends and for other cash requirements largely depends on the amount of dividends which may be declared and paid by its subsidiaries. In addition, the Federal Reserve Board expects Vision to serve as a source of strength to its subsidiary banks, which may require it to retain capital for further investments in its subsidiary banks, rather than for dividends for its shareholders.

Under the terms of the indenture agreement governing the $15.5 million of junior subordinated debentures issued by Vision to the Vision Trust, Vision is prohibited from declaring or paying dividends to the holders of shares of Vision common stock (a) if an event of default under the indenture agreement has occurred and continues or (b) during any period in which the payment of the cash distributions on the preferred securities of the Vision Trust is being deferred by Vision. Following the merger, Park, as successor to Vision, will assume and become bound by the terms of the indenture agreement and, therefore, will be prohibited from declaring or paying dividends to the holders of Park common shares (a) if an event of default under the indenture agreement has occurred and continues or (b) during any period in which the payment of the cash distributions on the preferred securities of the Vision Trust is being deferred by Park.

Vision has not paid any dividends to holders of shares of Vision common stock during its existence, and under the terms of the merger agreement, Vision is prohibited from paying dividends to holders of shares of Vision common stock without the prior written consent of Park.

Number of directors

Park. Under Ohio law, a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations determine the number of directors, but, in most circumstances, the number may not be less than three unless the corporation has less than three shareholders. Unless the articles of incorporation or regulations provide otherwise, the shareholders may fix or change the number of directors at a shareholder meeting called for the election of directors by the affirmative vote of a majority of the shares represented at the meeting and entitled to vote.

The Park regulations provide for the Park Board of Directors to consist of not less than five and not more than 16 directors. The Park Board of Directors may not increase the number of directors to a number which exceeds by more than two the number of directors last elected by shareholders. The number of Park directors was last fixed at 14 directors and currently consists of 13 directors. Pursuant to the merger agreement, Park has agreed to take all actions necessary to cause J. Daniel Sizemore, Chairman of the Board, Chief Executive Officer and President of Vision, to become a director of Park upon the closing of the merger.

Vision. The Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation provide that the Vision Board of Directors is to consist of not less than six nor more than 25 directors, as determined from time to time by the Board of Directors. The Vision by-laws provide that the Vision Board of Directors may increase or decrease by thirty percent or less the number of directors last approved by the shareholders, but only the shareholders may increase or decrease by more than thirty percent the number of directors last approved by the shareholders. The number of Vision directors was last fixed by the shareholders at 22 directors, and the Vision Board of Directors currently consists of 22 directors.

Classification of the board of directors

Park. Under Ohio law, a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations may provide for the classification of directors into either two or three classes so long as (a) each class consists of at least three directors and (b) no director serves a term of office greater than three years. Park's regulations provide for the Park Board of Directors to be divided into three classes, with the term of office of one class expiring each year.

Vision. Vision's amended and restated articles of incorporation provide for the Vision Board of Directors to be divided into three classes, which shall be as nearly equal in number as possible, with the term of office of one class expiring each year.

Nomination of directors

Park. Under the Park regulations, either the Park Board of Directors or any shareholder entitled to vote in the election of directors may nominate a candidate for election to the Park Board of Directors. Shareholder nominations must be made in writing and must be received by the president of Park not less than 14 days and not more than 50 days prior to the shareholder meeting at which directors are to be elected. If, however, notice of the meeting is mailed or disclosed to shareholders less than 21 days before the meeting date, shareholder nominations must be received by the close of business on the 7th day after notice is mailed. A shareholder's notice to Park nominating a director must set forth:

the name and address of each proposed nominee;

the principal occupation of each proposed nominee;

the total number of Park common shares that will be voted for each proposed nominee;

the name and residence address of the notifying shareholder; and the number of Park common shares beneficially owned by the notifying shareholder.

Vision. Vision's amended and restated articles of incorporation and by-laws do not address the nomination of directors by shareholders, and Vision has no formal policy regarding director nominations. Vision's Board of Directors, however, will consider recommendations for director nominees from shareholders. With respect to the minimum qualifications for director candidates, the Vision Board of Directors will consider individuals who have demonstrated integrity, are respected within their industry and communities, are active in civic affairs and are interested in contributing to the growth and success of Vision. Shareholder nominations for directors should be submitted in writing to the Chairman of the Board in sufficient time prior to the meeting at which a vote is expected to be held on the election of directors so that the Vision Board of Directors will have a reasonable time to consider the candidate.

Vacancies on the board

Park. Under Ohio law, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations provide otherwise, the remaining directors of a corporation may fill any vacancy in the board by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors. Directors elected to fill a vacancy serve the balance of the unexpired term. Park's regulations provide that the remaining directors, though less than a majority of the whole authorized number of directors, may, by the vote of a majority of their number, fill any vacancy in the Park Board of Directors for the unexpired term.

Vision. Vision's by-laws provide that (a) the shareholders of Vision may fill a vacancy in the Vision Board of Directors, whether resulting from an increase in the number of directors or otherwise, or (b) the directors may fill a vacancy in the Vision Board of Directors, except that the directors may not fill a vacancy in the Board of Directors resulting from an increase in the number of directors. If the number of directors remaining in office is less than a quorum, the remaining directors, by affirmative vote of a majority of those remaining in office, may fill any vacancy in the Board of Directors for the unexpired term so long as the vacancy is one that the directors are authorized to fill pursuant to the by-laws.

Park. Park's regulations provide that a director or directors may be removed from office, with or without assigning cause, only by the vote of the holders of shares entitling them to exercise not less than a majority of the voting power of Park to elect directors in place of those to be removed, provided that unless all of the directors (or all of the directors of a particular class) are removed, no individual director may be removed if the votes of a sufficient number of shares are cast against his removal that, if cumulatively voted at an election of all directors (or all of the directors of a particular class) would be sufficient to elect at least one director. However, under current Ohio law (Section 1701.58 of the Ohio Revised Code), the directors of an issuing public corporation with a classified board of directors may only be removed for cause. Because Park is an issuing public corporation and has a classified board of directors, the directors of Park may only be removed for cause.

Vision. Vision's amended and restated articles of incorporation provide that directors may only be removed by the shareholders for cause.

Special meetings of shareholders

Park. Pursuant to Ohio law and the Park regulations, any of the following persons may call a special meeting of shareholders: the Chairman of the Board, the President, or, in case of the President's absence, death or disability, the vice president authorized to exercise the authority of the President, the secretary, the directors by action at a meeting or a majority of the directors acting without a meeting, or the holders of at least 25% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting.

Vision. Pursuant to the Vision by-laws, the Chairman of the Board, the President, or the Board of Directors may call a special meeting of shareholders. In addition, a special meeting of shareholders may be called by the holders of at least 10% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting or, if such holders sign, date and deliver to the President or Secretary one or more written demands for the meeting describing the purpose(s) for which it is to be held, the President or Secretary are required, within 21 days of the receipt of the demand, to cause notice to be given of the special meeting to be held within 10 days following the delivery of such notice. If the required notice is not given by the President or Secretary within 21 days of the receipt of the shareholders' demand for the meeting or if the special meeting is not held in accordance with the notice, the holders of at least 10% of the outstanding shares entitled to vote at the meeting may call the special meeting.

Voting rights

Park. Under Ohio law, shareholders have the right to make a request, in accordance with applicable procedures, to cumulate their votes in the election of directors unless a corporation's articles of incorporation are amended, in accordance with applicable procedures, to eliminate that right. Park's articles of incorporation have not been amended to eliminate cumulative voting in the election of directors. Accordingly, if, in accordance with Ohio law, any Park shareholder makes a proper request and announcement of such request is made at a meeting to elect directors, each shareholder will have votes equal to the number of directors to be elected, multiplied by the number of Park common shares owned by such shareholder, and will be entitled to distribute such votes among the candidates in any manner the shareholder wishes. Except with respect to an election of directors for which cumulative voting has been properly requested, each Park common share entitles the holder thereof to one vote on each matter submitted to the shareholders of Park for consideration.

Vision. Holders of shares of Vision common stock are entitled to one vote per share on all matters to be voted upon by shareholders. Holders of shares of Vision common stock do not have cumulative voting rights, which means that the holders of more than one-half of the outstanding shares can elect all of the directors.

Special voting requirements

Park. The Park articles of incorporation contain special voting requirements that may be deemed to have anti-takeover effects. These voting requirements are described in Article Eighth and apply when any of the following actions are contemplated:

any merger or consolidation of Park with a beneficial owner of 20% or more of the voting power of Park or an affiliate or associate of that 20% beneficial owner;

any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition of at least 10% of the total assets of Park to or with a 20% beneficial owner or its affiliates or associates; any merger of Park or one of its subsidiaries with a 20% beneficial owner or its affiliates or associates; any sale, lease, exchange, mortgage, pledge, transfer or other disposition to Park or one of its subsidiaries of all or any part of the assets of a 20% beneficial owner (or its affiliates or associates), excluding any disposition which, if included with all other dispositions consummated during the fiscal year by the 20% beneficial owner or its affiliates or associates, would not result in dispositions having an aggregate fair value in excess of 1% of the total consolidated assets of Park, unless all such dispositions by the 20% beneficial owner or its affiliates or associates during the same and four preceding fiscal years would result in disposition of assets having an aggregate fair value in excess of 2% of the total consolidated assets of Park;

any reclassification of Park common shares or any recapitalization involving the common shares of Park consummated within five years after a 20% beneficial owner becomes such;

any agreement providing for any of the previously described business combinations; and any amendment to Article Eighth of the Park articles of incorporation.

The enlarged majority vote required when Article Eighth applies is the greater of:

four-fifths of the outstanding Park common shares entitled to vote on the proposed business combination, or that fraction of the outstanding Park common shares having:

as the numerator a number equal to the sum of:

the number of Park common shares beneficially owned by the 20% beneficial owner plus two-thirds of the remaining number of Park common shares outstanding, and as the denominator, a number equal to the total number of outstanding Park common shares entitled to vote.

Article Eighth does not apply where (1) the shareholders who do not vote in favor of the transaction and whose proprietary interest will be terminated in connection with a transaction are paid a minimum price per share and (2) a proxy statement satisfying the requirements of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 is mailed to the Park shareholders for the purpose of soliciting shareholder approval of the transaction. If the price criteria and procedural requirements are satisfied, the approval of a business combination would require only that affirmative vote (if any) required by law or by the Park articles of incorporation or regulations.

Vision. Under the Alabama Business Corporation Act, an Alabama corporation may merge with another entity, engage in a share exchange transaction, or sell all or substantially all of its assets only with the affirmative vote of at least two-thirds of its outstanding shares of common stock. Amendments to the articles of incorporation require the affirmative approval of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of common stock.

Amendments to articles of incorporation

Park. Under Ohio law, shareholders may adopt amendments to the articles of incorporation by the affirmative vote of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal unless the corporation's articles of incorporation provide for a different vote requirement, which cannot be less than a majority of the shares entitled to vote.

As discussed above under Special voting requirements, the Park articles of incorporation provide that, when there is one or more controlling persons of Park (i.e., persons who beneficially own shares of Park entitling them to exercise at least 20% of the voting power in the election of directors), Article Eighth cannot be altered, changed or repealed unless the amendment is adopted by a specified proportion of Park's shareholders.

Vision. As discussed above under Special voting requirements, amendments to the Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation require the affirmative approval of at least a majority of the outstanding shares of Vision common stock.

Amendments to regulations

Park. Under Ohio law, shareholders may amend the regulations or adopt revised regulations consistent with Ohio law and the corporation's articles of incorporation, by the affirmative vote of a majority of shares entitled to vote if done at a shareholder meeting. Shareholders may amend the regulations without a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of two-thirds of the shares entitled to vote on the proposal. Ohio law provides that a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations may increase or decrease the required shareholder vote, but may not allow approval by less than a majority of the voting power.

The Park regulations provide that the regulations may be amended by the shareholders at a meeting by the affirmative vote of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the voting power of Park entitled to vote on such proposal, or without a meeting by the written consent of the holders of not less than two-thirds of the voting power of Park entitled to vote on such proposal.

Vision. The Vision by-laws may be altered, amended, added to or repealed and new by-laws adopted by the Vision Board of Directors at any regular meeting of the Board of Directors, or at any special meeting of the Board of Directors if notice of such proposed action is contained in the notice of the special meeting. However, the Vision Board of Directors may not alter, amend, add to, or repeal any by-law establishing what constitutes a quorum at meetings of the shareholders. The Vision by-laws also may be altered, amended, added to or repealed and new by-laws adopted by majority vote of the Vision shareholders at any annual meeting, or at any special meeting if notice of such proposed action is given to each shareholder.

Corporate action without a shareholder meeting

Park. Under Ohio law, unless a corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations prohibit action by shareholders without a meeting, shareholders may act without a meeting on any action required or permitted to be taken at a shareholder meeting, provided that all shareholders entitled to notice of the meeting sign a writing authorizing the action, and the shareholders file the writing with the records of the corporation. Neither Park's articles of incorporation nor its regulations alter this right.

Vision. Any action required to be taken at a meeting of shareholders of the corporation may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all shareholders entitled to vote on the action. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents describing the action taken, signed by all the shareholders entitled to vote on the action, and such consent must be delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. The record date for determining the shareholders entitled to take action without a meeting is the date the first shareholder signs the consent.

Indemnification of directors, officers and employees

Park. The regulations of Park provide that Park will indemnify any of its directors or officers against expenses (including attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement by reason of the fact that the director or officer is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Park or, at the request of Park, was serving another entity in a similar capacity. In order to receive indemnification, the director or officer must have acted in good faith and in a manner he or she reasonably believed to be in the best interests of Park. With regard to criminal matters, Park will indemnify a director or officer if the director or officer had no reasonable cause to believe his or her conduct was unlawful. Directors and officers claiming indemnification will be presumed to have acted in good faith and in a manner they reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of Park and, with respect to any criminal matter, to have had no reasonable cause to believe their conduct was unlawful.

Park will not indemnify any officer or director of Park who was a party to any completed action or suit instituted by, or in the right of, Park for any matter asserted in the action as to which the officer or director has been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of Park or misconduct, other than negligence, in the performance of the individual's duty to Park. If, however, the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or the court in which the action was brought determines that the officer or director is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity, Park must indemnify the officer or director to the extent permitted by the court.

Park will make any indemnification not precluded by Park's regulations only upon a determination that the director or officer has met the applicable standard of conduct. The determination may be made only:

by a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors;

if a quorum is not obtainable or if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel;

by the shareholders; or by the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or the court, if any, in which the action was brought.

Park will pay expenses incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding in advance upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director or officer to repay that amount if the director or officer is not entitled to be indemnified by Park.

The regulations of Park state that the indemnification provided therein is not exclusive of any other rights to which any individual seeking indemnification may be entitled. Additionally, the Park regulations provide that Park may purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any individual who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of Park, or who is or was serving another entity at the request of Park, against any liability asserted against the individual and incurred by the individual in that capacity, or arising out of the individual's status as such, whether or not Park would have the obligation or power to indemnify the individual under the Park regulations. Park has purchased and maintains insurance policies that insure directors and officers against certain liabilities that might be incurred by them in their capacities as directors and officers.

Vision. The by-laws of Vision provide that Vision will indemnify its and its subsidiaries' officers, directors, employees and agents to the extent permitted by the Alabama Business Corporation Act. That Act permits a corporation to indemnify any person who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding by reason of the fact that he or she is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, against expenses (including attorneys' fees), judgments, fines and settlements incurred by him or her in connection with any such suit or proceeding. In order to receive indemnification, the person must have acted in good faith and in a manner reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, in the case of a derivative action on behalf of the corporation, that he or she not be adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct.

Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of Park and Vision, pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, each of Park and Vision have been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than payment of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of Park or Vision in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, Park or Vision, as applicable, will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

Personal liability of directors

Park. Under Ohio law, a director of an Ohio corporation will not be found to have violated his or her fiduciary duties to the corporation or its shareholders unless there is proof by clear and convincing evidence that the director has not acted in good faith, in a manner he or she reasonably believes to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, or with the care that an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would use under similar circumstances. In addition, under Ohio law, a director is liable in damages for any action or failure to act as a director only if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence that such act or omission was undertaken either with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation, unless the corporation's articles of incorporation or regulations make this provision inapplicable by specific reference. Neither Park's articles of incorporation nor its regulations make this provision inapplicable.

Vision. The Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation provide that a director will not be held personally liable to Vision or its shareholders for monetary damages for any action taken, or any failure to take an action as a director, except this provision will not eliminate the liability of a director for (i) the amount of a financial benefit received by a director to which he or she is not entitled; (ii) an intentional infliction of harm on Vision or its shareholders; (iii) a violation of Section 10-2B-8.33 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act; (iv) an intentional violation of criminal law; or (v) a breach of the director's duty of loyalty to Vision or its shareholders. The Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation state that it is the intention that the directors of Vision be protected from personal liability to the fullest extent permitted by the Alabama Business Corporation Act as it now or hereafter exists and, therefore, if at any time in the future the Alabama Business Corporation Act is modified to permit further or additional limitations on the extent to which directors may be held personally liable to Vision, the protection afforded will be expanded to afford the maximum protection permitted under such law. The Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation further state that any repeal or modification of the provision of the Vision amended and restated articles of incorporation regarding the personal liability of directors by the shareholders will be prospective only, and will not diminish the rights, or expand the personal liability of a director of Vision with respect to any act or omission occurring prior to the time of such repeal or modification.

Anti-takeover statutes applicable to Park

Certain state laws make a change in control of an Ohio corporation more difficult, even if desired by the holders of the majority of the corporation's shares. Provided below is a summary of the Ohio anti-takeover statutes.

Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute. Section 1701.831 of the Ohio Revised Code, known as the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute, provides that specified notice and informational filings and special shareholder meetings and voting procedures must occur before consummation of a proposed control share acquisition. A control share acquisition is defined as any acquisition of shares of an issuing public corporation that would entitle the acquirer, directly or indirectly, alone or with others, to exercise or direct the voting power of the issuing public corporation in the election of directors within any of the following ranges:

one-fifth or more, but less than one-third, of the voting power;

one-third or more, but less than a majority, of the voting power; or a majority or more of the voting power.

An issuing public corporation is an Ohio corporation with 50 or more shareholders that has its principal place of business, principal executive offices, or substantial assets within the State of Ohio, and as to which no close corporation agreement exists. Assuming compliance with the notice and informational filing requirements prescribed by the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute, the proposed control share acquisition may take place only if, at a duly convened special meeting of shareholders, the acquisition is approved by both:

a majority of the voting power of the corporation represented in person or by proxy at the meeting; and a majority of the voting power at the meeting exercised by shareholders, excluding:

the acquiring shareholder, officers of the corporation elected or appointed by the directors of the corporation, employees of the corporation who are also directors of the corporation, and persons who acquire specified amounts of shares after the first public disclosure of the proposed control share acquisition.

The Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute does not apply to a corporation whose articles of incorporation or regulations so provide. Park has opted out of the application of the Ohio Control Share Acquisition Statute in its regulations.

Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute. Chapter 1704 of the Ohio Revised Code, known as the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute, prohibits specified business combinations and transactions between an issuing public corporation and a beneficial owner of shares representing 10% or more of the voting power of the corporation in the election of directors (an interested shareholder) for at least three years after the interested shareholder became such, unless the board of directors of the issuing public corporation approves either (1) the transaction or (2) the acquisition of the corporation's shares that resulted in the person becoming an interested shareholder, in each case before the interested shareholder became such.

For three years after a person becomes an interested shareholder, the following transactions between the corporation and the interested shareholder (or persons related to the interested shareholder) are prohibited:

the sale or acquisition of an interest in assets meeting thresholds specified in the statute, mergers and similar transactions,

a voluntary dissolution,

the issuance or transfer of shares or any rights to acquire shares having a fair market value at least equal to 5% of the aggregate fair market value of the corporation's outstanding shares, a transaction that increases the interested shareholder's proportionate ownership of the corporation, and any other benefit that is not shared proportionately by all shareholders.

After the three-year period, transactions between the corporation and the interested shareholder are permitted if:

the transaction is approved by the holders of shares with at least two-thirds of the voting power of the corporation in the election of directors (or a different proportion specified in the corporation's articles of incorporation), including at least a majority of the outstanding shares after excluding shares controlled by the interested shareholder, or the business combination results in shareholders, other than the interested shareholder, receiving a fair market value for their shares determined by the method described in the statute.

A corporation may elect not to be covered by the provisions of the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute by the adoption of an appropriate amendment to its articles of incorporation. Park has opted out of the Ohio Merger Moratorium Statute in its articles of incorporation.

Change in Control of Ohio Banks and Bank Holding Companies. Section 1115.06 of the Ohio Revised Code and the regulations promulgated thereunder contain change-of-control provisions which prohibit any person, acting directly or indirectly or in concert with one or more persons, from acquiring control of any Ohio bank or any bank holding company that has control of any Ohio bank unless the person has given the Ohio Superintendent of Financial Institutions 60 days prior written notice and the Superintendent has not disapproved the acquisition. Control, as defined in Section 1115.06, means the power, directly or indirectly, to direct the management or policies of a state bank or bank holding company or to vote 25% or more of any class of voting securities of a state bank or bank holding company. Pursuant to the regulations promulgated under Section 1115.06, it is presumed, subject to rebuttal, that a person controls an Ohio bank or bank holding company if the person owns or has the power to vote 10% or more of any class of voting securities and either the bank or bank holding company has a class of securities registered under Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 or no other person owns or has the power to vote a greater percentage of that class of voting securities.

Anti-takeover statutes applicable to Vision

Except as described above under Special voting requirements, the Alabama Business Corporation Act does not contain any specific anti-takeover provisions applicable to Alabama corporations. The Alabama Banking Code, however, provides that before a person acquires or possesses the power to vote a majority of the securities of a bank or any corporation that controls a bank, the person must first file an application with the Alabama State Banking Department and receive approval to acquire control. Park has filed the application necessary to obtain approval from the Alabama State Banking Department to acquire control of Vision Alabama as a result of the merger with Vision.

Adjournment of the Special Meeting (Proposal Two)

In the event there are not sufficient votes to approve the merger agreement at the time of the special meeting, the Vision shareholders cannot approve the merger agreement unless the special meeting is adjourned to a later date or dates in order to permit the solicitation of additional proxies. Pursuant to the provisions of Vision's by-laws, no notice of an adjourned meeting need be given other than announcement at the meeting, unless the adjournment is for more than 30 days or if, after the adjournment, a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting.

In order to permit proxies that have been received by Vision at the time of the special meeting to be voted for an adjournment, if necessary, Vision has submitted the proposal to adjourn the special meeting to the Vision shareholders as a separate matter for their consideration. The proposal to adjourn the special meeting must be approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of Vision common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting.

Brokers who hold shares of Vision common stock in street name for the beneficial owners cannot vote these shares of Vision common stock on the approval of the adjournment of the special meeting without specific instructions from the beneficial owners. Because the proposal to adjourn the special meeting must be approved by the holders of a majority of the shares of Vision common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting, an abstention will have the same effect as a vote against the approval of the merger agreement. Broker non-votes will not be counted in determining the number of shares of Vision common stock present, in person or by proxy, at the special meeting.

The Board of Directors of Vision recommends that you vote FOR the proposal to adjourn the special meeting.

Other Matters

As of the date of this prospectus/proxy statement, the Board of Directors of Vision is not aware of any matters that will be presented for consideration at the special meeting other than the two proposals described in this prospectus/proxy statement, if necessary, to solicit additional proxies, if there are not sufficient votes at the time of the special meeting to approve the merger agreement.

Legal Matters

Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP has rendered an opinion that the Park common shares to be issued to the Vision shareholders in connection with the merger have been duly authorized and, if issued as contemplated by the merger agreement, will be validly issued, fully paid and non-assessable under the laws of the State of Ohio. Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP also has delivered an opinion regarding the material federal income tax consequences of the merger. As of January 3, 2007, Vorys, Sater, Seymour and Pease LLP attorneys, together with members of their immediate families, owned an aggregate of 1,100 Park common shares.

Vision 2007 Annual Meeting and Submission of Shareholder Proposals

Vision intends to hold a 2007 annual meeting of shareholders only if the merger with Park is not consummated before the time of the annual meeting. If the Vision 2007 annual meeting of shareholders is held, shareholders of Vision will be entitled to submit proposals for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the meeting in accordance with Rule 14a-8 under the Securities Exchange Act of 1934. As stated in the proxy materials for the Vision 2006 annual meeting of shareholders, a shareholder proposal must have been received at Vision's principal executive offices not less than 120 calendar days in advance of April 17, 2007, for inclusion in the proxy statement and form of proxy for the 2007 annual meeting of shareholders.

The Securities and Exchange Commission has promulgated rules relating to the exercise of discretionary voting authority under proxies solicited by the Vision Board of Directors. If a Vision shareholder intends to present a proposal at the Vision 2007 annual meeting of shareholders, should it be held, but notice of the shareholder proposal is not received at Vision's principal executive offices at least 45 calendar days in advance of April 17, 2007, the proxies solicited by the Vision Board of Directors for use at the Vision 2007 annual meeting of shareholders may be voted on the proposal should it then be raised, without any discussion of the proposal in Vision's proxy statement for the Vision 2007 annual meeting of shareholders.

Each other Park Common Share issued and outstanding immediately prior to the Effective Time shall continue to be issued and outstanding and unaffected by the Merger.

(d) Procedures for Election. An election form and other appropriate transmittal materials in such form as Park and Vision Bancshares shall mutually agree (the Election Form/Letter of Transmittal) shall be mailed to shareholders of Vision Bancshares prior to the Election Period (defined below). The Election Form/Letter of Transmittal will permit holders of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock to elect, subject to the provisions of Sections 3.01 and 3.02, the form of Merger Consideration set forth in Section 3.01(a) (the Election) that they choose to receive in the Merger, will specify that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to Old Certificates (as defined in Section 3.05(c)) will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent and will include instructions and procedures for surrendering Old Certificates in exchange for New Certificates (as defined in Section 3.05(c)). The Election Period shall be such period of time as Park and Vision Bancshares shall mutually agree, within which holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock may validly make an Election, occurring between (A) the date of the mailing by Vision Bancshares of the Proxy Statement for the Vision Bancshares Meeting at which this Agreement is presented for approval by the Vision Bancshares shareholders and (B) the Election Deadline. The Election Deadline shall be the time, specified by Park after consultation with Vision Bancshares, on the last day of the Election Period, which shall be the second trading day prior to the Effective Time.

(e) Perfection of the Election. An Election shall be considered to have been validly made by a holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock only if (i) the Exchange Agent shall have received an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal properly completed and executed by such holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock, accompanied by a certificate or certificates representing the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock as to which such Election is being made, duly endorsed in blank or otherwise in form acceptable for transfer on the books of Vision Bancshares, or containing an appropriate guaranty of delivery in the form customarily used in transactions of this nature from a member of a national securities exchange or a member of the NASD or a commercial bank or trust company in the United States and (ii) such Election Form/Letter of Transmittal and such certificate(s) or such guaranty of delivery shall have been received by the Exchange Agent prior to the Election Deadline.

(f) Withdrawal of Election. Any holder of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock or any other Person to whom the subject shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock are subsequently transferred may at any time prior to the Election Deadline revoke the Election and either (i) submit a new Election Form/Letter of Transmittal in accordance with the procedures in Section 3.02(e) or (ii) withdraw the certificate(s) for shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock deposited therewith by providing written notice that is received by the Exchange Agent by 5:00 p.m., local time for the Exchange Agent, on the business day prior to the Election Deadline. All Elections will be deemed to be revoked if this Agreement has been terminated in accordance with its terms.

