Avnet, Inc., the registrant ("Avnet"), is the successor in interest to Kent Electronics Corporation ("Kent"), which merged directly into Avnet effective as of June 8, 2001.

The Kent Electronics Tax Deferred Savings and Retirement Plan made a complete change of service providers effective on January 1, 2000. This change encompassed switching from Smith Barney Corporate Trust with Milliman and Robertson as Record keeper to an internet based daily valued plan with Paine Webber Trust and PFPC as Record keeper. The conversion process took much longer than expected and encountered many obstacles. The year-end plan reconciliation analysis has taken an unusually long period of time due to delays and errors in recordkeeping. Paine Webber Trust encountered issues in their own reconciliation, and did not send the December 31, 2000 Trust Reports to Kent until mid-May, 2001. Once received, Kent discovered multiple posting errors and reporting errors that had to be corrected prior to the audit. During the audit and as financial statements were prepared, additional errors were discovered that had to be corrected. This has delayed the final preparation of the financials for reporting purposes. We have utilized all resources available to us to expedite the process but were unable to meet the filing deadline.
