ITEM 1.01 ENTRY INTO A MATERIAL DEFINITIVE AGREEMENT

On May 7, 2009, Delphi Corporation (Delphi or the Company) entered into a further amendment (the Third Amendment), to its accommodation agreement (as previously amended and supplemented through the date hereof, the Accommodation Agreement), with the lenders under its existing debtor-in-possession financing agreement (the Amended and Restated DIP Credit Facility), consisting of a $1.1 billion first priority revolving credit facility (the Tranche A Facility), a $500 million first priority term loan (the Tranche B Term Loan) and a $2.75 billion second priority term loan (the Tranche C Term Loan). The Third Amendment was immediately effective, however, it is subject to certain post-closing conditions including receipt of approval of the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Southern District of New York (the Court) (which may be on an interim basis provided final approval is granted before May 23, 2009) and the payment of fees and certain expenses to consenting lenders. On May 7, 2009, the Court approved on an interim basis the Third Amendment.

Pursuant to the Accommodation Agreement, the lenders have agreed, among other things, to allow Delphi to continue using the proceeds of the Amended and Restated DIP Credit Facility and to forbear from the exercise of certain default-related remedies, in each case until June 30, 2009 subject to the continued satisfaction by Delphi of a number of covenants and conditions. The Accommodation Agreement contains certain milestone dates, which if not met require Delphi to apply the $92 million currently held as cash collateral (the Basket) to pay down a portion of the Tranche A Facility and Tranche B Term Loan (the Repayment Obligation) and may result in an event of default and termination of the accommodation period. One such milestone in the Accommodation Agreement (prior to the effectiveness of the Third Amendment) was that on or before May 4, 2009, Delphi was required to deliver to the agent under the Amended and Restated DIP Credit Facility a detailed term sheet (the Term Sheet), which has been agreed to by both General Motors Corporation (GM) and the United States Treasury and which sets forth the terms of a global resolution of matters relating to GM's contribution to the resolution of Delphi's chapter 11 cases, including, without limitation, all material transactions between Delphi and GM relevant to such resolution. The failure to deliver the Term Sheet on or prior to May 4, 2009 triggered a Repayment Obligation due on May 5, 2009. The failure to deliver the Term Sheet on or prior to May 4, 2009 and to satisfy the Repayment Obligation on May 5, 2009 were events of default under the Accommodation Agreement. Failure to cure an event of default prior to expiration of the applicable three-business day grace period (or prior to a notice by the requisite lenders terminating the accommodation period during such grace period) would have resulted in a termination of the accommodation period under the Accommodation Agreement. Accordingly, had Delphi not entered into the Third Amendment, the accommodation period would have terminated if Delphi did not cure the defaults on or before May 8, 2009. The Third Amendment, among other things extends the date to deliver the Term Sheet until May 21, 2009 and would permit Delphi to avoid the Repayment Obligation and continue using the proceeds of the Amended and Restated DIP Credit Facility provided Delphi complies with the provisions of the Accommodation Agreement as amended by the Third Amendment. The following description of the Third Amendment is qualified in its entirety by the text of the Third Amendment, a copy of which is filed as Exhibit 99(a) to this report and incorporated by reference herein. A description of the material terms of the Accommodation Agreement prior to such modifications is set forth in Delphi's Current Reports on Form 8-K filed with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission on March 31, 2009, as amended on April 1, 2009 solely for the purposes of adding an exhibit, April 3, 2009, as amended on April 7, 2009 solely for the purposes of adding another exhibit, and April 23, 2009 (the Original Forms 8-K), which descriptions are incorporated herein by reference.