(g) Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock. Any holder of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock who after the date of this Agreement has acquired such shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock pursuant to the exercise of an incentive stock option, as defined in Section 422 of the Code (Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock), shall automatically be deemed to have made the Stock Election in Section 3.01(a)(i) for all purposes if such holder submits the certificates for such shares of Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock as a separate Stock Election for such shares. Nothing contained in this Section 3.02(g) shall be interpreted or construed to prevent any holder of Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock from making the Election described in Section 3.02(d) with respect to any share of Vision Bancshares Common Stock which is not a share of Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock. Certificates representing shares of Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock shall be marked with a legend indicating their status as shares of Vision Bancshares ISO Common Stock.

(h) No Election. Any holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock as of the Effective Time who does not submit a properly completed and signed Election Form/Letter of Transmittal that is received by the Exchange Agent at or prior to the Election Deadline, will be deemed to have made an election under Section 3.01(a) for all purposes herein for that form of Merger Consideration as to which less than 50% of the total number of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock has been made. Park will have the discretion to disregard immaterial defects in an Election Form/Letter of Transmittal. If Park or its designee reasonably determines that any purported Stock Election or Cash Election was not properly made, such purported Election will be deemed to be of no force and effect and the holder making such Election will be deemed to have made an election in accordance with the first sentence of this Section 3.02(h).

3.03 Rights as Shareholders; Stock Transfers. At the Effective Time, the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock shall no longer be outstanding and shall automatically be canceled and cease to exist and holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock shall cease to be, and shall have no rights as, shareholders of Vision Bancshares, other than to receive the Merger Consideration provided under this Article III and dissenters' rights under Article 13 of the Alabama Code in the case of Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares. After the Effective Time, there shall be no transfers on the stock transfer books of Vision Bancshares or the Surviving Corporation of any shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock (other than Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares, if applicable).

3.04 Fractional Shares. Notwithstanding any other provision hereof, no fractional Park Common Shares and no certificates or scrip therefor, or other evidence of ownership thereof, will be issued in the Merger and no Park dividend or other distribution or stock split or combination will relate to any fractional Park Common Share, and such fractional Park Common Shares will not entitle the owner thereof to vote or to any rights of a security holder of Park. Instead, Park shall pay to each holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock who would otherwise be entitled to a fractional Park Common Share (after taking into account all Old Certificates delivered by such holder) an amount in cash (without interest) determined by multiplying such fractional Park Common Share to which the holder would be entitled by the Park Exchange Value.

3.05 Exchange Procedures.

(a) Establishment of Exchange Fund. The First-Knox National Bank of Mount Vernon, Mount Vernon, Ohio will act as agent (the Exchange Agent) for purposes of conducting the exchange and payment procedures as described in this Article III. Park shall provide to the Exchange Agent the aggregate number of Park Common Shares issuable pursuant to Section 3.01(a), the aggregate amount of cash payable pursuant to Sections 3.01(a), 3.01(b) and 3.04 and the amount of all other cash payable in respect of the Merger, if any, on an as needed basis to the Exchange Agent, all of which shall be held by the Exchange Agent in trust for the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock (collectively, the Exchange Fund). The Exchange Agent shall distribute Park Common Shares and make payment of such cash as provided herein. The Exchange Agent shall not be entitled to vote or exercise any rights of ownership with respect to the Park Common Shares held by it from time to time hereunder, except that it shall receive and hold in trust for the recipients of Park Common Shares until distributed thereto pursuant to the provisions of this Agreement all dividends or other distributions paid or distributed with respect to such Park Common Shares for the account of the Persons entitled thereto. The Exchange Fund shall not be used for any purpose other than as set forth in this Section 3.05.

(b) No Interest. No interest will be paid on any cash, including any cash to be paid in lieu of fractional Park Common Shares or in respect of dividends or distributions, that any Person shall be entitled to receive pursuant to this Article Three.

(c) Surrender Procedures. Promptly after the Effective Time, Park shall cause the Exchange Agent to mail to each holder of record of a certificate representing shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock (an Old Certificate) that was converted pursuant to Section 3.02, but that was not deposited with the Exchange Agent pursuant to Section 3.02(d), both (i) a form of letter of transmittal (the Letter of Transmittal) specifying that delivery will be effected, and risk of loss and title to the Old Certificates will pass, only upon proper delivery of the Old Certificates to the Exchange Agent and (ii) instructions and procedures for surrendering Old Certificates in exchange for certificates representing Park Common Shares (New Certificates). Upon proper surrender of an Old Certificate for cancellation to the Exchange Agent, together with such Letter of Transmittal, duly executed, following the Effective Time, the holder of such Old Certificate shall receive within five business days of such surrender in exchange therefor (A) a New Certificate representing that number of whole Park Common Shares that such holder has the right to receive pursuant to the provisions of this Article III, and/or (B) a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid to such holder as part of the Merger Consideration, the cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Park Common Shares to which such holder is entitled pursuant to Section 3.04 and/or the cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares to which such holder may be entitled pursuant to Section 3.06, after giving effect to any required tax withholdings, and the Old Certificate so surrendered shall forthwith be canceled. In the event of a transfer of ownership of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock that is not registered in the transfer records of Vision Bancshares, a New Certificate representing the proper number of Park Common Shares may be issued, and/or the cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration, in lieu of any fractional Park Common Shares and/or in respect of any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares may be paid pursuant to Section 3.06, to a transferee if the Old Certificate is presented to the Exchange Agent, accompanied by all documents required to evidence and effect such transfer, and by evidence that any applicable stock transfer taxes have been paid. Until surrendered as contemplated by this Section 3.05(c), each Old Certificate will be deemed at any time after the Effective Time to represent only the right to receive upon such surrender a New Certificate and/or a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid as part of the Merger Consideration, the cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Park Common Shares and/or the cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares to which the holder may be entitled pursuant to Section 3.06 hereof.

(d) Lost, Stolen or Destroyed Vision Bancshares Old Certificates. If any Old Certificate has been lost, stolen or destroyed, upon the making of an affidavit of that fact by the Person claiming such Old Certificate to be lost, stolen or destroyed and, if required by Park, the posting by such Person of a bond in such reasonable amount as Park may direct as indemnity against any claim that may be made against it with respect to such Old Certificate, the Exchange Agent shall deliver in exchange for such lost, stolen or destroyed Old Certificate (i) the number of Park Common Shares to which such Person is entitled pursuant to Section 3.01(a) with respect to the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock formerly represented thereby, and/or (ii) a check in an amount equal to the sum of the cash to be paid to such Person as part of the Merger Consideration, the cash to be paid in lieu of any fractional Park Common Shares to which such Person is entitled pursuant to Section 3.04 and/or the cash to be paid in respect of any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares to which such Person may be entitled pursuant to Section 3.06.

(e) Termination of Exchange Fund. Any portion of the Exchange Fund delivered to the Exchange Agent by Park pursuant to Section 3.05(a) that remains undistributed to the shareholders of Vision Bancshares for six months after the Effective Time shall be delivered to the Surviving Corporation, upon demand, and any shareholders of Vision Bancshares who have not complied with this Article III by such time shall thereafter look only to the Surviving Corporation for payment of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of a fractional Park Common Share interest, and any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares payable in accordance with Section 3.06, in each case without interest.

(f) No Liability. None of Park, Vision Bancshares, the Exchange Agent or the Surviving Corporation shall be liable to any former holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock for any payment of the Merger Consideration, any cash in lieu of a fractional Park Common Share interest, or any dividends or distributions with respect to Park Common Shares payable in accordance with Section 3.06, delivered to a public official if required by any applicable abandoned property, escheat or similar law.

(g) Withholding Rights. Park or the Exchange Agent shall be entitled to deduct and withhold from the consideration otherwise payable pursuant to this Agreement to any holder of Vision Bancshares Common Stock such amounts as Park or the Exchange Agent is required to deduct and withhold with respect to the making of such payment under the Code and Treasury Regulations, or any other provision of domestic or foreign tax Law (whether national, federal, state, provincial, local or otherwise). To the extent that amounts are so withheld and paid over to the appropriate taxing authority by Park or the Exchange Agent, such withheld amounts shall be treated for all purposes of this Agreement as having been paid to the holder of the Vision Bancshares Common Stock in respect of which such deduction and withholding were made.

(h) Waiver. The Surviving Corporation may from time to time, in the case of one or more Persons, waive one or more of the rights provided to it in this Article III to withhold certain payments, deliveries and distributions; and no such waiver shall constitute a waiver of its rights thereafter to withhold any such payment, delivery or distribution in the case of any Person.

3.06 Park Dividends and Distributions. Whenever a dividend or other distribution is declared by Park on the Park Common Shares, the record date for which is at or after the Effective Time, the declaration shall include dividends or other distributions on all Park Common Shares issuable pursuant to this Agreement, but no dividend or other distribution payable to the holders of record of Park Common Shares as of any time subsequent to the Effective Time shall be delivered to the holder of any Old Certificate until such holder surrenders such Old Certificate for exchange as provided in this Article III. Upon surrender of such Old Certificate, both the Merger Consideration (without interest) and any declared and unpaid dividends payable under this Section 3.06 (without interest) shall be delivered and paid with respect to the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock represented by such Old Certificate.

3.07 Anti-Dilution Provisions. In the event Park changes (or establishes a record date for changing) the number of Park Common Shares issued and outstanding between the date hereof and the Effective Time as a result of a stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Park Common Shares and the record date therefor shall be prior to the Effective Time, the Stock Exchange Ratio shall be proportionately adjusted.

3.08 Vision Bancshares Stock Options; Vision Bancshares ESPP.

(a) Each outstanding option to purchase shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock under the Vision Bancshares Stock Plans whether vested or unvested, exercisable or un-exercisable (each, a Vision Bancshares Stock Option) that has not been exercised and paid for in full in a manner permitted under the terms of the applicable Vision Bancshares Stock Plan on or before the Election Deadline shall be surrendered, cancelled and extinguished and converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to (i) the product of $25.00 multiplied by the number of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock subject to the portion of such Vision Bancshares Stock Option which has not been exercised on or before the Election Deadline, minus (ii) the aggregate exercise price for the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock subject to the portion of such Vision Bancshares Stock Option which has not been exercised on or before the Election Deadline. Prior to the Election Deadline, Vision Bancshares shall take all actions necessary to cause any provision under plans, programs or arrangements providing for the issuance or grant of any interest in respect of the capital stock of Vision Bancshares or any of its Subsidiaries to terminate as of the Election Deadline, and Vision Bancshares shall ensure that following the Election Deadline, no Employee, Consultant or Director shall have any Rights, other than the right to receive the cash payment described in the first sentence of this Section 3.08(a), in respect of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock or any other equity interest in Vision Bancshares under the Vision Bancshares Stock Plans or any other plans, programs or arrangements providing for the issuance or grant of any other Right in respect of the capital stock of Vision Bancshares or any Subsidiary.

(b) Prior to the Election Deadline, Vision Bancshares shall take all actions necessary pursuant to the terms of the Vision Bancshares ESPP to terminate the Vision Bancshares ESPP (and all outstanding Vision Bancshares Stock Subscriptions and other Rights thereunder) effective as of the Election Deadline. Any Employee who is a participant in the Vision Bancshares ESPP and who has not paid the entire balance due for any shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock for which such Employee has subscribed pursuant to the terms of the Vision Bancshares ESPP may pay such balance in full on or prior to the Election Deadline and receive the applicable shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock. The failure of a participating Employee to pay such balance in full on or prior to the Election Deadline will be treated as a cancellation of the Employee's Vision Bancshares Stock Subscription(s) and Vision Bancshares will refund (without interest) all amounts the Employee has had withheld or has paid with respect to the canceled Vision Bancshares Stock Subscription(s).

(c) Prior to the Election Deadline, the Vision Bancshares Board (or, if appropriate, any committee administering the Vision Bancshares Stock Plans and/or the Vision Bancshares ESPP) shall adopt such resolutions and take such actions as are necessary to carry out the terms of this Section 3.08 (without the creation of any additional liability for Vision Bancshares or any of its Subsidiaries).

3.09 Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares. Anything contained in this Agreement or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, if any holder of an outstanding share of Vision Bancshares Common Stock as of the Effective Time seeks relief as a dissenting shareholder under Article 13 of the Alabama Code (a Vision Bancshares Dissenting Share), then such Vision Bancshares Dissenting Share shall not be converted into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, and instead:

(a) Each such Vision Bancshares Dissenting Share shall nevertheless be deemed to be extinguished at the Effective Time as provided elsewhere in this Agreement; and

(b) Each holder perfecting such dissenters' rights shall thereafter have only such rights (and shall have such obligations) as are provided in Article 13 of the Alabama Code, and the Surviving Corporation shall be required to deliver only such cash payments to which the Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares are entitled pursuant to Article 13 of the Alabama Code; provided, however, that if any such Person shall forfeit such right to payment of the fair value under Article 13 of the Alabama Code, each such holder's Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares shall thereupon be deemed to have been converted as of the Effective Time into the right to receive the Merger Consideration, as shall have been designated by each such holder, subject to Section 3.01.

Any Election Form/Letter of Transmittal or Letter of Transmittal submitted by a holder of Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares shall be invalid, unless and until the demand for payment of the fair value of the shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock shall have been or is deemed to have been withdrawn or forfeited.

Any payments made in respect of Vision Bancshares Dissenting Shares shall be made by Park.

(a) Organization, Standing and Authority. Park is a corporation duly organized, validly existing and in good standing under the Laws of the State of Ohio. Park is duly qualified to do business and is in good standing in the State of Ohio and any foreign jurisdictions where its ownership or leasing of property or assets or the conduct of its business requires it to be so qualified other than where the failure to be so qualified or in good standing individually or in the aggregate would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Park. Park is registered as a bank holding company under the BHCA. True and complete copies of the Park Articles and the Park Regulations, in each case as amended to the date of this Agreement, have been made available to Vision Bancshares.

(b) Park Capital Stock.

(F) receipt of the approvals set forth in Section 7.01(b). Park and its Subsidiaries have devised and maintain a system of internal accounting controls sufficient to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of financial statements for external purposes in accordance with GAAP, including that: (A) transactions are executed only in accordance with management's authorization; (B) transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of the financial statements of Park and its Subsidiaries in conformity with GAAP consistently applied with respect to any criteria applicable to such financial statements and to maintain accountability for the property and assets of Park and its Subsidiaries; (C) access to such property and assets is permitted only in accordance with management's authorization; (D) the reporting of such property and assets is compared with existing property and assets at regular intervals and appropriate action is taken with respect to any differences; and (E) accounts, notes and other receivables and inventory are recorded accurately, and proper and adequate procedures are implemented to effect the collection thereof on a current and timely basis. As of the date hereof, there is no reason to believe that Park's outside auditors and its principal executive officer and principal financial officer will not be able to give the certifications and attestations required

pursuant to the rules and regulations

(ii) Since December 31, 2005, no event has occurred or circumstance arisen that, individually or taken together with all other facts, circumstances and events (described in any paragraph of Section 5.03 or otherwise), is reasonably likely to have a Material Adverse Effect with respect to Park, except as disclosed in the Park SEC Documents.

(h) Litigation.

(i) There is no suit, action, investigation, audit or proceeding (whether judicial, arbitral, administrative or other) pending or, to Park's knowledge, threatened against or affecting Park or any of its Subsidiaries, which, if adversely determined against Park or the relevant Subsidiary of Park, would have a Material Adverse Effect on Park or would prevent the consummation of the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or declare the same to be unlawful or cause the rescission thereof.

(ii) There is no judgment, decree, injunction, rule or order of any Governmental Authority outstanding against Park or any of its Subsidiaries which is reasonably expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Park or would prevent the consummation of the Merger or any of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement or declare the same to be unlawful or cause the rescission thereof.

(i) Regulatory Matters.

(j) Compliance with Laws. Each of Park and its Subsidiaries:

(i) is in compliance with all Laws applicable thereto or to the employees conducting their respective businesses, including, without limitation, the Patriot Act, the International Money Laundering Abatement and Anti-Terrorist Financing Act of 2001, the Equal Credit Opportunity Act, the Fair Housing Act, the Community Reinvestment Act, the Home Mortgage Disclosure Act and all other applicable fair lending Laws and other Laws relating to discriminatory business practices, except for failures to be in compliance which, individually or in the aggregate, have not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Park;

(ii) has all permits, licenses, authorizations, orders and approvals of, and has made all filings, applications and registrations with, all Governmental Authorities and Regulatory Authorities that are required in order to permit them to own or lease their respective properties and to conduct their respective businesses as presently conducted, except where the failure to obtain any of the foregoing or to make any such filing, application or registration has not had or would not reasonably be expected to have a Material Adverse Effect on Park; all such permits, licenses, certificates of authority, orders and approvals are in full force and effect; and, to Park's knowledge, no suspension or cancellation of any of them has been threatened in writing; and

(iii) has not received, since December 31, 2005, any written notification or communication from any Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority:

(C) restricting or disqualifying in any material respect any of their activities (except for restrictions generally imposed by rule, regulation or administrative policy on banking organizations generally).

(k) Tax Matters. Park and its Subsidiaries have timely filed all Tax Returns required to be filed with the appropriate Governmental Authority. Such Tax Returns are and will be true, correct and complete in all material respects. Park and its Subsidiaries have paid and discharged all Taxes due (whether reflected on such Tax Returns or otherwise), other than such Taxes that are adequately reserved as shown on the Park Financial Statements or have arisen in the ordinary course of business since June 30, 2006 or Taxes the nonpayment of which would not have a Material Adverse Effect on Park. Neither the IRS nor any other Governmental Authority, domestic or foreign, has asserted, is now asserting or, to the knowledge of Park, is threatening to assert against Park or any of its Subsidiaries any material deficiency or claim for additional Taxes. No federal, state, local or foreign Tax audits or administrative or judicial Tax proceedings are pending or being conducted with respect to Park or any of its Subsidiaries and, to the knowledge of Park, no such audit or proceeding is threatened. There are no unexpired waivers by Park or any of its Subsidiaries of any statute of limitations with respect to Taxes. Neither Park nor any of its Subsidiaries has any liability for the Taxes of any other Person (other than members of the Park affiliated group) under Treasury Regulations Section 1.1502-6 (or any similar provision of state, local or foreign Law), as a transferee or successor, by contract or otherwise. As of the date hereof, neither Park nor any of its Subsidiaries has any reason to believe that any conditions exist that might prevent or impede the Merger from qualifying as a reorganization within the meaning of Section 368(a) of the Code.

(l) Books and Records. The books and records of Park and its Subsidiaries have been fully, properly and accurately maintained in all material respects, have been maintained in accordance with sound business practices and the requirements of Section 13(b)(2) of the Exchange Act, and there are no material inaccuracies or discrepancies of any kind contained or reflected therein and they fairly reflect the substance of events and transactions included in such books and records.

(p) Bank Secrecy Act, Anti-Money Laundering and OFAC and Customer Information. Park is not aware of, has not been advised in writing of, and has no reason to believe that any facts or circumstances exist, which would cause Park or any of its Subsidiaries to be deemed (i) to be operating in violation in any material respect of the Bank Secrecy Act, the Patriot Act, any order issued with respect to anti-money laundering by the U.S. Department of the Treasury's Office of Foreign Assets Control, or any other applicable anti-money laundering Law; or (ii) not to be in satisfactory compliance in any material respect with the applicable privacy and customer information requirements contained in any federal and state privacy Laws, including, without limitation, in Title V of the Gramm-Leach-Bliley Act of 1999 and the regulations promulgated thereunder, as well as the provisions of the information security program adopted by Park pursuant to 12 C.F.R. Part 40. Park is not aware of any facts or circumstances that would cause Park to believe that any non-public customer information has been disclosed to or accessed by an unauthorized third party in a manner that would cause Park or any of its Subsidiaries to undertake any material remedial action. The Park Board (or, where appropriate, the board of directors of one of Park's Subsidiaries) has adopted and implemented an anti-money laundering program that contains adequate and appropriate customer identification verification procedures that comply with Section 326 of the Patriot Act and such anti-money laundering program meets the requirements in all material respects of Section 352 of the Patriot Act and the regulations thereunder, and Park (or the appropriate Subsidiary) has complied in all material respects with any requirements to file reports and other necessary documents

The Vision Bancshares Board shall recommend that the Vision Bancshares shareholders approve this Agreement at the Vision Bancshares Meeting (the Vision Bancshares Recommendation) unless with respect to such recommendation, the Vision Bancshares Board, after consultation with independent legal counsel, determines in good faith that it would constitute, or could reasonably be expected to constitute, a breach of the applicable fiduciary duties of the Vision Bancshares Board. Without limiting the generality of the foregoing, Vision Bancshares agrees that its obligations pursuant to this Section 6.02 shall not be affected by the commencement, public proposal, public disclosure or communication to Vision Bancshares or any other Person of an Acquisition Proposal or any other event or circumstance.

6.03 Registration Statement.

(a) Preparation and Filing. Park agrees to prepare, pursuant to all applicable Laws, a registration statement on Form S-4 (such registration statement and all amendments or supplements thereto, the Registration Statement) to be filed by Park with the SEC in connection with the issuance of Park Common Shares in the Merger (including the proxy statement and other proxy solicitation materials of Vision Bancshares constituting a part thereof (the Proxy Statement) and all related documents). Vision Bancshares agrees to cooperate, and to cause its Subsidiaries to cooperate, with Park, its legal counsel and its accountants, in the preparation of the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement; and provided that Vision Bancshares and its Subsidiaries have cooperated as required above, Park agrees to file the Registration Statement, which will include the Proxy Statement and a prospectus in respect of the Park Common Shares to be issued in the Merger (together, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus) with the SEC as

Each of Park and Vision Bancshares shall promptly notify the other upon the receipt of any comments from the SEC or its staff or any request from the SEC or its staff for amendments or supplements to the Registration Statement or the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and shall promptly provide the other with copies of all correspondence between it and its representatives, on the one hand, and the SEC and its staff, on the other hand. Notwithstanding the foregoing, prior to filing the Registration Statement (or any amendment or supplement thereto), filing or mailing the Proxy Statement/Prospectus (or any amendment or supplement thereto), or responding to any comments of the SEC with respect thereto, each of Park and Vision Bancshares, as the case may be, (i) shall provide the other party with a reasonable opportunity to review and comment on such document or response, (ii) shall include in such document or response all comments reasonably proposed by such other party, and (iii) shall not file or mail such document or respond to the SEC without receiving such other party's approval, which approval shall not be unreasonably withheld or delayed.

(b) Information Supplied. Each of Vision Bancshares and Park agrees, as to itself and its Subsidiaries, that none of the information supplied or to be supplied by it for inclusion or incorporation by reference in (i) the Registration Statement will, at the time the Registration Statement and each amendment or supplement thereto, if any, is filed with the SEC and at the time the Registration Statement becomes effective under the Securities Act, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein not misleading, and (ii) the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and any amendment or supplement thereto will, at the date of mailing to the Vision Bancshares shareholders and at the time of the Vision Bancshares Meeting, as the case may be, contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state any material fact required to be stated therein or necessary to make the statements made therein not misleading or any statement which, in the light of the circumstances under which such statement is made, will be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or which will omit to state any material fact necessary in order to make the statements made therein not false or misleading or necessary to correct any statement in any earlier statement in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus or any amendment or supplement thereto. Each of Vision Bancshares and Park further agrees that if it shall become aware prior to the Effective Time of any information furnished by it that would cause any of the statements in the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be false or misleading with respect to any material fact, or to omit to state any material fact necessary to make the statements made therein not false or misleading, to promptly inform the other party thereof and to take the necessary steps to correct the Registration Statement and the Proxy Statement/Prospectus.

(c) Notice of Effectiveness and Changes. Park agrees to advise Vision Bancshares, promptly after Park receives notice thereof, of the time when the Registration Statement has become effective or any supplement or amendment has been filed, of the issuance of any stop order or the suspension of the qualification of Park Common Shares for offering or sale in any jurisdiction, of the initiation or threat of any proceeding for any such purpose, or of any request by the SEC for the amendment or supplement of the Registration Statement or for additional information.

6.04 Press Releases. Each of Vision Bancshares and Park agrees that it will not, without the prior approval of the other party, issue any press release or written statement for general circulation relating to the transactions contemplated hereby, except to the extent that such press release or written statement may be required by applicable Law or AMEX rules to be made before such consent can be obtained.

6.05 Access; Information.

(a) Each party agrees that upon reasonable notice and subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, it shall afford the other party and its officers, employees, legal counsel, accountants and other authorized representatives, such access during normal business hours throughout the period prior to the Effective Time, or to the termination of this Agreement, to the books, records (including, without limitation, Tax Returns and work papers of independent auditors), properties, personnel and to such other information as the other party may reasonably request and, during such period,

(i) each party shall furnish promptly to the other party all information concerning the business, properties and personnel of a party and its Subsidiaries as the other party may reasonably request,

(ii) Vision Bancshares shall furnish promptly to Park a copy of each material report, schedule and other document filed by Vision Bancshares pursuant to any federal or state securities or banking Laws, and

(iii) Park shall furnish promptly to Vision Bancshares a copy of each material report, schedule and other document filed by Park pursuant to any federal or state securities or banking Laws.

Neither party shall be required to provide access to the other party or to disclose information where such access or disclosure would violate or prejudice the rights of a party's customers, jeopardize any attorney-client privilege or contravene any Law, fiduciary duty or binding agreement entered into prior to the date of this Agreement. The parties hereto will make appropriate substitute disclosure arrangements under circumstances in which the restrictions of the preceding sentence apply.

(b) Use of Information; Confidentiality. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares agrees that it will not, and will cause its representatives not to, use any information obtained pursuant to this Section 6.05 (as well as any other information obtained prior to the date hereof in connection with the entering into of this Agreement) for any purpose unrelated to the consummation of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Except for the use of information in connection with the Registration Statement described in Section 6.03(a) and any other filings with Governmental Authorities or Regulatory Authorities required in order to complete the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, or as required in order to comply with applicable Laws or the rules of any national securities exchange or market where each party's securities are traded, all information (collectively, the Information) received by each of Vision Bancshares and Park (as well as their respective representatives, successors and assigns), pursuant to the terms of this Agreement shall be kept in strictest confidence; provided, however, that subsequent to the filing of the Registration Statement with the SEC, this Section 6.05 shall not apply to information included in the Registration Statement or to be included in the Proxy Statement/Prospectus to be sent to the shareholders of Vision Bancshares under Section 6.03. Vision Bancshares and Park agree, for themselves and their respective representatives, successors and assigns, that the Information will be used only for the purpose of completing the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Subject to the requirements of all applicable Laws, each party will keep confidential, and will cause its representatives, successors and assigns, to keep confidential, all Information and documents obtained (as well as any other Information obtained prior to the date hereof in connection with the entering into of this Agreement) unless and only to the extent such Information (i) was already known to such party on a nonconfidential basis prior to disclosure, (ii) becomes available to such party from other sources not known by such party to be bound by a confidentiality obligation, (iii) is disclosed with the prior written approval of the party to which such Information pertains, (iv) is or becomes readily ascertainable from published information or trade sources, or (v) is such that such party is required by Law or court order to disclose. If any party is required or reasonably believes that it is required to disclose any Information described in this Section 6.05(b) by (A) applicable Law, (B) any court of competent jurisdiction or (C) any inquiry or investigation by any Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority that is lawfully entitled to require any such disclosure, such party (the Required Party) shall, so far so it is lawful, notify the other party of such required disclosure on the same day that the Required Party (1) is notified of a request for such disclosure from the relevant Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority or (2) determines that such disclosure is required, whichever is earlier. Immediately thereafter, and to the extent practical on the same day, and subject to applicable Laws, the parties shall discuss and use their reasonable best efforts to agree as to the mandatory nature, the required timing and the required content of such disclosure. The Required Party shall furnish only that portion of the Information described in this Section 6.05 that is legally required to be disclosed and shall exercise its reasonable best efforts to obtain an order or other reliable assurance that confidential treatment will be accorded to the Information described in this Section 6.05 so furnished. The Information shall not be used in any way detrimental to a party including use directly or indirectly in the conduct of the other party's business or an enterprise in which such other party may have an interest, now or in the future, and whether or not in competition with such other party. In the event that this Agreement is terminated or the transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall otherwise fail to be consummated, each party shall promptly cause all Information relating to the other party, and furnished by the other party or prepared pursuant to Information provided by the other party regardless of who prepared the Information, to be returned to the party that furnished the same or to be destroyed. It is agreed and understood that the obligations of Vision Bancshares and

Park contained in this Section 6.05 shall survive the Closing. No investigation by either party of the business and affairs of the other shall affect or be deemed to modify or waive any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement in this Agreement, or the conditions to any party's obligation to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

(c) Subsequent Financial Information. During the period from the date of this Agreement to the Effective Time, each party shall promptly furnish to the other party copies of all monthly and other interim financial statements produced in the ordinary course of business as the same shall become available.

6.06 Acquisition Proposals. Vision Bancshares agrees that it shall not, and shall cause its Subsidiaries and Vision Bancshares and its Subsidiaries' officers, directors, agents, advisors and affiliates not to, solicit, initiate or encourage inquiries or proposals with respect to, or engage in any negotiations concerning, or provide any confidential information to, or have any discussions with, any Person relating to, any Acquisition Proposal; provided, however, that nothing contained in this Agreement shall prevent the Vision Bancshares Board from (a) making any disclosure to the Vision Bancshares shareholders if, in the good faith judgment of the Vision Bancshares Board, after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside legal counsel to the Vision Bancshares Board, failure so to disclose would be a breach of its fiduciary duties under applicable Law; provided further, however, that any such disclosure regarding an Acquisition Proposal shall be deemed to be a Change in Recommendation unless the Vision Bancshares Board reaffirms the Vision Bancshares Recommendation; (b) before the date of the Vision Bancshares Meeting, providing (or authorizing the provision of) information to, or engaging in (or authorizing) such discussions or negotiations with, any Person who has made an unsolicited bona fide written Acquisition Proposal received after the date of this Agreement that did not result from a breach of this Section 6.06; or (c) recommending such an Acquisition Proposal to the Vision Bancshares shareholders if and only to the extent that, in the case of actions referred to in clause (b) and/or clause (c), (i) such Acquisition Proposal is, or is reasonably expected to lead to a Superior Proposal, (ii) the Vision Bancshares Board after having consulted with and considered the advice of outside legal counsel to the Vision Bancshares Board determines in good faith that providing such information or engaging in such negotiations or discussions, or making such recommendation is required in order to discharge the directors' fiduciary duties to Vision Bancshares and its shareholders in accordance with applicable Law, and (iii) Vision Bancshares receives from such Person a confidentiality agreement. For purposes of this Agreement, a Superior Proposal means any Acquisition Proposal by a third party on terms that the Vision Bancshares Board determines in its good faith judgment, after receiving the advice of its financial advisors, to be materially more favorable from a financial point of view to Vision Bancshares and its shareholders than the Merger and the other transactions contemplated hereby, after taking into account the likelihood of consummation of such transaction on the terms set forth therein, taking into account all legal, financial (including the financing terms of any such proposal), regulatory and other aspects of such proposal and any other relevant factors permitted under applicable Laws. Vision Bancshares also shall immediately cease and cause to be terminated any activities, discussions or negotiations conducted prior to the date of this Agreement with any parties other than Park with respect to any of the foregoing. Vision Bancshares shall promptly (within one business day) advise Park following the receipt by Vision Bancshares of any Acquisition Proposal and the material terms thereof (including the identity of the Person making such Acquisition Proposal), and advise Park of any developments (including any change in such terms) with respect to such Acquisition Proposal promptly upon the occurrence thereof, including the response of the Vision Bancshares Board thereto. Vision Bancshares shall not terminate, amend, modify or waive any provision of or release any of its rights under any confidentiality or standstill agreement to which it is a party. Vision Bancshares shall enforce, to the fullest extent permitted under applicable Laws, the provisions of any such agreement, including, but not limited to, by obtaining an injunction to prevent any breaches of such agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions thereof in any court having jurisdiction. Nothing contained in this Section 6.06 or any other provision of this Agreement will prohibit Vision Bancshares or the Vision Bancshares Board from notifying any third party that contacts Vision Bancshares on an unsolicited basis after the date of this Agreement concerning an Acquisition Proposal of Vision Bancshares' obligations under this Section 6.06.

6.07 Affiliate Agreements. Not later than the 15th day prior to the mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus, Vision Bancshares shall deliver to Park a schedule of each Person that, to the best of Vision Bancshares' knowledge, is or is reasonably likely to be, as of the date of the Vision Bancshares Meeting, deemed to be an affiliate of Vision Bancshares (each, a Vision Bancshares Affiliate) as that term is used in Rule 145 under the Securities Act. Vision Bancshares shall cause each Person who may be deemed to be a Vision Bancshares Affiliate to execute and deliver to Vision Bancshares on or before the date of mailing of the Proxy Statement/Prospectus an agreement in the form attached hereto as Exhibit B. Vision Bancshares shall deliver such executed agreements of the Vision Bancshares Affiliates to Park at the Closing.

6.08 Takeover Laws. No party hereto shall take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement to be subject to requirements imposed by any Takeover Law and each of them shall take all necessary steps within its control to exempt (or ensure the continued exemption of) the transactions contemplated by this Agreement from, or, if necessary, challenge the validity or applicability of, any applicable Takeover Law, as now or hereafter in effect. Neither party will take any action that would cause the transactions contemplated hereby not to comply with any Takeover Provisions and each of them will take all necessary steps within its control to make those transactions comply with (or continue to comply with) the Takeover Provisions.

6.09 No Rights Triggered. Vision Bancshares shall take all reasonable steps necessary to ensure that the entering into of this Agreement and the consummation of the transactions contemplated hereby and any other action or combination of actions, or any other transactions contemplated hereby, do not and will not result in the grant of any rights to any Person (a) under the Governing Documents of Vision Bancshares or any of its Subsidiaries or (b) under any Material Contract to which Vision Bancshares or any of its Subsidiaries is a party except as contemplated by this Agreement.

6.10 Conformance of Policies and Practices. Prior to the Effective Time, Vision Bancshares shall, and shall cause its Subsidiaries to, consistent with GAAP and on a basis and on timing mutually satisfactory to it and Park, modify and change their respective loan, litigation and real estate valuation policies and practices (including loan classifications and levels of reserves) as well as other management and operating policies and practices so as to be applied on a basis that is consistent with those of Park and its Subsidiaries; provided, however, that Vision Bancshares shall not be obligated to take any such action pursuant to this Section 6.10 involving a valuation adjustment or earnings charge earlier than 30 days prior to the Effective Time, and unless and until Park acknowledges that all conditions to the obligation of Park to consummate the Merger have been satisfied and certifies to Vision Bancshares that Park's representations and warranties are true and correct in all material respects as of such date and that Park is otherwise materially in compliance with this Agreement. Vision Bancshares' representations, warranties and covenants contained in this Agreement shall not be deemed to be untrue or breached in any respect for any purpose as a consequence of any modifications or changes undertaken solely on account of this Section 6.10.

6.11 Transition. Vision Bancshares shall reasonably cooperate with Park in order to facilitate an orderly transition of the management of the business of Vision Bancshares to Park and in order to facilitate the integration of the operations of Vision Bancshares and Park and to permit the coordination of their related operations on a timely basis. To accelerate to the earliest time possible following the Effective Time the realization of synergies, operating efficiencies and other benefits expected to be realized by Vision Bancshares and Park as a result of the Merger, Vision Bancshares shall consult with Park on all strategic and operational matters to the extent such consultation is not in violation of applicable Laws, including Laws regarding the exchange of information and other Laws regarding competition. Without in any way limiting the provisions of Section 6.05(b), Park and its officers, employees, legal counsel, financial advisors and other representatives shall, upon reasonable written notice to Vision Bancshares, be entitled to review the operations and visit the facilities of Vision Bancshares and its Subsidiaries at all times as may be deemed reasonably necessary by Park in order to accomplish the foregoing arrangements. Notwithstanding the foregoing, nothing contained in this Agreement gives Park, directly or indirectly, the right to control or direct or to unreasonably interfere with Vision Bancshares' or its Subsidiaries' operations prior to the Effective Time. Prior to the Effective Time, Vision Bancshares and its Subsidiaries shall exercise, consistent with the terms and conditions of this Agreement, complete control and supervision over their respective operations.

6.12 Reports. Each of Vision Bancshares and Park shall file (and shall cause Vision Bancshares' Subsidiaries and Park's Subsidiaries, respectively, to file), between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, all reports required to be filed by it (or them) with the SEC and any other Regulatory Authorities having jurisdiction over such party, and Vision Bancshares shall deliver to Park copies of all such reports promptly after the same are filed. If financial statements are contained in any such reports filed with the SEC, such financial statements will fairly present the consolidated financial position of the entity filing such financial statements as of the dates indicated and the consolidated results of operations, changes in shareholders' equity, and cash flows for the periods then ended in accordance with GAAP (subject in the case of interim financial statements to the absence of full footnotes and to normal recurring year-end audit adjustments that are not material in amount or in effect). As of their respective dates, such reports filed with the SEC will comply in all material respects with the federal securities Laws and will not contain any untrue statement of a material fact or omit to state a material fact required to be stated therein or necessary in order to make the statements made therein not misleading. Any financial statements contained in any reports to a Regulatory Authority shall be prepared in accordance with requirements applicable to such reports.

6.13 Exchange Listing. Park will use all reasonable best efforts to cause the Park Common Shares to be issued in the Merger to be approved for listing on AMEX, subject to official notice of issuance, as promptly as practicable, and in any event before the Effective Time.

6.14 Regulatory Applications.

(a) Preparation and Filing. Park and Vision Bancshares and their respective Subsidiaries shall cooperate and use their respective reasonable best efforts to prepare all documentation and requests for regulatory approvals, to timely effect all filings and to obtain all permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities and Regulatory Authorities necessary to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares shall provide all information required from it and its Subsidiaries in order to enable the other to make necessary filings. Such information shall be delivered within five business days of a written request for such information. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares shall have the right to review in advance, and to the extent practicable, each will consult with the other, in each case subject to applicable Laws relating to the exchange of information, with respect to, and shall be provided in advance so as to reasonably exercise its right to review in advance, all material written information submitted to any third party or any Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority in connection with the transactions contemplated by this Agreement. In exercising the foregoing right, each of the parties hereto agrees to act reasonably and as promptly as practicable. Each party hereto agrees that it will consult with the other party hereto with respect to the obtaining of all material permits, consents, approvals and authorizations of all third parties and Governmental Authorities and Regulatory Authorities necessary or advisable to consummate the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and each party will keep the other party apprised of the status of material matters relating to completion of the transactions contemplated hereby.

(b) Information to be Furnished. Each party agrees, upon request, to furnish the other party with all information concerning itself, its Subsidiaries, directors, officers and shareholders and such other matters as may be reasonably necessary or advisable in connection with any filing, notice or application made by or on behalf of such other party or any of its Subsidiaries to any third party or Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority.

6.15 Indemnification.

(a) Indemnity by Park. Following the Effective Date, Park shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless all Directors, Officers and Employees of Vision Bancshares and its Subsidiaries (each, an Indemnified Party) against all costs or expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees), judgments, fines, losses, claims, damages or liabilities incurred in connection with any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative, arising out of actions or omissions or alleged actions or omissions in the course of the Indemnified Party's duties as a director, officer or employee of Vision Bancshares or one of its Subsidiaries occurring on or prior to the Effective Time (including, without limitation, the transactions contemplated by this Agreement) to the fullest extent that Vision Bancshares is permitted to indemnify (and advance expenses to) its directors, officers and employees under the laws of the States of Alabama and, as appropriate, Florida, and consistent with the terms and conditions of the Vision Bancshares Articles and the Vision Bancshares Bylaws as in effect on the date hereof. Notwithstanding the foregoing, Park shall not be obligated to indemnify a director, officer or employee for acts or omissions of such director, officer or employee that were beyond the scope of the duties of such director, officer or employee as a director, officer or employee of Vision Bancshares or one of its Subsidiaries. Any determination required to be made with respect to whether an Indemnified Party's conduct complies with the standards set forth under the Vision Bancshares Articles, the Vision Bancshares Bylaws and applicable Law for indemnification shall be made by the court in which the claim, action, suit or proceeding was brought or by independent legal counsel (which shall not be legal counsel that provides services to Park) selected by Park and reasonably acceptable to such Indemnified Party or selected by the Indemnified Party and reasonably acceptable to Park. As a condition to receiving such indemnification, the Indemnified Party shall assign to Park, by separate writing, all right, title and interest in and to the proceeds of the Indemnified Party's applicable insurance coverage, if any, including insurance maintained or provided by Park or Vision Bancshares or any of their respective Subsidiaries to the extent of such indemnity. No Indemnified Party shall be entitled to such indemnification with respect to a claim (i) if such Indemnified Party fails to cooperate in the defense and investigation of such claim as to which indemnification may be made, (ii) made by such Indemnified Party against Park, any Subsidiary of Park, Vision Bancshares or any Subsidiary of Vision Bancshares arising out of or in connection with this Agreement, the transactions contemplated hereby or the conduct of the business of Park, the Subsidiary of Park, Vision Bancshares or the Subsidiary of Vision Bancshares, or (iii) if such Person fails to deliver such notices as may be required under any applicable directors' and officers' liability insurance policy to preserve any possible claims of which the Indemnified Party is aware, to the extent such failure results in the denial of payment under such policy.

(b) D&O Insurance. For a period of three years from the Effective Time, Park shall use its reasonable best efforts to provide that portion of directors' and officers' liability insurance that serves to reimburse the present and former Officers and Directors of Vision Bancshares or its Subsidiaries (determined as of the Effective Time) with respect to claims against such Directors and Officers arising from facts or events that occurred before the Effective Time, on terms no less favorable than those in effect on the date of this Agreement; provided, however, that Park may substitute therefor policies providing at least comparable coverage containing terms and conditions no less favorable than those in effect on the date of this Agreement; and provided, further, that Officers and Directors of Vision Bancshares or its Subsidiaries may be required to make application and provide customary representations and warranties to Park's insurance carrier for the purpose of obtaining such insurance; and provided, further, in no event shall the annual premium on such policy exceed 125% of the annual premium payments on Vision Bancshares' policy in effect as of the date of this Agreement (the Maximum Amount). If the amount of the premiums necessary to maintain or procure such insurance coverage exceeds the Maximum Amount, Park shall use its reasonable efforts to maintain the most advantageous policies of directors' and officers' liability insurance obtainable for a premium equal to the Maximum Amount.

(c) Procedures; Limitations. Any Indemnified Party wishing to claim indemnification under Section 6.15(a), upon learning of any claim, action, suit, proceeding or investigation described above, shall promptly notify Park thereof; provided that the failure so to notify shall not affect the obligations of Park under Section 6.15(a) unless and to the extent that Park is actually prejudiced as a result of such failure. In the event of a claim (whether arising before or after the Effective Time), (i) Park shall have the right to assume the defense thereof and Park shall not be liable to such Indemnified Parties for any legal expenses of other legal counsel or any other expenses subsequently incurred by such Indemnified Parties in connection with the defense thereof, except that if Park elects not to assume such defense or legal counsel for the Indemnified Parties advises that there are issues that raise conflicts of interest between Park and the Indemnified Parties, the Indemnified Parties may retain legal counsel satisfactory to them, and Park shall pay all reasonable fees and expenses of such legal counsel for the Indemnified Parties promptly as statements therefor are received; provided, however, that Park shall be obligated pursuant to this paragraph (c) to pay for only one firm of legal counsel for all Indemnified Parties in any jurisdiction unless the use of one legal counsel for such Indemnified Parties would present such legal counsel with a conflict of interest, (ii) the Indemnified Parties will cooperate in the defense of any such matter and (iii) Park shall not be liable for any settlement effected without its prior written consent, which consent shall not be unreasonably withheld; and provided, further, that Park shall not have any obligation hereunder to any Indemnified Party when and if a court of competent jurisdiction shall ultimately determine, and such determination shall have become final and non-appealable, that the indemnification of such Indemnified Party in the manner contemplated hereby is prohibited by applicable Law.

(d) Legal Successors. If Park or any of its successors or assigns shall consolidate with or merge into any other entity and shall not be the continuing or surviving entity of such consolidation or merger or shall transfer all or substantially all of its assets to any entity, then and in each case, proper provision shall be made so that the successors and assigns of Park shall assume the obligations set forth in this Section 6.15.

(e) Beneficiaries. The provisions of this Section 6.15 shall survive the Effective Time and are intended to be for the benefit of, and shall be enforceable by, each Indemnified Party and his or her heirs and representatives.

6.16 Employment Agreements; Opportunity of Employment; Employee Benefits.

(a) Employment Agreements. As of the date of this Agreement, Park and Vision Alabama and/or Vision Florida shall enter into an employment agreement with each of (i) J. Daniel Sizemore, (ii) William E. Blackmon, (iii) Andrew W. Braswell, (iv) Joey W. Ginn, (v) Robert S. McKean, (vi) Diane Anderson, (vii) Tommy Files, (viii) Robin Fly, (ix) James E. Kirkland, (x) William Lloyd, (xi) Debbie McBride-Schmidt and (xii) Darrell W. Melton (the Employment Agreements), forms of each of which are attached hereto as Exhibits C-1, C-2, C-3, C-4, C-5, C-6, C-7, C-8, C-9, C-10, C-11 and C-12, respectively, and each of which shall become effective at the Effective Time if the Closing occurs as provided in Section 2.03 of this Agreement. Each Employment Agreement will replace and supersede the current employment agreement, change in control and non-competition agreement or change in control agreement with Vision Bancshares and/or one of the Subsidiaries of Vision Bancshares to which the relevant individual is a party, if any.

(b) Opportunity of Employment. Each existing Employee of Vision Bancshares or a Subsidiary of Vision Bancshares who has not entered into an Employment Agreement as contemplated by Section 6.16(a) and who is actively employed at the Effective Time shall have the opportunity to continue as an at-will employee of Park or one of Park's Subsidiaries. It is understood and agreed that except as provided in Section 6.16(a), nothing in this Section 6.16 or elsewhere in this Agreement shall be deemed to be a contract of employment or be construed to give any Employee of Vision Bancshares and/or its Subsidiaries any rights other than as employees at will under applicable Law and said Employees shall not be deemed to be third-party beneficiaries of this Section 6.16(b).

(c) Employee Benefits. Employees of Vision Bancshares and/or its Subsidiaries who continue as employees of Park or one of Park's Subsidiaries from and after the Effective Time (Continuing Employees) shall continue to participate in the Compensation and Benefit Plans in which they participated immediately prior to the Effective Time, unless and until Park, in its sole discretion, shall determine that the Continuing Employees shall, subject to applicable eligibility requirements, participate in employee benefit plans of Park or a Subsidiary of Park, and that some or all of the Compensation and Benefit Plans shall be frozen, terminated or merged into certain employee benefit plans of Park or one of its Subsidiaries. Notwithstanding the foregoing, to the extent permitted by applicable Law, each Continuing Employee shall be credited with years of service with Vision Bancshares, the appropriate Vision Bancshares Subsidiary and, to the extent credit would have been given by Vision Bancshares or the appropriate Vision Bancshares Subsidiary for years of service with a predecessor (including any business organization acquired by Vision Bancshares or any Vision Bancshares Subsidiary), of Vision Bancshares or any Vision Bancshares Subsidiary, for purposes of entitlement to benefits, including for severance benefits and vacation entitlement, eligibility, vesting and level of benefits (but not for benefit accrual purposes under any defined benefit pension plan) in the employee benefit plans of Park. Service with Vision Bancshares and the appropriate Vision Bancshares Subsidiary shall apply for purposes of satisfying any waiting periods, evidence of insurability requirements, or the application of any pre-existing condition limitations with respect to any Park employee benefit plan that is a group health plan. Each Park employee benefit plan that is a group health plan shall waive pre-existing condition limitations to the same extent waived under the applicable Vision Bancshares Compensation and Benefit Plan that is a group health plan. Continuing Employees shall be given credit for amounts paid under a corresponding group health plan during the same period for purposes of applying deductibles, copayments and out-of-pocket maximums as though such amounts had been paid in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Park group health plan. Park shall, before the Effective Time, adopt resolutions that amend its employee benefit plans to provide for the Vision Bancshares or Vision Bancshares Subsidiary service credits referenced herein.

(d) Survival. The covenants in this Section 6.16 shall survive the Merger.

that (i) is reasonably likely, individually or taken together with all other facts, events and circumstances known to it, to result in any Material Adverse Effect with respect to it or (ii) would cause or constitute a material breach (without regard to any materiality, Material Adverse Effect or similar qualifier included in any representation, warranty, covenant or agreement) of any of its representations, warranties, covenants or agreements contained herein.

(b) Persons Required to Consent to Merger. Vision Bancshares shall promptly notify Park of any written notice or other bona fide communication from any Person alleging that the consent of such Person is or may be required as a condition to the Merger.

(f) Collections. Vision Bancshares shall promptly notify Park of the intended filing of collections litigation against any customer of one of Vision Bancshares Subsidiaries if the principal balance is in excess of $250,000.

6.18 Boards of Directors of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida. Members of the Boards of Directors of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida shall continue to serve until their successors are duly qualified and elected and shall receive compensation for their service on the Board of Directors of Vision Alabama or Vision Florida, as appropriate, commensurate with the compensation paid to directors serving on the Boards of Directors of Park's other Subsidiaries.

6.19 Tax Treatment. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares agrees not to take any actions subsequent to the date of this Agreement that would adversely affect the ability of Vision Bancshares and its shareholders to characterize the Merger as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code, and each of Park and Vision Bancshares agrees to take such action as may be reasonably required, if such action may be reasonably taken to reverse the impact of any past actions that would adversely impact the ability for the Merger to be characterized as a tax-free reorganization under Section 368(a) of the Code.

6.20 No Breaches of Representations and Warranties. Between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time, without the written consent of the other party, each of Park and Vision Bancshares will not do any act or suffer any omission of any nature whatsoever that would cause any of the representations or warranties made in Article V of this Agreement to become untrue or incorrect.

6.21 Consents. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares shall use its best efforts to obtain any required consents to the transactions contemplated by this Agreement.

6.22 Insurance Coverage. Vision Bancshares shall cause each of the policies of insurance listed in the Vision Bancshares Disclosure Schedule to remain in effect between the date of this Agreement and the Effective Time.

6.23 Correction of Information. Each of Park and Vision Bancshares shall promptly correct and supplement any information furnished under this Agreement so that such information shall be correct and complete in all material respects at all times through the Closing, and shall include all facts necessary to make such information correct and complete in all material respects at all times; provided that any such correction that may result in a change to a party's Disclosure Schedule shall not be made and shall not be deemed to constitute a cure of any breach of any representation or warranty made pursuant to this Agreement without the prior written consent of the other party.

6.26 Exemption from Section 16(b) Liability. Park and Vision Bancshares shall take all such steps as may be required or reasonably requested to cause the transactions contemplated by this Agreement and any other dispositions of shares of Vision Bancshares Common Stock or other equity securities of Vision Bancshares in connection with this Agreement by each individual who is a director or officer of Vision Bancshares to be exempt under Exchange Act Rule 16b-3, such steps to be taken in accordance with the No-Action Letter dated January 12, 1999, issued by the SEC to Skadden, Arps, Slate, Meagher & Flom LLP, or as may otherwise be reasonably requested by Vision Bancshares.

applicable Law, Park will consider the addition to the Park Board of one or more of the individuals who currently serve on the Vision Bancshares Board as vacancies on the Park Board occur or as the size of Vision Alabama and Vision Florida relative to the other Subsidiaries of Park may warrant. This covenant is in addition to the provisions of Section 2.01 whereby J. Daniel Sizemore is to become a member of the Park Board at the Effective Time.

ARTICLE VII Conditions to Consummation of the Merger

7.01 Conditions to Each Party's Obligation to Effect the Merger. The respective obligation of each of Park and Vision Bancshares to consummate the Merger is subject to the satisfaction, or written waiver by Park and Vision Bancshares prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions precedent:

(a) Shareholder Approval. This Agreement shall have been duly adopted by the Required Vision Bancshares Vote.

(b) Regulatory Approvals. All approvals of Governmental Authorities and Regulatory Authorities required to consummate the transactions contemplated hereby shall have been obtained and shall remain in full force and effect, and all statutory waiting periods in respect thereof shall have expired and no such approvals or statute, rule or order shall contain (i) any conditions, restrictions or requirements that the Park Board reasonably determines would either before or after the Effective Time have a Material Adverse Effect on Park after giving effect to the consummation of the Merger, (ii) any conditions, restrictions or requirements that are not customary and usual for approvals of such type and that the Park Board reasonably determines would either before or after the Effective Date have a Material Adverse Effect on Park after giving effect to the consummation of the Merger, or (iii) any conditions, restrictions or requirements that would prevent Park from realizing the major portion of the economic benefits of the Merger and the transactions contemplated by this Agreement which Park currently anticipates obtaining.

(d) No Material Adverse Effect. From the date of this Agreement, there shall not have occurred any Material Adverse Effect on Park, or any change, condition, event or development that, individually or in the aggregate, has resulted in or could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect on Park. 7.03 Conditions to Obligation of Park. The obligation of Park to consummate the Merger is also subject to the satisfaction or written waiver by Park prior to the Closing Date, of each of the following conditions precedent:

(a) Representations and Warranties. No Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority of competent jurisdiction shall have instituted any claim, action, suit, investigation or proceeding which could reasonably be expected to result in a Material Adverse Effect on Vision Bancshares.

ARTICLE VIII Termination

8.01 Termination. This Agreement may be terminated, and the Merger may be abandoned, at any time prior to the Effective Time, whether before or after shareholder approval:

(a) Mutual Consent. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by the mutual written agreement of Park and Vision Bancshares, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of their respective boards of directors.

(b) Breach. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by Park or Vision Bancshares, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of its board of directors, by providing written notice to the other party, in the event of either:

(i) a breach by the other party of any representation or warranty contained herein such that the condition set forth in Section 7.02(a) or 7.03(a), as appropriate, would not be satisfied and which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach; or

(ii) a material breach by the other party of any of the covenants or agreements contained herein, which breach cannot be or has not been cured within 30 days after the giving of written notice to the breaching party of such breach, provided that

(A) such breach (under either clause (i) or (ii)) would entitle the non-breaching party not to consummate the Merger under Article VII, and

(B) the terminating party is not itself in material breach of any provision of this Agreement.