The Third Amendment extends the milestone dates in the Accommodation Agreement. Specifically the Third Amendment requires a Term Sheet to be delivered by May 21, 2009 and provides that the Repayment Obligation will be triggered and an event of default under the Accommodation Agreement will occur (i) on May 22, 2009 if the Term Sheet is not delivered by May 21, 2009 or (ii) in the event that a majority of the Tranche A and Tranche B lenders who have signed the Accommodation Agreement or a majority of all lenders who have signed the Accommodation Agreement either (A) notify Delphi within 3 business days of delivery of the Term Sheet that the Term Sheet is not satisfactory or (B) fail to notify Delphi within such time period that the Term Sheet is satisfactory. In addition, the accommodation period under the Accommodation Agreement will terminate (a) at any time during the occurrence and during the continuation of an event of default under the Accommodation Agreement resulting from a failure to timely deliver the Term Sheet or to satisfy the Repayment Obligation, in each case upon the direction by the Tranche A and Tranche B lenders who have signed the Accommodation Agreement or upon the direction of a majority of all lenders who have signed the Accommodation Agreement (or in any event, upon the expiration of a five business day period beginning upon such event of default, in the case of a failure to satisfy the Repayment Obligation) and (b) upon expiration of a five business day period beginning upon notice by the requisite lenders described above that the Term Sheet is not satisfactory or Delphi not receiving notice that the Term Sheet is satisfactory. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the accommodation period under the Accommodation Agreement will terminate on June 2, 2009 in the event that a majority of the Tranche A and Tranche B lenders who have signed the Accommodation Agreement and a majority of all lenders who signed the Accommodation Agreement have not notified Delphi that the Term Sheet is satisfactory on or before June 1, 2009. The provisions in the Amendment regarding Delphi's access to amounts in certain cash collateral accounts remain in effect, including the definition of Minimum Borrowing Base Collateral Account Balance. This provision provides Delphi access to the cash collateral account down to $115 million from its current balance of $160 million under certain conditions.

In conjunction with the effectiveness of the Third Amendment, $45 million of amounts in the Basket were ratably applied to pay down principal amounts outstanding under the Tranche A Facility and Tranche B Term Loan with the result that there currently remains approximately $230 million and $311 million outstanding under each facility, respectively. There currently remains approximately $2.75 billion outstanding under the Tranche C Term Loan. For information regarding the current terms of the Accommodation Agreement, as modified, which is not otherwise set forth in this Current Report on Form 8-K, including the covenants and conditions of the lenders' continued forbearance from exercising remedies through the accommodation period and the remaining conditions which must be satisfied to receive additional liquidity support under the Accommodation Agreement, including the ability to access the Basket, see Delphi's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the year ended December 31, 2008 (the Annual Report), including the exhibits to the Annual Report, and the Original Forms 8-K. Although Delphi is currently in compliance with the terms of the Accommodation Agreement, Delphi's continued compliance and access to sufficient liquidity to fund its working capital requirements and operations is dependent on a number of factors, including Delphi timely satisfying the provisions in the Third Amendment and administrative creditors, including its suppliers, continuing to provide services and goods on customary payment terms. Delphi believes that the Third Amendment will allow additional time to engage with the United States Treasury, GM, its lenders and other principal stakeholders to agree on a consensual resolution of its chapter 11 cases. In addition, Delphi believes that such discussions will facilitate agreement on additional liquidity support from its stakeholders to allow it to continue operations until a consensual resolution can be implemented, including an extension of the accommodation period in the Accommodation Agreement as amended by the Third Amendment beyond June 30, 2009. However, notwithstanding the fact that on several occasions since the scheduled maturity of the Amended and Restated DIP Credit Agreement Delphi has been able to negotiate similar extensions thereby maintaining access to liquidity, such discussions are ongoing and we can provide no assurances this will be the case.

ITEM 2.04 TRIGGERING EVENTS THAT ACCELERATE OR INCREASE A DIRECT FINANCIAL OBLIGATION OR AN OBLIGATION UNDER AN OFF-BALANCE SHEET ARRANGEMENT

The disclosure under Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K is incorporated by reference into this Item 2.04. The failure to deliver the Term Sheet on or prior to May 4, 2009 triggered a Repayment Obligation due on May 5, 2009. The failure to deliver the Term Sheet on or prior to May 4, 2009 and to satisfy the Repayment Obligation on May 5, 2009 would have each been events of default under the Accommodation Agreement. Failure to cure an event of default prior to expiration of the applicable three-business day grace period (or prior to a notice by the requisite lenders terminating the accommodation period during such grace period) would have resulted in a termination of the accommodation period under the Accommodation Agreement. However, on May 7, 2009, the lenders agreed to extend the due date for delivery of the Term Sheet until May 21, 2009. See the terms of the Third Amendment described in Item 1.01 of this Current Report on Form 8-K.