(c) Delay. At any time prior to the Effective Time, by Park or Vision Bancshares, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of its board of directors, by providing written notice to the other party, in the event that the Merger is not consummated by May 15, 2007, except to the extent that the failure of the Merger then to be consummated arises out of or results from the knowing action or inaction of the party seeking to terminate pursuant to this Section 8.01(c).

(d) No Approval. By Vision Bancshares or Park, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of its board of directors, by providing written notice to the other party, in the event:

(i) the approval of any Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority required for consummation of the Merger and the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement shall have been denied by final nonappealable action of such Governmental Authority or Regulatory Authority and the terminating party is not in material breach of Section 6.14;

(ii) the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock fail to approve this Agreement at the Vision Bancshares Meeting; or

(iii) any of the closing conditions have not been met or waived by the respective party as required by Article VII hereof.

(e) Superior Proposal. At any time prior to the approval of this Agreement by the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock contemplated by Section 7.01(a) by Vision Bancshares, if the Vision Bancshares Board so determines by vote of a majority of the members of the entire Vision Bancshares Board if (i) Vision Bancshares is not in breach of any material term of this Agreement including Section 6.06, (ii) the Vision Bancshares Board authorized Vision Bancshares, subject to complying with the terms of this Agreement, to enter into a definitive written agreement concerning a transaction that constitutes a Superior Proposal, (iii) Vision Bancshares notifies Park in writing that Vision Bancshares intends to enter into such an agreement as soon as practicable upon termination of this Agreement, attaching the most current version of such agreement to such notice and (iv) at least five business days elapse after Park receives the written notice provided for in clause (iii) above and the Vision Bancshares Board continues to consider the Acquisition Proposal to be a Superior Proposal after taking into account in good faith any amendment or modification to this Agreement proposed by Park during such five business day period.

(f) Change in Recommendation. By Park, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of the Park Board, by providing written notice to Vision Bancshares, if (i) in connection with the presentation of this Agreement to the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock as contemplated by Section 6.02, the Vision Bancshares Board shall have failed to make the Vision Bancshares Recommendation; or withdrawn, modified or qualified (or proposed to withdraw, modify or qualify) in any manner adverse to Park, the Vision Bancshares Recommendation; or taken any other action or made any other statement in connection with the Vision Bancshares Meeting inconsistent with the Vision Bancshares Recommendation (any such action in this clause (i), a Change in Recommendation), whether or not permitted by the terms of this Agreement, (ii) Vision Bancshares materially breached its obligations under this Agreement by reason of a failure to call the Vision Bancshares Meeting in accordance with Section 6.02 or the failure to prepare and mail to its shareholders the Proxy Statement/Prospectus in accordance with Section 6.03 or (iii) the Vision Bancshares Board takes the actions described in Section 6.06.

(g) Park Common Shares.

(i) By Vision Bancshares, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of the Vision Bancshares Board, by providing written notice to Park at any time during the three-day period commencing with the Determination Date (as defined below), if the following condition is satisfied: the average of the closing sale price of a Park Common Share on AMEX (as reported on www.amex.com or, if not reported thereon, as reported in another authoritative source) during the period of the 20 Trading Days ending on the tenth Trading Day prior to the date then established for the Closing Date (such average referred to herein as the Park Reference Price, and such period referred to herein as the Reference Period), is less than $81.00, appropriately adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Park Common Shares during the period between the last Trading Day immediately preceding the date of the first public announcement of entry into this Agreement (the Starting Date) and the last Trading Day within the Park Reference Period (the Determination Date).

(ii) By Park, duly authorized by action taken by or on behalf of the Park Board, by providing written notice to Vision Bancshares at any time during the three-day period commencing with the Determination Date, if the following condition is satisfied: the Park Reference Price is greater than $121.00, appropriately adjusted for any stock split, stock dividend, recapitalization, reclassification, split up, combination, exchange of shares, readjustment or similar transaction with respect to the outstanding Park Common Shares during the period between the Starting Date and the Determination Date.

8.02 Effect of Termination and Abandonment; Enforcement of Agreement. In the event of termination of this Agreement and the abandonment of the Merger pursuant to this Article VIII, no party to this Agreement shall have any liability or further obligation to the other party hereunder except:

(a) as set forth in Sections 8.03, 9.01 and 9.05; and

(b) that termination will not relieve a breaching party from liability for any willful breach of this Agreement giving rise to such termination. Notwithstanding anything contained herein to the contrary, the parties hereto agree that irreparable damage will occur in the event that a party breaches any of its obligations, duties, covenants and agreements contained herein. It is accordingly agreed that the parties shall be entitled to an injunction or injunctions to prevent breaches or threatened breaches of this Agreement and to enforce specifically the terms and provisions of this Agreement in any court of the United States or any state having jurisdiction, this being in addition to any other remedy to which they are entitled by Law or in equity.

8.03 Termination Fee; Expenses.

(a) Obligation to Pay Termination Fee. Vision Bancshares shall promptly pay to Park a termination fee in the amount of $6,500,000 (the Termination Fee) in immediately available federal funds if:

(i) this Agreement is terminated by Vision Bancshares pursuant to Section 8.01(e); or

(ii) (A) this Agreement is terminated by Park pursuant to Section 8.01(b)(ii) as a result of a willful breach by Vision Bancshares or 8.01(f), or by Park or Vision Bancshares pursuant to Section 8.01(d)(ii); and (B) at any time after the date of this Agreement and prior to any such termination, an Acquisition Proposal with respect to Vision Bancshares shall have been publicly announced, publicly proposed or commenced; and (C) within 12 months after the date of such termination, Vision Bancshares shall have entered into an agreement relating to such previously announced Acquisition Proposal or such previously announced Acquisition Proposal shall have been consummated. No termination fee shall be paid unless all of the conditions set forth in subclauses (A), (B) and (C), above, have occurred.

(b) The Termination Fee shall be payable (i) on the date of termination of this Agreement in the case of clause (a)(i) above; and (ii) two business days after the first to occur of the execution of the agreement relating to an Acquisition Proposal or the consummation of the Acquisition Proposal in the case of clause (a)(ii) above. Upon payment of the Termination Fee and Out-of-Pocket Expenses in accordance with this Section 8.03, Vision Bancshares shall have no further liability to Park at Law or in equity with respect to such termination under Section 8.01(e), 8.01(b) or 8.01(f), or with respect to this Agreement. Vision Bancshares acknowledges that the agreements contained in this Section 8.03 are an integral part of the transactions contemplated by this Agreement, and that, without these agreements, Park would not enter into this Agreement. Accordingly, if Vision Bancshares fails to pay timely any amount due pursuant to this Section 8.03 and, in order to obtain such payment, Park commences a suit that results in a judgment against Vision Bancshares for the amount payable to Park pursuant to this Section 8.03, Vision Bancshares shall pay to Park its reasonable, out-of-pocket costs and expenses (including attorneys' fees and expenses) in connection with such suit, together with interest on the amount so payable at the applicable federal funds rate.

(c) If an Acquisition Proposal has been made known to Vision Bancshares and made known to the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock generally or has been made directly to the holders of Vision Bancshares Common Stock generally or any Person has publicly announced an intention (whether or not conditional) to make a bona fide Acquisition Proposal and such Acquisition Proposal or announced intention has not been withdrawn, and thereafter this Agreement is terminated pursuant to Section 8.01(c) by Park as a result of knowing action or inaction of Vision Bancshares, and within six months following the termination pursuant to Section 8.01(c), Vision Bancshares enters in an agreement with the Person making any of the above-mentioned Acquisition Proposals, then Vision Bancshares shall promptly (but not later than two business days after signing an agreement with the person making the Acquisition Proposal) pay to Park an amount (not to exceed $250,000 in the aggregate) equal to all documented out-of-pocket expenses and fees incurred by Park (including, without limitation, fees and expenses payable to all legal, accounting, financial, public relations and other professional advisors arising out of or in connection with or related to the Merger or the other transactions contemplated by this Agreement) (Out-of-Pocket Expenses), and Park may pursue any remedies available to it at Law or in equity and will, in addition to its Out-of-Pocket Expenses (which are to be paid as specified above), be entitled to receive such additional amounts as such non-breaching party may be entitled to receive at Law or in equity, but in no event shall such additional amounts plus the Out-of-Pocket Expenses exceed $6,500,000 in total.

ARTICLE IX Miscellaneous

9.01 Survival. No representations, warranties, agreements and covenants contained in this Agreement shall survive the Effective Time (other than covenants which by their terms are to survive the Closing or are to be performed after the Effective Time) or the termination of this Agreement if this Agreement is terminated prior to the Effective Time (other than Sections 5.02(l), 5.03(r), 6.03(b), 6.04, 6.05(b), 8.02 and 8.03 and this Article IX which shall survive such termination). Notwithstanding the foregoing, no such representations, warranties, agreements or covenants shall be deemed to be terminated or extinguished so as to deprive the Surviving Corporation (or any director, officer or controlling person thereof) of any defense in Law or equity which otherwise would be available against the claims of any Person, including, without limitation, any shareholder or former shareholder of Park or Vision Bancshares.

9.02 Waiver; Amendment. Prior to the Effective Time, any provision of this Agreement may be:

(a) waived by the party benefited by the provision, or

(b) amended or modified at any time, by an agreement in writing between the parties hereto executed in the same manner as this Agreement, except to the extent that any such amendment would violate applicable Law or require resubmission of this Agreement or the plan of merger contained herein to the shareholders of Vision Bancshares.

The rights and remedies of the parties to this Agreement are cumulative and not alternative. Neither the failure nor any delay by any party in exercising any right, power or privilege under this Agreement or the documents referred to in this Agreement will operate as a waiver of such right, power or privilege, and no single or partial exercise of any such right, power or privilege will preclude any other or further exercise of such right, power or privilege or the exercise of any other right, power or privilege.

9.03 Counterparts. This Agreement may be executed in one or more counterparts, each of which shall be considered one and the same agreement and shall be effective when both counterparts have been signed by each of the parties, and delivered to the other party; it being understood that all parties need not sign the same counterpart.

9.04 Governing Law. This Agreement shall be governed by, and construed and interpreted in accordance with, the Laws of the State of Ohio applicable to contracts made and to be performed entirely within such State (except to the extent that mandatory provisions of federal Law are applicable).

9.05 Expenses. Each party hereto will bear all expenses incurred by it in connection with this Agreement and the transactions contemplated hereby, except that Park and Vision Bancshares will each bear and pay one-half of the following expenses:

(a) the costs (excluding the fees and disbursements of legal counsel, financial advisors and accountants) incurred in connection with the preparation (including copying and printing and distributing) of the Registration Statement, the Proxy Statement/Prospectus and applications to Governmental Authorities for the approval of the Merger, and

(b) all filing or registration fees, including, without limitation, fees paid for filing the Registration Statement with the SEC.

9.06 Notices. All notices, requests, demands and other communications required or permitted to be given hereunder to a party shall be in writing and shall be deemed to have been given:

(a) on the date of delivery, if personally delivered or sent by facsimile (with confirmation of receipt),

(b) on the first business day following the date of dispatch, if delivered by a recognized next-day courier service or

(c) on the third business day following the date of mailing, if mailed by registered or certified mail, postage prepaid (return receipt requested), in each case to such party at its address set forth below or such other address as such party may specify by notice to the parties hereto.

9.09 Waiver of Jury Trial. Each of the parties hereto hereby irrevocably waives any and all right to trial by jury in any legal proceeding arising out of or related to this Agreement or the transactions contemplated hereby.

9.10 Severability. Any term or provision of this Agreement that is invalid or unenforceable in any jurisdiction shall, as to that jurisdiction, be ineffective to the extent of such invalidity or unenforceability and, unless the effect of such invalidity or unenforceability would prevent the parties from realizing the major portion of the economic benefits of the Merger that they currently anticipate obtaining therefrom, shall not render invalid or unenforceable the remaining terms and provisions of this Agreement or affect the validity or enforceability of any of the terms or provisions of this Agreement in any other jurisdiction. If any provision of this Agreement is so broad as to be unenforceable, the provision shall be interpreted to be only so broad as is enforceable.

9.11 Assignment. Park and Vision Bancshares may not assign this Agreement or any of their respective rights or obligations under this Agreement to any other Person (whether by operation of Law or otherwise), without the prior written consent of the other party, and any attempt to make any such assignment without such consent shall be null and void. I have been advised that, as of the date hereof, I may be deemed to be an affiliate of Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision Bancshares), as that term is defined for purposes of paragraphs (c) and (d) of Rule 145 of the Rules and Regulations (the Rules and Regulations) of the Securities and Exchange Commission (the Commission) promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the 1933 Act).

Pursuant to the terms of the Agreement and Plan of Merger by and between Park National Corporation (Park) and Vision Bancshares dated to be effective as of September 14, 2006 (the Merger Agreement), providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the Merger), and as a result of the Merger, I may receive Park Common Shares, without par value (Park Common Shares), in exchange for shares of Vision Bancshares common stock, $1.00 par value (Vision Bancshares Common Stock), owned by me at the Effective Time (as defined and determined pursuant to the Merger Agreement). This letter is being delivered pursuant to Section 6.07 of the Merger Agreement.

I represent, warrant and covenant to Park that if I receive any Park Common Shares as a result of the Merger:

A. I will not sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of any of the Park Common Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon) acquired by me in the Merger in violation of the 1933 Act or the Rules and Regulations.

B. I have carefully read this letter and the Merger Agreement and have discussed their requirements and other applicable limitations upon my ability to sell, transfer or otherwise dispose of the Park Common Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon), to the extent I felt necessary, with my legal counsel or legal counsel for Vision Bancshares. I understand that Park is relying on the representations I am making in this letter and I hereby agree to hold harmless and indemnify Park and its officers and directors from and against any losses, claims, damages, expenses (including reasonable attorneys' fees) or liabilities (Losses) to which Park or any officer or director of Park may become subject under the 1933 Act or otherwise as a result of the untruth, breach or failure of such representations.

C. I have been advised that the issuance of the Park Common Shares to me pursuant to the Merger will have been registered with the Commission under the 1933 Act on a Registration Statement on Form S-4. However, I have also been advised that since I may be deemed to be an affiliate of Vision Bancshares under the Rules and Regulations at the time the Merger Agreement was submitted for a vote of the shareholders of Vision Bancshares, that the Park Common Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon) must be held by me indefinitely unless (i) my subsequent distribution of Park Common Shares (or other securities) has been registered under the 1933 Act; (ii) a sale of the Park Common Shares (or other securities) is made in conformity with the volume and other applicable limitations of a transaction permitted by Rule 145 promulgated by the Commission under the 1933 Act and as to which Park has received satisfactory evidence of the compliance and conformity with said Rule; or (iii) a transaction in which, in the opinion of legal counsel reasonably acceptable to Park or in accordance with a no-action letter from the Commission, some other exemption from registration is available with respect to any such proposed sale, transfer or other disposition of the Park Common Shares (or other securities).

D. I understand that Park is under no obligation to register under the 1933 Act the sale, transfer or other disposition by me or on my behalf of any Park Common Shares acquired by me in the Merger or to take any other action necessary in order to make an exemption from such registration available.

E. I also understand that stop transfer instructions will be given to Park's transfer agent with respect to any Park Common Shares (including any securities which may be paid as a dividend or otherwise distributed thereon) which I receive in the Merger and that there will be placed on the certificates for such Park Common Shares acquired by me in the Merger, or any substitutions therefor, a legend stating in substance:

The common shares represented by this certificate have been issued or transferred to the registered holder as a result of a transaction to which Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended, applies.

The common shares represented by this certificate may only be transferred in accordance with the terms of an agreement dated _____, 2006 between the registered holder hereof and the issuer of the certificate, a copy of which agreement will be sent to the holder hereof without charge within five days after receipt of written request therefor.

F. I also understand that unless the transfer by me of my Park Common Shares has been registered under the 1933 Act or is a sale made in conformity with the provisions of Rule 145, Park reserves the right to put the following legend on the certificates issued to my transferee:

The common shares represented by this certificate have not been registered under the Securities Act of 1933 and were acquired from a person who received such common shares in a transaction to which Rule 145 promulgated under the Securities Act of 1933 applies. The common shares may not be sold, pledged, transferred or otherwise disposed of except in accordance with an exemption from the registration requirements of the Securities Act of 1933.

It is understood and agreed that the legends set forth in paragraphs E and F above shall be removed and any stop order instructions with respect thereto shall be canceled upon receipt of advice from legal counsel in form and substance satisfactory to Park that such actions are appropriate under the then-existing circumstances.

Very truly yours,

EXHIBIT C-1

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT
J. DANIEL SIZEMORE

This Agreement is entered into this 14th day of September, 2006, by and among Park National Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Park); Vision Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (the Alabama Bank); Vision Bank, a Florida banking corporation (the Florida Bank) (hereinafter the Alabama Bank and the Florida Bank shall be referred to collectively either as the Employer or the Banks) and J. Daniel Sizemore (hereinafter referred to as the Executive).

WHEREAS, the Executive currently serves as the Chairman, Chief Executive Officer and President of Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision Bancshares) and the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Banks pursuant to an employment agreement dated as of December 28, 2005 (the Vision Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Vision Bancshares and Park propose to enter into a Merger Agreement dated as of the same date hereof (the Merger Agreement) providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to continue the Executive s employment relationship with the Banks after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger as further specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is agreed to by the parties, Park, the Employer and the Executive hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment and Duties. The Employer hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Employer upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The Executive will serve the Employer as its Chairman and Chief Executive Officer. In such capacity, the Executive will report directly to the Board of Directors of Park (hereinafter referred to as the Board) and have all powers, duties, and obligations as are normally associated with such positions. During the term of this Agreement, at each annual meeting of the shareholders of Park and the Banks, the Executive shall be nominated to serve as a director of Park and nominated and elected to serve as a director and Chairman of the Banks. The Executive will further perform such other duties and hold such other positions related to the business of the Employer as may from time to time be reasonably requested of him by the Board. The Executive will devote all of his skills, time, and attention solely and exclusively to said positions and in furtherance of the business and interests of the Employer and will not directly or indirectly render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or organization without the prior written consent of the Board (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that the Executive will not be precluded from spending a reasonable amount of time managing his personal investments or participating in community, civic, charitable or similar activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with his responsibilities hereunder.

2. Term of Employment. This Agreement will be effective on the Effective Time and the term of employment under this Agreement will begin, or be deemed to have begun, on the Effective Time (the Effective Date). This Agreement shall automatically renew and the term shall be extended for one additional day on each day after the Effective Date so that the term of this Agreement will always be three (3) years, unless the Employer gives the Executive three (3) years advance notice in writing that the Agreement will not be extended or the Agreement is terminated as provided in Section 5.

a. Salary. The Executive will receive an initial annual base salary of Three Hundred Thousand Dollars ($300,000) which may be increased, but not decreased without the Executive's written consent, by the Board during the term of this Agreement. In the event that the Board increases the Executive's initial base salary, the amount of the initial base salary, together with any increase(s) will be his base salary (hereinafter referred to as the Base Salary). The Base Salary will be payable in accordance with the Employer's regular payroll payment practices.

b. Bonus. Each year during the term of this Agreement, the Executive may earn and receive a cash bonus in an amount up to sixty-five percent (65%) of his Base Salary, depending upon the performance of the Banks and the satisfaction of his personal performance goals, which shall be set from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board (hereinafter referred to as the Committee). All bonus payments to be made pursuant to this Section 3(b) will be made to the Executive in cash no later than the 15th day of the third calendar month following the fiscal year of the Employer for which such bonus is payable.

c. Equity Compensation. The Executive shall receive equity awards in the amounts and on the terms as determined from time to time by the Committee.

d. Compensation for Special Services. In consideration of the Executive's willingness to (i) enter into this Agreement, (ii) apply his experience, skills and knowledge in continued employment with the Employer, and (iii) terminate the Vision Agreement, Park will pay or cause to be paid to the Executive $900,000.00 on the Effective Time. The Executive, in consideration of the foregoing payments, hereby waives and releases all rights, benefits and payments specified in the Vision Agreement. The Executive acknowledges that he is entitled to no past, present or future benefit that may be contained in the Vision Agreement. As of the Effective Time, this Agreement shall supersede and replace the Vision Agreement and the Vision Agreement shall be null and void in all respects.

e. Salary Continuation Agreements. The Employer shall continue the Salary Continuation Agreements entered into between the Alabama Bank and the Executive and the Florida Bank and the Executive on July 14, 2004 and as amended on June 26, 2006.

4. Fringe Benefits and Expenses.

a. Fringe Benefits. The Employer will provide the Executive with all disability programs, tax-qualified retirement plans, equity compensation programs, paid holidays, vacation, perquisites, and such other fringe benefits of employment as the Employer may provide from time to time to actively employed senior executives of the Employer. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Employer may discontinue or terminate at any time any employee benefit plan, policy or program, now existing or hereafter adopted, to the extent permitted by the terms of such plan, policy or program and will not be required to compensate the Executive for such discontinuance or termination. In addition to the general fringe benefits to be provided hereunder, the Executive shall be entitled to the following specific fringe benefits:

i. The Executive shall receive Employer-provided term life insurance equal to three (3) times his Base Salary, plus group term life insurance policies on his dependents in commercially reasonable amounts (subject to the insurability of such dependents);

ii. The Executive and his dependents shall be covered under the Employer's group health insurance plan with the entire monthly premium for such coverage to be paid by the Employer;

iii. The Executive shall receive a monthly car allowance equal to Seven Hundred Fifty Dollars ($750), plus mileage at the current Internal Revenue Service allowed reimbursement rate; and

iv. The Employer shall pay all fees for any country or social club which the Executive joins (or in which he is currently a member on the Effective Date) at the request of the Employer.

b. Expenses. The Employer shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and miscellaneous expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with the performance of his business activities under this Agreement, in accordance with the existing policies and procedures of the Employer pertaining to reimbursement of such expenses to senior executives.

5. Termination of Employment.

a. Death of Executive. The Executive's employment hereunder will terminate upon his death and the Executive's beneficiary (as designated by the Executive in writing with the Employer prior to his death) will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

In the absence of a beneficiary designation by the Executive, or, if the Executive's designated beneficiary does not survive him, payments and benefits described in this subparagraph will be paid to the Executive's estate.

b. Disability. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated by the Employer in the event of his Disability. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of the Executive to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months. During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of a Disability (Disability Period), the Executive will continue to receive his Base Salary at the rate then in effect for such period until his employment is terminated pursuant to this subparagraph; provided, however, that payments of Base Salary so made to the Executive will be reduced by the sum of the amounts, if any, that were payable to the Executive at or before the time of any such salary payment under any disability benefit plan or plans of the Employer and that were not previously applied to reduce any payment of Base Salary. In the event that the Employer elects to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to this subparagraph, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

c. Termination of Employment for Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment at any time for Cause if such Cause is determined by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Cause shall mean:

i. the Executive's willful misconduct or gross malfeasance, or an act or acts of gross negligence in the course of employment or any material breach of the Executive's obligations contained herein;

ii. any intentional material misstatement or material omission by the Executive to the Board, the boards of directors of the Banks, or any member or committee thereof, respectively, with respect to the business, financial condition, or results of operations of the Banks;

iii. the intentional failure of the Executive to follow the reasonable instructions or the policies of the Board, the boards of directors of the Banks, or any member or committee thereof, respectively;

iv. the Executive's conviction, admission or confession of any felony; or

v. the intentional violation by the Executive of applicable state and federal banking regulations, rules and other statutes.

In the event that the Employer terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

d. Termination Without Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason upon thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Executive. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of this Section 5, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination of employment for a period of three (3) years; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over such period; and

iv. the Employer shall continue to provide medical, dental, life insurance and other welfare benefits (the Welfare Benefits) to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of three (3) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(d)(iv) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

e. Voluntary Termination by Executive. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for any reason whatsoever upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Employer. In the event that the Executive terminates his employment voluntarily pursuant to this Section 5(e), the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

f. Good Reason Termination. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days' prior written notice to the Employer. For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive will have Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Employer if any of the following events occurs (provided the Employer does not cure such event with ten (10) days following its receipt of notice of termination of employment from the Executive) and written notice is given by the Executive to the Employer within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the event:

(i) the reduction of the Executive's Base Salary or levels of benefits or supplemental compensation without compensation therefore;

(ii) a relocation of the Executive's principal place of employment to a location outside a 25-mile radius from the Executive's principal place of employment or a material increase in the amount of travel normally required of the Executive in connection with his employment without the Executive's prior written consent; or

(iii) a material and adverse change in the Executive's position with the Employer or failure to provide authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships consistent with the Executive's position; provided, however, that the parties agree that any change between the Executive's position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships immediately prior to the Effective Time and his position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships as of the Effective Date shall not constitute Good Reason under this Section 5(f); and, provided further, that it will not be a material and adverse change in the Executive's position if, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in Section 6), the Executive's position, responsibilities and reporting relationships are changed to account for the effect of the Change in Control but are otherwise consistent with the Executive's position immediately before the Change in Control.

In the event that the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to this Section 5(f), subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

C. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination (or the Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of any reduction described in Section 5(f)(i), whichever is higher) of employment for a period of three (3) years; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over such period; and

D. the Employer shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of three (3) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(f)(D) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

g. Failure to Extend Term of Agreement. If the Employer notifies the Executive that the Employer will not extend the term of this Agreement under the provisions of Section 2 hereof, the Executive's employment under this Agreement will terminate at the end of such term and the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

6. Change In Control.

a. Occurrence of Change in Control. In the event that during the term of this Agreement, a Change in Control [as defined under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the regulations thereunder] occurs and, within thirty-six (36) months following such Change in Control, the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer or its successor for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of Section 5 or is terminated by the Executive under subparagraph f of Section 5, then in lieu of any other provision of

Section 5 of this Agreement, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Employer or its successor will pay to the Executive the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused, (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. a single lump sum payment, payable on the tenth (10th) business day following the date of termination of employment, equal to three (3) times the total Base Salary and cash bonus paid or payable to the Executive with respect to the most recently completed fiscal year of the Employer; and

iv. the Employer or its successor shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of three (3) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer or its successor will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect.

b. Treatment of Taxes. If payments provided under this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Employer, constitute excess parachute payments as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code, the Employer or its successor will reduce the Executive's benefits under this Agreement and/or the other plans and programs maintained by the Employer (in a manner to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer or its successor and the Executive) so that the Executive's total parachute payment as defined in Code §280G(b)(2)(A) under this Agreement and all other plans and programs will be One Dollar ($1) less than the amount that would be an excess parachute payment. Treatment of taxes under this Section 6(b) will be made at the time and in the manner mutually agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. In addition, in the event of any subsequent inquiries regarding the treatment of tax payments under this Section 6, the parties will agree to the procedures to be followed in order to deal with such inquiries. Notwithstanding any provision contained herein, except as provided in Section 19, this Section 6(b) shall not apply to any payments or benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) or to any other payment or benefit provided to the Executive as a result of the Merger.

7. Nonexclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any incentive, fringe benefit, deferred compensation, or other plan or program provided by the Employer and for which the Executive may qualify, nor will anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any other agreements with the Employer. Amounts that are vested benefits or that the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan or program of the Employer at or after the date of termination of employment, will be payable in accordance with such plan or program.

8. Noncompetition Covenant. The Executive agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and for a period of three (3) years thereafter following his termination of employment [one (1) year in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 hereof], he shall not:

a. own greater than a 5% equity interest in any class of stock of, or manage, operate, participate in, be employed by, perform consulting services for, or otherwise be connected in any manner with, any bank holding company or any depository institution located within a 50-mile radius of Gulf Shores, Alabama or Panama City, Florida which is competitive with the business of Park or the Banks;

b. solicit or induce any employee of the Banks or Park to terminate such employment or to become employees of any other person or entity;

c. solicit any customer, supplier, contractual party of Park or the Banks or any other person with whom each of them has business relations to cease doing business with Park or the Banks; or

d. in any way interfere with the relationship of the Banks or Park and any of their respective employees, customers, suppliers, contractual parties or any other person with whom each of them has business relations.

In the event of a breach by the Executive of any covenant set forth in this Section 8, the term of such covenant will be extended by the period of the duration of such breach and such covenant will survive any termination of this Agreement but only for the limited period of such extension.

The restrictions on competition provided herein shall supersede any restrictions on competition contained in any other agreement between the Employer and the Executive and may be enforced by Park, the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction, and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 8 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 8.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 8 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

9. Confidential Information. The Executive will hold in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of Park and the Employer, all secret or confidential information, knowledge, and data relating to Park and the Employer, that shall have been obtained by the Executive during his employment with the Employer and that is not public knowledge (other than by acts by the Executive or his representatives in violation of this Agreement). During and after termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer, the Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, communicate or divulge any such information, knowledge, or data to anyone other than Park or the Employer or those designated by them, unless the communication of such information, knowledge or data is required pursuant to a compulsory proceeding in which the Executive's failure to provide such information, knowledge, or data would subject the Executive to criminal or civil sanctions and then only with prior notice to the Board.

The restrictions imposed on the release of information described in this Section 9 may be enforced by Park or the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 9 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 9.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 9 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

10. Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to communicate to the Employer, promptly and fully, and to assign to the Employer all intellectual property developed or conceived solely by the Executive, or jointly with others, during the term of his employment, which are within the scope of either the Employer's business or Park's business, or which utilized Employer materials or information. For purposes of this Agreement, intellectual property means inventions, discoveries, business or technical innovations, creative or professional work product, or works of authorship. The Executive further agrees to execute all necessary papers and otherwise to assist the Employer, at the Employer's sole expense, to obtain patents, copyrights or other legal protection as the Employer deems fit. Any such intellectual property is to be the property of the Employer whether or not patented, copyrighted or published.

11. Assignment and Survivorship of Benefits. The rights and obligations of Park and the Employer under this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the successors and assigns of Park and the Employer. If the Employer shall at any time be merged or consolidated into, or with, any other company, or if substantially all of the assets of the Employer are transferred to another company, then the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the company resulting from such merger or consolidation or to which such assets have been transferred, and this provision will apply in the event of any subsequent merger, consolidation, or transfer.

12. Notices. Any notice given to either party to this Agreement will be in writing, and will be deemed to have been given when delivered personally or sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, duly

13. Indemnification. The Executive shall be indemnified by the Employer to the extent provided in the case of officers under the Employer's Articles of Incorporation or Regulations, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law. The Employer shall use commercially reasonable efforts to continue its Director and Officer Liability Insurance (DOL Insurance) under substantially similar terms and in substantially similar amounts as in existence prior to the termination of employment. The DOL Insurance shall be maintained for at least five (5) years from termination of employment and without limiting the foregoing, the Executive shall not be excluded from coverage under such DOL Insurance during such period.

14. Taxes. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all payments required to be made hereunder by the Employer to the Executive will be subject to withholding of such amounts relating to taxes as the Employer may reasonably determine that it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulations. In lieu of withholding such amounts, in whole or in part, however, the Employer may, in its sole discretion, accept other provision for payment of taxes, provided that it is satisfied that all requirements of the law affecting its responsibilities to withhold such taxes have been satisfied.

15. Arbitration; Enforcement of Rights. Any controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, except with respect to Sections 8, 9 and 10, will be settled by arbitration in the city of Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator or arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

All legal and other fees and expenses, including, without limitation, any arbitration expenses, incurred by the Executive in connection with seeking in good faith to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided for in this Agreement, or in otherwise pursuing any right or claim, will be paid by the Employer, to the extent permitted by law, provided that the Executive is successful in whole or in part as to such claims as the result of litigation, arbitration, or settlement.

In the event that the Employer refuses or otherwise fails to make a payment when due and it is ultimately decided that the Executive is entitled to such payment, such payment will be increased to reflect an interest equivalent for the period of delay, compounded annually, equal to the prime or base lending rate used by Park National Bank, and in effect as of the date the payment was first due.

16. Section 409A Application. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (to the extent applicable) and the Employer agrees to interpret, apply and administer this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply with such requirements and without resulting in any diminution in the value of payments or benefits to the Executive. To the extent that any payments to be provided to the Executive under this Agreement result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code, and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then any such payments shall instead be transferred to a rabbi trust (which shall be created by the Employer or its successor, on terms reasonably acceptable to the Executive, as soon as administratively feasible following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Executive's right to such payment) and such amounts (together with earnings thereon in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement) shall be transferred from the trust to the Executive upon the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) any other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any of the non-cash benefits provided to the Executive under this Agreement, including but not limited to the Welfare Benefits, result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then the Employer or its successor shall, instead of providing such benefits to the Executive as set forth hereinabove, delay the provision of such benefits until the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) such other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code; provided, however, on such date the Employer shall be required to pay to the Executive in one lump sum an amount equal to the after-tax costs of the benefits for the period during which the provision of the benefits was delayed as a result of the application of Code Section 409A.

17. Governing Law/Captions/Severance. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with, and pursuant to, the laws of the State of Ohio. The captions of this Agreement will not be part of the provisions hereof, and will have no force or effect. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 17, the failure of any party to insist in any instance on the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right hereunder will not constitute a waiver of such provision or right in any other instance.

18. Entire Agreement/Amendment. This instrument contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and the parties have made no agreement, representations, or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties. However, by signing this Agreement, the Executive agrees without any further consideration, to consent to any amendment necessary to avoid penalties under Section 409A of the Code; provided that such amendment does not have a material adverse economic effect on the Executive.

19. Make Whole Payments. If (a) on or before December 29, 2006, the Executive has made a good faith effort to exercise the number (as directed by Park in writing on or before November 1, 2006) of nonqualified stock options held by him to purchase shares of Vision Bancshares, which have an aggregate difference or spread between the exercise price and the then fair market value of the underlying shares of up to $1,100,000; and (b) the payments provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) of this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Banks or Vision Bancshares whether under this Agreement or otherwise and combined with any other payment or benefit provided to Executive as a result of the Merger (the Payments), are subject to any tax under Section 4999 of the Code, or any similar federal or state law (an Excise Tax), then the Employer shall pay to the Executive an additional amount (the Make Whole Amount). The Make Whole Amount shall be equal to (i) the amount of the Excise Tax, plus (ii) the aggregate amount of any interest, penalties, fines or additions to any tax which are imposed in connection with the imposition of such Excise Tax, plus (iii) all income, excise and other applicable taxes imposed on the Executive under the laws of any Federal, state or local government or taxing authority by reason of the payments required under clause (i) and clause (ii) and this clause (iii). The time and manner of calculating any Make Whole Amount, as well as, the procedure for making any tax payments or the treatment of any inquiries by taxing authorities will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties. In the event that the Executive fails to satisfy the requirements of clause (a) of this Section 19, at the election of the Executive, either all Payments will be subject to the provisions of Section 6(b) of this Agreement instead of the provisions of this Section 19, or all Payments will be made to the Executive and he will be responsible for the payment of all taxes on such Payments, including any Excise Tax.

WILLIAM E. BLACKMON

This Agreement is entered into this 14th day of September, 2006, by and among Park National Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Park); Vision Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (hereinafter referred to either as the Employer or the Bank) and William E. Blackmon (hereinafter referred to as the Executive).

WHEREAS, the Executive currently serves as the Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer of the Bank and has entered into a change in control and non-competition agreement with Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision Bancshares) dated as of January 1, 2006 (the Vision Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Vision Bancshares and Park propose to enter into a Merger Agreement dated as of the same date hereof (the Merger Agreement) providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to continue the Executive's employment relationship with the Bank after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger as further specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is agreed to by the parties, Park, the Employer and the Executive hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment and Duties. The Employer hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Employer upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The Executive will serve the Employer as its Chief Financial Officer. In such capacity, the Executive will report directly to the Employer's Chief Executive Officer (the CEO) and have all powers, duties, and obligations as are normally associated with such position. Subject to the provisions of Section 5(f), the Executive will further perform such other duties and hold such other positions related to the business of the Employer as may from time to time be reasonably requested of him by the Board of Directors of the Employer (hereinafter referred to as the Board). The Executive will devote all of his skills, time, and attention solely and exclusively to said position and in furtherance of the business and interests of the Employer and will not directly or indirectly render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or organization without the prior written consent of the Board (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that the Executive will not be precluded from spending a reasonable amount of time managing his personal investments or participating in community, civic, charitable or similar activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with his responsibilities hereunder.

2. Term of Employment.

a. Original Term. This Agreement will be effective on the Effective Time and the term of employment will begin, or be deemed to have begun, on the Effective Time (the Effective Date). The Agreement will continue through the three-year period ending on the day before the third anniversary date of the Effective Date, subject, however, to prior termination or to extension, as herein provided.

b. Extension of Term. The Employer and the Executive agree that the Board will review the Executive's performance with the intent that, if the Executive's performance so warrants, the Employer may extend the term of this Agreement for additional time periods to be determined in the discretion of the Board. By _____, 20____, or, in the event that this Agreement is extended as provided for in this Section 2(b), within ninety (90) days preceding the end of any extension period, the Chairman of the Board (the Chairman) will notify the Executive of the Employer's decision whether or not to grant an extension of this Agreement for an additional time period. In the event that the Chairman fails to notify the Executive, on or before the date described in the preceding sentence, of the decision regarding the extension of the term of this Agreement, the term of this Agreement will automatically be extended for an additional one-year period.

3. Compensation.

a. Salary. The Executive will receive an initial annual base salary of One Hundred Forty Five Thousand Dollars ($145,000), which may be increased, but not decreased without the Executive's written consent, by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Employer's CEO, during the term of this Agreement. In the event that the Board increases the Executive's initial base salary, the amount of the initial base salary, together with any increase(s) will be his base salary (hereinafter referred to as the "Base Salary"). The Base Salary will be payable in accordance with the Employer's regular payroll payment practices.

b. Bonus. Each year during the term of this Agreement, the Executive may earn and receive a cash bonus in an amount and based upon the satisfaction of performance criteria to be determined in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board. All bonus payments to be made pursuant to this Section 3(b) will be made to the Executive in cash no later than the 15th day of the third calendar month following the fiscal year of the Employer for which such bonus is payable.

c. Equity Compensation. The Executive shall receive equity awards in the amounts and on the terms as determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Park.

d. Compensation for Special Services. In consideration of the Executive's willingness to (i) enter into this Agreement, (ii) apply his experience, skills and knowledge in continued employment with the Employer, and (iii) terminate the Vision Agreement, Park will pay or cause to be paid to the Executive, on the Effective Time, an amount equal to his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Executive, in consideration of the foregoing payment, hereby waives and releases all rights, benefits and payments specified in the Vision Agreement. The Executive acknowledges that he is entitled to no past, present or future benefit that may be contained in the Vision Agreement. As of the Effective Time, this Agreement shall supersede and replace the Vision Agreement and the Vision Agreement shall be null and void in all respects.

e. Salary Continuation Agreements. The Employer shall continue the Salary Continuation Agreement entered into between the Bank and the Executive on July 14, 2004 and as amended on June 26, 2006.

4. Fringe Benefits and Expenses.

a. Fringe Benefits. The Employer will provide the Executive with all health and life insurance coverages, disability programs, tax-qualified retirement plans, equity compensation programs, paid holidays, vacation, perquisites, and such other fringe benefits of employment as the Employer may provide from time to time to actively employed senior executives of the Employer. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Employer may discontinue or terminate at any time any employee benefit plan, policy or program, now existing or hereafter adopted, to the extent permitted by the terms of such plan, policy or program and will not be required to compensate the Executive for such discontinuance or termination. In addition to the general fringe benefits to be provided hereunder, the Executive shall be entitled to the following specific fringe benefits:

i. The Executive shall receive a monthly car allowance equal to Four Hundred Dollars ($400), plus mileage at the current Internal Revenue Service allowed reimbursement rate;

ii. The Employer shall pay all fees for any country or social club which the Executive joins (or which he is currently a member on the Effective Date) at the request of the Employer; and

iii. The Executive shall receive a monthly fringe benefit allowance equal to Four Hundred Twenty-five Dollars ($425); provided that the Executive may only use such monthly benefit allowance to pay the Executive's portion of the premiums on any Employer sponsored welfare benefit plan.

b. Expenses. The Employer shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and miscellaneous expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with the performance of his business activities under this Agreement, in accordance with the existing policies and procedures of the Employer pertaining to reimbursement of such expenses to senior executives.

5. Termination of Employment.

a. Death of Executive. The Executive's employment hereunder will terminate upon his death and the Executive's beneficiary (as designated by the Executive in writing with the Employer prior to his death) will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

In the absence of a beneficiary designation by the Executive, or, if the Executive's designated beneficiary does not survive him, payments and benefits described in this subparagraph will be paid to the Executive's estate.

b. Disability. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated by the Employer in the event of his Disability. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of the Executive to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months. During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of a Disability (Disability Period), the Executive will continue to receive his Base Salary at the rate then in effect for such period until his employment is terminated pursuant to this subparagraph; provided, however, that payments of Base Salary so made to the Executive will be reduced by the sum of the amounts, if any, that were payable to the Executive at or before the time of any such salary payment under any disability benefit plan or plans of the Employer and that were not previously applied to reduce any payment of Base Salary. In the event that the Employer elects to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to this subparagraph, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

c. Termination of Employment for Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment at any time for Cause if such Cause is determined by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Cause shall mean:

i. the Executive's willful misconduct or gross malfeasance, or an act or acts of gross negligence in the course of employment or any material breach of the Executive's obligations contained herein;

ii. the Executive's conviction, admission or confession of any felony or an unlawful act involving fraud or moral turpitude; or

iii. the intentional violation by the Executive of applicable state and federal banking regulations, rules and other statutes.

In the event that the Employer terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment; and

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

d. Termination Without Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Executive. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of this Section 5, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination of employment for a period equal to the lesser of two (2) years or the remainder of the term of this Agreement (such period shall hereinafter be referred to as the Continuation Period); provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

iv. the Employer shall continue to provide medical, dental, life insurance and other welfare benefits (the Welfare Benefits) to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(d)(iv) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

e. Voluntary Termination by Executive. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for any reason whatsoever upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. In the event that the Executive terminates his employment voluntarily pursuant to this Section 5(e), the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

f. Good Reason Termination. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive will have Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Employer if any of the following events occurs (provided the Employer does not cure such event with ten (10) days following its receipt of notice of termination of employment from the Executive) and written notice is given by the Executive to the Employer within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the event:

(i) the reduction of the Executive's Base Salary or levels of benefits or supplemental compensation without compensation therefore;

(ii) a relocation of the Executive's principal place of employment to a location outside a 25-mile radius from the Executive's principal place of employment or a material increase in the amount of travel normally required of the Executive in connection with his employment without the Executive's prior written consent; or

(iii) a material and adverse change in the Executive's position with the Employer or failure to provide authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships consistent with the Executive's position; provided, however, that the parties agree that any change between the Executive's position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships immediately prior to the Merger Date and his position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships as of the Effective Date shall not constitute Good Reason under this Section 5(f); and, provided further, that it will not be a material and adverse change in the Executive's position if, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in Section 6), the Executive's position, responsibilities and reporting relationships are changed to account for the effect of the Change in Control but are otherwise consistent with the Executive's position immediately before the Change in Control.

In the event that the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to this Section 5(f), subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

C. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination (or the Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of any reduction described in Section 5(f)(i), whichever is higher) of employment for the Continuation Period; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

D. the Employer shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(f)(D) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

g. Failure to Extend Term of Agreement. If the Employer notifies the Executive that the Employer will not extend the term of this Agreement under the provisions of Section 2(b) hereof, the Executive's employment under this Agreement will terminate at the end of such term and the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

6. Change In Control.

a. Occurrence of Change in Control. In the event that during the term of this Agreement, a Change in Control [as defined under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the regulations

thereunder] occurs and, within thirty-six (36) months following such Change in Control, the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer or its successor for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of Section 5 or is terminated by the Executive under subparagraph f of Section 5, then in lieu of any other provision of Section 5 of this Agreement, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Employer or its successor will pay to the Executive the following payments and benefits:

- i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused, (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;
- ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;
- iii. a single lump sum payment, payable on the tenth (10th) business day following the date of termination of employment, equal to two (2) times the total Base Salary and cash bonus paid or payable to the Executive with respect to the most recently completed fiscal year of the Employer; and
- iv. the Employer or its successor shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of two (2) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer or its successor will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect.

b. Treatment of Taxes. If payments provided under this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Employer, constitute excess parachute payments as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code, the Employer or its successor will reduce the Executive's benefits under this Agreement and/or the other plans and programs maintained by the Employer (in a manner to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer or its successor and the Executive) so that the Executive's total parachute payment as defined in Code §280G(b)(2)(A) under this Agreement and all other plans and programs will be One Dollar ($1) less than the amount that would be an excess parachute payment. Treatment of taxes under this Section 6(b) will be made at the time and in the manner mutually agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. In addition, in the event of any subsequent inquiries regarding the treatment of tax payments under this Section 6, the parties will agree to the procedures to be followed in order to deal with such inquiries. This Section 6(b) shall not apply to any payments or benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) or to any other payment or benefit provided to the Executive as a result of the Merger.

7. Nonexclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any incentive, fringe benefit, deferred compensation, or other plan or program provided by the Employer and for which the Executive may qualify, nor will anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any other agreements with the Employer. Amounts that are vested benefits or that the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan or program of the Employer at or after the date of termination of employment, will be payable in accordance with such plan or program.

8. Noncompetition Covenant. The Executive agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and during the Continuation Period thereafter following his termination of employment [one (1) year in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 hereof], he shall not:

- a. own greater than a 5% equity interest in any class of stock of, or manage, operate, participate in, be employed by, perform consulting services for, or otherwise be connected in any manner with, any bank holding company or any depository institution located within a 50-mile radius of Gulf Shores, Alabama or Panama City, Florida which is competitive with the business of Park, the Bank or Vision Bank, a Florida banking corporation (hereinafter collectively referred to with the Bank as the Banks);

b. solicit or induce any employee of the Banks or Park to terminate such employment or to become employees of any other person or entity;

c. solicit any customer, supplier, contractual party of Park or the Banks or any other person with whom each of them has business relations to cease doing business with Park or the Banks; or

d. in any way interfere with the relationship of the Banks or Park and any of their respective employees, customers, suppliers, contractual parties or any other person with whom each of them has business relations.

In the event of a breach by the Executive of any covenant set forth in this Section 8, the term of such covenant will be extended by the period of the duration of such breach and such covenant will survive any termination of this Agreement but only for the limited period of such extension.

The restrictions on competition provided herein shall supersede any restrictions on competition contained in any other agreement between the Employer and the Executive and may be enforced by Park, the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction, and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 8 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 8.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 8 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

9. Confidential Information. The Executive will hold in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of Park and the Banks, all secret or confidential information, knowledge, and data relating to Park and the Banks, that shall have been obtained by the Executive during his employment with the Employer and that is not public knowledge (other than by acts by the Executive or his representatives in violation of this Agreement). During and after termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer, the Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, communicate or divulge any such information, knowledge, or data to anyone other than Park or the Employer or those designated by them, unless the communication of such information, knowledge or data is required pursuant to a compulsory proceeding in which the Executive's failure to provide such information, knowledge, or data would subject the Executive to criminal or civil sanctions and then only with prior notice to the Board.

The restrictions imposed on the release of information described in this Section 9 may be enforced by Park or the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 9 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 9.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 9 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

10. Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to communicate to the Employer, promptly and fully, and to assign to the Employer all intellectual property developed or conceived solely by the Executive, or jointly with others, during the term of his employment, which are within the scope of either the Banks' business or Park's business, or which utilized Employer materials or information. For purposes of this Agreement, intellectual property means inventions, discoveries, business or technical innovations, creative or professional work product, or works of authorship. The Executive further agrees to execute all necessary papers and otherwise to assist the Employer, at the Employer's sole expense, to obtain patents, copyrights or other legal protection as the Employer deems fit. Any such intellectual property is to be the property of the Employer whether or not patented, copyrighted or published.

11. Assignment and Survivorship of Benefits. The rights and obligations of Park and the Employer under this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the successors and assigns of Park and the Employer. If the Employer shall at any time be merged or consolidated into, or with, any other company, or if substantially all of the assets of the Employer are transferred to another company, then the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the company resulting from such merger or consolidation or to which such assets have been transferred, and this provision will apply in the event of any subsequent merger, consolidation, or transfer.

12. Notices. Any notice given to either party to this Agreement will be in writing, and will be deemed to have been given when delivered personally or sent by certified mail, postage prepaid, return receipt requested, duly addressed to the party concerned, at the address indicated below or to such changed address as such party may subsequently give notice of:

13. Indemnification. The Executive shall be indemnified by the Employer to the extent provided in the case of officers under the Employer's Articles of Incorporation or Regulations, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law.

14. Taxes. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all payments required to be made hereunder by the Employer to the Executive will be subject to withholding of such amounts relating to taxes as the Employer may reasonably determine that it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulations. In lieu of withholding such amounts, in whole or in part, however, the Employer may, in its sole discretion, accept other provision for payment of taxes, provided that it is satisfied that all requirements of the law affecting its responsibilities to withhold such taxes have been satisfied.

15. Arbitration; Enforcement of Rights. Any controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, except with respect to Sections 8, 9 and 10, will be settled by arbitration in the city of Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator or arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

All legal and other fees and expenses, including, without limitation, any arbitration expenses, incurred by the Executive in connection with seeking in good faith to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided for in this Agreement, or in otherwise pursuing any right or claim, will be paid by the Employer, to the extent permitted by law, provided that the Executive is successful in whole or in part as to such claims as the result of litigation, arbitration, or settlement.

In the event that the Employer refuses or otherwise fails to make a payment when due and it is ultimately decided that the Executive is entitled to such payment, such payment will be increased to reflect an interest equivalent for the period of delay, compounded annually, equal to the prime or base lending rate used by Park National Bank, and in effect as of the date the payment was first due.

16. Section 409A Application. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (to the extent applicable) and the Employer agrees to interpret, apply and administer this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply with such requirements and without resulting in any diminution in the value of payments or benefits to the Executive. To the extent that any payments to be provided to the Executive under this Agreement result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code, and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then any such payments shall instead be transferred to a rabbi trust (which shall be created by the Employer or its successor, on terms reasonably acceptable to the Executive, as soon as administratively feasible following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Executive's right to such payment) and such amounts (together with earnings thereon in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement) shall be transferred from the trust to the Executive upon the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) any other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any of the non-cash benefits provided to the Executive under this Agreement, including but not limited to the Welfare Benefits, result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then the Employer or its successor shall, instead of providing such benefits to the Executive as set forth hereinabove, delay the provision of such benefits until the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) such other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code; provided, however, on such date the Employer shall be required to pay to the Executive in one lump sum an amount equal to the after-tax costs of the benefits for the period during which the provision of the benefits was delayed as a result of the application of Code Section 409A.

17. Governing Law/Captions/Severance. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with, and pursuant to, the laws of the State of Ohio. The captions of this Agreement will not be part of the provisions hereof, and will have no force or effect. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 17, the failure of any party to insist in any instance on the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right hereunder will not constitute a waiver of such provision or right in any other instance.

18. Entire Agreement/Amendment. This instrument contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and the parties have made no agreement, representations, or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties. However, by signing this Agreement, the Executive agrees without any further consideration, to consent to any amendment necessary to avoid penalties under Section 409A of the Code; provided that such amendment does not have a material adverse economic impact on the Executive.

19. Make Whole Payments. If the payments provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) of this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Banks or Vision Bancshares whether under this Agreement or otherwise and combined with any other payment or benefit provided to Executive as a result of the Merger (the Payments), are subject to any tax under Section 4999 of the Code, or any similar federal or state law (an Excise Tax), then the Employer shall pay to the Executive an additional amount (the Make Whole Amount). The Make Whole Amount shall be equal to (a) the amount of the Excise Tax, plus (b) the aggregate amount of any interest, penalties, fines or additions to any tax which are imposed in connection with the imposition of such Excise Tax, plus (c) all income, excise and other applicable taxes imposed on the Executive under the laws of any Federal, state or local government or taxing authority by reason of the payments required under clause (a) and clause (b) and this clause (c). The time and manner of calculating any Make Whole Amount, as well as, the procedure for making any tax payments or the treatment of any inquiries by taxing authorities will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties.

EXHIBIT C-3

EMPLOYMENT AGREEMENT
ANDREW W. BRASWELL

This Agreement is entered into this 14th day of September, 2006, by and among Park National Corporation (hereinafter referred to as "Park"); Vision Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (hereinafter referred to either as the "Employer" or the "Bank") and Andrew W. Braswell (hereinafter referred to as the "Executive").

WHEREAS, the Executive currently serves as the Executive Vice President and Senior Lending Officer of the Bank and has entered into a change in control and non-competition agreement with the Bank and Vision Bancshares, Inc. ("Vision Bancshares") dated as of January 1, 2006 (the "Vision Agreement"); and

WHEREAS, Vision Bancshares and Park propose to enter into a Merger Agreement dated as of the same date hereof (the "Merger Agreement") providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the "Merger"); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to continue the Executive's employment relationship with the Bank after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger as further specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is agreed to by the parties, Park, the Employer and the Executive hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment and Duties. The Employer hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Employer upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The Executive will serve the Employer as its Executive Vice President and Senior Lending Officer. In such capacity, the Executive will report directly to the Employer's Chief Executive Officer (the "CEO") and have all powers, duties, and obligations as are normally associated with such position. Subject to the provisions of Section 5(f), the Executive will further perform such other duties and hold such other positions related to the business of the Employer as may from time to time be reasonably requested of him by the Board of Directors of the Employer (hereinafter referred to as the "Board"). The Executive will devote all of his skills, time, and attention solely and exclusively to said position and in furtherance of the business and interests of the Employer and will not directly or indirectly render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or organization without the prior written consent of the Board (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that the Executive will not be precluded from spending a reasonable amount of time managing his personal investments or participating in community, civic, charitable or similar activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with his responsibilities hereunder.

2. Term of Employment.

a. Original Term. This Agreement will be effective on the Effective Time and the term of employment will begin, or be deemed to have begun, on the Effective Time (the "Effective Date"). The Agreement will continue through the three-year period ending on the day before the third anniversary date of the Effective Date, subject, however, to prior termination or to extension, as herein provided.

b. Extension of Term. The Employer and the Executive agree that the Board will review the Executive's performance with the intent that, if the Executive's performance so warrants, the Employer may extend the term of this Agreement for additional time periods to be determined in the discretion of the Board. By _____, 20____, or, in the event that this Agreement is extended as provided for in this Section 2(b), within ninety (90) days preceding the end of any extension period, the Chairman of the Board (the Chairman) will notify the Executive of the Employer s decision whether or not to grant an extension of this Agreement for an additional time period. In the event that the Chairman fails to notify the Executive, on or before the date described in the preceding sentence, of the decision regarding the extension of the term of this Agreement, the term of this Agreement will automatically be extended for an additional one-year period.

3. Compensation.

a. Salary. The Executive will receive an initial annual base salary of One Hundred Forty Five Thousand Dollars ($145,000), which may be increased, but not decreased without the Executive's written consent, by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Employer's CEO, during the term of this Agreement. In the event that the Board increases the Executive's initial base salary, the amount of the initial base salary, together with any increase(s) will be his base salary (hereinafter referred to as the "Base Salary"). The Base Salary will be payable in accordance with the Employer's regular payroll payment practices.

b. Bonus. Each year during the term of this Agreement, the Executive may earn and receive a cash bonus in an amount and based upon the satisfaction of performance criteria to be determined in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board. All bonus payments to be made pursuant to this Section 3(b) will be made to the Executive in cash no later than the 15th day of the third calendar month following the fiscal year of the Employer for which such bonus is payable.

c. Equity Compensation. The Executive shall receive equity awards in the amounts and on the terms as determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Park.

d. Compensation for Special Services. In consideration of the Executive's willingness to (i) enter into this Agreement, (ii) apply his experience, skills and knowledge in continued employment with the Employer, and (iii) terminate the Vision Agreement, Park will pay or cause to be paid to the Executive, on the Effective Time, an amount equal to his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Executive, in consideration of the foregoing payment, hereby waives and releases all rights, benefits and payments specified in the Vision Agreement. The Executive acknowledges that he is entitled to no past, present or future benefit that may be contained in the Vision Agreement. As of the Effective Time, this Agreement shall supersede and replace the Vision Agreement and the Vision Agreement shall be null and void in all respects.

e. Salary Continuation Agreements. The Employer shall continue the Salary Continuation Agreement entered into between the Bank and the Executive on July 14, 2004 and as amended on June 26, 2006.

4. Fringe Benefits and Expenses.

a. Fringe Benefits. The Employer will provide the Executive with all health and life insurance coverages, disability programs, tax-qualified retirement plans, equity compensation programs, paid holidays, vacation, perquisites, and such other fringe benefits of employment as the Employer may provide from time to time to actively employed senior executives of the Employer. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Employer may discontinue or terminate at any time any employee benefit plan, policy or program, now existing or hereafter adopted, to the extent permitted by the terms of such plan, policy or program and will not be required to compensate the Executive for such discontinuance or termination. In addition to the general fringe benefits to be provided hereunder, the Executive shall be entitled to the following specific fringe benefits:

i. The Executive shall receive a monthly car allowance equal to Four Hundred Dollars ($400), plus mileage at the current Internal Revenue Service allowed reimbursement rate;

ii. The Employer shall pay all fees for any country or social club which the Executive joins (or which he is currently a member on the Effective Date) at the request of the Employer; and

iii. The Executive shall receive a monthly fringe benefit allowance equal to Four Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($425); provided that the Executive may only use such monthly benefit allowance to pay the Executive's portion of the premiums on any Employer sponsored welfare benefit plan.

b. Expenses. The Employer shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and miscellaneous expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with the performance of his business activities under this Agreement, in accordance with the existing policies and procedures of the Employer pertaining to reimbursement of such expenses to senior executives.

5. Termination of Employment.

Table of Contents

a. Death of Executive. The Executive's employment hereunder will terminate upon his death and the Executive's beneficiary (as designated by the Executive in writing with the Employer prior to his death) will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

In the absence of a beneficiary designation by the Executive, or, if the Executive's designated beneficiary does not survive him, payments and benefits described in this subparagraph will be paid to the Executive's estate.

b. Disability. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated by the Employer in the event of his Disability. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of the Executive to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months. During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of a Disability (Disability Period), the Executive will continue to receive his Base Salary at the rate then in effect for such period until his employment is terminated pursuant to this subparagraph; provided, however, that payments of Base Salary so made to the Executive will be reduced by the sum of the amounts, if any, that were payable to the Executive at or before the time of any such salary payment under any disability benefit plan or plans of the Employer and that were not previously applied to reduce any payment of Base Salary. In the event that the Employer elects to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to this subparagraph, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

c. Termination of Employment for Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment at any time for Cause if such Cause is determined by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Cause shall mean:

i. the Executive's willful misconduct or gross malfeasance, or an act or acts of gross negligence in the course of employment or any material breach of the Executive's obligations contained herein;

ii. the Executive's conviction, admission or confession of any felony or an unlawful act involving fraud or moral turpitude; or

iii. the intentional violation by the Executive of applicable state and federal banking regulations, rules and other statutes.

In the event that the Employer terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

d. Termination Without Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Executive. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of this Section 5, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination of employment for a period equal to the lesser of two (2) years or the remainder of the term of this Agreement (such period shall hereinafter be referred to as the Continuation Period); provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

iv. the Employer shall continue to provide medical, dental, life insurance and other welfare benefits (the Welfare Benefits) to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(d)(iv) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

e. Voluntary Termination by Executive. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for any reason whatsoever upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. In the event that the Executive terminates his employment voluntarily pursuant to this Section 5(e), the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

f. Good Reason Termination. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive will have Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Employer if any of the following events occurs (provided the Employer does not cure such event with ten (10) days following its receipt of notice of termination of employment from the Executive) and written notice is given by the Executive to the Employer within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the event:

(i) the reduction of the Executive's Base Salary or levels of benefits or supplemental compensation without compensation therefore;

(ii) a relocation of the Executive's principal place of employment to a location outside a 25-mile radius from the Executive's principal place of employment or a material increase in the amount of travel normally required of the Executive in connection with his employment without the Executive's prior written consent; or

(iii) a material and adverse change in the Executive's position with the Employer or failure to provide authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships consistent with the Executive's position; provided, however, that the parties agree that any change between the Executive's position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships immediately prior to the Merger Date and his position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships as of the Effective Date shall not constitute Good Reason under this Section 5(f); and, provided further, that it will not be a material and adverse change in the Executive's position if, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in Section 6), the Executive's position, responsibilities and reporting relationships are changed to account for the effect of the Change in Control but are otherwise consistent with the Executive's position immediately before the Change in Control.

In the event that the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to this Section 5(f), subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

C. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination (or the Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of any reduction described in Section 5(f)(i), whichever is higher) of employment for the Continuation Period; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

D. the Employer shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(f)(D) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

g. Failure to Extend Term of Agreement. If the Employer notifies the Executive that the Employer will not extend the term of this Agreement under the provisions of Section 2(b) hereof, the Executive's employment under this Agreement will terminate at the end of such term and the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full as of the date of termination of employment; and

6. Change In Control.

a. Occurrence of Change in Control. In the event that during the term of this Agreement, a Change in Control [as defined under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the regulations thereunder] occurs and, within thirty-six (36) months following such Change in Control, the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer or its successor for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of Section 5 or is terminated by the Executive under subparagraph f of Section 5, then in lieu of any other provision of

Section 5 of this Agreement, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Employer or its successor will pay to the Executive the following payments and benefits:

- i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused, (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. a single lump sum payment, payable on the tenth (10th) business day following the date of termination of employment, equal to two (2) times the total Base Salary and cash bonus paid or payable to the Executive with respect to the most recently completed fiscal year of the Employer; and

iv. the Employer or its successor shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of two (2) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer or its successor will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect.

b. Treatment of Taxes. If payments provided under this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Employer, constitute excess parachute payments as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code, the Employer or its successor will reduce the Executive's benefits under this Agreement and/or the other plans and programs maintained by the Employer (in a manner to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer or its successor and the Executive) so that the Executive's total parachute payment as defined in Code §280G(b)(2)(A) under this Agreement and all other plans and programs will be One Dollar ($1) less than the amount that would be an excess parachute payment. Treatment of taxes under this Section 6(b) will be made at the time and in the manner mutually agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. In addition, in the event of any subsequent inquiries regarding the treatment of tax payments under this Section 6, the parties will agree to the procedures to be followed in order to deal with such inquiries. This Section 6(b) shall not apply to any payments or benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) or to any other payment or benefit provided to the Executive as a result of the Merger.

7. Nonexclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any incentive, fringe benefit, deferred compensation, or other plan or program provided by the Employer and for which the Executive may qualify, nor will anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any other agreements with the Employer. Amounts that are vested benefits or that the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan or program of the Employer at or after the date of termination of employment, will be payable in accordance with such plan or program.

8. Noncompetition Covenant. The Executive agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and during the Continuation Period thereafter following his termination of employment [one (1) year in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 hereof], he shall not:

a. own greater than a 5% equity interest in any class of stock of, or manage, operate, participate in, be employed by, perform consulting services for, or otherwise be connected in any manner with, any bank holding company or any depository institution located within a 50-mile radius of Gulf Shores, Alabama or Panama City, Florida which is competitive with the business of Park, the Bank or Vision Bank, a Florida banking corporation (hereinafter collectively referred to with the Bank as the Banks);

b. solicit or induce any employee of the Banks or Park to terminate such employment or to become employees of any other person or entity;

c. solicit any customer, supplier, contractual party of Park or the Banks or any other person with whom each of them has business relations to cease doing business with Park or the Banks; or

d. in any way interfere with the relationship of the Banks or Park and any of their respective employees, customers, suppliers, contractual parties or any other person with whom each of them has business relations.

In the event of a breach by the Executive of any covenant set forth in this Section 8, the term of such covenant will be extended by the period of the duration of such breach and such covenant will survive any termination of this Agreement but only for the limited period of such extension.

The restrictions on competition provided herein shall supersede any restrictions on competition contained in any other agreement between the Employer and the Executive and may be enforced by Park, the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction, and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 8 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 8.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 8 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

9. Confidential Information. The Executive will hold in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of Park and the Banks, all secret or confidential information, knowledge, and data relating to Park and the Banks, that shall have been obtained by the Executive during his employment with the Employer and that is not public knowledge (other than by acts by the Executive or his representatives in violation of this Agreement). During and after termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer, the Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, communicate or divulge any such information, knowledge, or data to anyone other than Park or the Employer or those designated by them, unless the communication of such information, knowledge or data is required pursuant to a compulsory proceeding in which the Executive's failure to provide such information, knowledge, or data would subject the Executive to criminal or civil sanctions and then only with prior notice to the Board.

The restrictions imposed on the release of information described in this Section 9 may be enforced by Park or the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 9 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 9.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 9 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

10. Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to communicate to the Employer, promptly and fully, and to assign to the Employer all intellectual property developed or conceived solely by the Executive, or jointly with others, during the term of his employment, which are within the scope of either the Banks' business or Park's business, or which utilized Employer materials or information. For purposes of this Agreement, intellectual property means inventions, discoveries, business or technical innovations, creative or professional work product, or works of authorship. The Executive further agrees to execute all necessary papers and otherwise to assist the Employer, at the Employer's sole expense, to obtain patents, copyrights or other legal protection as the Employer deems fit. Any such intellectual property is to be the property of the Employer whether or not patented, copyrighted or published.

11. Assignment and Survivorship of Benefits. The rights and obligations of Park and the Employer under this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the successors and assigns of Park and the Employer. If the Employer shall at any time be merged or consolidated into, or with, any other company, or if substantially all of the assets of the Employer are transferred to another company, then the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the company resulting from such merger or consolidation or to which such assets have been transferred, and this provision will apply in the event of any subsequent merger, consolidation, or transfer.

13. Indemnification. The Executive shall be indemnified by the Employer to the extent provided in the case of officers under the Employer's Articles of Incorporation or Regulations, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law.

14. Taxes. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all payments required to be made hereunder by the Employer to the Executive will be subject to withholding of such amounts relating to taxes as the Employer may reasonably determine that it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulations. In lieu of withholding such amounts, in whole or in part, however, the Employer may, in its sole discretion, accept other provision for payment of taxes, provided that it is satisfied that all requirements of the law affecting its responsibilities to withhold such taxes have been satisfied.

15. Arbitration; Enforcement of Rights. Any controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, except with respect to Sections 8, 9 and 10, will be settled by arbitration in the city of Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator or arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

All legal and other fees and expenses, including, without limitation, any arbitration expenses, incurred by the Executive in connection with seeking in good faith to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided for in this Agreement, or in otherwise pursuing any right or claim, will be paid by the Employer, to the extent permitted by law, provided that the Executive is successful in whole or in part as to such claims as the result of litigation, arbitration, or settlement.

In the event that the Employer refuses or otherwise fails to make a payment when due and it is ultimately decided that the Executive is entitled to such payment, such payment will be increased to reflect an interest equivalent for the period of delay, compounded annually, equal to the prime or base lending rate used by Park National Bank, and in effect as of the date the payment was first due.

16. Section 409A Application. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (to the extent applicable) and the Employer agrees to interpret, apply and administer this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply with such requirements and without resulting in any diminution in the value of payments or benefits to the Executive. To the extent that any payments to be provided to the Executive under this Agreement result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code, and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then any such payments shall instead be transferred to a rabbi trust (which shall be created by the Employer or its successor, on terms reasonably acceptable to the Executive, as soon as administratively feasible following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Executive's right to such payment) and such amounts (together with earnings thereon in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement) shall be transferred from the trust to the Executive upon the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) any other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any of the non-cash benefits provided to the Executive under this Agreement, including but not limited to the Welfare Benefits, result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then the Employer or its successor shall, instead of providing such benefits to the Executive as set forth hereinabove, delay the provision of such benefits until the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) such other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code; provided, however, on such date the Employer shall be required to pay to the Executive in one lump sum an amount equal to the after-tax costs of the benefits for the period during which the provision of the benefits was delayed as a result of the application of Code Section 409A.

17. Governing Law/Captions/Severance. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with, and pursuant to, the laws of the State of Ohio. The captions of this Agreement will not be part of the provisions hereof, and will have no force or effect. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 17, the failure of any party to insist in any instance on the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right hereunder will not constitute a waiver of such provision or right in any other instance.

18. Entire Agreement/Amendment. This instrument contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and the parties have made no agreement, representations, or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties. However, by signing this Agreement, the Executive agrees without any further consideration, to consent to any amendment necessary to avoid penalties under Section 409A of the Code; provided that such amendment does not have a material adverse economic impact on the Executive.

19. Make Whole Payments. If the payments provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) of this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Banks or Vision Bancshares whether under this Agreement or otherwise and combined with any other payment or benefit provided to Executive as a result of the Merger (the Payments), are subject to any tax under Section 4999 of the Code, or any similar federal or state law (an Excise Tax), then the Employer shall pay to the Executive an additional amount (the Make Whole Amount). The Make Whole Amount shall be equal to (a) the amount of the Excise Tax, plus (b) the aggregate amount of any interest, penalties, fines or additions to any tax which are imposed in connection with the imposition of such Excise Tax, plus (c) all income, excise and other applicable taxes imposed on the Executive under the laws of any Federal, state or local government or taxing authority by reason of the payments required under clause (a) and clause (b) and this clause (c). The time and manner of calculating any Make Whole Amount, as well as, the procedure for making any tax payments or the treatment of any inquiries by taxing authorities will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties.

EXHIBIT C-4

JOEY W. GINN

This Agreement is entered into this 14th day of September, 2006, by and among Park National Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Park); Vision Bank, a Florida banking corporation (hereinafter referred to either as the Employer or the Bank) and Joey W. Ginn (hereinafter referred to as the Executive).

WHEREAS, the Executive currently serves as the President of the Bank and has entered into a change in control and non-competition agreement with the Bank and Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision Bancshares) dated as of January 1, 2006 (the Vision Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Vision Bancshares and Park propose to enter into a Merger Agreement dated as of the same date hereof (the Merger Agreement) providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to continue the Executive's employment relationship with the Bank after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger as further specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is agreed to by the parties, Park, the Employer and the Executive hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment and Duties. The Employer hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Employer upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The Executive will serve the Employer as its President. In such capacity, the Executive will report directly to the Employer's Chief Executive Officer (the CEO) and have all powers, duties, and obligations as are normally associated with such position. Subject to the provisions of Section 5(f), the Executive will further perform such other duties and hold such other positions related to the business of the Employer as may from time to time be reasonably requested of him by the Board of Directors of the Employer (hereinafter referred to as the Board). The Executive will devote all of his skills, time, and attention solely and exclusively to said position and in furtherance of the business and interests of the Employer and will not directly or indirectly render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or organization without the prior written consent of the Board (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that the Executive will not be precluded from spending a reasonable amount of time managing his personal investments or participating in community, civic, charitable or similar activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with his responsibilities hereunder.

2. Term of Employment.

a. Original Term. This Agreement will be effective on the Effective Time and the term of employment will begin, or be deemed to have begun, on the Effective Time (the Effective Date). The Agreement will continue through the three-year period ending on the day before the third anniversary date of the Effective Date, subject, however, to prior termination or to extension, as herein provided.

b. Extension of Term. The Employer and the Executive agree that the Board will review the Executive's performance with the intent that, if the Executive's performance so warrants, the Employer may extend the term of this Agreement for additional time periods to be determined in the discretion of the Board. By , 20 , or, in the event that this Agreement is extended as provided for in this Section 2(b), within ninety (90) days preceding the end of any extension period, the Chairman of the Board (the Chairman) will notify the Executive of the Employer's decision whether or not to grant an extension of this Agreement for an additional time period. In the event that the Chairman fails to notify the Executive, on or before the date described in the preceding sentence, of the decision regarding the extension of the term of this Agreement, the term of this Agreement will automatically be extended for an additional one-year period.

a. Salary. The Executive will receive an initial annual base salary of One Hundred Forty-Five Thousand Dollars ($145,000), which may be increased, but not decreased without the Executive's written consent, by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Employer's CEO, during the term of this Agreement. In the event that the Board increases the Executive's initial base salary, the amount of the initial base salary, together with any increase(s) will be his base salary (hereinafter referred to as the "Base Salary"). The Base Salary will be payable in accordance with the Employer's regular payroll payment practices.

b. Bonus. Each year during the term of this Agreement, the Executive may earn and receive a cash bonus in an amount and based upon the satisfaction of performance criteria to be determined in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board. All bonus payments to be made pursuant to this Section 3(b) will be made to the Executive in cash no later than the 15th day of the third calendar month following the fiscal year of the Employer for which such bonus is payable.

c. Equity Compensation. The Executive shall receive equity awards in the amounts and on the terms as determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Park.

d. Compensation for Special Services. In consideration of the Executive's willingness to (i) enter into this Agreement, (ii) apply his experience, skills and knowledge in continued employment with the Employer, and (iii) terminate the Vision Agreement, Park will pay or cause to be paid to the Executive, on the Effective Time, an amount equal to his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Executive, in consideration of the foregoing payment, hereby waives and releases all rights, benefits and payments specified in the Vision Agreement. The Executive acknowledges that he is entitled to no past, present or future benefit that may be contained in the Vision Agreement. As of the Effective Time, this Agreement shall supersede and replace the Vision Agreement and the Vision Agreement shall be null and void in all respects.

e. Salary Continuation Agreements. The Employer shall continue the Salary Continuation Agreement entered into between the Bank and the Executive on July 14, 2004 and as amended on June 26, 2006.

4. Fringe Benefits and Expenses.

a. Fringe Benefits. The Employer will provide the Executive with all health and life insurance coverages, disability programs, tax-qualified retirement plans, equity compensation programs, paid holidays, vacation, perquisites, and such other fringe benefits of employment as the Employer may provide from time to time to actively employed senior executives of the Employer. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Employer may discontinue or terminate at any time any employee benefit plan, policy or program, now existing or hereafter adopted, to the extent permitted by the terms of such plan, policy or program and will not be required to compensate the Executive for such discontinuance or termination. In addition to the general fringe benefits to be provided hereunder, the Executive shall be entitled to the following specific fringe benefits:

i. The Executive shall receive a monthly car allowance equal to Five Hundred Dollars ($500), plus mileage at the current Internal Revenue Service allowed reimbursement rate;

ii. The Employer shall pay all fees for any country or social club which the Executive joins (or which he is currently a member on the Effective Date) at the request of the Employer; and

iii. The Executive shall receive a monthly fringe benefit allowance equal to Four Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($425); provided that the Executive may only use such monthly benefit allowance to pay the Executive's portion of the premiums on any Employer sponsored welfare benefit plan.

b. Expenses. The Employer shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and miscellaneous expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with the performance of his business activities under this Agreement, in accordance with the existing policies and procedures of the Employer pertaining to reimbursement of such expenses to senior executives.

5. Termination of Employment.

a. Death of Executive. The Executive's employment hereunder will terminate upon his death and the Executive's beneficiary (as designated by the Executive in writing with the Employer prior to his death) will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

In the absence of a beneficiary designation by the Executive, or, if the Executive's designated beneficiary does not survive him, payments and benefits described in this subparagraph will be paid to the Executive's estate.

b. Disability. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated by the Employer in the event of his Disability. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of the Executive to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months. During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of a Disability (Disability Period), the Executive will continue to receive his Base Salary at the rate then in effect for such period until his employment is terminated pursuant to this subparagraph; provided, however, that payments of Base Salary so made to the Executive will be reduced by the sum of the amounts, if any, that were payable to the Executive at or before the time of any such salary payment under any disability benefit plan or plans of the Employer and that were not previously applied to reduce any payment of Base Salary. In the event that the Employer elects to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to this subparagraph, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

c. Termination of Employment for Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment at any time for Cause if such Cause is determined by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Cause shall mean:

i. the Executive's willful misconduct or gross malfeasance, or an act or acts of gross negligence in the course of employment or any material breach of the Executive's obligations contained herein;

ii. the Executive's conviction, admission or confession of any felony or an unlawful act involving fraud or moral turpitude; or

iii. the intentional violation by the Executive of applicable state and federal banking regulations, rules and other statutes.

In the event that the Employer terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment; and

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

d. Termination Without Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Executive. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of this Section 5, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination of employment for a period equal to the lesser of two (2) years or the remainder of the term of this Agreement (such period shall hereinafter be referred to as the Continuation Period); provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

iv. the Employer shall continue to provide medical, dental, life insurance and other welfare benefits (the Welfare Benefits) to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(d)(iv) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

e. Voluntary Termination by Executive. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for any reason whatsoever upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. In the event that the Executive terminates his employment voluntarily pursuant to this Section 5(e), the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

f. Good Reason Termination. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive will have Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Employer if any of the following events occurs (provided the Employer does not cure such event with ten (10) days following its receipt of notice of termination of employment from the Executive) and written notice is given by the Executive to the Employer within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the event:

(i) the reduction of the Executive's Base Salary or levels of benefits or supplemental compensation without compensation therefore;

(ii) a relocation of the Executive's principal place of employment to a location outside a 25-mile radius from the Executive's principal place of employment or a material increase in the amount of travel normally required of the Executive in connection with his employment without the Executive's prior written consent; or

(iii) a material and adverse change in the Executive's position with the Employer or failure to provide authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships consistent with the Executive's position; provided, however, that the parties agree that any change between the Executive's position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships immediately prior to the Merger Date and his position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships as of the Effective Date shall not constitute Good Reason under this Section 5(f); and, provided further, that it will not be a material and adverse change in the Executive's position if, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in Section 6), the Executive's position, responsibilities and reporting relationships are changed to account for the effect of the Change in Control but are otherwise consistent with the Executive's position immediately before the Change in Control.

In the event that the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to this Section 5(f), subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

C. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination (or the Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of any reduction described in Section 5(f)(i), whichever is higher) of employment for the Continuation Period; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

D. the Employer shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(f)(D) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

g. Failure to Extend Term of Agreement. If the Employer notifies the Executive that the Employer will not extend the term of this Agreement under the provisions of Section 2(b) hereof, the Executive's employment under this Agreement will terminate at the end of such term and the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

6. Change In Control.

a. Occurrence of Change in Control. In the event that during the term of this Agreement, a Change in Control [as defined under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the regulations

thereunder] occurs and, within thirty-six (36) months following such Change in Control, the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer or its successor for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of Section 5 or is terminated by the Executive under subparagraph f of Section 5, then in lieu of any other provision of Section 5 of this Agreement, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Employer or its successor will pay to the Executive the following payments and benefits:

- i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused, (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;
- ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;
- iii. a single lump sum payment, payable on the tenth (10th) business day following the date of termination of employment, equal to two (2) times the total Base Salary and cash bonus paid or payable to the Executive with respect to the most recently completed fiscal year of the Employer; and
- iv. the Employer or its successor shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of two (2) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer or its successor will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect.

b. Treatment of Taxes. If payments provided under this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Employer, constitute excess parachute payments as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code, the Employer or its successor will reduce the Executive's benefits under this Agreement and/or the other plans and programs maintained by the Employer (in a manner to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer or its successor and the Executive) so that the Executive's total parachute payment as defined in Code §280G(b)(2)(A) under this Agreement and all other plans and programs will be One Dollar ($1) less than the amount that would be an excess parachute payment. Treatment of taxes under this Section 6(b) will be made at the time and in the manner mutually agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. In addition, in the event of any subsequent inquiries regarding the treatment of tax payments under this Section 6, the parties will agree to the procedures to be followed in order to deal with such inquiries. This Section 6(b) shall not apply to any payments or benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) or to any other payment or benefit provided to the Executive as a result of the Merger.

7. Nonexclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any incentive, fringe benefit, deferred compensation, or other plan or program provided by the Employer and for which the Executive may qualify, nor will anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any other agreements with the Employer. Amounts that are vested benefits or that the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan or program of the Employer at or after the date of termination of employment, will be payable in accordance with such plan or program.

8. Noncompetition Covenant. The Executive agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and during the Continuation Period thereafter following his termination of employment [one (1) year in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 hereof], he shall not:

- a. own greater than a 5% equity interest in any class of stock of, or manage, operate, participate in, be employed by, perform consulting services for, or otherwise be connected in any manner with, any bank holding company or any depository institution located within a 50-mile radius of Gulf Shores, Alabama or Panama City, Florida which is competitive with the business of Park, the Bank or Vision Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (hereinafter collectively referred to with the Bank as the Banks);

b. solicit or induce any employee of the Banks or Park to terminate such employment or to become employees of any other person or entity;

c. solicit any customer, supplier, contractual party of Park or the Banks or any other person with whom each of them has business relations to cease doing business with Park or the Banks; or

d. in any way interfere with the relationship of the Banks or Park and any of their respective employees, customers, suppliers, contractual parties or any other person with whom each of them has business relations.

In the event of a breach by the Executive of any covenant set forth in this Section 8, the term of such covenant will be extended by the period of the duration of such breach and such covenant will survive any termination of this Agreement but only for the limited period of such extension.

The restrictions on competition provided herein shall supersede any restrictions on competition contained in any other agreement between the Employer and the Executive and may be enforced by Park, the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction, and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 8 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 8.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 8 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

9. Confidential Information. The Executive will hold in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of Park and the Banks, all secret or confidential information, knowledge, and data relating to Park and the Banks, that shall have been obtained by the Executive during his employment with the Employer and that is not public knowledge (other than by acts by the Executive or his representatives in violation of this Agreement). During and after termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer, the Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, communicate or divulge any such information, knowledge, or data to anyone other than Park or the Employer or those designated by them, unless the communication of such information, knowledge or data is required pursuant to a compulsory proceeding in which the Executive's failure to provide such information, knowledge, or data would subject the Executive to criminal or civil sanctions and then only with prior notice to the Board.

The restrictions imposed on the release of information described in this Section 9 may be enforced by Park or the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 9 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 9.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 9 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

10. Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to communicate to the Employer, promptly and fully, and to assign to the Employer all intellectual property developed or conceived solely by the Executive, or jointly with others, during the term of his employment, which are within the scope of either the Banks' business or Park's business, or which utilized Employer materials or information. For purposes of this Agreement, intellectual property means inventions, discoveries, business or technical innovations, creative or professional work product, or works of authorship. The Executive further agrees to execute all necessary papers and otherwise to assist the Employer, at the Employer's sole expense, to obtain patents, copyrights or other legal protection as the Employer deems fit. Any such intellectual property is to be the property of the Employer whether or not patented, copyrighted or published.

11. Assignment and Survivorship of Benefits. The rights and obligations of Park and the Employer under this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the successors and assigns of Park and the Employer. If the Employer shall at any time be merged or consolidated into, or with, any other company, or if substantially all of the assets of the Employer are transferred to another company, then the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the company resulting from such merger or consolidation or to which such assets have been transferred, and this provision will apply in the event of any subsequent merger, consolidation, or transfer.

13. Indemnification. The Executive shall be indemnified by the Employer to the extent provided in the case of officers under the Employer's Articles of Incorporation or Regulations, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law.

14. Taxes. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all payments required to be made hereunder by the Employer to the Executive will be subject to withholding of such amounts relating to taxes as the Employer may reasonably determine that it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulations. In lieu of withholding such amounts, in whole or in part, however, the Employer may, in its sole discretion, accept other provision for payment of taxes, provided that it is satisfied that all requirements of the law affecting its responsibilities to withhold such taxes have been satisfied.

15. Arbitration; Enforcement of Rights. Any controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, except with respect to Sections 8, 9 and 10, will be settled by arbitration in the city of Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator or arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

All legal and other fees and expenses, including, without limitation, any arbitration expenses, incurred by the Executive in connection with seeking in good faith to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided for in this Agreement, or in otherwise pursuing any right or claim, will be paid by the Employer, to the extent permitted by law, provided that the Executive is successful in whole or in part as to such claims as the result of litigation, arbitration, or settlement.

In the event that the Employer refuses or otherwise fails to make a payment when due and it is ultimately decided that the Executive is entitled to such payment, such payment will be increased to reflect an interest equivalent for the period of delay, compounded annually, equal to the prime or base lending rate used by Park National Bank, and in effect as of the date the payment was first due.

16. Section 409A Application. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (to the extent applicable) and the Employer agrees to interpret, apply and administer this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply with such requirements and without resulting in any diminution in the value of payments or benefits to the Executive. To the extent that any payments to be provided to the Executive under this Agreement result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code, and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then any such payments shall instead be transferred to a rabbi trust (which shall be created by the Employer or its successor, on terms reasonably acceptable to the Executive, as soon as administratively feasible following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Executive's right to such payment) and such amounts (together with earnings thereon in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement) shall be transferred from the trust to the Executive upon the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) any other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any of the non-cash benefits provided to the Executive under this Agreement, including but not limited to the Welfare Benefits, result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then the Employer or its successor shall, instead of providing such benefits to the Executive as set forth hereinabove, delay the provision of such benefits until the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) such other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code; provided, however, on such date the Employer shall be required to pay to the Executive in one lump sum an amount equal to the after-tax costs of the benefits for the period during which the provision of the benefits was delayed as a result of the application of Code Section 409A.

17. Governing Law/Captions/Severance. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with, and pursuant to, the laws of the State of Ohio. The captions of this Agreement will not be part of the provisions hereof, and will have no force or effect. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 17, the failure of any party to insist in any instance on the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right hereunder will not constitute a waiver of such provision or right in any other instance.

18. Entire Agreement/Amendment. This instrument contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and the parties have made no agreement, representations, or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties. However, by signing this Agreement, the Executive agrees without any further consideration, to consent to any amendment necessary to avoid penalties under Section 409A of the Code; provided that such amendment does not have a material adverse economic impact on the Executive.

19. Make Whole Payments. If the payments provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) of this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Banks or Vision Bancshares whether under this Agreement or otherwise and combined with any other payment or benefit provided to Executive as a result of the Merger (the Payments), are subject to any tax under Section 4999 of the Code, or any similar federal or state law (an Excise Tax), then the Employer shall pay to the Executive an additional amount (the Make Whole Amount). The Make Whole Amount shall be equal to (a) the amount of the Excise Tax, plus (b) the aggregate amount of any interest, penalties, fines or additions to any tax which are imposed in connection with the imposition of such Excise Tax, plus (c) all income, excise and other applicable taxes imposed on the Executive under the laws of any Federal, state or local government or taxing authority by reason of the payments required under clause (a) and clause (b) and this clause (c). The time and manner of calculating any Make Whole Amount, as well as, the procedure for making any tax payments or the treatment of any inquiries by taxing authorities will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties.

EXHIBIT C-5

ROBERT S. MCKEAN

This Agreement is entered into this 14th day of September, 2006, by and among Park National Corporation (hereinafter referred to as Park); Vision Bank, an Alabama banking corporation (hereinafter referred to either as the Employer or the Bank) and Robert S. McKean (hereinafter referred to as the Executive).

WHEREAS, the Executive currently serves as the President the Bank and has entered into a change in control and non-competition agreement with the Bank and Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision Bancshares) dated as of January 1, 2006 (the Vision Agreement); and

WHEREAS, Vision Bancshares and Park propose to enter into a Merger Agreement dated as of the same date hereof (the Merger Agreement) providing for the merger of Vision Bancshares with and into Park (the Merger); and

WHEREAS, the parties hereto desire to continue the Executive s employment relationship with the Bank after the Effective Time (as defined in the Merger Agreement) of the Merger as further specified herein.

NOW, THEREFORE, and in consideration of the mutual covenants herein contained and other valuable consideration, the receipt and adequacy of which is agreed to by the parties, Park, the Employer and the Executive hereby mutually agree as follows:

1. Employment and Duties. The Employer hereby employs the Executive and the Executive hereby accepts employment with the Employer upon the terms and conditions hereinafter set forth. The Executive will serve the Employer as its President. In such capacity, the Executive will report directly to the Employer s Chief Executive Officer (the CEO) and have all powers, duties, and obligations as are normally associated with such position. Subject to the provisions of Section 5(f), the Executive will further perform such other duties and hold such other positions related to the business of the Employer as may from time to time be reasonably requested of him by the Board of Directors of the Employer (hereinafter referred to as the Board). The Executive will devote all of his skills, time, and attention solely and exclusively to said position and in furtherance of the business and interests of the Employer and will not directly or indirectly render any services of a business, commercial or professional nature to any person or organization without the prior written consent of the Board (which consent will not be unreasonably withheld or delayed); provided, however, that the Executive will not be precluded from spending a reasonable amount of time managing his personal investments or participating in community, civic, charitable or similar activities so long as such activities do not unreasonably interfere with his responsibilities hereunder.

2. Term of Employment.

a. Original Term. This Agreement will be effective on the Effective Time and the term of employment will begin, or be deemed to have begun, on the Effective Time (the Effective Date). The Agreement will continue through the three-year period ending on the day before the third anniversary date of the Effective Date, subject, however, to prior termination or to extension, as herein provided.

b. Extension of Term. The Employer and the Executive agree that the Board will review the Executive s performance with the intent that, if the Executive s performance so warrants, the Employer may extend the term of this Agreement for additional time periods to be determined in the discretion of the Board. By , 20 , or, in the event that this Agreement is extended as provided for in this Section 2(b), within ninety (90) days preceding the end of any extension period, the Chairman of the Board (the Chairman) will notify the Executive of the Employer's decision whether or not to grant an extension of this Agreement for an additional time period. In the event that the Chairman fails to notify the Executive, on or before the date described in the preceding sentence, of the decision regarding the extension of the term of this Agreement, the term of this Agreement will automatically be extended for an additional one-year period.

3. Compensation.

a. Salary. The Executive will receive an initial annual base salary of One Hundred Fifty Thousand Dollars ($150,000), which may be increased, but not decreased without the Executive's written consent, by the Board, upon the recommendation of the Employer's CEO, during the term of this Agreement. In the event that the Board increases the Executive's initial base salary, the amount of the initial base salary, together with any increase(s) will be his base salary (hereinafter referred to as the "Base Salary"). The Base Salary will be payable in accordance with the Employer's regular payroll payment practices.

b. Bonus. Each year during the term of this Agreement, the Executive may earn and receive a cash bonus in an amount and based upon the satisfaction of performance criteria to be determined in the discretion of the Compensation Committee of the Board. All bonus payments to be made pursuant to this Section 3(b) will be made to the Executive in cash no later than the 15th day of the third calendar month following the fiscal year of the Employer for which such bonus is payable.

c. Equity Compensation. The Executive shall receive equity awards in the amounts and on the terms as determined from time to time by the Compensation Committee of the Board of Directors of Park.

d. Compensation for Special Services. In consideration of the Executive's willingness to (i) enter into this Agreement, (ii) apply his experience, skills and knowledge in continued employment with the Employer, and (iii) terminate the Vision Agreement, Park will pay or cause to be paid to the Executive, on the Effective Time, an amount equal to his annual base salary in effect immediately prior to the Effective Time. The Executive, in consideration of the foregoing payment, hereby waives and releases all rights, benefits and payments specified in the Vision Agreement. The Executive acknowledges that he is entitled to no past, present or future benefit that may be contained in the Vision Agreement. As of the Effective Time, this Agreement shall supersede and replace the Vision Agreement and the Vision Agreement shall be null and void in all respects.

e. Salary Continuation Agreements. The Employer shall continue the Salary Continuation Agreement entered into between the Bank and the Executive on July 14, 2004 and as amended on June 26, 2006.

4. Fringe Benefits and Expenses.

a. Fringe Benefits. The Employer will provide the Executive with all health and life insurance coverages, disability programs, tax-qualified retirement plans, equity compensation programs, paid holidays, vacation, perquisites, and such other fringe benefits of employment as the Employer may provide from time to time to actively employed senior executives of the Employer. Notwithstanding any provision contained in this Agreement, the Employer may discontinue or terminate at any time any employee benefit plan, policy or program, now existing or hereafter adopted, to the extent permitted by the terms of such plan, policy or program and will not be required to compensate the Executive for such discontinuance or termination. In addition to the general fringe benefits to be provided hereunder, the Executive shall be entitled to the following specific fringe benefits:

i. The Executive shall receive a monthly car allowance equal to Four Hundred Dollars ($400), plus mileage at the current Internal Revenue Service allowed reimbursement rate;

ii. The Employer shall pay all fees for any country or social club which the Executive joins (or which he is currently a member on the Effective Date) at the request of the Employer; and

iii. The Executive shall receive a monthly fringe benefit allowance equal to Four Hundred Twenty-Five Dollars ($425); provided that the Executive may only use such monthly benefit allowance to pay the Executive's portion of the premiums on any Employer sponsored welfare benefit plan.

b. Expenses. The Employer shall reimburse the Executive for all reasonable travel, entertainment and miscellaneous expenses incurred by the Executive in connection with the performance of his business activities under this Agreement, in accordance with the existing policies and procedures of the Employer pertaining to reimbursement of such expenses to senior executives.

5. Termination of Employment.

a. Death of Executive. The Executive's employment hereunder will terminate upon his death and the Executive's beneficiary (as designated by the Executive in writing with the Employer prior to his death) will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

In the absence of a beneficiary designation by the Executive, or, if the Executive's designated beneficiary does not survive him, payments and benefits described in this subparagraph will be paid to the Executive's estate.

b. Disability. The Executive's employment hereunder may be terminated by the Employer in the event of his Disability. For purposes of this Agreement, Disability means the inability of the Executive to engage in any substantial gainful activity by reason of any medically determinable physical or mental impairment which can be expected to result in death or can be expected to last for a continuous period of not less than twelve (12) months. During any period that the Executive fails to perform his duties hereunder as a result of a Disability (Disability Period), the Executive will continue to receive his Base Salary at the rate then in effect for such period until his employment is terminated pursuant to this subparagraph; provided, however, that payments of Base Salary so made to the Executive will be reduced by the sum of the amounts, if any, that were payable to the Executive at or before the time of any such salary payment under any disability benefit plan or plans of the Employer and that were not previously applied to reduce any payment of Base Salary. In the event that the Employer elects to terminate the Executive's employment pursuant to this subparagraph, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

c. Termination of Employment for Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment at any time for Cause if such Cause is determined by the Board. For purposes of this Agreement, the term Cause shall mean:

i. the Executive's willful misconduct or gross malfeasance, or an act or acts of gross negligence in the course of employment or any material breach of the Executive's obligations contained herein;

ii. the Executive's conviction, admission or confession of any felony or an unlawful act involving fraud or moral turpitude; or

iii. the intentional violation by the Executive of applicable state and federal banking regulations, rules and other statutes.

In the event that the Employer terminates the Executive's employment for Cause, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment; and

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

d. Termination Without Cause. The Employer may terminate the Executive's employment for any reason upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Executive. If the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of this Section 5, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment;

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

iii. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination of employment for a period equal to the lesser of two (2) years or the remainder of the term of this Agreement (such period shall hereinafter be referred to as the Continuation Period); provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

iv. the Employer shall continue to provide medical, dental, life insurance and other welfare benefits (the Welfare Benefits) to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(d)(iv) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

e. Voluntary Termination by Executive. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for any reason whatsoever upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. In the event that the Executive terminates his employment voluntarily pursuant to this Section 5(e), the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed—all, as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

f. Good Reason Termination. The Executive may resign and terminate his employment with the Employer for Good Reason upon not less than thirty (30) days prior written notice to the Employer. For purposes of this Agreement, the Executive will have Good Reason to terminate his employment with the Employer if any of the following events occurs (provided the Employer does not cure such event with ten (10) days following its receipt of notice of termination of employment from the Executive) and written notice is given by the Executive to the Employer within sixty (60) days of the occurrence of the event:

(i) the reduction of the Executive's Base Salary or levels of benefits or supplemental compensation without compensation therefore;

(ii) a relocation of the Executive's principal place of employment to a location outside a 25-mile radius from the Executive's principal place of employment or a material increase in the amount of travel normally required of the Executive in connection with his employment without the Executive's prior written consent; or

(iii) a material and adverse change in the Executive's position with the Employer or failure to provide authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships consistent with the Executive's position; provided, however, that the parties agree that any change between the Executive's position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships immediately prior to the Merger Date and his position, authority, responsibilities and reporting relationships as of the Effective Date shall not constitute Good Reason under this Section 5(f); and, provided further, that it will not be a material and adverse change in the Executive's position if, in connection with a Change in Control (as defined in Section 6), the Executive's position, responsibilities and reporting relationships are changed to account for the effect of the Change in Control but are otherwise consistent with the Executive's position immediately before the Change in Control.

In the event that the Executive terminates his employment for Good Reason pursuant to this Section 5(f), subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

A. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;

B. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;

C. continuation of the Executive's Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of his termination (or the Base Salary as in effect immediately prior to the date of any reduction described in Section 5(f)(i), whichever is higher) of employment for the Continuation Period; provided, that these payments will be made in separate, equal payments no less frequently than monthly over the Continuation Period; and

D. the Employer shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for the Continuation Period on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Welfare Benefits otherwise receivable by the Executive pursuant to this Section 5(f)(D) shall be reduced or eliminated to the extent the Executive becomes eligible to receive comparable Welfare Benefits at substantially similar costs from another employer.

g. Failure to Extend Term of Agreement. If the Employer notifies the Executive that the Employer will not extend the term of this Agreement under the provisions of Section 2(b) hereof, the Executive's employment under this Agreement will terminate at the end of such term and the Executive will be entitled to the following payments and benefits:

i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full as of the date of termination of employment; and

ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs.

6. Change In Control.

a. Occurrence of Change in Control. In the event that during the term of this Agreement, a Change in Control [as defined under Section 409A of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the Code) and the regulations

thereunder] occurs and, within thirty-six (36) months following such Change in Control, the Executive's employment is terminated by the Employer or its successor for any reason other than the reasons set forth in subparagraphs a, b or c of Section 5 or is terminated by the Executive under subparagraph f of Section 5, then in lieu of any other provision of Section 5 of this Agreement, subject to the Executive's compliance with Sections 8 and 9 of this Agreement, the Employer or its successor will pay to the Executive the following payments and benefits:

- i. any Base Salary that is accrued but unpaid, the value of any vacation that is accrued but unused, (determined by dividing Base Salary by 365 and multiplying such amount by the number of unused vacation days), and any business expenses that are unreimbursed in full, as of the date of termination of employment;
- ii. any rights and benefits (if any) provided under plans and programs of the Employer, determined in accordance with the applicable terms and provisions of such plans and programs;
- iii. a single lump sum payment, payable on the tenth (10th) business day following the date of termination of employment, equal to two (2) times the total Base Salary and cash bonus paid or payable to the Executive with respect to the most recently completed fiscal year of the Employer; and
- iv. the Employer or its successor shall continue to provide the Welfare Benefits to the Executive, his spouse and his eligible dependents for a period of two (2) years following the date of termination of the Executive's employment on the same basis and at the same cost as such benefits were provided to the Executive immediately prior to his date of termination; provided that if the terms of the plans governing such Welfare Benefits do not permit such coverage, the Employer or its successor will provide such Welfare Benefits to the Executive with the same after tax effect.

b. Treatment of Taxes. If payments provided under this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Employer, constitute excess parachute payments as defined in Section 280G(b) of the Code, the Employer or its successor will reduce the Executive's benefits under this Agreement and/or the other plans and programs maintained by the Employer (in a manner to be mutually agreed upon between the Employer or its successor and the Executive) so that the Executive's total parachute payment as defined in Code §280G(b)(2)(A) under this Agreement and all other plans and programs will be One Dollar ($1) less than the amount that would be an excess parachute payment. Treatment of taxes under this Section 6(b) will be made at the time and in the manner mutually agreed to by the parties to this Agreement. In addition, in the event of any subsequent inquiries regarding the treatment of tax payments under this Section 6, the parties will agree to the procedures to be followed in order to deal with such inquiries. This Section 6(b) shall not apply to any payments or benefits provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) or to any other payment or benefit provided to the Executive as a result of the Merger.

7. Nonexclusivity of Rights. Nothing in this Agreement will prevent or limit the Executive's continuing or future participation in any incentive, fringe benefit, deferred compensation, or other plan or program provided by the Employer and for which the Executive may qualify, nor will anything herein limit or otherwise affect such rights as the Executive may have under any other agreements with the Employer. Amounts that are vested benefits or that the Executive is otherwise entitled to receive under any plan or program of the Employer at or after the date of termination of employment, will be payable in accordance with such plan or program.

8. Noncompetition Covenant. The Executive agrees that, during the term of this Agreement and during the Continuation Period thereafter following his termination of employment [one (1) year in the event that the Executive's employment is terminated pursuant to the provisions of Section 6 hereof], he shall not:

- a. own greater than a 5% equity interest in any class of stock of, or manage, operate, participate in, be employed by, perform consulting services for, or otherwise be connected in any manner with, any bank holding company or any depository institution located within a 50-mile radius of Gulf Shores, Alabama or Panama City, Florida which is competitive with the business of Park, the Bank or Vision Bank, a Florida banking corporation (hereinafter collectively referred to with the Bank as the Banks);

b. solicit or induce any employee of the Banks or Park to terminate such employment or to become employees of any other person or entity;

c. solicit any customer, supplier, contractual party of Park or the Banks or any other person with whom each of them has business relations to cease doing business with Park or the Banks; or

d. in any way interfere with the relationship of the Banks or Park and any of their respective employees, customers, suppliers, contractual parties or any other person with whom each of them has business relations.

In the event of a breach by the Executive of any covenant set forth in this Section 8, the term of such covenant will be extended by the period of the duration of such breach and such covenant will survive any termination of this Agreement but only for the limited period of such extension.

The restrictions on competition provided herein shall supersede any restrictions on competition contained in any other agreement between the Employer and the Executive and may be enforced by Park, the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction, and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 8 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 8.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 8 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

9. Confidential Information. The Executive will hold in a fiduciary capacity, for the benefit of Park and the Banks, all secret or confidential information, knowledge, and data relating to Park and the Banks, that shall have been obtained by the Executive during his employment with the Employer and that is not public knowledge (other than by acts by the Executive or his representatives in violation of this Agreement). During and after termination of the Executive's employment with the Employer, the Executive will not, without the prior written consent of the Board, communicate or divulge any such information, knowledge, or data to anyone other than Park or the Employer or those designated by them, unless the communication of such information, knowledge or data is required pursuant to a compulsory proceeding in which the Executive's failure to provide such information, knowledge, or data would subject the Executive to criminal or civil sanctions and then only with prior notice to the Board.

The restrictions imposed on the release of information described in this Section 9 may be enforced by Park or the Employer and/or any successor thereto, by an action to recover payments made under this Agreement, an action for injunction and/or an action for damages. The provisions of this Section 9 constitute an essential element of this Agreement, without which neither Park nor the Employer would have entered into this Agreement. Notwithstanding any other remedy available to Park or the Employer at law or at equity, the parties hereto agree that Park, the Employer or any successor thereto, will have the right, at any and all times, to seek injunctive relief in order to enforce the terms and conditions of this Section 9.

If the scope of any restriction contained in this Section 9 is too broad to permit enforcement of such restriction to its fullest extent, then such restriction will be enforced to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Executive hereby consents and agrees that such scope may be judicially modified accordingly in any proceeding brought to enforce such restriction.

10. Intellectual Property. The Executive agrees to communicate to the Employer, promptly and fully, and to assign to the Employer all intellectual property developed or conceived solely by the Executive, or jointly with others, during the term of his employment, which are within the scope of either the Banks' business or Park's business, or which utilized Employer materials or information. For purposes of this Agreement, intellectual property means inventions, discoveries, business or technical innovations, creative or professional work product, or works of authorship. The Executive further agrees to execute all necessary papers and otherwise to assist the Employer, at the Employer's sole expense, to obtain patents, copyrights or other legal protection as the Employer deems fit. Any such intellectual property is to be the property of the Employer whether or not patented, copyrighted or published.

11. Assignment and Survivorship of Benefits. The rights and obligations of Park and the Employer under this Agreement will inure to the benefit of, and will be binding upon, the successors and assigns of Park and the

Employer. If the Employer shall at any time be merged or consolidated into, or with, any other company, or if substantially all of the assets of the Employer are transferred to another company, then the provisions of this Agreement will be binding upon and inure to the benefit of the company resulting from such merger or consolidation or to which such assets have been transferred, and this provision will apply in the event of any subsequent merger, consolidation, or transfer.

13. Indemnification. The Executive shall be indemnified by the Employer to the extent provided in the case of officers under the Employer's Articles of Incorporation or Regulations, to the maximum extent permitted under applicable law.

14. Taxes. Anything in this Agreement to the contrary notwithstanding, all payments required to be made hereunder by the Employer to the Executive will be subject to withholding of such amounts relating to taxes as the Employer may reasonably determine that it should withhold pursuant to any applicable law or regulations. In lieu of withholding such amounts, in whole or in part, however, the Employer may, in its sole discretion, accept other provision for payment of taxes, provided that it is satisfied that all requirements of the law affecting its responsibilities to withhold such taxes have been satisfied.

15. Arbitration; Enforcement of Rights. Any controversy or claim arising out of, or relating to this Agreement, or the breach thereof, except with respect to Sections 8, 9 and 10, will be settled by arbitration in the city of Columbus, Ohio, in accordance with the Rules of the American Arbitration Association, and judgment upon the award rendered by the arbitrator or arbitrators may be entered in any court having jurisdiction thereof.

All legal and other fees and expenses, including, without limitation, any arbitration expenses, incurred by the Executive in connection with seeking in good faith to obtain or enforce any right or benefit provided for in this Agreement, or in otherwise pursuing any right or claim, will be paid by the Employer, to the extent permitted by law, provided that the Executive is successful in whole or in part as to such claims as the result of litigation, arbitration, or settlement.

In the event that the Employer refuses or otherwise fails to make a payment when due and it is ultimately decided that the Executive is entitled to such payment, such payment will be increased to reflect an interest equivalent for the period of delay, compounded annually, equal to the prime or base lending rate used by Park National Bank, and in effect as of the date the payment was first due.

16. Section 409A Application. This Agreement is intended to comply with the requirements of Section 409A of the Code (to the extent applicable) and the Employer agrees to interpret, apply and administer this Agreement in the least restrictive manner necessary to comply with such requirements and without resulting in any diminution in the value of payments or benefits to the Executive. To the extent that any payments to be provided to the Executive under this Agreement result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code, and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then any such payments shall instead be transferred to a rabbi trust (which shall be created by the Employer or its successor, on terms reasonably acceptable to the Executive, as soon as administratively feasible following the occurrence of an event giving rise to the Executive's right to such payment) and such amounts (together with earnings thereon in accordance with the terms of the trust agreement) shall be transferred from the trust to the Executive upon the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) any other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code. To the extent that any of the non-cash benefits provided to the Executive under this Agreement, including but not limited to the Welfare Benefits, result in the deferral of compensation under Section 409A of the Code and if the Executive is a Specified Employee as defined in Section 409A(a)(2)(B)(i) of the Code, then the Employer or its successor shall, instead of providing such benefits to the Executive as set forth hereinabove, delay the provision of such benefits until the earlier of (i) six months and one day after the Executive's separation from service, or (ii) such other date permitted under Section 409A of the Code; provided, however, on such date the Employer shall be required to pay to the Executive in one lump sum an amount equal to the after-tax costs of the benefits for the period during which the provision of the benefits was delayed as a result of the application of Code Section 409A.

17. Governing Law/Captions/Severance. This Agreement will be construed in accordance with, and pursuant to, the laws of the State of Ohio. The captions of this Agreement will not be part of the provisions hereof, and will have no force or effect. The invalidity or unenforceability of any provision of this Agreement will not affect the validity or enforceability of any other provision of this Agreement. Except as otherwise specifically provided in this Section 17, the failure of any party to insist in any instance on the strict performance of any provision of this Agreement or to exercise any right hereunder will not constitute a waiver of such provision or right in any other instance.

18. Entire Agreement/Amendment. This instrument contains the entire agreement of the parties relating to the subject matter hereof, and the parties have made no agreement, representations, or warranties relating to the subject matter of this Agreement that are not set forth herein. This Agreement may be amended only by mutual written agreement of the parties. However, by signing this Agreement, the Executive agrees without any further consideration, to consent to any amendment necessary to avoid penalties under Section 409A of the Code; provided that such amendment does not have a material adverse economic impact on the Executive.

19. Make Whole Payments. If the payments provided to the Executive pursuant to Section 3(d) of this Agreement, when combined with payments and benefits under all other plans and programs maintained by the Banks or Vision Bancshares whether under this Agreement or otherwise and combined with any other payment or benefit provided to Executive as a result of the Merger (the Payments), are subject to any tax under Section 4999 of the Code, or any similar federal or state law (an Excise Tax), then the Employer shall pay to the Executive an additional amount (the Make Whole Amount). The Make Whole Amount shall be equal to (a) the amount of the Excise Tax, plus (b) the aggregate amount of any interest, penalties, fines or additions to any tax which are imposed in connection with the imposition of such Excise Tax, plus (c) all income, excise and other applicable taxes imposed on the Executive under the laws of any Federal, state or local government or taxing authority by reason of the payments required under clause (a) and clause (b) and this clause (c). The time and manner of calculating any Make Whole Amount, as well as, the procedure for making any tax payments or the treatment of any inquiries by taxing authorities will be determined by mutual agreement of the parties.

Board of Directors
Vision Bancshares, Inc.
2200 Stanford Road
Panama City, Florida 32405

Members of the Board of Directors:

Vision Bancshares, Inc. (Vision) and Park National Corporation (Park) have entered into an Agreement and Plan of Merger (the Agreement), dated as of the 14th day of September, 2006, whereby Vision will merge with and into Park (the Merger), with Park being the surviving corporation and with each issued and outstanding share of common stock of Vision (Vision Common Stock) being converted into the right to receive $25.00 in cash or exchanged for .2475 shares of Park common stock (Park Stock), and any option to purchase Vision Common Stock being converted into the right to receive an amount of cash equal to $25.00 less the exercise price of the option. The terms and conditions of the Merger are more fully set forth in the Agreement. You have requested our opinion as to the fairness, from a financial point of view, as of the date hereof, of the Merger consideration that Park will render.

Burke Capital Group, L.L.C. (BCG) is an investment banking firm which specializes in financial institutions in the United States. Vision has retained us to render our opinion to its Board of Directors.

In connection with this opinion, we have reviewed, among other things:

- (i) The Agreement and certain of the schedules thereto;
- (ii) Certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Vision that it deemed relevant;
- (iii) Projected earnings estimates for Vision for the years ending December 31, 2006 through 2011 prepared by and reviewed with senior management of Vision and the views of senior management regarding Vision's business, financial condition, results of operations and future prospects;
- (iv) Internal financial and operating information with respect to the business, operations and prospects of Vision furnished to BCG by Vision that is not publicly available;
- (v) Certain publicly available financial statements and other historical financial information of Park that it deemed relevant;
- (vi) The reported prices and trading activity of Park's and Vision's common stock and compared those prices and activity with other publicly-traded companies that BCG deemed relevant;
- (vii) The pro forma financial impact of the merger on Park's ability to complete a transaction from a regulatory standpoint, based on assumptions determined by senior management of Vision and BCG;
- (viii) The financial terms of other recent business combinations in the commercial banking industry, to the extent publicly available;

(ix) The current market environment generally and the banking environment in particular;

(x) Such other information, financial studies, analyses and investigations and financial, economic and market criteria as it considered relevant.

In performing our review, we have relied upon the accuracy and completeness of the financial and other information that was available to us from public sources, that Vision and Park or their respective representatives provided to us or that was otherwise reviewed. We have further relied on the assurances of management of Vision and Park that they are not aware of any facts or circumstances that would make any of such information inaccurate or misleading. We have not been asked to and have not undertaken an independent verification of any of such information and we do not assume any responsibility or liability for the accuracy or completeness thereof. We did not make an independent evaluation or appraisal of the specific assets, the collateral securing assets or the liabilities (contingent or otherwise) of Vision, Park or any of their subsidiaries, or the collectibility of any such assets, nor have we been furnished with any such evaluations or appraisals. We did not make an independent evaluation of the adequacy of the allowance for loan losses of Vision or Park, nor have we reviewed any individual credit files relating to Vision or Park. We have assumed, with Vision management's consent, that the respective allowances for loan losses for both Vision and Park are adequate to cover such losses and will be adequate on a pro forma basis for the combined entity. With respect to the earnings estimates for Vision and Park and all projections of transaction costs, purchase accounting adjustments and expected cost savings that we reviewed with the management of Vision, BCG assumed, with Vision management's consent, that they reflected the best currently available estimates and judgments of the respective managements of the respective future financial performances of Vision and Park and that such performances will be achieved. We express no opinion as to such earnings estimates or financial projections or the assumptions on which they are based. We have assumed in all respects material to our analysis that Vision and Park will remain as going concerns for all periods relevant to our analyses, that all of the representations and warranties contained in the Agreement and all related agreements are true and correct, that each party to the Agreement and such other related agreements will perform all of the covenants they are required to perform thereunder and that the conditions precedent in the Agreement and such other related agreements are not waived.

Our opinion is necessarily based on financial, economic, market and other conditions as in effect on, and the information made available to us as of, the date hereof. Events occurring after the date hereof could materially affect this opinion. We have not undertaken to update, revise, reaffirm or withdraw this opinion or otherwise comment upon events occurring after the date hereof. We are expressing no opinion herein as to what the price at which Vision's common stock may trade at any time.

We will receive a fee for our services as financial advisor to Vision and for rendering this opinion. BCG does not have an investment banking relationship with Park; nor does it have any contractual relationship with Park.

This opinion is directed to the Board of Directors of Vision and may not be reproduced, summarized, described or referred to or given to any other person without our prior consent.

Based upon and subject to the foregoing, it is our opinion that, as of the date hereof, the amount of the Merger consideration is fair from a financial point of view.

Very Truly Yours,

Dissenters Rights under Sections 10-2B-13.01 through 10-2B-13.32 of the Alabama Business Corporation Act

Article 13 Dissenters Rights

Division A Right to Dissent and Obtain Payment for Shares

Section 10-2B-13.01 Definitions.

(1) Corporate action means the filing of articles of merger or share exchange by the probate judge or Secretary of State, or other action giving legal effect to a transaction that is the subject of dissenters rights.

(2) Corporation means the issuer of shares held by a dissenter before the corporate action, or the surviving or acquiring corporation by merger or share exchange of that issuer.

(3) Dissenter means a shareholder who is entitled to dissent from corporate action under Section 10-2B-13.02 and who exercises that right when and in the manner required by Sections 10-2B-13.20 through 10-2B-13.28.

(4) Fair Value, with respect to a dissenter's shares, means the value of the shares immediately before the effectuation of the corporate action to which the dissenter objects, excluding any appreciation or depreciation in anticipation of the corporate action unless exclusion would be inequitable.

(5) Interest means interest from the effective date of the corporate action until the date of payment, at the average rate currently paid by the corporation on its principal bank loans, or, if none, at a rate that is fair and equitable under all circumstances.

(6) Record shareholder means the person in whose name shares are registered in the records of a corporation or the beneficial owner of shares to the extent of the rights granted by a nominee certificate on file with a corporation.

(7) Beneficial shareholder means the person who is a beneficial owner of shares held in a voting trust or by a nominee as the record shareholder.

(8) Shareholder means the record shareholder or the beneficial shareholder.

Section 10-2B-13.02 Right to dissent.

(a) A shareholder is entitled to dissent from, and obtain payment of the fair value of his or her shares in the event of, any of the following corporate actions:

(1) Consummation of a plan of merger to which the corporation is a party (i) if shareholder approval is required for the merger by Section 10-2B-11.03 or the articles of incorporation and the shareholder is entitled to vote on the merger or (ii) if the corporation is a subsidiary that is merged with its parent under Section 10-2B-11.04;

(2) Consummation of a plan of share exchange to which the corporation is a party as the corporation whose shares will be acquired, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the plan;

(3) Consummation of a sale or exchange by all, or substantially all, of the property of the corporation other than in the usual and regular course of business, if the shareholder is entitled to vote on the sale or exchange, including a sale in dissolution, but not including a sale pursuant to court order or a sale for cash pursuant to a plan by which all or substantially all of the net proceeds of the sale will be distributed to the shareholders within one year after the date of sale;

(4) To the extent that the articles of incorporation of the corporation so provide, an amendment of the articles of incorporation that materially and adversely affects rights in respect to a dissenter's shares because it:

Table of Contents

(ii) Creates, alters, or abolishes a right in respect of redemption, including a provision respecting a sinking fund for the redemption or repurchase of the shares;

(iii) Alters or abolishes a preemptive right of the holder of the shares to acquire shares or other securities;

(iv) Excludes or limits the right of the shares to vote on any matter, or to cumulate votes, other than a limitation by dilution through issuance of shares or other securities with similar voting rights; or

(v) Reduces the number of shares owned by the shareholder to a fraction of a share if the fractional share so created is to be acquired for cash under Section 10-2B-6.04; or

(5) Any corporate action taken pursuant to a shareholder vote to the extent the articles of incorporation, bylaws, or a resolution of the board of directors provides that voting or nonvoting shareholders are entitled to dissent and obtain payment for their shares.

(b) A shareholder entitled to dissent and obtain payment for shares under this chapter may not challenge the corporate action creating his or her entitlement unless the action is unlawful or fraudulent with respect to the shareholder or the corporation.

Section 10-2B-13.03 Dissent by nominees and beneficial owners.

(a) A record shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to fewer than all of the shares registered in his or her name only if he or she dissents with respect to all shares beneficially owned by any one person and notifies the corporation in writing of the name and address of each person on whose behalf he or she asserts dissenters' rights. The rights of a partial dissenter under this subsection are determined as if the shares to which he or she dissents and his or her other shares were registered in the names of different shareholders.

(b) A beneficial shareholder may assert dissenters' rights as to shares held on his or her behalf only if:

(1) He or she submits to the corporation the record shareholder's written consent to the dissent not later than the time the beneficial shareholder asserts dissenters' rights; and

(2) He or she does so with respect to all shares of which he or she is the beneficial shareholder or over which he or she has power to direct the vote.

Division B Procedure for Exercise of Dissenters' Rights

Section 10-2B-13.20 Notice of dissenters' rights.

(b) If corporate action creating dissenters' rights under Section 10-2B-13.02 is taken without a vote of shareholders, the corporation shall (1) notify in writing all shareholders entitled to assert dissenters' rights that the action was taken; and (2) send them the dissenters' notice described in Section 10-2B-13.22.

(c) Each dissenter who agrees to accept the corporation's offer of payment in full satisfaction of his or her demand must surrender to the corporation the certificate or certificates representing his or her shares in accordance with terms of the dissenter's notice. Upon receiving the certificate or certificates, the corporation shall pay each dissenter the fair value of his or her shares, plus accrued interest, as provided in subsection (a). Upon receiving payment, a dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in the shares.

(2) The corporation fails to make an offer under Section 10-2B-13.25 within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment; or

(3) The corporation, having failed to take the proposed action, does not release the transfer restrictions imposed on shares within 60 days after the date set for demanding payment.

(a) If a demand for payment under Section 10-2B-13.28 remains unsettled, the corporation shall commence a proceeding within 60 days after receiving the payment demand and petition the court to determine the fair value of the

(b) The corporation shall commence the proceeding in the circuit court of the county where the corporation's principal office (or, if none in this state, its registered office) is located. If the corporation is a foreign corporation without a registered office in this state, it shall commence the proceeding in the county in this state where the registered office of the domestic corporation merged with or whose shares were acquired by the foreign corporation was located.

(c) The corporation shall make all dissenters (whether or not residents of this state) whose demands remain unsettled parties to the proceeding as in an action against their shares, and all parties must be served with a copy of the petition. Table of Contents

(d) After service is completed, the corporation shall deposit with the clerk of the court an amount sufficient to pay unsettled claims of all dissenters party to the action in an amount per share equal to its prior estimate of fair value, plus accrued interest, under Section 10-2B-13.25.

(e) The jurisdiction of the court in which the proceeding is commenced under subsection (b) is plenary and exclusive. The court may appoint one or more persons as appraisers to receive evidence and recommend decision on the question of fair value. The appraisers have the powers described in the order appointing them, or in any amendment to it. The dissenters are entitled to the same discovery rights as parties in other civil proceedings.

(f) Each dissenter made a party to the proceeding is entitled to judgment for the amount the court finds to be the fair value of his or her shares, plus accrued interest. If the court's determination as to the fair value of a dissenter's shares, plus accrued interest, is higher than the amount estimated by the corporation and deposited with the clerk of the court pursuant to subsection (d), the corporation shall pay the excess to the dissenting shareholder. If the court's determination as to fair value, plus accrued interest, of a dissenter's shares is less than the amount estimated by the corporation and deposited with the clerk of the court pursuant to subsection (d), then the clerk shall return the balance of funds deposited, less any costs under Section 10-2B-13.31, to the corporation.

(g) Upon payment of the judgment, and surrender to the corporation of the certificate or certificates representing the appraised shares, a dissenting shareholder ceases to have any interest in the shares.

Section 10-2B-13.31 Court costs and counsel fees.

(a) The court in an appraisal proceeding commenced under Section 10-2B-13.30 shall determine all costs of the proceeding, including compensation and expenses of appraisers appointed by the court. The court shall assess the costs against the corporation, except that the court may assess costs against all or some of the dissenters, in amounts the court finds equitable, to the extent the court finds the dissenters acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith in demanding payment under Section 10-2B-13.28.

(b) The court may also assess the reasonable fees and expenses of counsel and experts for the respective parties, in amounts the court finds equitable:

(1) Against the corporation and in favor of any or all dissenters if the court finds the corporation did not substantially comply with the requirements of Sections 10-2B-13.20 through 10-2B-13.28; or

(2) Against either the corporation or a dissenter, in favor of any other party, if the court finds that the party against whom the fees and expenses are assessed acted arbitrarily, vexatiously, or not in good faith with respect to the rights provided by this chapter.

(c) If the court finds that the services of counsel for any dissenter were of substantial benefit to other dissenters similarly situated, and that the fees for those services should not be assessed against the corporation, the court may award to these counsel reasonable fees to be paid out of the amounts awarded the dissenters who were benefitted.

Section 10-2B-13.32 Status of shares after payment.

Shares acquired by a corporation pursuant to payment of the agreed value therefor or to payment of the judgment entered therefor, as in this chapter provided, may be held and disposed of by such corporation as in the case of other treasury shares, except that, in the case of a merger or share exchange, they may be held and disposed of as the plan of merger or share exchange may otherwise provide.

Item 20. Indemnification of Directors and Officers.

(a) Ohio General Corporation Law

Section 1701.13(E) of the Ohio Revised Code grants corporations broad powers to indemnify directors, officers, employees and agents. Section 1701.13(E) provides:

(E) (1) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action, suit, or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative, or investigative, other than an action by or in the right of the corporation, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, judgments, fines, and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit, or proceeding, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, if he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. The termination of any action, suit, or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement, or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, create a presumption that the person did not act in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and, with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.

(2) A corporation may indemnify or agree to indemnify any person who was or is a party, or is threatened to be made a party, to any threatened, pending, or completed action or suit by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor, by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the defense or settlement of such action or suit, if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, except that no indemnification shall be made in respect of any of the following:

(a) Any claim, issue, or matter as to which such person is adjudged to be liable for negligence or misconduct in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless, and only to the extent that, the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought determines, upon application, that, despite the adjudication of liability, but in view of all the circumstances of the case, such person is fairly and reasonably entitled to indemnity for such expenses as the court of common pleas or such other court shall deem proper;

(b) Any action or suit in which the only liability asserted against a director is pursuant to section 1701.95 of the Revised Code.

(3) To the extent that a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, or in defense of any claim, issue, or matter therein, he shall be indemnified against expenses, including attorney's fees, actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with the action, suit, or proceeding.

(4) Any indemnification under division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, unless ordered by a court, shall be made by the corporation only as authorized in the specific case, upon a determination that indemnification of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section. Such determination shall be made as follows:

(a) By a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the indemnifying corporation who were not and are not parties to or threatened with the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section;

(b) If the quorum described in division (E)(4)(a) of this section is not obtainable or if a majority vote of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation or any person to be indemnified within the past five years;

(c) By the shareholders;

(d) By the court of common pleas or the court in which the action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section was brought.

Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (E)(4)(a) or by independent legal counsel under division (E)(4)(b) of this section shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought the action or suit by or in the right of the corporation under division (E)(2) of this section, and, within ten days after receipt of such notification, such person shall have the right to petition the court of common pleas or the court in which such action or suit was brought to review the reasonableness of such determination.

(5) (a) Unless at the time of a director's act or omission that is the subject of an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, the articles or the regulations of a corporation state, by specific reference to this division, that the provisions of this division do not apply to the corporation and unless the only liability asserted against a director in an action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section is pursuant to section 1701.95 of the Revised Code, expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director in defending the action, suit, or proceeding shall be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director in which he agrees to do both of the following:

(i) Repay such amount if it is proved by clear and convincing evidence in a court of competent jurisdiction that his action or failure to act involved an act or omission undertaken with deliberate intent to cause injury to the corporation or undertaken with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation;

(ii) Reasonably cooperate with the corporation concerning the action, suit, or proceeding.

(b) Expenses, including attorney's fees, incurred by a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent in defending any action, suit, or proceeding referred to in division (E)(1) or (2) of this section, may be paid by the corporation as they are incurred, in advance of the final disposition of the action, suit, or proceeding, as authorized by the directors in the specific case, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent to repay such amount, if it ultimately is determined that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation.

(6) The indemnification authorized by this section shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights granted to those seeking indemnification under the articles, the regulations, any agreement, a vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in their official capacities and as to action in another capacity while holding their offices or positions, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors,

(7) A corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including, but not limited to, trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of or for any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the power to indemnify him against such liability under this section. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

(8) The authority of a corporation to indemnify persons pursuant to division (E)(1) or (2) of this section does not limit the payment of expenses as they are incurred, indemnification, insurance, or other protection that may be provided pursuant to divisions (E)(5), (6), and (7) of this section. Divisions (E)(1) and (2) of this section do not create any obligation to repay or return payments made by the corporation pursuant to division (E)(5), (6), or (7).

(9) As used in division (E) of this section, corporation includes all constituent entities in a consolidation or merger and the new or surviving corporation, so that any person who is or was a director, officer, employee, trustee, member, manager, or agent of such a constituent entity, or is or was serving at the request of such constituent entity as a director, trustee, officer, employee, member, manager, or agent of another corporation, domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit, a limited liability company, or a partnership, joint venture, trust, or other enterprise, shall stand in the same position under this section with respect to the new or surviving corporation as he would if he had served the new or surviving corporation in the same capacity.

(b) Regulations of Park

INDEMNIFICATION AND INSURANCE

Section 5.01. Mandatory Indemnification. The corporation shall indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was or is a party or is threatened to be made a party to any threatened, pending or completed action, suit or proceeding, whether civil, criminal, administrative or investigative (including, without limitation, any action threatened or instituted by or in the right of the corporation), by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs), judgments, fines and amounts paid in settlement actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection with such action, suit or proceeding if he acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal action or proceeding, he had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful. A person claiming indemnification under this Section 5.01 shall be presumed, in respect of any act or omission giving rise to such claim for indemnification, to have acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in or not opposed to the best interests of the corporation, and with respect to any criminal matter, to have had no reasonable cause to believe his conduct was unlawful, and the termination of any action, suit or proceeding by judgment, order, settlement or conviction, or upon a plea of nolo contendere or its equivalent, shall not, of itself, rebut such presumption.

Section 5.02. Court-Approved Indemnification. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding:

(A) the corporation shall not indemnify any officer or director of the corporation who was a party to any completed action or suit instituted by or in the right of the corporation to procure a judgment in its favor by reason of the fact that he is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in such action or suit as to which he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances of the case, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to such indemnity as such Court of Common Pleas or such other court shall deem proper; and

(B) the corporation shall promptly make any such unpaid indemnification as is determined by a court to be proper as contemplated by this Section 5.02.

Section 5.03. Indemnification for Expenses. Anything contained in the Regulations or elsewhere to the contrary notwithstanding, to the extent that an officer or director of the corporation has been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or matter therein, he shall be promptly indemnified by the corporation against expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs) actually and reasonably incurred by him in connection therewith.

Section 5.04 Determination Required. Any indemnification required under Section 5.01 and not precluded under Section 5.02 shall be made by the corporation only upon a determination that such indemnification of the officer or director is proper in the circumstances because he has met the applicable standard of conduct set forth in Section 5.01. Such determination may be made only (A) by a majority vote of a quorum consisting of directors of the corporation who were not and are not parties to, or threatened with, any such action, suit or proceeding, or (B) if such a quorum is not obtainable or if a majority of a quorum of disinterested directors so directs, in a written opinion by independent legal counsel other than an attorney, or a firm having associated with it an attorney, who has been retained by or who has performed services for the corporation, or any person to be indemnified, within the past five years, or (C) by the shareholders, or (D) by the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or (if the corporation is a party thereto) the court in which such action, suit or proceeding was brought, if any; any such determination may be made by a court under division (D) of this Section 5.04 at any time [including, without limitation, any time before, during or after the time when any such determination may be requested of, be under consideration by or have been denied or disregarded by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by the shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04]; and no failure for any reason to make any such determination, and no decision for any reason to deny any such determination, by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) or by shareholders under division (C) of this Section 5.04 shall be evidence in rebuttal of the presumption recited in Section 5.01. Any determination made by the disinterested directors under division (A) or by independent legal counsel under division (B) of this Section 5.04 to make indemnification in respect of any claim, issue or matter asserted in an action or suit threatened or brought by or in the right of the corporation shall be promptly communicated to the person who threatened or brought such action or suit, and within ten (10) days after receipt of such notification such person shall have the right to petition the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought, if any, to review the reasonableness of such determination.

Section 5.05. Advances for Expenses. Expenses (including, without limitation, attorneys fees, filing fees, court reporters fees and transcript costs) incurred in defending any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01 shall be paid by the corporation in advance of the final disposition of such action, suit or proceeding to or on behalf of the officer or director promptly as such expenses are incurred by him, but only if such officer or director shall first agree, in writing, to repay all amounts so paid in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted in such action, suit or proceeding in defense of which he shall not have been successful on the merits or otherwise:

(A) if it shall ultimately be determined as provided in Section 5.04 that he is not entitled to be indemnified by the corporation as provided under Section 5.01; or

(B) if, in respect of any claim, issue or other matter asserted by or in the right of the corporation in such action or suit, he shall have been adjudged to be liable for acting with reckless disregard for the best interests of the corporation or misconduct (other than negligence) in the performance of his duty to the corporation, unless and only to the extent that the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio or the court in which such action or suit was brought shall determine upon application that, despite such adjudication of liability, and in view of all the circumstances, he is fairly and reasonably entitled to all or part of such indemnification.

Section 5.06. Article FIVE Not Exclusive. The indemnification provided by this Article FIVE shall not be exclusive of, and shall be in addition to, any other rights to which any person seeking indemnification may be entitled under the Articles or the Regulations or any agreement, vote of shareholders or disinterested directors, or otherwise, both as to action in his official capacity and as to action in another capacity while holding such office, and shall continue as to a person who has ceased to be an officer or director of the corporation and shall inure to the benefit of the heirs, executors, and administrators of such a person.

Section 5.07. Insurance. The corporation may purchase and maintain insurance or furnish similar protection, including but not limited to trust funds, letters of credit, or self-insurance, on behalf of any person who is or was a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation, or is or was serving at the request of the corporation as a director, trustee, officer, employee, or agent of another corporation (domestic or foreign, nonprofit or for profit), partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against him and incurred by him in any such capacity, or arising out of his status as such, whether or not the corporation would have the obligation or the power to indemnify him against such liability under the provisions of this Article FIVE. Insurance may be purchased from or maintained with a person in which the corporation has a financial interest.

Section 5.08. Certain Definitions. For purposes of this Article FIVE, and as examples and not by way of limitation:

(A) A person claiming indemnification under this Article FIVE shall be deemed to have been successful on the merits or otherwise in defense of any action, suit or proceeding referred to in Section 5.01, or in defense of any claim, issue or other matter therein, if such action, suit or proceeding shall be terminated as to such person, with or without prejudice, without the entry of a judgment or order against him, without a conviction of him, without the imposition of a fine upon him and without his payment or agreement to pay any amount in settlement thereof (whether or not any such termination is based upon a judicial or other determination of the lack of merit of the claims made against him or otherwise results in a vindication of him); and

(B) References to an other enterprise shall include employee benefit plans; references to a fine shall include any excise taxes assessed on a person with respect to an employee benefit plan; and references to serving at the request of the corporation shall include any service as a director, officer, employee or agent of the corporation which imposes duties on, or involves services by, such director, officer, employee or agent with respect to an employee benefit plan, its participants or beneficiaries; and a person who acted in good faith and in a manner he reasonably believed to be in the best interests of the participants and beneficiaries of an employee benefit plan shall be deemed to have acted in a manner not opposed to the best interests of the corporation within the meaning of that term as used in this Article FIVE.

Section 5.09. Venue. Any action, suit or proceeding to determine a claim for indemnification under this Article FIVE may be maintained by the person claiming such indemnification, or by the corporation, in the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio. The corporation and (by claiming such indemnification) each such person consent to the exercise of jurisdiction over its or his person by the Court of Common Pleas of Licking County, Ohio in any such action, suit or proceeding.

(c) Insurance

Park has purchased insurance coverage under policies that insure directors and officers against certain liabilities that might be incurred by them in their capacities as directors and officers.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, any increase or decrease in volume of securities offered (if the total dollar value of securities offered would not exceed that which was registered) and any deviation from the low or high end of the estimated maximum offering range may be reflected in the form of prospectus filed with the Securities and Exchange Commission pursuant to Rule 424(b) if, in the aggregate, the changes in volume and price represent no more than a 20% change in the maximum aggregate offering price set forth in the Calculation of Registration Fee table in the effective registration statement; and

(iii) To include any material information with respect to the plan of distribution not previously disclosed in the registration statement or any material change to such information in the registration statement;

(2) That, for the purpose of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(3) To remove from registration by means of a post-effective amendment any of the securities being registered which remain unsold at the termination of the offering.

(b) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each filing of the Registrant's annual report pursuant to section 13(a) or section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934 (and, where applicable, each filing of an employee benefit plan's annual report pursuant to section 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934) that is incorporated by reference in the registration statement shall be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time shall be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(c)(1) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes as follows: that prior to any public reoffering of the securities registered hereunder through use of a prospectus which is a part of this registration statement, by any person or party who is deemed to be an underwriter within the meaning of Rule 145(c), the issuer undertakes that such reoffering prospectus will contain the information called for by the applicable registration form with respect to reofferings by persons who may be deemed underwriters, in addition to the information called for by the other items of the applicable form.

(2) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes that every prospectus (i) that is filed pursuant to paragraph (1) immediately preceding, or (ii) that purports to meet the requirements of section 10(a)(3) of the Securities Act of 1933 and is used in connection with an offering of securities subject to Rule 415, will be filed as a part of an amendment to the registration statement and will not be used until such amendment is effective, and that, for purposes of determining any liability under the Securities Act of 1933, each such post-effective amendment will be deemed to be a new registration statement relating to the securities offered therein, and the offering of such securities at that time will be deemed to be the initial bona fide offering thereof.

(d) Insofar as indemnification for liabilities arising under the Securities Act of 1933 may be permitted to directors, officers and controlling persons of the Registrant pursuant to the foregoing provisions, or otherwise, the Registrant has been advised that in the opinion of the Securities and Exchange Commission such indemnification is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and is, therefore, unenforceable. In the event that a claim for indemnification against such liabilities (other than the payment by the Registrant of expenses incurred or paid by a director, officer or controlling person of the Registrant in the successful defense of any action, suit or proceeding) is asserted by such director, officer or controlling person in connection with the securities being registered, the Registrant will, unless in the opinion of its counsel the matter has been settled by controlling precedent, submit to a court of appropriate jurisdiction the question whether such indemnification by it is against public policy as expressed in the Securities Act of 1933 and will be governed by the final adjudication of such issue.

(e) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to respond to requests for information that is incorporated by reference into the prospectus/proxy statement which forms a part of the registration statement pursuant to Item 4, 10(b), 11 or 13 of this Form, within one business day of receipt of such request, and to send the incorporated documents by first class mail or other equally prompt means. This includes information contained in documents filed subsequent to the effective date of the registration statement through the date of responding to the request.

(f) The undersigned Registrant hereby undertakes to supply by means of a post-effective amendment all information concerning a transaction, and the company being acquired involved therein, that was not the subject of and included in the registration statement when it became effective.
